

Doomsday 571

Chapter 571: Two waves meet with fear

Di Ping had some controversy at this time. He had known a weapon to make Han Ming pay loyalty to him, and he took it out last night.

Who thinks that Han Ming is so unbelievable, that he still has a lot of useless means of showing goodness?

Just give a bow forty coins to get it done, isn't it a bit too easy?

He knows that people walking in the dark world desire weapons beyond your imagination. A magic weapon can be said to be the guarantee of life.

Han Ming was no exception. He had already seen the big sword in Yue Lie's hand a long time ago, and he knew it was absolutely extraordinary when he saw it with his eyes.

He has seen a lot of good weapons, but he has never seen such a weapon. The charm of the energy flowing on the sword has never been seen before.

I longed for such a weapon. Di Ping gave him the bow in his mind. He still had a standpoint. He shot it at that time. Is his life worth this bow?

Of course, Di Ping didn't know the activity in his heart, but this didn't affect Di Ping's joy. It was enough for the talent to receive it, and he no longer cared about the process.

With another move, a bag of arrows appeared in his hand and delivered to him in Han Ming's horrified eyes.

At this time, Han Ming realized that Di Ping's ability to change things easily, he had seen it last night, and a mutant wild boar disappeared.

However, he is also a sensible person, and he calmed down quickly after a little horror. Five years of assassin career has taught him a truth. It is a good thing that people are less curious.

"This is a bag of heavy arrows, designed to break armor, you must use it well!"

Di Ping was also bleeding. This bag of heavy arrows cost him thirty crystal coins, not much cheaper than this war bow.

Han Ming hasn't changed his job yet, he hasn't learned the skills, and he can't attack him, so Di Ping gave him a bag of heavy arrows.

With a strong bow in hand and heavy armor-piercing arrows, Han Ming's destructive power is comparable to that of Di Ping in the team at this time.

Han Ming took over the bow and arrow and played with it for a while, and drew the bow a few times. He seemed very satisfied. He quickly walked into the character, tied the heavy arrow tightly on his back, and then lifted the bow on his body. The cool and calm temperament quickly returned.

Having had breakfast, everyone quickly sorted them out, walked out of the small building again, and plunged into the forest.

From what Han Ming said, Di Ping only slapped his tongue at the location of this place. It turned out that everyone had already deviated from the direction and ran a lot eastward.

In one day, everyone ran for more than a hundred miles. Fortunately, although the direction was a little bit off, they were still in the southeast direction, which was only 50 or 60 kilometers away, which was not too serious.

Only then did Di Ping relax, and everyone started on the road again and walked towards the destination. To say that Han Qingming was born as a killer, his judgment on the direction was much higher than that of Di Ping.

Han Ming is extremely familiar with the location and geography of the other party. This is the consciousness he has cultivated for many years. Simple judgments have led him to lead the way.

Di Ping knew at a glance, should he leave it to Han Ming to find the way?

The people Yue Lie didn't look enough at all, let alone Gina and the others, they couldn't figure out the geographic location on the earth, and couldn't lead the way.

The forest at this time has gradually become lively, and it is not as quiet as before. From time to time, you can hear the roar of beasts and the chirping of birds.

The forest seemed to be infused with vitality and became alive.

Chapter 572: Meeting is a destined person

The face of the earth has undergone earth-shaking changes. There were traces of human activity everywhere, but it is difficult to find at this time.

In the virgin forest, Di Ping didn't walk far after walking for more than two hours. The dense trees and waist-deep grass brought great difficulties to everyone.

At this time, Di Ping was a little surprised, how the previous few people escaped nearly a hundred kilometers under the chase of the mutant golden eagle.

Thinking about it now, it's unbelievable. In these two hours, at most, it's only 20 or 30 kilometers, right?

The dew in the morning was extremely serious. During this period of time, several people were soaked, and with sweat, they felt very uncomfortable.

"This won't work, it's too slow!"

Di Ping wiped the sweat off his head and said anxiously.

"Yeah! When can I get there, it would be nice if I could find a high speed! It is better to go faster..."

Gina and Angela were also in embarrassment at this time. If they weren't armored, they would be beautiful now.

"If the direction is right, we walk two or three kilometers further, it should be a high speed!"

Han Ming looked up at the sun in the sky, stretched out his hand to test the direction of the wind, then pointed to the front and said with a certain tone.

"Well, speed up, this forest is really not a place for people to stay!"

