

Doomsday 581

Chapter 581: Drove people away with tea

After hearing the story of Yun Kuohai, Di Ping was also sighed for a while.

If he didn't have a system, let him have a magical system architecture and super strength, then he might have become a mutant animal with a pile of shit.

So the frustration with Yun Kuohai is understandable.

Seeing Yun Kuohai, who was dejected and without ambitions at this time, could only respond with deep sympathy.

"Where are you going?"

Di Ping calmed down, and then asked.

Yun Kuohai rubbed his face before rejuvenating and saying:

"We heard from the radio that Bianzhou had established an army base with military protection. We wanted to take refuge there!"

Di Ping was startled and asked, "Is the Bianzhou base completed?"

Yun Kuohai nodded and said, "That's right! There have been announcements in the broadcast these past two days?"

Di Ping asked: "When did it start?"

Yun Kuohai thought for a while and said, "The day before yesterday, we decided to take the risk after hearing the broadcast!"

Di Ping understood it now. It seemed that the Bianzhou base was built only in these two days and sent out messages to the receivers. No wonder he didn't know.

With the establishment of the Bianzhou base, Di Ping didn't know whether it was good or bad for him. Although the military's power in the end of the world was further compressed, the cohesion of its group, powerful weapons and equipment, and abundant logistical supplies determined that they would also be the strongest party.

Although I now have a lot of talented heroes, the military weapons are not vegetarian. If there is a full-scale conflict, I can't see enough.

And the appearance of this behemoth beside the base, for him, is good or bad, it is really not good.

"You just drove here? Didn't you encounter anything?"

Pressing his surprise, Di Ping looked up and down Yun Kuohai and asked.

"Yes? Is there any problem?"

Yun Kuohai seemed to be puzzled why Di Ping looked at him with such a look, and replied somewhat surprised.

"You bull!"

Di Ping gave a thumbs up at Yun Kuohai with admiration.

This is really called fearless for the ignorant, but they are also really lucky that they have not been targeted by the mutant golden eagle, their fate is really big.

"Then you know, did you go in the wrong direction?"

Suddenly Di Ping stared at Yun Kuohai, until Yun Kuohai was a little confused about what happened, Di Ping smiled jokingly.

"Ah! Impossible? How could it be wrong?"

Yun Kuohai stood up suddenly, his expression excited, but then he seemed to think of something, the boss stared at him, looking at his daughter who was half leaning against him.

"Sisi..."

But before he could speak, he was interrupted by Yun Mengsi's words.

"Yes! I let this go..."

Yun Mengsi, who had recovered some energy, showed a hard smile on his pale face.

"Why? This is?"

Yun Kuohai stared at her daughter confusedly, wondering why she wanted this.

"Dad, do you think this army can really withstand the attacks of mutant animals?"

Yun Mengsi looked at his father weakly and said slowly.

"This...I don't know, but the army has weapons to be safer?"

When Yun Kuohai was asked by her daughter, she was also stopped, and her tone was not very sure.

"Even if we can resist the attack of mutant animals, will we have a good life when we arrive at the base?"

Yun Mengsi asked softly again.

"I....."

Yun Kuohai was a bit speechless for a while.

"In what capacity do we enter the base? Why do others feed us? Live for us, and at what price do we have to pay? Is it something we can afford?"

Yun Mengsi lightly stroked the scattered hair on his forehead, and said calmly word by word.

Although her voice was soft, her repeated questions left Yun Kuohai speechless for a while, unable to say a word of objection.

He is not a child, let alone an innocent boy who doesn't know anything. He is a generation of heroes who have been playing in black and white for more than 20 years. Of course, he knows that the world is darker than you can see.

Of course he knows the truth of his daughter's words, and he knows even more about whether he will have a good ending if he really goes to the base. No one can say.

The base is not a god, it is not an affair. Anything he wants to get in return without paying, he has not believed in it 20 years ago, let alone now.

He understands his daughter's worries, once he arrives at the base, everything is beyond his control.

Seeing her daughter's peerless appearance, Yun Kuohai suddenly felt a deep sense of self-blame in her heart, but she has been ignoring that her daughter's unique advantage is also the biggest disadvantage at the same time. She looks like Yun Mengsi. The base will become a plaything for some people, and the fate will be extremely miserable.

"Sisi..."

Yun Kuohai watched his daughter's eyes red.

Chapter 582: Father-daughter dialogue is clear

"Okay! What if your father and daughter want to find a cool place to be sensational?"

