

Doomsday 47

Chapter 47: Feeling excited

Di Ping felt that something went wrong recently, and he couldn't suppress his desire more and more. It was like a teenager who suddenly learned about men and women and became very impulsive. He is like this now, a little bit. When external factors were triggered, he just couldn't control it.

Gina, who was lifted up by Di Ping, responded with a blushing face and a soft voice, "Thank you! Master!", the voice was sweet and soft, reaching the bottom of people's hearts.

This sound seemed to have magical power, evoking the devil in Di Ping's heart. Di Ping only felt a sudden heartbeat, and the blood quickly rushed to the top door. Only the forehead buzzed, and the palm of his hand involuntarily increased the strength.

"Master... it hurts!"

The arm that seemed to be grasped by Di Ping's powerful force was painful, and Gina cried out timidly, soft and greasy to the bottom of her heart. For Di Ping at this time, it seemed like a fire fell on dry wood.

"boom...."

Di Ping's breathing became thick and involuntary, and he was gasping, like a bull in heat, staring at Gina in front of him with red eyes.

"what!"

She seemed to feel Di Ping abnormal. When she raised her eyes, she just saw Di Ping's wistful eyes. Gina seemed to be a frightened little rabbit, and her body shook timidly and screamed back.

"Uh!"

This exclamation sounded like a thunder in the sky, awakening Di Ping who was about to run away. When he saw Gina who was like a bird with a frightened bow, Di Ping was shocked, his pores shrank, and beads of sweat gush out like spring water.

"Ahem! Barton will serve Miss Gina tea."

Di Ping awkwardly let go of Gina's arm, hurried back a few steps, coughed dryly to cover up his embarrassment, and greeted Barton for tea to relieve his embarrassment.

"It's the master!"

Patton had been standing on the side and bowed his head silently, like a statue. He didn't react at all to Di Ping's actions just now. At this moment, he heard the order and went out immediately.

At this time, Di Ping was full of doubts. How could he suddenly become so anxious? Gina is very beautiful, but not so beautiful that Di Ping could not help but commit crimes when they met? He didn't know where the problem was, thinking that he was too tired recently, and Gina was there at this time, so he couldn't think any more, and shook his head with a headache.

"Gina! I was rude just now!"

Looking at Gina who was still a little bewildered, Di Ping said with some regret.

Di Ping is also not the kind of anxious person, otherwise he would not have been fighting for Su Xiao for these years, and has been guarding himself like a jade, so he sobered up, felt that it would hurt Gina, and expressed owe very sincerely, although Gina The others were recruited by the system, and he respected himself very much, but he never regarded them as servants. Instead, he felt that they were flesh and blood, and the expressions in his eyes showed completely normal emotions, and they were definitely not robots. Treating these people as his friends and relatives, so he doesn't want to leave a bad impression in Gina's eyes. Just now, he was a bit rude, and he was lusted for Gina, and it was nothing to express his ownness.

Gina didn't seem to expect Di Ping to apologize to him and waved her hands in panic, "Gina is terrified! The master doesn't need to apologize to Gina!", then her face blushed, and she looked at Di Ping and said timidly, "It's Gina. Crash the master, as long as the master wants Gina to obey!"

It was a little too sudden just now that she was a little panicked for a while. Although she was recruited by the system, she was indeed a living human with her own emotions. Just now suddenly felt Di Ping's strong desire that she was a little scared, which was shocked. Call out.

So Gina stood there, panicked, she didn't even dare to raise her head. She was afraid that her performance just made Di Ping upset and caused her master's anger. At this time, she heard Di Ping express his ill feelings, and even more from Di Ping. Seeing sincerity in my eyes, I was immediately moved. They must know that in their world, the master has the power to live and kill the servants. Once they are dissatisfied, they can be executed at any time. Even resistance is a sin, not to mention that the master wants their bodies to become followers. She was ready for everything. There was a master like Di Ping so magnanimous and kind, and she was immediately moved, and she felt that she did not follow the wrong master.

"That...that! Ji Na, have tea!"

Di Ping's heart jumped when he heard Gina's blatant words, and the blood was about to boil again. He quickly and forcefully suppressed the heat in his heart. He felt that he was too shameless. When people first came, he wanted to spoil him. The owner was very embarrassed, and Barton came in with the tea tray at this moment. This gave him a chance to ease and hurriedly let Gina drink tea.

"Thank you Master!"

Gina seemed to blush for her initiative just now. After all, she was still a young girl, she was still very innocent. It was just loyalty that influenced him to take the initiative. At this time, she felt hot on her face when she recollected it. Hearing Di Ping's greeting, he hurriedly took the tea from Patton, and a trace of blushing even climbed to the base of his ears.

Di Ping looked at it with emotion. These recruited heroes didn't know that the system got them from there. They all seemed to have their own complete personality, with human emotions and desires. He was basically like what he thought before. These people are robots or clones. people.

"Gina, where did you come from?"

Di Ping was sitting on his wicker chair, holding a teacup in his hand, smelling the fragrance of tea, and his floating heart slowly calmed down. Then he looked at Gina and asked.

"Master, I am from Thad Star Kailin City, and I am called by the master to become a follower of the master!"

Gina heard Di Ping's question and hurriedly put down the cup in her hand and replied.

"Where is Thad?"

When Di Ping heard that another planet appeared, where did this planet belong, and the people on earth had always regarded themselves as the only human race in the universe, then wouldn't this be another planet human being? It's just that I don't know where the Thad star is, so he hurriedly asked.

"I do not know either?"

To Di Ping's disappointment, Gina also shook her head in confusion.

"Then how did you get here?"

Di Ping is a little bit unwilling to give up. Since he doesn't know where the Thad star is, how come he should know?