Di Ping showed joy on his face and waved forward excitedly. He didn't want to walk through the wild grass for a minute.

Everyone was looking forward to hope, and their pace was quick.

What made everyone gratified was that there were no mutant animals along the way, otherwise it would be impossible to walk as fast as Di Ping walked in the dense jungle, and the mutant animals also had difficulty moving.

Sure enough, Han Ming's position judgment was extremely accurate. After traveling less than two kilometers, a high-speed bridge blocked everyone.

At this time, there was no such anger that was blocked, but one by one showed ecstasy.

"Yue Lie, go up and have a look!"

Di Ping looked back at Yue Lie's command.

"It's the city owner!"

Yue Lie took the order and handed the heavy sword to Daniel. With a movement of his body, he rushed to the front of the bridge, then jumped more than three meters high, grabbed the vine hanging down from the bridge, and quickly climbed up with his arms. Bridge deck.

"then!"

At the bottom of Yue Lie's motion, Daniel gave a soft drink and threw the broad sword in his hand. Yue Lie took the long sword and gestured to everyone.

After turning over the bridge, the person disappeared on the bridge, his figure blocked by weeds and leaves.

As everyone waited anxiously, after two to three minutes, Yue Lie reappeared on the bridge and made a successful gesture at Di Ping.

Then Yue Lie pulled a vine from behind and threw it down.

Di Ping looked at Daniel's command and whispered.

"It's the master!"

Daniel didn't talk nonsense, grabbed the vine and quickly climbed up, moving as fast as an ape.

Then there was Han Ming, followed by two women, Gina and Angela. Regardless of their spellcasting professions, the two women did not mean that they were physically weak. They were just a lot weaker than those fighters like Yue Lie.

But compared to ordinary people, their physique is absolutely superior. At this point, the two women are also three to five divided by two, and they climbed up without any effort.

Di Ping scanned the surroundings vigilantly and waited until all the people were up. Then he pulled the vines and kicked his feet on the ground. The people rose directly from the ground like a rocket, and leaped five or six meters high.

Then, like a leaf, it gently fell on the bridge surface without any sound, and the power control had reached a deep level.

Seeing Han Ming's eyes in this scene, his eyes shrank rapidly.

He overestimated Di Ping's strength, but at this time he felt that he was too conservative in his estimation. The strength of this city lord was absolutely beyond his imagination.

Chapter 573: Sudden changes lead to disputes

The vast green forest.

A gray-white highway runs through it, like a ribbon floating.

The silent speed of a car among the green waves appears and disappears like a small boat.

There seems to be only this living thing in the whole world, lonely and lonely, like a lone knight, walking silently.

This is Di Ping and his party.

When they got on the highway, they could easily find a car that could be driven.

This is a silver commercial car. The car is in good condition. Although it hits the guardrail, the front of the car is not damaged and can drive normally.

There was no one in the car and no blood stains. The driver should have left by himself.

It was Yue Lie who drove, and Han Ming got into the co-driver and started to lead the way. No one had any opinion on the direction and road recognition skills that made him competent for this job.

Han Ming is not a talkative person. He looks calm and speechless all the way. He looks out of the car with half-obsessed eyes, as if he is going to fall asleep. He is inattentive, but if you look closely, you will find that the half-obsessed eyes sometimes burst into light. .

Holding the double-headed gold-winged war bow in his arms, one hand has been gently stroking the metal bow body, as if stroking the lover's hair, tender and tender.

But if you pay attention, you will find that his left hand is always in the guard position, in this position he can easily grab the bow with a single grip.

A killer's terrible habit, Di Ping saw all this from the side, a smile appeared on his face, and he closed his eyes for a while.

With such a sharp person, he can rest assured.

After the car drove for more than an hour, the mutant golden eagle that everyone had been worried about did not appear.

The crowd exhaled a long breath now, and it seemed that the mutant golden eagle was far away from here.

"City Lord, the car is running out of gas..."

Just as Di Ping was half asleep and half awake, Yue Lie, who had been in charge of driving, suddenly turned back.

"Oh! How far is there to run?"

Di Ping opened his eyes fiercely and asked.

"You can run up to fifty kilometers!"

Yue Lie looked back at the fuel gauge and said.

"How far is the service area ahead?"

Di Ping sat up straight, looked forward, and asked.

"There are thirty kilometers left!"

