

Doomsday 58

Chapter 58: Busy is not empty

Di Ping retracted his gaze from Gina, opened the system interface again, and clicked the tavern icon. He wanted to see if the new heroes in the tavern were refreshed.

Click on the hero recruitment interface again and take a look at it. Sure enough, the hero has been refreshed. At this time, Di Ping has understood the system rules. This hero recruitment is refreshed once a day, and the time should be refreshed after 12 midnight, because I slept last night. It was almost 11 o'clock and he took a look at the hero that has not changed, but it has changed at this time. The same was true for the first two times. This corresponds to the system refresh rules.

The three heroes are lined up, and they are all D-rank heroes, but Di Ping has given up his original view at this time. D-rank is the weakest in the game, but Gina, the female mage, has subverted his recognition. Knowing, D-level potential is also quite powerful.

Although Di Ping knows that D-level is not a weak one, but who does not want better if there is a C-level, don't be foolish to have a D-level?

Maybe Di Ping was out of luck today. This refresh was all D and there was no C. Di Ping was a little annoyed for a while, wondering whether to refresh or not, knowing that the refresh would cost a coin!

I can't use it indiscriminately if I manage to make some.

But in the end, Di Ping didn't give up and clicked on refresh.

The golden light flashed, the interface was blurred, the three heroes slowly faded, and soon disappeared, and three more heroes slowly emerged in the flashing, becoming clearer and clearer, until the golden light disappeared and the three heroes completely appeared in the system interface.

"Shit!"

Di Ping cursed angrily. As expected, three D-levels appeared in the system. Di Ping cursed and cursed, but he didn't dare to refresh it, because it would cost five crystal coins to refresh it again. Now he has only 15 coins in total. It's a good hero who doesn't cry if it runs out.

"forget it!"

Di Ping sighed helplessly and turned off the system. Sometimes life is necessary, but there is nothing in life. He felt he was very open-minded.

"Gina! Ready to go!"

Packed off the backpack and looked at Gina Dipin, who was sitting cross-breathing by the bed, greeted softly.

"Good host!"

Gina suddenly opened her eyes when she heard Di Ping's voice, smiled brightly, and jumped off the bed.

Di Ping opened the small door and looked around and found nothing unusual. Then he walked out of the hut and took a deep breath of the fresh air outside. The whole body was very comfortable. The sun was shining and the trees were overcast! If it weren't for the end times, Di Ping was thinking in his heart, but knowing it was a delusion, shook his head and took Gina and headed east.

This time it went smoothly. The road was quiet and there was no change. The sun has risen high, and flames have fallen from the sky to heat the earth. Fortunately, there are many dense trees and the temperature is not high. Di Ping doesn't feel too much when he walks under the trees After passing the sun, the two are fast. They have walked four or five kilometers after coming out of the hut. It is only 9:30, and they are getting closer and closer to their destination.

It should have been the hottest season, but it is not hot at all at this time. The slight wind blows and feels cool and tight. As long as you are not exposed to the sun, you can't feel the burning sensation. I look back and follow me closely. Gina on the side, although she was wearing a mage's robe, her face was as smooth as jade, and there was no sweat, as if she hadn't walked so many ways.

"Gina, are you tired, do you need to rest?"

Di Ping thinks that Gina is a woman after all, so it's better to ask, it's a man's job to care about women!

"Master, I am not tired!"

When Gina heard Di Ping's question, she immediately smiled and replied softly.

"Damn!"

Di Ping looked at Gina who was so charming with a smile, his heart jumped again, an evil fire rose from his lower abdomen, his face changed and he hurriedly pressed down, turned his head in a hurry, and cursed himself inwardly. I am out of breath, it seems that the mood problem is affecting me more and more seriously, this time the upgrade is too reckless.

The previous power has not been fully controlled, but it has improved again, so this is playing a game?

Just now, even walking was light and light, sometimes heavy and sometimes light. I didn't prepare for the strength and the strength leaked seriously. Fortunately, it was a lot better after walking a few kilometers.

Seeing Di Ping's reaction, Gina immediately covered her mouth and smiled secretly behind Di Ping. Her two big eyes were bent into a cute crescent moon, and a fascination spread, but Di Ping didn't know all this. If she knew this little The girl deliberately had to rectify her carefully, and he was trying to calm his already restless mood!

Then watch Gina when he has time, let alone he has to dare to watch it!

The two had nothing to say anymore, Di Ping did not dare to look back, and the master did not dare to speak, Gina did not dare to talk nonsense, just walked forward silently, and walked another kilometer of the ring road. Finally, the remaining road was the city. Up.

Although this is a new district, it has been developed for more than ten years, and it has become a reality. Both sides of the road are full of high-rise buildings, and the dangers increase greatly when they are here. Both sides of the road are full of buildings. There may be mutant animals rushing out at any time. So casual.

Landscape trees are also planted on both sides of the city. After mutation, they all grow into big trees. The trees are so thick that two or three people hug each other. The powerful root system destroys the road surface and the cement is broken and uplifted, but it is stronger than the outskirts. Weeds grow tenaciously among the empty floor tiles.

Two green belts are formed on both sides of the street. Many accident vehicles are parked in disorder on the road. Some of them have been burned into skeletons, and blood stains can be seen from time to time, but no dead bodies are found. The shops on both sides have doors, and some are open. , There was glass shattered all over the place, but it was still scary. There was no human being, except for Di Ping of course.