When Di Ping saw Yun Mengsi's big eyes burst into tears again, the whole appearance of Lin Daiyu was so pitiful, and the woman started to freak again, so he coughed and interrupted the performance of the father and daughter.

"This...."

Yun Kuohai's old face blushed, and he was speechless in embarrassment. His expression was frozen on his face. He wanted to be angry but couldn't give birth. Who said the situation is not strong!

Yun Mengsi didn't care about all of that and threw a blank eye to Di Ping, but her blank eyes were more temptation than angry, right?

"Then since you are not going to the base, are you planning to go there?"

Di Ping didn't look at her Xinger eyes at all, and directly ignored the question.

He has a lot of resentment towards this woman. This is a female fairy, a beauty snake, who will harm people at any time, and she will fall into her way if she is not careful.

This is what Yun Kuohai wants to know, his eyes are full of inquiries, and he can't help this daughter.

Whether it's IQ or EQ, his daughter can crush him a few blocks, usually things in the enterprise are basically left to her daughter. She is very assertive and doesn't have to worry about it.

If it wasn't because of her daughter's body, this inherent disadvantage restricted her, Yun Kuohai believed that his daughter was definitely a figure of great power.

Yun Mengsi suddenly smiled mysteriously, "I'm going to Central Continent!"

When Di Ping heard the word Zhongzhou, his heart was suddenly startled, but the strong mental qualities made him endure it, and he still looked at Yun Mengsi calmly.

Yue Lie, who stood behind him like a guard, raised his brows when he heard this.

"Oh! What are you going to do in Central Continent?"

Di Ping asked calmly.

"Go to the city of refuge!"

Yun Mengsi's pair of beautiful eyes stared at Di Ping's face and said softly.

"City of Refuge?"

Di Ping couldn't keep calm this time, and asked in surprise.

He was already calm if he didn't jump up, and the surprise in his eyes could hardly be concealed. Yun Mengsi saw all this in his eyes.

"Mr. Di also knows the city of refuge?"

Yun Mengsi stared at Di Ping and asked softly.

"Oh! Heard... Heard..."

Di Ping's eyes flickered, and he nodded vaguely, then suddenly looked at Yun Mengsi and asked: "How do you know the city of refuge? Why are you going there?"

Di Ping still couldn't suppress the strong curiosity in his heart. He wanted to know these answers very much, although he had already felt that Yun Mengsi was exploring his own thoughts.

"Listen to the radio! Isn't Mr. Di?"

Yun Mengsi seemed surprised to see Di Ping and asked.

"Yes... We also listen to the radio!"

Di Ping was blocked at once, so he couldn't help but nodded repeatedly.

"As for why?"

Yun Mengsi did not continue to ask, but smiled and said, "Of course it's because I know someone!"

"Oh!"

Di Ping said, took a sip from his teacup, and seemed to ask casually: "Then, who did Miss Yun know?"

The voice is very flat, but it has a meaning that cannot be rejected.

"I do not....."

Yun Mengsi wanted to say no, I don't know, but he saw the young man's face gradually becoming gloomy, and he replied, and a touch of grievance surged on his pale face, and he said with anger. :
"Shen Manshu"

"Shen Manshu?"

Di Ping muttered to himself, didn't he remember there was this person on the base?

But after the name had been in his mind several times, suddenly there was a flash of light in his mind, and he suddenly remembered who this person was?

Chapter 583: Beauty

She knew this woman, and he had seen it, but he hadn't said much, so when he said his name, he hesitated a little, but when he thought about it, he remembered who she was!

Shen Manshu is the announcer of the base station car and one of the people Di Ping rescued from the underground mall.

Before Di Ping and the others listened to the information she broadcasted, it can be said that they are very familiar with his voice.

Even before the end of the world, Di Ping often heard her voice when driving. She was a woman with a very beautiful voice.

Her voice is clear and pure, it seems that there is no noise, and it is always very comfortable for people to listen to. Therefore, Shen Manshu usually does nightly lyrical shows and has a group of listeners.

Di Ping and Di Ping had met twice before, or in the underground mall before. I remember that she was the only woman who came to serve tea and water.

At that time, several women were all messed up, their faces were yellow and thin. He didn't have that interest to stare at each woman. He just had some impressions after taking a glance.

Later, after picking up the base, the radio car was activated. He once visited it. Shen Manshu was in the radio car at the time. Only then did he remember that he had seen her at the time, but then he stopped paying attention.

Tao is not that Shen Manshu is not beautiful, but that this is a very beautiful woman.

She has very white skin, really white.

