

Doomsday 40

Chapter 40: Plan a small base

"I don't agree!" Li Sheng, who was half lying on the sofa, had a gloomy face and a low voice.

Li Sheng is a little different from Fatty. Li Sheng has a cold face and a warm heart. He speaks few words but is persistent in his heart. Once he is sure of one thing, he will never change. Since that day, he decided to follow Di Ping from the bottom of his heart. If you care, it can be said that Di Ping's interests are his highest interests, so it is normal for him to disagree.

People like Li Sheng are a bit like ancient knights in the West. The most important thing is persistence and loyalty. He can live or die for the object of allegiance.

This kind of people is very rare in this society, and it can be said to be a different kind. In this century, money is supreme, everyone is himself, and everything is self-centered. In ancient times, the loyal and righteous ambition of people who died for their confidants seemed to them. It's just stupid two hundred and five, so people like Li Sheng can be said to be a rare species.

People like him usually have few friends and never give affection easily, but they don't hesitate to go through fire and water when they give.

"I don't agree!"

Lao Luo's boring gourd also spoke up. Lao Luo adheres to the principle of equivalent exchange. For him, he is willing to help others without harming himself, but this dangerous rescue obviously does not conform to his survival logic. , He is definitely unwilling, not everyone can do nothing, this is normal.

"We also think it's too dangerous!"

At this time, Liu Bingyu's soft voice came. Di Ping saw the eye contact between these three girlfriends and knew that this meant what the three of them meant. Basically everyone here did not agree to the rescue, I am afraid it would really be shelved.

In fact, from the heart, Di Ping is not willing. He is not a selfless great saint. If he has the ability to save him, he will not refuse. However, although his strength is not bad now, who knows that a mutant crocodile like Emperor Lake has another How many are there?

The most important thing is that his system has just begun to appear, everything has just started, if he goes out by himself, what should he do if something goes wrong? Not only does he have this group of people to take care of, but also his parents are waiting for him to rescue him. He cannot easily Abandon life. .

"Di·System mission is released, mission rescue: successfully complete the mission, reward 500 coins, a weapon of black gold war knife, deduct 100 coins if the mission fails, will the host take it?"

When he was about to speak and decided not to go to the rescue, a system voice rang in his mind, and a task appeared, which immediately interrupted what he was about to say.

For Di Ping, although he has unlocked his potential and completed his career inheritance, he is basically just a college student who has just graduated for two years. Although he has achieved small achievements in these years and his temperament has grown rapidly, he is still a It is impossible for ordinary people who grew up in peaceful times to face unknown dangers without fear.

Although Di Ping had a vague idea about the world after the system was established, he had to wait for a certain amount of strength, let alone the world with his current strength, and it would be good to save himself; but now it's different. It's a task. Five hundred crystal coins are a lot of rewards. In the past few days, he has only gotten twenty or so. The most important thing is a war knife. He has long felt that the Han sword in his hand is not enough. Isn't this the same as giving pillows to sleepy?

Although it is dangerous, it is different with benefits.

Hasn't the great Marx said it? If there are 50% profits, capital will take risks; for 100% profits, capital will dare to trample all the laws of the world, and Di Ping feels that he is now a capitalist, and he can take risks for the sake of crystal coins.

He is short of money now! Five hundred crystal coins drooled as they listened, and there was a black gold sword, which was a good thing, so he had to take this task, and he had to complete it.

Since things have to be done, he is not hesitating, looking forward and backward is not his style, otherwise he will not make millions of assets in just three years.

"No more arguing!"

When Di Ping thought of this, he immediately made a decision and shocked everyone who was arguing in a low voice. Then he slowly said, "I know you are all for my good, and I'm afraid it's too dangerous." As he said, his expression darkened, and he said with some emotion, "But this Thousands of lives.... It's really impossible to justify without putting all your energy into your heart!"

"Brother Di..."

Several people exclaimed and looked at Di Ping in amazement, as if they didn't believe how he suddenly made such a decision. Is this obviously going to die?

"Don't worry!"

Di Ping waved his hand to stop the crowd, and quickly swept his eyes. He found that the eyes of Cheng Chao and Ye Lu's three daughters were happy, especially Cheng Chao's eyes flashed with surprise, Lao Luo was also surprised, Li Sheng's face was very calm. It seems that he supports every decision Di Ping makes. Only Yu Shujie has anxiety, worry and touch in his eyes. It is very complicated. Even the fat man who originally bowed his head looked at Di Ping in surprise, his eyes flashing. Surprised and touched, he took all this into his eyes.

"I won't mess around, don't worry, I just want to take a look. If you can save me, you can save me. If you can't save me, there is no way!"

Di Ping looked at everyone and promised.

"The distance is too far, what if there is danger?"

Yu Shujie asked nervously, her beautiful eyes fixed on Di Ping, full of worry.

Di Ping smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry! I'm not that stupid. If I can't beat it, I still have no problem running!"

"Brother Di, let me go with you!"

Cheng Chao stood up suddenly, his eyes firm, as if he was going to die with Di Ping.

"I'll go as well"

"And I!"

The fat man also stood up abruptly to express his stance, and Lao Luo spoke immediately, only Li Sheng did not speak, but his eyes were a little sad.

"Okay! It's not the dinner party together!" Di Ping smiled bitterly and waved his hands. "I will go by myself. Your current strength will follow. I am not giving you a blow. I really can't help!"

Everyone knew that what Di Ping was talking about was the truth, and one by one sat down helplessly. The four daughters of Liu Bingyu knew that these men were not good enough. They didn't even think about it, so they were born.