Yue Lie also stretched his head and looked in front of him, his expression awkward, he didn't pay attention to the street signs at all, and Han Ming who was sitting next to him suddenly spoke.

"Sure! That's enough, just go ahead and cheer..."

Di Ping let go and nodded.

"Oh!"

Yue Lie glanced at Han Ming who was sitting in the co-pilot, then smiled and nodded.

This is a small service area, and some vines have been climbed on the sign of the service area, which is more dilapidated and desolate.

In the parking lot, there were not a few cars parked, only three or five cars were parked randomly, but no one was seen, and the glass of several cars was also broken and scattered on the ground.

The square on the concrete floor was now cracked, and many weeds grew tenaciously from the cracks, one in the east and one in the west.

A gust of wind blew, and the weeds swayed with the wind, adding a bit of depression.

The car rustled over the weeds lightly, and then quietly stopped in front of the square steps.

As soon as the co-driver's door opened, Han Ming jumped out of the car first, clenched his bow tightly, his eyes sharply swept around.

A gust of wind blew by, and the glass door of the hall made a creak, resounding in the empty square, it was so harsh and abrupt.

Han Ming's eyes swept sharply, and the bow in his hand was also raised, and an arrow appeared in his hand instantly.

"Han Ming, don't be so nervous, it's not dangerous!"

As the door opened and closed, Di Ping and his party quickly jumped out of the car and said with a smile.

He had noticed just now that only a piece of broken glass was blown off by the wind.

Only then did Han Ming put away his arrows, and Di Ping began to look at the service area in just a few short days.

A place where the flow of people usually does not stop, and a bustling and lively place has become like a ghost town now.

Desolate, dilapidated, gloomy...

"Yue Lie, you and Han Ming go to see if there is oil in the oil depot!"

"Good City Lord!"

Yue Lie nodded, and then moved to Han Ming, and the two of them walked to the gas station not far away.

Chapter 574: The danger is in the last days

Generally, there is a supermarket in the service area. He wants to clean up some food. He has been traveling for nearly three hours and needs to replenish his energy.

The supermarket was not as tidy as Di Ping thought, it was very messy, as if it had been robbed.

The shelves were sloping upside down, and the food on the shelves was scattered all over the ground. Some were stepped on and deformed, and some were damaged. The food was scattered everywhere.

The most dazzling thing is that there are dry and black blood everywhere, looking shocking.

Di Ping looked at the traces in the supermarket with a gloomy face, and when he saw three deep scratches on a wooden shelf, he squatted down and looked carefully.

That's right!

This is indeed a scratch, obviously a mutated animal.

Di Ping looked around again, and it turned out that there were still many scratches and paw prints, and some looked like mutant dogs.

After watching it for a while, Di Ping didn't care. Mutant animals like mutant dogs were no longer a threat to him.

This service area should have been attacked by mutated animals, and the people inside should have seen the scene more than good.

However, Di Ping didn't dare to be too careless, and asked Gina to be alert, and took Angela and Daniel with him to organize some edible food.

Fortunately, although the food has been damaged a lot, there are still many intact, and there is no blood stain on it.

Several tables were put together, and a lot of food was piled on them. Di Ping and the others were sitting here, waiting for the two Yue Lie while eating.

After more than ten minutes, the two Yue Lie returned.

There is plenty of oil in the gas station's oil depot, but the fuel gun can no longer be used, so Han Ming found a water pipe and poured it out directly.

Everyone briefly rested for a while, and was about to start again on the road, when suddenly there was the hum of car motors outside.

Several people in the hall stood up almost at the same time.

Han Ming and Daniel's figures flashed, and they were already looking for a suitable attack position. Both of them were masters in this category, and they didn't need Di Ping's orders.

Di Ping's eyes shot outside at this time. He was not surprised at Han Mingliang's such fierce reaction, but he wondered how the car would ring.

Is there someone who, like his party, dare to drive around outside?

This hall is full of glass. Sitting in the hall, you can see the panoramic view of the entire service. I saw two large off-road vehicles coming in quickly from the service entrance.

At the sunroof of each car, there was a person standing with a submachine gun in his hand, looking around vigilantly.

Seeing this, Di Ping's eyes narrowed. Guns, weapons, have a strong deterrent effect on ordinary people. Even Di Ping was shocked at first sight.

The car stopped, the door opened with a slap, and seven or eight people quickly jumped out of the car. Everyone was holding a firearm, some short or long.

