

Doomsday 631

Chapter 631: Rush into the enemy line and take the Chinese army

"This...isn't this inappropriate?"

Liu Minsheng watched the fanatical people staring at his group with angry eyes, pushing forward step by step, as if he wanted to eat his own meat and drink his own blood. For a while, he also felt a chill in the back of his spine, but let him fire. He really can't make up his mind.

"Liu Minsheng, don't fire the gun yet. If you can't get the mission at all, it's up to you how you go back to work with Chu Si!"

When Wang Dequan saw Liu Minsheng's hesitation, the cold suddenly rose. If the guns were not fired at this time, once these mobs came up to their deaths, he knew this well, so he roared.

When Wang Dequan mentioned Commander Chu, Liu Minsheng's body was shocked and he raised his hand subconsciously.

With his preparation, a hundred soldiers raised their guns, and the muzzles on the tanks and land combat vehicles moved, and the three machine gunners also pulled the boot bolts one after another, and the atmosphere suddenly became tense.

But at this time, the people seemed to have fallen into the excitement of the group. They were not moved at all. They still yelled chants to force them here, and the combat team members were rekindled and joined the team.

Liu Minsheng's raised hands began to tremble. He is a soldier, but he also has parents and relatives. He originally wanted to scare him a bit, but these people didn't care at all and put him in a dilemma. At this time, he was in a violent struggle, and his raised hands kept pressing. Not going down.

Not only Liu Minsheng was shaking, but these big soldiers with guns were also shaking. They pointed their guns at unarmed ordinary people. They were soldiers but not butchers, and the fear in their hearts was slowly magnifying.

"Listen to me, ready to open..."

Wang Dequan looked at the crowd who had approached more than 30 meters, and his heart was broken in fear, while Liu Minsheng was still hesitating. He suddenly jumped and raised his hand to call for shooting, but he was interrupted without saying anything. .

"I see who dares!"

Suddenly there was a violent drink, like a spring thunder, which exploded on the spot, the sound roared, and everyone's eardrums felt pain.

Everyone stopped. It is impossible to imagine that one person's voice has overwhelmed the chanting of thousands of people. A word of dare like a response from the mountains, buzzing echo, for a time everything seems to have stopped between heaven and earth, only this voice is in the air. Reverberating.

"Who....."

Wang Dequan was stunned and reacted for two seconds. He raised his eyes and shouted in a hurry.

"I heard that you are going to punish me?"

At this moment, an indifferent voice came from behind him. The scared Wang Dequan was agitated, and he quickly turned around, but there was no one behind him. His scalp was numb, even though he was under the big sun, he still felt a while. Chill like falling into an ice cave.

"what!"

Suddenly a gust of wind blew, Wang Dequan only felt that someone was blowing into his neck, and suddenly screamed in shock.

"Hey..."

At this time, the person who spoke just now uttered a disdainful murmur: "With this courage, I dare to show off on my base, who gave you the courage!"

Before the sound fell, a white figure flashed, and a person walked out from behind a thick tree trunk on the side of the road.

This is an unusually young person, he walked out indifferently, as if he was not afraid of the guns in front of him at all, with a disdainful smile on his face.

As soon as this figure appeared, there was a burst of thunderous cheers from the base, and then everyone jumped up excitedly, cheering loudly, cheering for the return of his king.

It seems that they have been victorious. The city lord has heard their call and returned. As long as the invincible city lord comes back, all dangers will pass.

Han Zhongguo, Lu Guoliang, Cheng Chao, and others saw Di Ping's nervousness suddenly relaxed, and a trace of relief appeared on their faces.

Yu Shujie and Liu Bingyu, who were raising their hands and shouting just now, were surprised when they saw Di Ping, covering their mouths with their hands, but then tears could not stop pouring out like water that opened the gate.

"You are the city owner of this base?"

Wang Dequan finally met the world and quickly stabilized. Although his voice was still trembling, he still had the courage to stare at Di Ping and asked.

Chapter 632: Dazzled in the nest

"I heard you are looking for me?"

Di Ping lightly lifted his footsteps and walked towards Wang Dequan, smiling calmly.

Every time he took a step, he didn't see any effort, but every time he landed, the ground made a painful roar. This sound seemed to be a drumbeat of death, hitting everyone's heart, the blood was shaking, everyone showed a look of horror.

"You...you don't come over?"

Wang Dequan suddenly felt that it was no longer a human being in front of him, and a terrifying beast was staring at him ferociously, approaching him step by step, and he suddenly screamed in fright.

"This gentleman, please stop..."