The white and tender skin dazzled people under the light. Di Ping remembered that it was a ray of light that shot into the car from the car window and shone on her face. He had such a sense, otherwise he might not remember her.

Shen Manshu is not tall, he is just over one meter six, but he has a good build, plump, but not fat. He wears a pair of rimless glasses, and his eyes are as deep as a deep pond.

At that time, she was broadcasting the information, and when Di Ping came in, she quickly turned her face and glanced at it and withdrew it.

After practicing Yuqing Zhenjue, Di Ping was able to control himself completely, and his sensitivity to beauties dropped to an extremely low level, so he just glanced at it and paid no attention.

However, Yun Mengsi mentioned it today, and it took a moment to remember it.

Then he was a little confused, how could this demon girl know Shen Manshu?

How did they get in touch?

Is there a contact information in the radio car that I don't know?

"Oh! Can you get in touch?"

Di Ping pressed the clutter in his heart, turned his gaze to Yun Mengsi, and had to get the answer from her.

"How to contact?"

Yun Mengsi looked at Di Ping like a fool and said, "I just heard her voice on the radio!"

"Oh, I see....."

Di Ping smiled awkwardly.

"Stupid!"

Yun Mengsi suddenly pursed his mouth and smiled, his pale face was flushed, and his eyes were as charming as water overflowing.

Di Ping understood the meaning in her eyes, but he could only pretend not to see, this woman could not give a good face, give a little color, he would dare to open a dyeing factory.

"The food is here, you can add more!"

Knowing the answer he wanted to know, Di Ping was not talking nonsense, pointing his chin to the food piled on one side of the table and said.

"Huh! Cross the river and demolish the bridge! Stinky man..."

Yun Mengsi stared at Di Ping's plain face for a long time, a trace of anger flashed across Qiao's face, and his small mouth murmured.

That expression was as if he had met Chen Shimei and had been ruthlessly abandoned. For a while, Di Ping felt a few strange gazes coming again.

Di Ping heard it but ignored her. Since they want to go to the base, let them go, and there will be ways to treat them.

In fact, Di Ping was not at ease. The mutant golden eagle stayed on the road. They could escape the chase by the mutant golden eagle at the base, right?

This is not Di Ping's cruelty, he always feels that there is a slight sense of crisis in front of this woman. It seems that those eyes shine through people's hearts like a microscope, and he is always exploring his mind.

It's too tired to be with such a woman, this is Di Ping's first impression.

Chapter 584: Mountains and rivers cut off roads

"Hey...this...how embarrassed Brother Di, this is the food you collected!"

When Yun Kuohai heard the words, he rushed to Di Ping's fists, his smiles were almost piled up, and he was embarrassed, but his eyes were about to stick to the food pile.

Yun Kuohai, who had long wished to leave soon, heard this and immediately understood that Di Ping was driving people out, and that he was not going to make a liquidation. He didn't want to leave these evil stars quickly.

The murderous aura that lingered on several people kept him on his back. It seemed that he could do it at any time. He didn't want to realize the feeling of life not in his own hands.

"Mr. Yun, you are welcome, please feel free to!"

Di Ping smiled calmly, and when he reached out his hand, he was not looking at the clouds, but he was holding up the tea on the table and drinking.

Di Ping, who likes tasting tea, always takes a cup of tea as his beauty when he arrives, even under these difficult conditions.

Gina was already familiar with his habits, so as soon as she went to the service area to rest, she quickly helped Di Ping make a cup of tea with hot water.

Serving tea as a mage and boiling water with spells, no matter it is in that world, it is considered a luxury.

But Di Ping likes this kind of convenience. Being a landlord and enjoying this kind of convenience, people will degenerate. Di Ping is no exception. From the original anxiety, he now enjoys all this with peace of mind. Up.

"Uh! Then... Then someone Yun has taken advantage of Brother Di's advantage, and he will definitely pay back if he has a chance in the future!"

When Yun Kuohai saw that Di Ping Duancha didn't want to talk too much, he knew that he didn't want to talk too much, so he was not polite, and once again clasped his fists and thanked him.

After speaking, he gestured to his hands. Several of his men hesitated, seeing that the other party didn't mean to move. Then he went forward to collect some food and moved two pieces of water, and then quickly returned.

"Then, Brother Di, Yunmou left before he could hurry. See you if you have a chance!"

After a few of his subordinates gathered some food and returned, Yun Kuohai was no longer in delay, and said goodbye to Di Ping with a smile on his face.

"Good to go!"

Only then did Di Ping put down his teacup, stood up rarely, and fisted at Yun Kuohai.