In the bright sunlight, the weapon in his hand shone with a dark luster, and the muzzle of the black hole was gloomy and cold.

Di Ping frowned when he was in these two cars, how could there be so many powerful weapons.

These are five men, two women, and five men, all with bulging muscles, short hair and flat heads, a firm complexion, sharp eyes, and a suffocating anger.

The two women are also very beautiful, but at this time, they are holding a charge, and they are full of heroic air.

After a few people got out of the car, they quickly deployed control, looking around vigilantly, and then as soon as the rear door opened, a middle-aged man stepped out calmly.

He got out of the car, sorted out his clothes, then looked around, exuding a majestic aura.

This person is in his forties, with fair skin, a square face, thick eyebrows, a wide mouth and a square nose, and a tall body, but he is very well-proportioned and knows that he usually knows how to maintain and exercise. The whole person gives a sense of calmness in terms of temperament and movements. The sense of.

This is definitely not a simple character before the end of the world, it should be a long-time high position, otherwise it will not be able to cultivate the temperament of this body.

Chapter 575: The plot turns into a bully

After the middle-aged man got out of the car, a dark shadow flashed, and then another person got out of the car.

This is a woman.

She is a beautiful woman!

White and tender skin, such as suet jade, high-jumping figure, not much lower than some professional models, with a small curly shawl and long hair, unlimited enchanting.

The face of melon seeds, the eyebrows of willow leaves, and a pair of long and narrow fox eyes, as if filled with a layer of moisture, watery, with a charming amorous feelings between Gu Pan, looked very exciting.

The long eyelashes are lifted up high like a crescent moon, and the light blinks seem to beckoning to you, which is breathtaking.

The small and straight nose is like a knife cut, and it is very beautiful without shadowing. The lips are covered with red and **** lipstick, which is very strange.

The corners of the lips are slightly raised, with a faint smile, and the eyebrows are as smart as beads. No matter where you are, you can seem to feel her looking at you, as if silently containing spring makes your heart beat faster.

Black leather jacket, black leather pants, a full and curvy figure is highlighted.

Casually twisting the waist to send the car under the hip, those slender legs and plump hips exude a strong charming style.

The slender hand gently brushed the wavy hair, and the air was stagnant for a while, and even the air carried a strong smell of spring sunshine.

Obviously, the breath of the five burly men on guard was messy, but all of them had undergone rigorous training, and their eyes hurriedly drifted away instead of staying on the woman.

Di Ping's eyes kept falling on this woman. He didn't have any thoughts about this woman. To say that the demon Gina was comparable to her, and the purity of Gina's charm was sometimes even more exciting.

The main reason was that he felt a faint energy fluctuation in this woman. Although it was very subtle, it would never be wrong with Di Ping's mental power.

"Humph!"

Gina, who had been standing next to Di Ping at this time, seemed to snorted in dissatisfaction.

Di Ping didn't look back, he could feel a strong jealousy, and touched his nose with a bitter smile.

The hostility between these beautiful women is inevitable no matter what era or woman.

It was Angela's performance that surprised him. Angela seemed to watch this scene very calmly. There was no fluctuation in her eyes, and she didn't seem to be shaken by the woman's performance at all.

The sun was strong outside, and the few people did not see Di Ping and his party inside.

A few people got out of the car and walked carefully toward this side, five men and two women, with guns in their hands, and they looked around vigilantly.

"who?"

Two burly men, as soon as they arrived at the door, they saw Di Ping who were sitting at the dining table quietly watching their party.

At that time, the two of them felt that their backs were cold, they almost slammed their guns in excitement, and raised their guns intently and asked.

In this empty service area, suddenly several people were sitting quietly in the hall.

It was like seeing a ghost during the day, and the voices of the two began to tremble. Of course they would shoot if it wasn't for their strong psychological quality.

The next few people were also up the stairs at this time, and seeing the scene in front of them, the faces of the few people suddenly changed, and they raised their weapons one after another.

The middle-aged man's solemn and calm face finally showed a slight change, his eyes tightened rapidly, his arms were not taut as his own.

The eyes of the charming woman who was next to the middle-aged man changed, and there was obviously a trace of amazement in her eyes. She quickly touched her waist, but stopped again, and her eyes quickly calmed down, with a hint of curiosity in her eyes. .

Seven black-hole guns pointed at Di Ping.

Yue Lie, Gina, and Angela stood quietly behind Di Ping and looked at all this calmly, while Di Ping was holding peanuts one by one, looking at these people faintly, as if they were scared in their hands. arms.