After all, Liu Minsheng is a soldier who can withstand much better than Wang Dequan. He glanced at Wang Dequan with some contempt, but he still had to protect him. After all, he was the chief officer on this trip and had to step forward and stop Di Ping from approaching.

"roll....."

Di Ping looked at Liu Minsheng and suddenly yelled. The sound was like a thunder in the air. Liu Minsheng's head buzzed and he stunned. He withdrew five or six steps, and a mouthful of blood came out.

"You... are people or ghosts..."

At this time, Liu Minsheng was also scared. He covered his chest with one hand, his face was pale and scary, and his eyes stared at Di Ping sternly.

But Di Pingli ignored him, and walked towards Wang Dequan step by step.

Wang Dequan was also frightened by Di Ping's scolding. Although he did not face the impact directly like Liu Minsheng, the aftermath of the sound was also shocking. His heart was throbbing, his chest was stuffy, and his mouth was sweet, and there was a trace of blood flowing out of the corner of his mouth. He was scared. With a horrified face, his hands backed back again and again, but he didn't want to be thrown to the ground by the stones, and uttered a scream that was as frightening.

"Stop, I can shoot further..."

Although Liu Minsheng was horrified, he was also annoyed by Di Ping's ignorant attitude. With a wave of his hand, a hundred soldiers turned around, and more than a hundred black hole guns pointed at Di Ping.

"Are you sure you want to..."

Di Ping stopped, his plain eyes glanced at Liu Minsheng and the soldiers, and a cold smile appeared on his mouth.

"Stand there and don't move. If you move again, I will order the shot. The bullet has no eyes..."

A trace of jealousy flashed in Liu Minsheng's eyes. With more than a hundred guns at his side, the panic in his heart eased a lot, and his eyes stared at Di Ping in horror not to let him go forward.

"I know that you are soldiers and you can't help it. I don't blame you. Now I put down my guns and I will not blame it!"

Di Ping calmly looked at Liu Minsheng and a group of soldiers and said lightly.

"This is impossible!"

Liu Minsheng is decisive.

"If you don't put down your gun, you will die!"

A dead word came out, like the devil weeping and the ghost crying, a cold, terrifying and creepy breath suddenly struck everyone, as if a sea of corpses appeared in front of them, countless souls stretched out their pale ghost claws to grab them.

"you....."

Liu Minsheng and Wang De's complexion changed drastically, and his face suddenly turned pale. He pointed at Di Ping's body in horror but involuntarily backed away.

The young man at this time is still a human being, he is the devil from hell, and he is devouring himself at any time with a huge mouth.

Di Ping stood like this, looking at the group of people indifferently, a strong evil spirit surged like a raging sea on his body, he was suppressing the anger in his heart with force, otherwise he was afraid that he would kill all these people. .

The base had never suffered such severe damage. Two heroes were seriously injured and dying, and a dozen combat team members lost their lives. This made him want to kill someone in his heart.

If not for a trace of reason, he could kill these people in a quarter of an hour, guns? By now, Di Ping hadn't seen these weapons in his eyes.

To say, Di Ping was at the gate of his courtyard just now, how could he suddenly come here?

Many people must have doubts?

Chapter 633: The gunfire drove crazy

When Di Ping saw through the system that Liu Minsheng asked the soldiers to raise the gun, he couldn't sit still anymore. He had to go back immediately. At this time, the foundation had no defensive ability.

Owen and Boogie were injured and the main combat personnel were lost. This group of people lost their backbone. Moreover, he saw that in his camp, many people were not there, and many heroes were not there. In this case, the pressure on a group of armed soldiers has changed very Powerless.

He was afraid of serious damage to personnel in the conflict, so he had to go back immediately.

It's just that he was caught in a dilemma. He finally walked such a long way. When he got home, although he didn't meet his parents, he also learned the news.

As long as you can see your parents in one day and pick them up back to the base, this is a critical time for the base.

If he goes back?

Not reconciled, he knows how difficult it is to walk this way, can he still walk so smoothly next time?

The world is changing every day, and the region seems to be changing too. I will say whether we can find the right direction next time.

But the base has reached the point where he has to return, and Di Ping's heart is embarrassed like a tsunami.

"Di...The host can buy positioning stones, set the position, and then use the teleport well to send it back!"

Just as Di Ping was in a dilemma and his heart was burning, the silent system suddenly reminded him kindly.

"Locating stone? Is there in the system store?"

Di Ping asked in surprise, but the system ignored him, but at this time he was not angry at all, he was extremely excited, this was a solution to the big problem.