At this moment, two female subordinates stepped forward to support Yun Mengsi, and the group walked out quickly, as if there was a wild beast behind them.

"dad....."

Yun Mengsi asked softly without explaining, but his words were stopped by his father's eyes.

"A word of advice to everyone, be careful when driving at high speed!"

When a group of people walked to the entrance of the hall and was about to descend the steps, Di Ping's voice suddenly came from behind.

In the end, Di Ping was still cruel, and reminded a few people that it was up to others to listen to them, so let's do everything by yourself!

The group of people turned their heads and looked at Di Ping who had re-drunk tea. Doubts flashed in his eyes, not understanding what he meant by suddenly saying this.

Seeing that Di Ping seemed unwilling to explain, Yun Kuohai didn't want to talk nonsense. He could go as fast as he could, urging everyone to go out again.

Di Ping put down his tea cup and looked at the pedestrian quietly. In fact, there was no water in his tea cup.

When he was about to walk down the steps, Yun Mengsi, who had been framed by two female guards, suddenly turned his head and stared at Di Ping dumbfounded for more than ten seconds. Only then did he show his face at Di Ping, revealing a hint of meaning. Come with a deep smile.

"Yeah! This little girl is still pushing her nose on her face..."

Di Ping was caught by her smile. He always felt that there was something hidden in the smile. This woman was too demon, and he gave himself such a smile before leaving.

Don't you want to let yourself be safe?

Chapter 585: Looking for tools upstream

"City Lord, how did you let them go?"

Yue Lie held the Broadsword, looked at Di Ping with some puzzlement and asked.

Not only does he want to know this question, but also Han Ming, Daniel, and the two women Gina and Angela.

Especially when Han Ming watched the two cars slowly drive out of the service area, his eyes flashed with murderous intent, and he never feared killing.

If he used his means, these people would never leave one alone, and those who dared to point a gun at him would not give him a chance to survive.

"The last days are difficult! Human beings don't have one, and they don't have much evil deeds. If you can kill people, try not to get bloody!"

Di Ping pushed the tea cup on the table and sighed.

His voice was full of depression and loneliness. He really couldn't get rid of it. It was very difficult for human beings to survive in this last days, and he shouldn't and couldn't be in vain.

"Don't say anything, get ready and we will also set off!"

Di Ping waved his hand to stop Yue Lie who wanted to say something, and then watched several people order.

"Yes!"

A few people quickly got busy, and loaded food and drinking water on the car, which was easy to use on the road.

"the host!"

At this time, Gina stepped forward, lifted the water bottle on one side, and added some hot water to Di Ping's glass.

"Thank you Gina!"

Di Ping looked at Gina and smiled and thanked him.

Gina added water, smiled charmingly at Di Ping, and retreated behind him again to sit with Angela.

Di Ping picked up the hot tea, smelled the tea, and shot his eyes out through the floor-to-ceiling glass windows. He was in a daze and didn't know what he was thinking.

"Dad, why are you leaving in such a hurry!"

Two off-road vehicles drove slowly on the highway, one behind the other, and Yun Kuohai and his daughter sat in the back of the car behind. Yun Mengsi leaned weakly on the chair, looking at his father and asked.

"Mengsi! You have always been very smart, with high EQ, better than your dad, but you are almost a little bit better. You have not experienced  years, and I don't know how dangerous it was just now!"

At this moment, Yun Kuohai still had the aura of the old arrogance, a little wearily shrank in the rear leather seats, and said while wiping the sweat from his forehead.

"Didn't they all resolve? What danger is there?"

Yun Mengsi asked a little puzzled.

"Mengsi, your father has been in the wind and rain in the past few decades, and has seen countless blood and blood. Your father may not have any other skills, but I am too sensitive to murderousness. These people are all murderous. Killing stars?"

Yun Kuohai patted his son's daughter's hand for a while with emotion, and when he said that, he seemed to be excited, and a trace of shock appeared on his face. He stared at the boss, watching Yun Mengsi speak loudly:

"You can't feel the strong and substantive suffocation in this person named Di Ping. How many killings will it take to accumulate to this level?"

"Dad, your judgment is wrong. If they were really Killing Stars, they would have a chance to kill us when they met just now, why have you waited until now?"

Yun Mengsi didn't agree with his father's actions, but shook his head and said slowly.

"How could it be wrong? Your father's intuition can't be wrong!"

Yunkuohai is a clear-cut road.