Chapter 576: Ambition becomes soot

Quiet!

As silent as death!

Only the sound of Di Ping chewing peanuts.

But this sound, like an urgent drum beat, struck his heart, nervously about to vomit blood.

The five burly men began to sweat, and the big beads of sweat rolled down like spring oil, but no one dared to go.

The two women with guns couldn't bear the pressure at first, the muzzle began to shake, and the vision of the eyes began to blur.

Among the people in the court, only the middle-aged man and the coquettish woman behaved better, looking at the mysterious three with scorching eyes.

The middle-aged man feels like being overwhelmed.

Who are these four mysterious people?

A strange decoration, like a costume drama, steel armor, swords, and staff. This is not a costume drama?

More like a game role-playing?

Moreover, these four people only had two foreign races, and he really didn't understand what these four people did.

"I don't like people pointing a gun at me!"

Di Ping, who had been eating peanuts all of a sudden, spoke, and his voice was flat without a hint of anger.

But the people opposite Di Ping felt different.

The air seemed to condense at this moment, and an invisible pressure radiated from the young man who was eating peanuts indifferently.

A burst of cold air rose behind the people, and at this moment it seemed as if they were being stared at by a behemoth.

It's so cold!

There was also a faint murderous aura shrouded, making the hairs of a few people stand up, and they couldn't help but irritate them.

In particular, the five men and two women with guns couldn't help but want to escape at this moment, but the invisible pressure was as heavy as a few people who could not move.

Di Ping felt very weird about the arrival of these people, and these people had a weapon in their hands, and they all had a touch of murderousness on their bodies. They were obviously not friendly, so he had to guard against it. .

But he didn't kill him, just a murderous aura was not something these people could bear.

"All put down the guns, what are you doing? Who told you to point your guns at people, it's really unruly, how do you usually teach you?"

At this moment, the middle-aged man who had been silent saw this scene. First, there was a glimmer of light in his eyes, and then he seemed to react. Suddenly his face sank, and he yelled at several of his men as if he had just discovered it.

As soon as the voice fell, the middle-aged man looked like his face changed, with a smile on his face, watching Di Ping clasped his fists in his hands and smiled.

"This brother, you are polite here in Xiayunkuohai. I don't know how many of you are resting here. If you don't understand the rules, if you are offended, please Haihan!"

People say they don't hit the smiley people with their hands. Although Di Ping knows that this person doesn't have a word of truth, he is not embarrassing them.

A warning has been given to several people so that they don't dare to beat their minds any more, and then they receded their momentum, stood up, clasped their fists and laughed:

"Mr. Yun is polite. They are all victims of the last days. Since meeting is predestined, what's the offense!"

Yun Kuohai is obviously a familiar person who is very good at hitting snakes and going up with sticks. He stepped up the steps and said with a smile:

"Haha! Brother Di is right. Meeting is fate. Someone in Yun just likes a bold person like Brother Di, so it's great to have a drink for this!"

As soon as Di Ping's momentum was closed, five men and two women almost sat on the ground. If they hadn't had a good quality, they couldn't support it. Looking at their shaky bodies, I was really afraid that they couldn't stop falling.

Several people put away their guns with lingering fears, but still followed Yun Kuohai into the hall vigilantly, but their eyes did not dare to look at Di Ping.

The charming woman in black, the smile on her face suddenly rose, the corners of her mouth were gently raised, with a mysterious smile, there was a strange look in Di Ping's eyes.

Chapter 577: How hard is Gone with the Wind

"Brother Di is lucky to meet!"

Yun Kuohai came closer, with a smile on his face and a pair of big hands stretched out.

"Mr. Yun is polite!"

Two big hands were squeezed together, Yun Kuohai's hands were big and powerful, much stronger than ordinary people, but Di Ping was really a world, and Di Ping just let it go with a shallow grip.

He was not surprised, but Yun Kuohai's eyes trembled. He knew that his hands were strong, and he couldn't feel a trace of strength from this young man's hand just now, and they were not moved at all.

"Mr. Yun, please sit down!"

Di Ping let go of his hand and smiled and politely reached out.

He knew Yun Kuohai's intentions and felt his increased strength, but Di Ping didn't even plan to compete with him. Isn't that tantamount to bullying?

"Haha! Brother Di is really a young hero!"