Sure enough, when I opened the system store and searched for it, there was a positioning stone, and the price was not too expensive, only one hundred crystal coins.

The positioning stone is very simple to use. There are instructions for use in market shopping. In fact, it is equivalent to a locator. Each locator has a unique information code, which is also equivalent to a coordinate. Just enter the information code from the transmission well. , It can be directly transmitted to the location of the locator.

In other words, as long as Di Ping put one in this yard, next time he wants to come back, he only needs to send it from the base through the teleportation well.

After getting the positioning stone, Di Ping wrote down two sets of codes. He didn't have much time to delay, got up to greet the people who were anxiously waiting for him, and gathered.

"Han Ming, can I trust you?"

Di Ping stared at Han Ming who was carrying a war bow and asked in a deep voice.

"can!"

Han Ming was taken aback for a moment, and then simply nodded.

"it is good!"

Di Ping stared at Han Ming for a while, then said slowly, "I will give you a task now!"

"City Lord please give orders!"

Han Ming became more serious and looked at Di Pingdao with burning eyes.

"Okay, I have something to go back to the base. I need you to go to Jincheng for me to find my parents!"

Di Ping said in a deep voice.

"it is good!"

Han Ming nodded solemnly.

"When I arrive, I find my parents, so you can protect him, and I will go to you!"

Di Ping walked forward and confessed to Han Ming in a low voice, then took out a moonstone and handed it to him: "You hold this thing. If you need me to come over, you can open it. As long as it lights up, you can take it. Put it in an empty place!" Then he took out another thing, which was a teleporting scroll, and handed it to Han Ming. He solemnly ordered: "If you find my parents and I don't arrive within three days, you With this open, remember that the number of people should not exceed five, and they must stand together. Have you written these down?"

"I got it!"

Han Ming looked at the things in Di Ping's hands with horror in his eyes, but soon calmed down, nodding seriously, without a trace of slack or laziness on his face.

Chapter 634: Don't be careless when you are proud

It was Di Ping's temporary intention to use Han Ming to find his parents.

When he went back this time, he didn't know if the matter could be resolved quickly, and he couldn't let his parents wait any longer, so he had to let Han Ming, a newcomer who was familiar with the road, find the way first.

In this way, time will not be wasted, and when the time comes, use the transmission well directly to transmit it to the past.

After making arrangements for Han Ming, he found another positioning stone and threw it into the yard. The reason why the positioning stone is called the positioning stone is that it is designed like a small stone, and no one will pay attention to it when thrown on the ground. .

Putting the positioning stone away, Di Ping greeted everyone to come to him, and told them to gather around, and he took out a scroll.

This is a medium-sized return scroll, which can transport ten people at a time, while the one that can only transport five people to Han Ming. This scroll cost Di Ping 150 crystal coins. At this time, he still feels heartache. .

The crowd formed a circle and looked at Di Ping in confusion, and Han Ming retreated more than ten meters away, holding the two things Di Ping gave him, and looked at what Di Ping was going to do with curiosity.

Di Ping took out the teleporting scroll and slowly opened the scroll by pressing the buckle, and then the scroll emitting a dazzling white light, and then a series of invisible lines and energy were suddenly produced, surrounding everyone in the middle.

The colorful energy fluctuates rapidly, and countless runes and lines are produced in the void. It seems to be forming a cylindrical column directly into the sky, followed by white light, like a sun, and the space fluctuates violently.

"Om..."

The space that Han Ming only felt seemed to tremble with a buzzing sound. He felt tight in his chest, just wanting to see what happened?

But the dazzling light pierced his eyes involuntarily, and he couldn't see everything in front of him.

When he opened his eyes again, he was stunned. Di Ping and the others disappeared. There was only a circle of flame burning on the ground, and there was nothing else.

Han Ming thinks he has traveled to other worlds, isn't this teleportation?

He actually saw it today. He was in a daze for a while. He looked down at the two things he was holding tightly. Suddenly he felt heavy.

He turned out to be the legendary teleportation scroll in his hand. Such a valuable thing was easily handed to him by the city lord. What a trust.

Deeply moved in his heart, he picked up a photo Di Ping gave him, and he secretly determined to find the city lord's parents in order to repay the city lord's kindness.

Looking back at the direction where Di Ping disappeared, Han Ming suddenly turned his head and ran towards Jincheng.

Let's talk back to Di Ping!

As soon as the teleportation scroll was opened, Di Ping felt a flower in front of him, and countless rune energy suddenly surged around him like water waves, and countless runes formed a channel to the void.