"Dad, you are not an awakened person. You don't understand. The evil spirits on the few people just now should have been accumulated by hunting and killing mutant animals. Among the few people, the bow-bearer was more aggressive, and the others did not kill. How many people have passed!"

Yun Mengsi shook his head, looked at his father and explained helplessly.

"Really?"

Yun Kuohai said with a puzzled look.

"Yes, I can't feel wrong!"

Yun Mengsi nodded.

"Then let's go back..."

Yun Kuohai asked uncertainly.

"If you go, let's go!"

Yun Mengsi leaned back, looked at his father's uncertain face, and said slowly with a pity: "But maybe we missed a great opportunity?"

Chapter 586: The wolf's roar chased people secretly

"What does this mean?"

The doubt on Yun Kuohai's face became even stronger, and asked his daughter, who stared at him closely.

"His name is Di Ping?"

Yun Mengsi leaned her head against her body, holding a cartoon bear pillow in her arms, and looked at her father lazily.

"Yes!"

Yun Kuohai nodded, but his expression became even more confused. Didn't she know this just now? Now, what does this mean?

"If he didn't happen to have the same name, he would be the lord of the sanctuary city!"

With a smile on Yun Mengsi's face, he looked at his father and said lightly.

"What!"

Yun Kuohai jumped up and put his head on the roof of the car. He didn't seem to feel any pain. The staring boss stared at his daughter.

The two driving men were also taken aback by the scream. With a move of the steering wheel, they almost ditched the car. If it weren't for a strong psychological quality, they would definitely get off the highway.

"You said he is the lord of the sanctuary city?"

Yun Kuohai stared at his daughter suspiciously, and his voice was full of questions. When he received a positive answer from his daughter's eyes, he screamed again:

"This is not right, how does he go from this direction? Isn't this the direction to Middle Continent? Why is he here?"

"It can't be wrong, I believe in my own judgment!"

Yun Mengsi nodded affirmatively.

"What reason? Don't tell me intuition!"

Yun Kuohai doubted his daughter for the first time.

"Father, do you find it easy to wake up?"

Yun Mengsi didn't answer Yun Kuohai's question but Huafeng asked instead.

"Of course it's not easy. I haven't seen the second one except you!"

Yun Kuohai watched her daughter suddenly show a trace of pride.

"Haha! I used to think so too!"

Yun Mengsi laughed at himself suddenly, watching his father shook his head, and slowly said: "I always think I have the best talent, but today I know how ridiculous he is!"

"Mengsi, why did you suddenly have this idea? Of course you are the best!"

Yun Kuohai raised his eyebrows and said loudly.

"Because they are all awakened!"

Yun Mengsi suddenly said in a depressed tone.

"what?"

Yun Kuohai screamed again and jumped up, put his head on the hood again, and made a loud noise.

The man who drove was shocked again, the steering wheel shook again, and almost rushed into the bushes on the side, cold sweat on his forehead, the two in the front row looked at each other, their eyes were full of surprise, I don't know what happened to the boss. How bluffing today.

One of them was frightened by the roar of Yun Kuohai, and the other was frightened by what the eldest lady said. The space in a car is so large that they don't want to hear it, but they still hear it.

"you sure?"

Yun Kuohai had completely lost his state, staring at Yun Mengsi nervously, clutching the handrail with his big hands and squeaking.

"determine!"

Yun Mengsi watched his father, who had never moved in the rain, turned like a frightened child at this time, and his hands trembled a little, but she knew that she could not lie to him, so she looked at him and nodded seriously.

"How is this possible? How is this possible?"

As soon as Yun Kuohai fell and sat in the seat, sweat bursts on his forehead, looking lost and depressed.

At this moment, his heart was overwhelmed, and he was suddenly afraid after a while, even more afraid than before. Only then did he know how lucky he was to sway from the death * and come back again.

At that time, he still wanted to fight. If it weren't for his daughter's strong restraint, he might have become a corpse now.

How could he not be afraid of this? As for the shock, of course he was shocked, but it was more fearful.

Chapter 587: Find a ship to enter the city

"Oh my god! This is a big loss!"

Yun Kuohai, who had been sweating all the time, suddenly slapped his thigh and screamed in exclamation. The eyes that looked at his daughter were full of regret: "Daughter! It's all for the father, but it's a wrong opportunity!"

This time it was okay. The driver finally got a little nervous and didn't let the steering wheel turn crooked again, but there was a question in his heart. When did his boss become so excited?

"Forget it, it's useless to regret now!"

Yun Mengsi looked at his father's gentle comfort.

