

Doomsday 62

Chapter 62: Annihilate humanity

The three of them just chatted in a word!

Although Yue Lie is more mature, he is still too tender compared with Di Ping, who has been in the market for two or three years, let alone Liu Han, who is very refined and big;

After a while, I can't wait to urinate a few times in an hour and the bed will shake clean, let alone the situation in the base.

The people in the base all fled here after the last time the government retreated and dispersed. Originally there were only five or six hundred people. Finally, the people who ran away slowly gathered. The number has exceeded 1,000.

It was not good at first. There was a supermarket in the mall and there was a lot of food, not only vegetables, but also oil and grains, and there were a lot of bread and biscuits in the warehouse.

The base was led by a Ge Zhongping and a dozen officials who hadn't evacuated. He was already the highest-ranking official in the province when all the high-ranking officials in the province had withdrawn with Lien Fang.

Nearly a hundred police officers who failed to withdraw naturally have to obey the management of the leaders. Although police weapons are not as good as the military, they are enough to deter ordinary people, and Ge Zhongping naturally becomes the highest power holder here.

In the beginning, when there was no shortage of food, Ge Zhongping and the management were still doing pretty well. Everyone had food and drink. Everyone felt that this person was a good leader, and he was a good leader who could consider the people.

However, we must know that the daily consumption of these thousand people is very terrible. The supermarket food is consumed day by day at a rapid rate. When Ge Zhongping and the management felt that something was wrong, as soon as they checked the food, there was not much left. Quit it, especially some police officers who are not good in quality themselves took the lead and demanded that food be stopped and given priority to those who protect the underground base.

Although some conscientious police are opposed to it, people are still in the minority and have no right to speak at all. The power of Ge Zhongping and the management actually comes from the support of these policemen. These people have guns to deter thousands of people in underground bases. .

They also understand that they can't let themselves lose the support of these people, otherwise their leaders will have to step down at any time, so they agree with these people's opinions, and the food will start to feast.

It's not good to save money! Consumption is also very fast!

So these people have a bad idea!

Let people with strong health have to find food, otherwise not only the food will stop, but also the safety cannot be guaranteed and they must be driven out;

Although the people at the base are opposed, who would dare to go out and die, but after these people had guns in their hands and killed a few people who led the trouble, the people on the base understood that they couldn't resist, they could only accept it, and they could only be hungry if they didn't go out to find food. People in the peaceful age are not hungry at all. You can be hungry for three days or two days. No one can stand it for a long time!

The base has formed one after another search team, one after another, one spending to find food, although every day there are people who can't come back, sometimes the team of people leave their lives outside, but hunger can make people crazy and forget Fear, still went out looking for food.

But even if they found food, they found out that the manager of the base actually asked them to hand in the food, and only let them keep a small part. Although these people were very angry, no one dared to resist and only tolerated it silently. , If you don't give it, you won't be allowed into the gathering place.

And these people seem to be more and more adapted to this end of the world, not only withholding food, but also using food to tempt the hungry women in the base to satisfy their own desires;

As time goes by, they seem to enjoy the pleasure of power. These people have become more and more aggressive, and even openly stare at the beautiful women in the base, and the people in the base dare not speak.

The silence of everyone has fueled these popular flames. They regard themselves as the king of the last days and wantonly release their inner darkness. Fortunately, there is a deputy, city and mayor Han Zhongguo in charge of agriculture and forestry with some conscientious policemen. They have been resisting, but the number of people is limited after all, and their weapons and equipment are not as good as the opponent. The opponent also has scruples not to fight for fear of losing both sides, and even more afraid that a fight will attract mutant animals, so he does not dare to stimulate these people too much.

But there are always women who are hungry and accept food, and if these women can't stand their temptation to enter the urn, they will be destroyed.

Ge Zhongping also began to degenerate, allowing these people to go around, and he himself enjoys the best resources and the most beautiful women. He seems to enjoy the present time even more, and no one can restrain the use of the power in his hands.

If it's not for being trapped here and unable to get out, he really wants to live like this every day, like being suppressed by various forces every day before the end of the world, and everything he wants to do is subject to supervision and control. It's better for the end of the world. How to do it.

Listening to the two people talking about what happened in the base with angrily on their faces, Di Ping's heart suddenly burst into anger. In front of him, Wang Delin and several people's conscienceless madness released the darkness in their hearts, and now there are these people in the underground base. Under the pressure of the doomsday, when humans are facing a crisis, instead of taking care of each other, they are controlled by their inner desires and become dark, greedy and all-powerful. They are extremely squeezed and destroyed by fellow human beings. I don't know how cruel it is to be human Go down to do these evil things.

Di Ping felt that his blood was about to boil, and the fire of anger in his heart was about to burn himself, and a strong killing intent suddenly rose from his body. He had already sentenced these people to death in his heart, although he did not want to kill, but Some people can no longer count human beings, they are not as good as animals, and they pollute the air when they live.

He is not God, he is not Yama, and he is not a  or Buddha, but he would rather be an angry King Kong to get rid of these evils for the world!