Immediately after the white light burned, and then there was a muffled sound in the space, he felt his body tremble, a strong pulling force hit, and then a black body in front of him seemed to be walking through the endless void, with a sense of emptiness. .

But the time was fast, he only felt that his eyes were dark, and in just five or six seconds, his eyes lit up again, his body shook, and he felt his feet fall on the ground.

When he opened his eyes, he saw that he was actually standing on the teleportation platform of the teleportation well he built before.

He will not admit it, because the tall and magnificent castle is right in front of him.

The transmission Inoue crystal was still shining, but for a short time, the lines and runes of the crystal and wireless bright sound dimmed again.

At this moment, he didn't have time to sigh, he didn't have time to worry about the unspeakable Yun Kuohai group of people who had been horrified at this time.

After speaking, he greeted Daniel, Gina, and Angela quickly ran towards the gate of the base.

At this time, the people in the base gathered towards the front. There was basically no one in the base, and Di Ping's return did not cause any fluctuations.

During the rush, he arranged tasks for the four of them, and the four of them went straight out of the base to find their respective positions.

Chapter 635: Humanoid Tyrannosaurus Smasher

It just so happened that as soon as Di Ping reached his position, the scene in front of him appeared. The masses of the base all rushed out, and they were sincerely pressed towards the army.

Although Liu Minsheng hesitated, who knew if he would suddenly order, and with Wang Dequan screaming on the side, Di Ping could no longer hide.

He was afraid of a momentary negligence, the army fired shots, but once they started fighting, they were all automatic weapons with great lethality, which ordinary people could stop.

This was thousands of lives. He didn't dare to bet, so he stopped immediately when Wang Dequan shouted.

At this moment, Di Ping seemed to be a fierce beast, coming from **** with the evil aura of Tao Tian, as if the real murderous aura made Liu Minsheng and all the soldiers like falling into ice, their feet weakened, and their gun hands began to tremble. If it were not for the discipline of soldiers, these soldiers would have dropped their weapons and ran away.

"lay down your weapon!"

"No...impossible!"

A cold light flashed in Di Ping's eyes suddenly, and the whole scene suddenly became quiet, the atmosphere condensed to freezing point for a while, everyone held their breath and stared at Di Ping closely.

"boom....."

Suddenly there was a gunshot, and a soldier couldn't bear the strong pressure, and his fingers trembled.

"Noisy..."

Di Ping shouted angrily. This sergeant seemed to be hit by an invisible force. His body suddenly retreated three or four meters away. A mouthful of blood spurted out, his face was full of horror, and his eyes looked at Di Ping with horror. .

With Di Ping's mental strength and full coercion, it was not something ordinary people could bear. This sergeant was directly vomited blood.

At this time, Di Ping was still not moving, raising his right hand like a fly, and waving his hand to swept the fast-flying bullet.

"boom....."

The swept bullet hit a large tree trunk not far away with a soft sound.

"Not going to shoot..."

Liu Minsheng's scalp exploded fiercely, and he quickly yelled, but the following words could not be said. He was stunned by the scene in front of him, and he watched it with his mouth wide open.

Everyone was stunned by this scene. What happened?

To catch the bullet? Is this a person? Or Superman?

Di Ping also secretly touched his sweat. He didn't know whether his body could block the bullet now, but in order to deter him, he still chose this horrible way.

But what makes him gratified is that his eyesight and speed can fully react. He wanted to hide just now, but suddenly realized that he could clearly see the trajectory of the bullet, and he did not dodge when he thought of it, but with his hands. The bullet was swept away, but fortunately, the back of the hand was not injured, just a little pain.

Now his physical strength, ordinary bullets are no longer enough to pose a threat to him.

This made him feel confident!

"Oh my God?"

Wang Dequan took a deep breath, and his eyes were full of shock. This is no longer human. Although there are evolutionaries in the base, he feels that there is no such powerful one.

Wang Dequan's eyes suddenly filled with infinite horror. He knew what he was doing. If Liu Minsheng let the army put on weapons, he would not dare to think about what he was facing.

He looked at Di Ping with a fierce light in his eyes, pulled Liu Minsheng over, and shouted loudly: "Don't be afraid of him, he is magic, it's all up to me, shoot me to death!"

With his shout, he really woke up the stunned soldiers, the tanks and chariots buzzed, and they really listened to him to move the artillery fire.

"Stop it, stop it!"

Liu Minsheng also reacted and waved his hand to stop it.

"court death!"