Although she also has a deep sense of loss in her heart, this is a great opportunity. Joining their team status now has a different meaning than rushing to the city of refuge.

"Mengsi, do you think we can look back now..."

Yun Kuohai suddenly lowered his voice and looked at Yun Mengsi, with a strong hope in his eyes.

Yun Mengsi suddenly stared at his father with wide eyes, as if he had just met him. When did his father's IQ become so low, could this be what he recognized and said?

The look in her eyes made Yun Kuohai understand instantly, and she looked at her daughter with a sorrowful smile and said, "Look at me, I am so confused!"

Random Yun Kuohai sighed again, looked at his daughter, and sighed with regret: "I'm just not reconciled. It's getting more and more dangerous outside, and you are hurt again. If you have any shortcomings, how can I? Explain to your dead mother..."

"Dad, I'm fine!"

Yun Mengsi interrupted his father, but there were tears in his eyes.

The father and daughter looked at each other, and for a while, a deep affection filled the carriage, and even the two men felt the warmth between father and daughter.

"Mengsi, do you think we still have to go to the shelter? I feel that Di Ping seems very hostile to you?"

There was silence in the carriage for a while, and Yun Kuohai's mind, which had regained calmness, had returned, with deep worries on his face.

"It blames me for this! Whoever asked me to attack him as soon as I met, this made him disgusted!"

Yun Mengsi leaned his head on the pillow, tilted his head to look out of the car and said softly.

"Then, why did he let us go?"

Yun Kuohai puzzled.

"This... I don't know either!"

Yun Mengsi was silent for a while and shook his head slightly.

Yun Mengsi's mind once again flashed the face of the young, handsome, cruel, and nasty man.

For some reason, the most flashing look in her eyes was the look he seemed to be afraid of and dodged. She suddenly pursed her mouth and smiled, her pale face showing a trace of ruddy, like a red plum blossoming in the white snow.

"Why not go!"

Yun Mengsi said softly.

Yun Kuohai looked at her daughter and suddenly looked out of the window and smiled for herself. He was dumbfounded for a while, not knowing what her daughter was laughing at.

Could it be possible that he could still laugh out of the current situation, he has not understood, but he was not asking, and fell silent, looking at the green green outside the car window.

Once the daughter has decided, he will listen. Who will let her daughter always be more accurate than himself!

"Snee..."

Di Ping, who was just about to get in the car, suddenly sneezed, rubbed his nose and thought to himself, who must have missed himself.

Ten minutes after Yun Kuohai and the others set off, Di Ping was also ready to hit the road, and there was still a lot to rush.

Because they were chased by the mutant golden eagle, they had to change their way and walked more than a hundred kilometers, and they had to go south again.

But it was not far, and after another 30 kilometers, they would be able to get on the southbound highway, and then they would be less than two hundred kilometers away from his home.

Chapter 588: Hear the gunfire in the roar of the wolf

Thirty kilometers is not far away, and it only takes about twenty minutes at the current speed.

"City Lord!"

Di Ping, who was sitting behind closed his eyes thinking about things, suddenly felt the car slow down, and was awakened by Han Ming's voice.

"what's the situation!"

Di Ping opened his eyes and looked at Han Ming.

"Look!"

Han Ming pointed his finger forward.

"this is?"

Di Ping saw the two off-road vehicles that Yun Kuohai drove before, quietly stopping fifty to sixty meters ahead.

"These people want to ambush us, shouldn't they let them go?"

Yue Lie suddenly slapped the steering wheel and cursed bitterly.

"court death!"

Suddenly, Han Ming's eyes shot out a cold and solemn voice.

"Get out of the car, disperse, pay attention to safety, Yue Lie, you go to see the situation, Han Ming will follow the guard, and Daniel will look for a cooperative position to guard!"

Di Ping didn't talk nonsense, he directly gave the order, and the killing intent in his eyes became intense.

"Yes"

Feeling Di Ping's killing intent, everyone was stunned, and hurriedly responded, and then the car door rang.

Han Ming opened the door first and rolled out of the car, and quickly rushed into the thick trees on the side of the road.

Then the others said something and rushed out of the car, but Di Ping finally got out of the car and looked up over there. Gina and Angela followed him from left to right.

Han Ming took Yue Lie and the two swiftly touched it, and Daniel climbed up to a street sign on the side of the road, set up a musket in his hand and scanned everything around with clever eyes.

Until Han Ming and the two walked to the two cars, nothing happened, which made everyone very puzzled, is it a mistake.

After a while, Han Ming made a gesture to this side, meaning that there was no empty car!