Yun Kuohai calmed down his shock, laughed boldly, clasped his fists in both hands, and exclaimed from the heart.

Di Ping suddenly felt that this person has a very familiar taste, that is, the style of the arena characters that he often sees in film and television dramas, and he has the atmosphere of the rivers and lakes.

The two looked at each other and smiled and sat down together, while the black-clothed woman on Yun Kuohai's figure flashed and sat down on the side, a pair of winking eyes and a full smile staring at Di Ping's face.

"Little girl Yun Mengsi has seen Mr. Di!"

The voice was soft and delicate, and there was a hint of sweet silkiness. It seemed to pour into my heart like honey, and like wine, with a kind of intoxicating magic, I wanted to sleep in it, and didn't want to wake up.

There seemed to be hallucinations in front of Di Ping's eyes. This was the woman of his dream, the woman he had to look for after countless times.

At this time, I was wearing red makeup with her, the flower lings in the crown, and each other under the red candle light, never separated.

From then on, the two of them have been incomparably affectionate and envied countless people.

Di Ping seems to have been sinking into a happy time and cannot wake up!

The two women behind Gina and Angela didn't see Di Ping's expression at this time, but saw him looking straight at the charming woman.

Gina looked at the woman with a small face, her face was cold, and a trace of disgust flashed in her eyes.

She didn't know what was going on. In the base, Liu Bingyu or Yu Shujie circled Di Ping. She didn't dislike it at all, but she just saw this woman uncomfortable today.

Yun Kuohai's eyes had been staring at Di Ping. At this time, he saw his blurred eyes and a gradual smile at the corner of his mouth, and the smile on his face grew even stronger.

Suddenly, Yun Mengsi's complexion changed, a mouthful of blood spurted out, and his face paled. He looked at Di Ping again with fear and horror. The whole person seemed to lose his strength and collapsed on the seat.

"This? Mengsi..."

Yun Kuohai stood up and held Yun Mengsi in his hand.

He was stunned by the sudden change, and his face became very ugly. Wasn't it good just now?

Why did it suddenly become like this?

"court death!"

Gina and Angela, who were standing behind Di Ping, were so stupid that they didn't know what was going on. They suddenly shouted, and the staff in their hands was raised, and a wave of energy fluctuations quickly occurred around them.

It was Yue Lie who was slow to react when he saw the movements of the two of them. He also understood at this time. With an angry shout, the broad sword in his hand was raised, a strong murderous intent surged from his body.

"Wow...Don't move!"

The seven who had put down their guns and stood cautiously on the side also noticed a change here, and quickly raised their guns to face the two of Gina.

Chapter 578: The reputation of the base is out

"I think it's good for you to stay still!"

At this time, there was a sound, and two figures appeared on the edge of the hall, one on the left and one on the right, one holding a strange musket in his hand, and a terrible strange bow in the other.

The five men and two women armed with guns were startled at first, but several of them showed extremely high military qualities, and quickly separated three of them and pointed their guns at the sudden appearance of Han Ming and Daniel.

Originally worried about his daughter, some angry clouds were shocked by the two who suddenly appeared.

He didn't expect that these people were still in ambush, and the strong murderous aura on these two people showed that they were definitely not ordinary people. At this moment, he was a little hard to decide whether he should fight or not.

"no, do not want...."

Yun Mengsi, who was lying on the table, cried anxiously when he saw the eyes of the two suddenly appearing shrinking, trying to prop up his body.

"Mengsi, how are you?"

Although she could not support it, it also attracted Yun Kuohai's attention, and looked at her daughter worriedly and asked.

"No...Don't move..."

Yun Mengsi desperately shook his head to Yun Kuohai, the horror in his eyes made Yun Kuohai, who was familiar with his daughter, feel surprised.

My own daughter, who is not afraid of heaven and earth, when will she have such eyes.

Suddenly he thought of something and suddenly raised his head to look at the young man opposite, but what greeted him was a pair of cold eyes that seemed to freeze the soul.

There was not a trace of fluctuation in his eyes, looking at himself as if he was looking at a dead person, which made the pride that Yun Kuohai finally risen quickly faded, and a cold sweat came out of his back.

Yes, Di Ping woke up. He didn't expect that so many things would happen when he glanced at this woman.

He didn't expect a woman to awaken this special ability and pull a person into an illusion before forcibly brainwashing.

It was the first time he encountered such a thing, when he was already sinking, and suddenly a group of Qingming rose from the depths of his mind, and he regained his clarity in an instant.