Di Ping was angry and moved suddenly. His body seemed to be a light smoke. It moved through a space of ten meters in an instant and appeared before Wang Dequan and Liu Minsheng.

The two big hands protruded out like eagle claws, grabbed the necks of the two of them, and lifted them up, their eyes swept across a group of military officers, and shouted: "Put down your weapons or die!"

Chapter 636: Sudden killing in chaos

"You... let go of me... Whoops..."

Wang Dequan fell into Di Ping's hands before he understood what was going on, and when he reacted, he struggled fiercely.

Liu Minsheng was a bachelor, and he let Di Ping grab his neck without saying a word, even though the powerful force made his face flush!

"Wow... let us battalion commander!"

At this time, the soldiers reacted and saw that their battalion commander had been arrested. The soldiers immediately remembered their fear, screamed and rushed up, and more than a hundred guns were pointed at Di Ping.

And the tank's artillery turned around, the black hole's muzzle was facing Di Ping, and the machine gun mobile phone on the tank also touched its spring, ready to be launched at any time.

"They are going to be disadvantageous to the city lord, so fight with them..."

After a short period of sluggishness, a group of people at the base saw Di Ping being surrounded by a group of soldiers with guns pointed at him and still willing to do it. Someone suddenly shouted and rushed forward.

With his shout, the crowd was enthusiastic, and a group of people screamed, and the combat team rushed to the front.

At this time, the soldiers were confused, pointing their guns back and forth, one to Di Ping, and another to the rushing crowd. They didn't know what to do.

"Snapped!"

At this moment, the same person who looked like an officer quickly turned around and took a pistol to the sky and shot at the sky, and then shouted loudly: "Stop it all, kill it before you step forward!"

The crisp gunshots still woke up the frenzied people, stopped their steps, and showed fear on their faces, but there were still many people with fearless faces on their faces, and they wanted to rush upwards.

"Everyone is not allowed to come forward, the combat team listens to orders and organizes the masses to retreat!"

As soon as Di Ping saw that it would not work, if it became messy, these soldiers couldn't help but shoot, which would cause heavy losses, so he immediately became angry at Dantian and shouted loudly.

His voice was loud, like thunder in a clear sky, everyone's ears buzzed, and his movements slowed down.

At this time, Di Ping's prestige was manifested. When the crowd heard his order, although they were unwilling, they stopped. The combat team was taken aback, but quickly ran under the command of Cheng Chao and others to form a human wall. Blocked the crowd.

The young officer who fired just now took a long breath and wiped the sweat from his head with a look of shock.

Liu Minsheng looked at the scene in front of him, his eyes were full of shock, he did not expect this young man to have such prestige at the base.

"Order them to put down their weapons!"

When Liu Minsheng was shocked, there was a strong squeeze from his neck and a strong pain, followed by Di Ping's voice in his ears.

"Impossible! As a soldier, I will not put down his gun! Lord Di, I think you still let me go, so as not to cause unnecessary damage?"

Liu Minsheng's face flushed, but he still refused, and his words were full of threats.

"Wang Tianhao, are you dead? Give me a shot at these mobs, haha! There are so many people who buried me with Wang Dequan enough...cough cough..."

At this time, Wang Dequan, who was grasped by Di Ping in his left hand, suddenly yelled, looking hideous and crazy.

"Uncle I..."

"What am I...cough cough...do it!"

When Wang Dequan was about to roar, Di Ping started to cough, but he still roared with a blushing face.

"Yes....."

Wang Tianhao's eyes flashed sharply, and he gritted his teeth. He turned to look at the large group of people in the base behind him, and suddenly shouted: "All of them, turn back, give me..."

It is already natural for the soldiers to obey orders. Upon hearing the slogan, they turned around and pointed their guns at the people in the base.

"I see who dares to move..."

Liu Minsheng was so frightened when he saw this, he hurriedly stopped shouting.

After all, he was the battalion commander. With his shout, the soldiers stopped and shot at the order of Wang Tianhao from the audience.

Chapter 637: Embarrassed on all sides with nowhere to escape

"Snapped....."

Suddenly the young man turned around, raised his hand at Liu Minsheng and shot him, then, without looking at him, shouted at the front of the sergeants with a hideous face: "Now I am the highest chief officer here. It's all about me. ...."

Liu Minsheng did not expect that his deputy would suddenly shoot himself, pointing at Wang Tianhao angrily, but you didn't say the following words for a long time, the blood flowing in his chest quickly made him lose his strength.

Even Di Ping did not expect that this young man would suddenly shoot Liu Minsheng. He did not react at the time, so he took a slower step and got Liu Minsheng a shot in the chest.