Then the two began to look around for clues, and Di Ping watched quietly, and doubts arose in his heart.

"City Lord, it's not that they are going to ambush us..."

Han Ming and Yue Lie both returned, and neither of them looked good, Han Ming shook his head and said to Di Ping.

"what happened?"

Feeling that the two of them were in the wrong state, Di Ping asked in a deep voice.

"City Lord, the road is broken, we can't make it through!"

Yue Lie suddenly became excited and said loudly.

"The road is broken? What's the matter?"

Di Ping's eyes flashed, and a bad feeling rose in his heart. He looked at the two and asked in a deep voice.

"A big river in front of the road destroyed the road, now cars can't go, and people can't go!"

There was strong grief and anger on Yue Lie's face, and the blue veins on his neck jumped up.

Han Ming's face was also icy, and his lips were tightly closed, showing that he was not in a good mood at this time.

Di Ping walked quickly to the end of the road, and it was hard to look at the rolling river in front of him.

This was originally a river before the end of the world, but it has basically dried up, leaving only a channel with a width of less than 30 meters in the middle, but it has now become a real big river.

The surface of the water is fiercely surging, and the billowing river rushes forward and far away in a whirlpool, and the speed of the water is frightening. You can also see that there are big trees on the water from time to time when they are caught by the waves, they sink and float down.

The current river surface can be estimated to be about the same without looking at it. The width is definitely more than two hundred meters. Di Ping can fly and can't fly over it.

The original high-speed bridge was completely gone at this time, only a few concrete piers appeared occasionally in the huge current, but the bridge deck disappeared.

Di Ping knew that this should be caused by the last rain. The trees on the earth grew and the air humidity increased greatly. A heavy rain restored the old dry river course and reproduced the previous billowing torrent. The road and bridge were under this huge wave. How could it exist anymore.

Looking at the billowing river, Di Ping sighed for a while. The human being, who thought that man would conquer the sky, appeared so weak at this time, and all traces of it were quickly erased in front of nature.

Chapter 589: House seemingly endless rain

Everyone was hurting their heads. How to cross such a wide river, the water was also very turbulent, and the boat could not control the direction after it entered.

It seems that Yun Kuohai and his party may just abandon the car to find the way when they saw the road was broken?

"Yun Kuohai they went there?"

Standing on the broken bridge, Di Ping quietly looked at the flowing river and asked softly.

"City Lord, they are going in this direction!"

Han Ming has a good track record. He knew Yun Kuohai and his party's whereabouts a long time ago. Hearing Di Ping's question, he pointed in a direction and said to Di Ping.

"Oh! This is going upstream!"

Di Ping looked at Han Ming and nodded lightly in the direction of his finger, then turned to look at several people and asked, "What do you guys say?"

When several people saw Di Ping inquiring, they were all stunned. Gina, Angela and Daniel were not familiar with the terrain, so they didn't have any comments at all. Yue Lie was still too tender and had no idea for a while.

Dao is Han Ming or has sufficient social experience, turned around and looked at the fierce river, then looked at Di Ping and said:

"City Lord, ordinary wooden boats can't get through at this river flow rate. If there is a speedboat, we should be able to cross it. We must go to the city to find a speedboat!"

Di Ping nodded and said, "Then shall we go downstream or upstream?"

"I think we should go upstream!"

Han Ming seemed to see some people wondering, so he explained: "One is that the upstream is walking in the direction of our destination, the other is that the upstream is close to Yixian, maybe you can find a speedboat, and the third is that there is a railway bridge going upstream See if it has been destroyed!"

"There are iron bridges upstream?"

Di Ping was not too concerned about the first two conditions, but the third one shocked his mind.

"Yes City Lord! It should be about ten miles away from here!"

Han Ming nodded.

"Okay, then we will also go upstream!"

Di Ping nodded, seeing Yue Lie and others had no other idea, and Han Ming made a decision immediately after analyzing the correct analysis.

Everyone abandoned their cars and jumped off the highway. There is also a road below, an ordinary country road, which is only six or seven meters wide. At this time, the road that has been squeezed by trees is less than two meters wide.

The paulownia trees planted on both sides of the road are extremely tall at this time, and the thick roots are stubbornly protruding from the ground.

The original flat asphalt pavement has been broken into pieces, and it has become undulating, but the basic form of the road is still there, and there is only a place to stay.

Yue Lie and Han Ming were exploring the road more than ten meters ahead, while Di Ping and his party followed, and their party headed for Yixian County, more than ten kilometers away.

