

Doomsday 68

Chapter 68: Run out of ammunition and food

In fact, when Di Ping had just set off from the castle, Ge Zhongping, the deputy mayor of the underground base of the shopping mall, and a dozen base leaders were discussing things in a room.

Among them is Lu Hai, the chief of the city's public security, and dozens of real power figures in the hands of the police are talking about the same in the underground base. It can be said that Ge Zhongping can only become the top leader with his support.

There is also Han Zhongguo, the deputy mayor in charge of agricultural education and health. He is now supported by a dozen policemen, so he can still maintain a certain right to speak in this management.

The rest of the people can be said to be soy sauce, some directly fell to Ge Zhongping, most of them remained neutral, but very few fell to Han Zhongguo, so he is very isolated in this group, if not under his hands. With a few guns, he was kicked out of the management team long ago.

Ge Zhongping was smoking the cigarette, his eyes swept through the smoke to the faces of everyone in the room, observing the expressions on each person's face, when his eyes swept across Han Zhongguo, he paused and flashed murderously, but his eyes were hidden. No one can see clearly in the smoke.

Everyone in the room was silent and smoking cigarettes. The whole room was suddenly filled with smoke. Everyone's face was hidden in the smoke and it was not real. Only the cigarette butts were bright and the room was silent. It's scary, only the burning sound of cigarette butts can be heard.

Just now, Yang Shusen, the person in charge of the distribution of all materials at the base, read out a report to the public. This is an inventory of existing materials. Everyone was shocked to hear about this situation, and even more panicked. A lot of worries emerged.

What makes these people so alarmed?

That's right, the supplies are already insufficient!

Not to mention the supply of existing materials to everyone, that is, even their management and police teams can't supply them, and there are still two or three days at most, which means they will have to stop after a few days.

They are better, but you must know that most of the people in the base have been interrupted for more than two days. In the first two days, many people can only guarantee one or two loaves, let alone eat full.

There have been cases of starving people in the base. There have been more than a dozen cases of starving people in the past two days. This is a poor health. There was not much food intake before, and now I can't eat anything. Can't hold it anymore.

Now I am in poor health, that is, I am in good health. I haven't been able to eat much these days. If I stay hungry for another three days, maybe the base is full of people who starve to death.

These people can live and die, and they can leave them alone, but they have to run out of food. What if the police force makes trouble?

When I think of these people here are big heads, Ge Zhongping also feels irritable, really want to let go, but now he is riding a tiger.

"Everyone has come up with ideas, one person is short in wisdom, while others are long in wisdom! Everyone talks about it, what to do now!"

Ge Zhongping pinched out the cigarette butts in the ashtray, raised his eyes and glanced at everyone, and said with an official tone.

What he didn't expect was that everyone didn't even lift their heads, they just smoked silently and looked at the desktop. It seemed that the pattern on the desktop was very beautiful. He didn't want to lift his head. Ge Zhongping's eyes filled with anger. , These people are so shameless, no one responds to their own words.

"Lu Hai, what do you think? Tell me about it!"

Ge Zhongping was helpless to see that everyone didn't speak, his authority was really getting lower and lower, he had to look at his diehard Lu Hai and let him come to the rescue.

It's just that he forgot that this land and sea is a rice bucket, and it is also a microphone that he used to control the police system. What kind of insight can such a person have.

"Secretary, your opinion is my opinion, I will follow you firmly!"

When Lu Hai heard Ge Zhongping's name, his scalp was tingling, and he stood up quickly, looking at Ge Zhongping with a flattering smile and said.

"puff"

Ge Zhongping almost spit out a mouthful of old blood, until today he regrets putting this wine pouch and rice bag in such an important position; it's just that he didn't think about such a strong person himself, and he would get angry even if he was disobedient.

At this moment, knowing what kind of advice he got from Lu Hai, don't think about it. Ge Zhongping had to wave his hand to let him sit down. Lu Hai exhaled and walked down slowly, not forgetting to wipe the sweat from his head.

"Don't be silent, please don't hesitate to say anything, at this time we must work together to get out of the predicament!"

At this time, Ge Zhongping is no longer planning to play officialdom. It has come to life and death. He has no time to play here. Ge Zhongping can reach a high position and he is not a silly person in charge of the three major public security bureaus. He naturally knows what kind of situation he is facing now. Don't say enjoy it if you are not careful, it's good to have a life.

"Okay! Let me say a few words!"

At this time, Han Zhongguo, who had been silent, suddenly put out the cigarette  in his hand, looked up at Ge Zhongping and said, his eyes were firm and sharp.

"Haha! Good! Vice Mayor Han will just say what he has to say, comrades will understand it!"

Ge Zhongping was overjoyed when he heard someone respond, but when he heard the voice, Han Zhongguo's face suddenly sank. He hates this Han Zhongguo the most. If this person hadn't been in the base and messing with himself, he would have completely controlled the base. It's not like there are so many neutrals in the management that are all affected by this Han Zhongguo. Although he is very disliked by this person in his heart, he does not dare to show it now. His face changed and he said to everyone with a smile.