Di Ping watched Wang Tianhao's background flashes of murderous intent. He didn't want to kill people and hoped to solve the problem peacefully, it seemed impossible.

He didn't want to fall out with the powerful military at this time, but it didn't mean he was afraid. Wang Tianhao was already dead and wanted to fight against himself, so he would not be soft.

At this time, it's useless to hold on to the two of them. Wang Tianhao doesn't care about their life or death. Di Ping loosened his hands and Liu Minsheng fell softly. He pressed his **** chest with one hand, only breathing, and Wang Dequan fell on the side. Gasping for breath.

Di Ping threw away the two of them and made a faint gesture with the back of his hand behind him.

"Everyone listens to me, dare to resist orders, just like Liu Minsheng!"

Wang Tianhao carried the smoking pistol in his hand, and he was murderously preaching to the soldiers. He saw the soldiers bow their heads. Then he raised the gun and pointed at the crowd on the base and shouted: "Now listen to my order, raise the gun... ...."

"boom....."

Although more than one hundred soldiers were reluctant, they slowly raised their guns, but at this moment, a gunshot rang.

Then he saw Wang Tianhao as if he was hit by a huge force, and he flew out directly, and he let out a scream in the air.

The screams shook the field, and everyone was stunned for a while, even more than a hundred soldiers panicked with guns.

"Ah! Tianhao!"

Originally Cheng Di Ping didn't care, Wang Dequan, who had just climbed to the side of the tank secretly, was stunned by what happened before him.

He stared blankly at Wang Tianhao, who flew five or six meters away with a blood hole in his chest, gurgling blood, spurting blood from his mouth and nose, turning white eyes, and his body convulsing constantly.

"Tianhao...Tianhao..."

Wang Dequan seemed to react with a sudden yell, rushed towards Wang Tianhao frantically, and then picked up a pool of blood.

But at this time, Wang Tianhao's vitality had been taken away by the blood flowing out quickly. He looked helplessly at Wang Dequan as if he wanted to speak hard, but in the end only the blood spewed away, and then his body weakened and his head dropped to one side.

Looking at Wang Tianhao, who was covered in blood and body was already limp, Wang Dequan let out a stern roar, he suddenly raised a pair of blood-red eyes and stared at Di Ping Ping's hideous roar.

"It's you..... You killed him?"

"what!"

Wang Dequan suddenly yelled frantically, his whole person looks like crazy, staring at Di Ping Yangtian spitefully with a long scream: "You...you can't die...ah! Tianhao... .. It hurts me..."

The few straight hairs that Wang Quande had combed as if they were licked by a cat were dancing indiscriminately like stubble.

"Shoot me...Shoot, kill all these mobs..."

At this time, Wang Quande no longer cared about his own life. He just wanted to kill Di Ping with all his heart to avenge Tianhao.

But he shouted for a long time, but all the soldiers stood still. No one obeyed his orders. At this time, more than one hundred soldiers were confused and didn't know what to do.

This time it was really ups and downs. The deputy battalion commander shot the battalion commander, and the deputy battalion commander was shot again. A group of people had lost their ability to judge and didn't know what to do.

Chapter 638: One will be helpless

Wang Dequan looked at the soldier standing still, and his eyes spurted blood. He picked up the pistol that Wang Tianhao had dropped by his hand, and shot a sergeant.

"what!"

The sergeant thought that he would shoot suddenly, and he immediately covered his chest with one hand, blood pouring out from his fingers, his eyes slowly fell down with an unbelievable look.

"Who will die if you don't obey, quickly, shoot me?"

Wang Dequan was already crazy at this time, his eyes were blushing, and he shook his head and yelled wildly.

A group of sergeants were dumbfounded by the scene in front of them, and when they reacted, they hurried to inspect the sergeant who was shot. When they saw the blood pouring over the chest of the sergeant who was shot, all the soldiers became angry and raised their heads and stared angrily. Wang Dequan.

Seeing that the sergeant didn't obey orders at all, and staring at him with hatred, Wang Dequan became even more angry, and he shot twice.

It was another two soldiers who fell over their chests.

"I am a special envoy appointed by Commander Chu. If you don't obey the order, you will die, and your family must pay my Haoer's life!"

"Snapped....."

Suddenly a sergeant stood up silently, threw the gun in his hand, and looked at Wang Dequan with cold eyes.

When he threw the gun, there was a chain reaction. More than a hundred soldiers all threw the gun out, and they kept snapping.