Motorboats are not common in the inland areas. Most of the rivers in the interior have been cut off or dried up, and there is no navigable capability at all, so boats and motorboats are difficult to find.

Generally, some large water parks will have speedboats mainly for performances or rescue purposes.

Also, now that people are rich, many wealthy businessmen like to go to the beach and buy water amusement tools such as speedboats and assault boats.

Di Ping didn't see this kind of thing often in Zhongzhou City, just a few times by the river.

And this county is just a small county, it's really hard to say whether there is such a thing!

The most important thing is to see if the railway bridges ten kilometers upstream are still there. Generally, railway bridges are much better than highway bridges, especially the high-speed rail that has been developed in recent years.

The construction quality requirements are extremely high, and Yi County happens to have high-speed rail, which gives everyone hope that if the high-speed rail bridge is there, everyone can easily cross the river.

Chapter 590: To instigate divorce

"Wow..."

There was a beast roar in the distance, and everyone who was walking stopped listening, looking in the direction of the beast roar, their faces were shocked, because the sound did not seem to be too far away.

"This is wolf roar!"

Han Ming said calmly.

Yes, Di Ping could also hear it. The sound was the roar of a wolf, but he was a little puzzled how a wolf appeared here.

This is also not a mountainous area, that is, a plain area. How can wolves appear here?

"Let's go?"

After waiting for a while, the wolf roar did not come again, Di Ping waved his hand.

The group of people went on the road again, and did not cause much trouble to everyone because of the roar of the wolf. With the strength of their team, the super monster like the non-mutated golden eagle, the general mutated animal is no longer in the eyes of everyone.

What's more, it's just a mere wild wolf, and the crowd of wild dogs similar to wild wolves don't know how many to kill!

"Wow..."

After everyone walked for a while, they heard a wolf roar again, the sound seemed to be farther away, and the roar was surging over the forest.

Everyone paused again, stopped for a while, and then went on the road again, without stopping too much.

"Oh oh..."

Everyone walked for more than ten minutes again, and another wolf roar came from the distance, and this time the sound obviously changed its direction, and the directions of the three sounds were different.

"What's the situation? Did you enter the wolf den?"

Di Ping stopped, raised his head and looked at the direction of the wolf roar, with doubts flashing in his eyes.

"City Lord, this should be the wolves tracking the prey!"

Han Ming stopped and frowned slightly, looking at the worried way ahead.

"how do you know?"

Yue Lie asked in a puzzled way.

"I spent some time on the grassland, and I also know more about the characteristics of wolves!"

Han Ming said calmly.

Although Han Ming's performance was plain, Di Ping felt a trace of fear and anxiety from Han Ming's words.

"These wolves are following us?"

Di Ping looked at Han Ming and asked.

"It should not be!"

Han Ming listened for a while, looked up and shook his head and said, "It should be tracking the person in front of you!"

"The person in front?"

Di Ping was stunned for a moment, and immediately looked in a daze, then suddenly smiled and said, "Isn't that just the Yun Kuohai group of people?"

"possible!"

A rare smile appeared on Han Ming's clear face, as if he was very satisfied with the result.

"This is retribution!"

Yue Lie took a sip and cursed with hatred.

Di Ping looked at Yue Lie's appearance, smiled and shook his head. This was still a child, and even the retribution came out.

Although a fairy-like woman like Yun Mengsi is attractive, and even the feminine and miserable she showed at the time there is some sympathy and pity, but it does not mean that they have really stood on the position of Yun Mengsi. Of course, they will not forget before. Attack on Di Ping.

"City Lord, shall we go forward?"

Han Ming asked in a deep voice.

"Of course, why not go forward!"

Di Ping smiled and nodded.

Yun Mengsi's charming face suddenly appeared in his mind, and there was a trace of regret in his heart.

Every ten minutes or so, there will be a wolf roar.

After listening too much, a few people got used to it, and were not affected by it, so they moved forward quickly.

Along the way, I didn't encounter a mutant animal, and the whole world seemed to have no other sound except the wolf roar that came from time to time.

Han Ming once again found a few traces of people passing by on the road, and judged that Yun Kuohai's group of people should have also moved towards the railway bridge, hoping to quickly reach the opposite bank through the railway bridge.

Only after crossing the river, Di Ping could go home quickly, and Yun Kuohai was going to Zhongzhou, just turning north from here.

In fact, if Yun Kuohai is not afraid of the long road, you can go directly north from Yixian County, but this way, the road will be detoured. Without high speed, you can only go underground, and the speed will be too slow.