At this time, he knew that he had fallen into the way of this charming woman.

He secretly said a fluke, if it hadn't been for his mental power breakthrough, he might have done it this time.

Although he experienced the end times, he was still too tender after all. He had thought that as soon as he met, this woman would dare to start directly.

This also reminded him that he had noticed that there was a special energy fluctuation in this woman before, but he did not use probing technology to look at it.

This loss should be worth it, so that he understands that the world has changed, and walking outside is not only threatened by mutant animals, but also by humans.

He was not angry. This incident made him grow up again. He was very careful, but he was not careful enough. It was a lesson for himself.

But he doesn't have any good intentions for those who dare to act on himself, and people have to pay for what they do.

However, Di Ping did not move, but just looked at Yun Kuohai indifferently, wanting to see what he was going to do.

The last chance is given to him, and it depends on whether they can catch it.

"lay down!"

Yun Kuohai supported his daughter Yun Mengsi, his face changed drastically, but at the end he waved his hand weakly, and when he spoke, his entire spine seemed to collapse, and he fell into a chair.

The five men and two women had obviously undergone rigorous training. Without hesitation, Yun Kuohai quickly put down their guns as soon as they fell.

"锵....."

Yue Lie plunged his middle broad sword into the ground, and easily inserted the broad sword more than half a foot deep into the concrete floor with a soft sound.

"boom...."

The ground trembled, and everyone on the side of Yunkuohai trembled.

The only thought in his heart as he watched a sword erected there completely disappeared.

And Yue Lie let go of his sword and walked towards the seven with a proud face, raised his eyebrows at them, and stretched out his big hand.

Five men and two women looked at Yun Kuohai.

Yun Kuohai closed his eyes and took a deep breath, showing a grayish look on his face, and nodded weakly.

The seven had to hand out their guns, and Yue Lie threw them to the ground in their heartache.

Chapter 579: The smelly man who crossed the river and demolished the bridge

"Mr. Yun, we seem to have no grievances or grudges. Why do you suddenly attack me? There must be an explanation, right?"

When Yue Lie took away all the guns, Di Ping suddenly spoke indifferently.

"Brother Di! How reckless the little girl is offending, Yun Mou here apologized to Brother Di!"

An embarrassment appeared on Yun Kuohai's complexion, and he helped Yun Mengsi look at Di Ping with a wry smile.

"Oh! Is it just reckless?"

Di Ping smiled faintly, with sarcasm in his smile.

Are you kidding me? Dare to use it here!

"This..... This is something wrong with Yun, and everything Yun will bear. Brother Di, please let the little girl be naughty when she is young and let her and these brothers a horse. Yun is grateful!"

Yun Kuohai was taken aback for a while, and then his face showed a trace of absoluteness. He looked at the daughter in his arms with a look of regret in his eyes, then he looked at Di Pingdao with a solemn expression.

Di Ping didn't expect this Yun Kuohai to be a good father and a responsible boss.

"father....."

When he said this, whether it was Yun Mengsi or his five men, two women and seven subordinates, their expressions changed, and they all went forward and shouted.

In particular, the faces of the seven subordinates were full of touch, as if they could serve the boss at this moment.

At this moment, Di Ping couldn't help seeing this scene, and secretly gave this person a thumbs up.

This person is definitely a hero, picking up and letting go, more able to buy people's hearts, and even show off when he is near.

Don't say it, not only did his subordinates look at him with gratitude, but also his subordinates looked at him with more respect.

Sometimes begging for mercy is not necessarily a chance to survive, but generous and loyal people always get unexpected joy.

Di Ping could feel from Yun Kuohai's eyes that he didn't say panic, maybe this was his natural character, and the rivers and lakes were bold and loyal. Otherwise, in these last days, how many people could sell him to death shows his personality charm.

Someone is born to be a big brother. This is because character determines destiny. You can't accept it.

Some things can't be learned, and some are decided by nature!

"Di...Mr. Di, it's all mine, please.....forgive me...Father.....I would...will...be a slave. .... for..."

Suddenly, Yun Mengsi didn't know the strength from there, so he pushed his father away and turned to look at Di Ping, his eyes pleading.

The pitiful look on his face is as miserable as it is, as if facing a bully bullying, a pair of big eyes with big tears rolling, they may roll down at any time.