"You guys... pick up your guns for me, or I will shoot you..."

Wang Dequan was dumbfounded, he was stunned for a moment, and immediately rushed over, grabbing a soldier by the collar and shouting sharply.

But the soldier looked at him coldly, standing straight and not at all moved by his threat.

The gunshot, a blood flower bloomed on the soldier's chest, and it grew bigger and bigger, and the soldier fell silently.

"You...you pick up the gun for me..."

Wang Dequan rushed to the other soldier again, screaming frantically with the gun against his chest.

But this soldier was also motionless, as before, staring at him coldly.

Another sergeant fell down, but the anger in the eyes of all the sergeants became more and more raging, but still no one dared to fight back, and could only fight silently.

Di Ping looked at all this gloomily. These soldiers are respectable, but just now they dared to point their guns at their citizens. That is unforgivable. Although his heart is hot, he must be right, just quiet. Watching Wang Dequan perform like a rabies.

"You...you dare to resist your orders, you are all mobs, you will all die to me...Kaka!"

He stared at the group of sergeants frantically pulling the trigger, but there were no bullets in the gun, and there was a click.

"Come down to me..."

Suddenly, Wang Dequan threw the gun in his hand and rushed to the side of the tank. He pulled away the machine gunner on the tank, rushed up by himself, grabbed the gun, and suddenly turned the gun muzzle towards Di. Ping, staring at Di Ping with cold eyes, screamed, "Die me..."

At this time, Wang Dequan was still crazy, and his calm eyes carried a kind of hatred that made people palpitating.

Even Di Ping, who has been watching jokes quietly, never expected that this Wang Dequangang turned out to be a pretend, crazy performance, and the real purpose was to grab a machine gun.

This machine gun is not an ordinary machine gun. It is an automatic weapon with a caliber of more than 20mm. The rate of fire can reach more than 1,200 rounds per minute. The bullets of more than ten centimeters can penetrate steel armor, even the outer armor of tanks. Breakdown, not to mention the human body, even if Di Ping was hit by this bullet, he was either dead or injured.

He didn't expect that Wang Dequan knew that ordinary bullets could not hurt him. All the performances just now were just for grabbing the artillery and shooting himself.

Such people are terrible!

Never keep it, this is a wolf, a poisonous snake, and it can be addictive at any time.

He was also deceived by him. Looking at Wang Dequan, who was about to buckle his body, Di Ping was angry. When did he ever be teased like this?

Chapter 639: Unparalleled prestige

"court death!"

Di Ping was angry and coldly burst out two words, his eyes flashed, and the whole person disappeared from everyone's sight when he moved his body, and then the person appeared in front of the tank.

At this time, Di Ping had reached the extreme, whether it was muscle control, qi and blood deployment, or speed control.

"what!"

Wang Dequan, who was preparing for the engine to bombard Di Ping with cold eyes, suddenly said that Di Ping disappeared, and in the next instant, a face suddenly appeared in front of him, suddenly screamed, and his hand movement stopped. .

"Come down!"

Di Ping didn't wait for him to react, and swept over with an angry slap.

"call....."

Di Ping's feet swept from his side with a fierce gust of wind.

With a loud noise, Di Ping swept his foot on the cannon. Amidst everyone's dumbfounded, the cannon disintegrated instantly, as if it exploded suddenly, with parts flying in all directions.

"what!"

Wang Dequan suddenly felt his body tremble, and then his whole body was carried out by a huge force. After that, a sharp pain came from his arms, and the person let out a stern cry in the air.

"boom....."

Wang Dequan flew five or six meters away and smashed to the ground. The powerful impact caused his body to roll out another two or three meters on the ground. He was covered in blood all the way and looked extremely terrifying.

I saw that his arms were all turned into pieces of meat from hand to elbow, hanging like rotten cloth strips on the broken arm, as if being stirred by a meat mixer, Bai Sensen's bone stubble was clearly visible, and the blood seemed to be no money. Generally ejected from the broken blood vessel.

"Ah...My hand!"

Wang Dequan seemed to have finally reacted, watching with horror in his eyes as he raised his severed arm and let out a stern scream.

Everyone was stunned when they saw this scene, until Wang Dequan let out a terrible roar.

Seeing the ***** scene in front of them, many people's complexion changed, their throats stiffened, and they even bent over and threw up wildly.

People who didn't vomit looked at Di Ping and looked at Di Ping's eyes, as if they were looking at a monster. Such a powerful force could kick the steel-cast machine gun to pieces, and it was like a humanoid Tyrannosaurus.

