

Doomsday 43

Chapter 43: Busy with wild boars

"Fuck!"

Di Ping cursed secretly, kicked the wild boar's head fiercely, and slammed the wild boar's head on the ground with a bang. The powerful impact made his legs numb. He hurriedly ejected back with his body. Fei retreated four or five meters away, trying to jump out of the attack range of two wild boars.

"Oh..."

Di Ping underestimated the ferocity of the wild boar. The injured wild boar was chopped off by the sword and took a step back. He shook his head. Then he rushed up again with a low growl, and the speed was even faster. As soon as Di Ping hit the ground, it arrived. Let the wild boar hit, this big guy is powerful, and has a pair of big fangs, which is either injured or disabled.

Di Ping had no choice but to do too limited damage to this big guy with his sword at this time. Even with the use of skills, it was difficult to kill with one blow. This Han sword that accompanied him from birth to death was becoming more and more unusable, and it was light and ineffective. One's own powerful strength advantage cannot be used.

Moreover, the two giant wild boars are not only thick, but the main reason is that they are different from mutant dogs. Mutant dogs like to pounce, and the key position is easily exposed. But this big guy specializes in greet three ways down, so that you have a sword and can't do it. How much damage can the back cause? No wonder people look down on such people in martial arts novels.

To hide, Di Ping had to dodge the wild boar again, and then jumped to the top of a bridge car on the side of the road.

"boom"

He had just stood on the top of the bridge car. The wild boar that he had kicked on the ground before had already rushed up. He was hitting the bridge door with a loud noise. The bridge car flew out two or three meters away. Di Ping at this moment It was too late to jump off the car, and the whole person flew out with the car after being hit by this force.

"boom"

Di Ping slammed heavily on the trunk of a huge phoenix tree on the side of the road, and his chest became stuffy for a while, and he almost spewed out a mouthful of blood.

He was extremely depressed at this time. He did not expect to encounter three wild boars the first day he went out hunting. He did not expect that the two wild boars were so difficult to deal with when they cooperated. They attacked one by one without giving himself time to react. This made him very frustrated. The power is beyond these two wild boars, but there is no way to take them for a while.

At this moment Di Ping suddenly discovered that the injured wild boar was blocked by the bridge car flying out, and flashed out five or six meters away. At this time, the wild boar that crashed just now seemed to be covered with powerful counter-shock and its hair was not found for a while. Di Ping, when he saw Di Ping's four hoofs, he rushed towards Di Ping.

"good chance!"

Di Ping's eyes lit up and he seemed to think of something. He didn't move. Seeing that the wild boar had rushed in front of him, his feet suddenly exerted force, his body was raised on the ground, and he jumped more than two meters high.

"boom!"

With a loud noise, the huge sycamore tree hugged by two or three people shook violently, and the bark flew around. A wild boar hit the tree, and two long fangs slammed into the thick trunk and pulled out. Can't come out.

Di Ping was overjoyed when he saw it. He remembered that he had seen a documentary. When a wild boar collided with a big tree, he would not hide. He wanted to knock the wild boar stunned with this big tree, but it was unexpected. The fangs were pierced into the tree trunk and couldn't be pulled out, so I didn't dare to think about falling and riding on the wild boar. At the same time, the sword turned upside down and chopped into a piercing one.

"Fire Strengthening"

At the same time, Di Ping used the skill and talent enhancement he had not used in his heart. He only felt a shock in his body. A kind of energy suddenly emerged from the depths of his body and rushed straight to the Han sword in his hand.

"call!"

The sword body of the Han sword suddenly turned red, like a layer of flame burning on the body of the sword, a scorching sensation rushed to the face, and there was a fiery smell in the air instantly.

"Puff Puff"

The long sword plunged straight down from the back of the wild boar like it went into slime. The sound of a sharp blade into the meat was accompanied by the sound of hot iron burning the flesh. It made the scalp numb. The long sword stuck to the handle, but the wound was There was no trace of blood gushing out, and the smoke was still squeaking, as if the blood had been burned dry, and a strong aroma of barbecued meat could be smelled.

"Oh..."

The giant wild boar let out a scream, and Di Ping's ears were numb, and then the wild boar began to struggle fiercely.

Perhaps it is the threat of death. The wild boar will become extremely violent with strength, shaking his body back and forth, trying to throw Di Ping off his back, but Di Ping dared to neglect, and hurriedly clamped his legs tightly and held the same amount of hands. Stay on the handle and don't let the boar throw it off.

Di Ping stirred the blade fiercely, the wild boar made a scream in pain that was unbearable, and the whole forest was full of screams of wild boars, and the other wild boar was stunned for a while, not knowing what to do. Helped.

"Oh..."

Seemingly unable to bear the pain anymore, the giant wild boar suddenly roared and broke the two fangs in half with a fierce force. His body broke away from control and immediately twisted and ran wildly. Di Ping felt that he had already used his full strength and both legs. The clip was a little numb, but he didn't let go, his hands kept turning the sword body in the wild boar.

"Wow!"

The wild boar ran wildly around a few times and felt that Di Ping didn't mean to shake it off, and suddenly screamed and ran, but its internal organs were already in a mess that would be twisted by Di Ping. All the internal organs were broken and ran out. Hundreds of meters then fell to the ground with a bang, his body trembling constantly, and his mouth roared.

The last wild boar that was injured was actually not lightly injured. The foot-long wound was constantly bleeding. The wild boar that Di Ping was riding was too crazy to get in. At this time, seeing the wild boar fall down, not only was it not afraid. He yelled and rushed towards Di Ping again.

Di Ping's leg was pressed by the wild boar at this time, watching the wild boar rushing from a hundred meters away, he did not dare to delay at this moment, shrank his legs and kicked the wild boar away, drew his sword and stared at the wild boar like a bull.

"Come!"

Di Ping was also aroused at this time, and the whole body was yelling and the powerful force surged wildly, and the surrounding weeds were all bends.