With the bloodshot at the corner of her mouth and her pale face, Di Ping suddenly felt that he had become a landlord bully, bullying men and women into prostitution.

Di Ping felt a little self-deprecating and touched his nose. How did he feel that the plot was flipped, and he seemed to be being oppressed and changed his target?

Without looking at Gina's original angry eyes, she looked at Yun Mengsi with a hint of sympathy.

"Oh my God? We are opposed to them, okay? Can we take a stand?"

Di Ping cast a squint at Gina, and a thousand horses were running wild in his heart.

The whole hall was quiet, everyone was looking at Di Ping, waiting for his answer.

Yun Kuohai now has a sense of being awaiting sentencing. He is a powerful figure who is actually waiting for a young man to pronounce his destiny today.

This is so sad, but the situation is stronger than that of people.

He believes in his daughter extremely, and Yun Mengsi has shown a superhuman mind since he was a child.

This is especially true when she grows up. She controls most of the affairs of the group, and she has a grasp of people's hearts beyond many old oilers who have been in the arena for many years.

This is what he also admires, so he trusts his daughter's judgment extremely, especially when the daughter suddenly awakens a kind of ability in the last days, he is even more convinced.

The daughter said no, it must be no. He was convinced of this, so he ordered everyone to put down their guns and waited willingly for the sentence to be pronounced.

"Okay! Don't pretend to be pitiful!"

Di Ping calmly looked at this woman who had acted on himself as soon as we met, but at this time she was pretending to be a pitiful woman. She didn't have any good feelings at all, so the words were not so nice.

"I....."

Yun Mengsi immediately rolled down a pair of big eyes with teardrops, making him a pure and innocent girl who had been bullied.

"I go....."

Di Ping felt the angry gaze shot from around him, and his head was suddenly covered with black lines, and he felt helpless.

This woman is too good at using her own advantages, from an assaulter to a pitiful victim in an instant.

Sitting down here has confirmed Di Ping Huang Shiren's name. I didn't see it, but Angela looked at him with a trace of resentment, as if he was bullying an ignorant girl.

"Well, I have served you, Mr. Yun, you have a good girl!"

Di Ping smiled bitterly and shook his head, and said to Yun Kuohai.

"Just laugh at it!"

When Yun Kuohai, who was originally full of gloom and waiting for the sentence to be pronounced, heard this, his heart of advance was relieved, and his face was filled with smiles again.

The tension in the hall eased, especially the few of Yun Kuohai's men who breathed a long sigh of relief.

Han Ming and Daniel took their weapons and walked over, but the vigilance in their eyes was still strong, looking at a few people with a warning.

Originally, Di Ping did have murderous intent in his heart, but a little obsession in his heart made him endure it. Another Yun Mengsi woman was too smart, but a little scheming made his murderous intent fade away.

Women have also received their due punishment, and the damage caused by mental backlash cannot be easily recovered.

Although Di Ping let them go, the right to equal dialogue has disappeared.

"You come from there! How come you are here?"

Di Ping looked at Yun Kuohai and asked calmly.

"Hi! It's hard to say..."

He also understood the change in his physical status at this time, and he was not trying to avoid irritating others, so he opened the topic.

Yun Kuohai was originally from Jishi and operated a group company. It can be said to be a top-ranking enterprise in Jishi, and it is also famous in the provincial government of Central China.

He himself originally came from a mixed road, and finally slowly transformed into an industry, and he grew bigger and bigger, so that he can be said to be black and white in the city, and few forces dare to fight against it.

After the end of the world, he quickly gathered a lot of people with his own influence, and the number of minors reached more than 1,000.

He is vast and ambitious. In the last days, he didn't feel scared, but had a kind of joy.

Before the end of the world, although he did not rank well in the country, he was also a party. He almost had the experience of what he should eat and play. He felt that there was nothing to do. Usually he was playing games and fishing. Now, playing cards, I feel that life is a bit tasteless.

But the coming of the future gave him a different feeling. It seemed that he had suddenly found his way. For a while, he was full of motivation, and there was a dry storm.

Especially when his daughter Yun Mengsi awakened his special ability, he was a little swollen for a while.

However, the cruelty of the end times surpassed his imagination and quickly gave him a resounding slap.

There were people under his hand, guns and guns, but when a powerful mutant animal suddenly attacked, he didn't expect that he would have no resistance at all.

The team collapsed in a short time, and if it weren't for the protection of a few loyal men, it would be hard to escape this time.