Di Ping stood with his back on the top of the chariot, his eyes calmly looking at Wang Dequan who was screaming, as if it was not him who had caused all this, but someone who had nothing to do with him.

The sergeants who had swear to death and resist Wang Dequan with death seemed to be frightened by Di Ping's fierceness. Seeing this calm and terrifying young man, like a devil and monster, could not help his heart throbbing. The soldiers bent down and wanted to pick up their guns. It seemed that only guns could give them a sense of security.

At this time, there was a gunshot. A bullet hit in front of these people. A basin-sized pit was hit on the ground. Fragments of bricks and stones flew out, and these people withdrew their hands hard.

Looking at the pit on the ground, all the sergeants felt their scalp numb. This is a gun. This is the effect of a machine gun. How powerful this gun is, who dares to move it.

Just as the scene was silent, a burst of developed roar suddenly sounded, and everyone looked at the sound coming from, and saw a tank car suddenly started and quickly rolled over here.

The huge tank seemed to be a behemoth, roaring and rushing towards it. It was a dozen meters away in a blink of an eye. The huge car body turned and inserted one end between Di Pin and the sergeant.

Chapter 640: Encouragement declaration at the gate of the city

"Quickly, quickly..... Retreat with the battalion commander..."

The cover of the tank opened, and a sergeant stretched out only half of his body, shouting anxiously at the dazed military officers.

To say that the quality of the soldiers is indeed good, he immediately reacted to this call, and quickly rushed out of the four people, lifting Liu Minsheng on the ground and quickly backing away.

Then a large group of sergeants were not in charge of the guns on the ground at this time, and surrounded by the seriously injured Liu Minsheng, they rushed to the woods quickly, very fast.

A trace of anger flashed in Di Ping's eyes. He didn't expect that at the last moment, someone would stand up and make trouble, disrupting his careful planning step by step.

He just wanted to move and jumped onto the tank to take down the sergeant. Suddenly, the chariot under his feet started with a bang and then made a sharp turn, as if he wanted to throw Di Ping off.

"Stop it for me!"

Di Ping's power was subtle, it would be thrown off, but his body was still staggered. This really angered Di Ping. A cold light shot in his eyes, he roared, and he stomped fiercely with his feet. In the car.

"boom....."

A huge roar sounded, and the huge body of the chariot shook suddenly and sank downward, as if it was hit by a heavy hammer falling from the sky.

The powerful force stunned the insiders abruptly through steel, and the use of Anjin wasn't just for fists, as long as it was power.

The people in the car were stunned. The fast-turning chariot came to a halt and stopped abruptly. Di Ping, who was standing on the roof of the car, was about to bend down and grab the people in the chariot. Suddenly, he heard a panic. With stirring, Di Ping felt his pores explode.

Di Ping had no time to think about it, his body was short, and his whole body instantly disappeared on the top of the chariot.

"boom....."

At this time, there was a sound of cannonballs, and the entire ground shook, followed by the scream of cannonballs piercing the air.

A huge explosion sounded, and a giant tree tens of meters away from three people was hit by a cannonball. In an instant, the tree chips shot and broke from the middle, and the 100-meter-high giant tree collapsed.

Di Ping's figure appeared more than ten meters away. He turned his head and looked at the consequences of the shells, and his back was cold and sweaty. If it weren't for his keenness and rapid feeling of murder, if this gun hits himself, he will definitely die. Seriously injured.

He was angry, and he felt that today he was too kind, kind to make people think he was bully, and challenged his bottom line again and again.

Murderous intent surged in Di Ping's eyes, and the raging flames throbbed in his eyes. He looked towards the firing point, which was another tank.

This tank took advantage of Di Ping to be attracted by another tank and chariot, but quietly pointed its muzzle at him, trying to destroy Di Ping with one shot, but they didn't expect Di Ping's reaction to be so fast.

At a distance of more than 30 meters, he was even avoided by him, and the person who fired the gun for a while was also stunned.

Normally, Di Ping should have been blown into a ***** mist, but it was obvious that the shell did not hit the target, but the people on the tank had disappeared.

This is not good on the tanks and tanks, and the vision is poor. Di Ping suddenly disappeared more than ten meters away. For a while, the tanks and the people on the tanks could not find him, so the opportunity to fire again was lost.

"court death!"

Di Ping let out a roar, and the people rushed out. There was a flash of lightning. In an instant, people appeared on the top of the tank and kicked towards the top of the tank.

With a loud noise, the top canopy was kicked out by Di Ping's tremendous power, and then the person had already jumped off.
