

Doomsday 69

Chapter 69: Civil strife creates a chance

Han Zhongguo didn't want to say anything to a person like Ge Zhongping, but for the lives of thousands of people on the base, he had to stand up. He couldn't ignore the lives of these people. This was not his Han Zhongguo's idea.

"Everyone, I think everyone knows the seriousness of the situation now, it's the moment of life and death! What should we do?"

Han Zhongguo stood up and glanced sharply across the room. His voice was steady and strong, and the room was buzzing, attracting everyone's attention. He slammed a punch on the table and said in a deep voice, "The food is insufficient. In order to support us, we are waiting, and the military region cannot send any force to rescue, so we must save ourselves."

"Then Deputy Mayor Han has any good solutions?"

Ge Zhongping saw that Han Zhongguo attracted everyone's attention as soon as he spoke, and he was immediately upset. He didn't want Han Zhongguo to steal the limelight, so he immediately asked.

"I don't know if it's a good way, but I know, everyone will die if I don't want it!"

Han Zhongguo didn't even look at Ge Zhongping, just said lightly.

Ge Zhongping was smoked from Han Zhongguo's neglected attitude, but he was also a deep-minded person. The smoke in his hand trembled, and the anger in his heart was suppressed severely. He sat there smoking sullen cigarettes without talking.

"Deputy Mayor Han, just say what you have to say! No matter how you wait like this, it will definitely not work! You say yes!"

At this time, Lu Guoliang, secretary general of the Municipal Party Committee, finally spoke, and he clearly supported Han Zhongguo in this tone.

Ge Zhongping's heart suddenly sank. He knew that although Lu Guoliang was usually neutral, the neutrals basically listened to him. It can be said that he is the absolute center among these people, but he doesn't know this person who has always remained neutral and silent. Today, how could he suddenly take a stand so clearly.

"Yes, isn't it just waiting to die?"

An official said coldly while smoking a cigarette.

"Yes! To this day, if we eat and drink and drink, we don't need mutant dogs to attack, we will have to starve to death?"

Another person squeezed out the cigarette in his hand and said with a worried expression.

"I think it has to be changed a long time ago, let's see what day is going on!"

As soon as he finished speaking, someone went on to blow his beard and scream.

As soon as Lu Guoliang spoke, the usual neutral people screamed, and the whole venue suddenly became chaotic. Ge Zhongping looked at the screaming group of popular cigarette holders with shaking hands, and the corners of his eyes twitched constantly.

"Snapped!"

Ge Zhongping slapped the table fiercely with anger, his eyes swept across the crowd and yelled angrily.

"What does it look like? It still looks like a state official!"

The people who were originally noisy were frightened by Ge Zhongping's momentum. You must know that Ge Zhongping's strength can be famous in the city, and in the last days, he controls the power of the base. These people really don't dare to confess with him. sound.

"Then Deputy Mayor Han has any suggestions!"

Seeing everyone avoiding his gaze, Ge Zhongping looked at Han Zhongguo with satisfaction, a slight triumph in his eyes flashing away.

"Okay! Let me talk about it!"

Han Zhongguo didn't seem to see the complacency in Ge Zhongping's eyes. He knocked the teacup in his hand heavily on the table, and said in a low tone.

"Now the mutant dog surrounds the base, and there is no way to rescue. Then we must save ourselves. Waiting is a dead end. I don't think everyone will have any doubts about this, right?" Han Zhongguo glanced over the crowd after speaking. When everyone nodded, including Ge Zhongping, he continued.

"The base now has a population of over a thousand, and we can't even run. If we take these many people to break through, our troops will not be able to defend. In the wide streets, we are not opponents of mutant dogs at all, we can only be defeated by each one!"

Han Zhongguo's voice echoed in the room, and everyone's eyes flickered. They all knew what Han Zhongguo was saying was the truth, but he had no choice but to hide here and wait, but now the food is gone, so he doesn't need mutant dogs. Killing, I starved to death here, so as everyone listened to Han Zhongguo's talk, there seemed to be a way, everyone looked at him with hope.

"So, we can only kill these mutant dogs!"

With a sudden punch, Han Zhongguo's tone changed and a bomb was thrown out. This bomb was like a chain reaction ignited in a gunpowder storehouse, and the room became chaotic.

"No! Kill the mutant dog, who will kill it! An international joke!"

"Yeah! Deputy Mayor Han, what are you kidding? What are you killing? If we can kill us, we can still be rushed here to hide underground like mice and wait to die!"

"What's the idea, I think it's a mess!"

At this time, the people who favored Ge Zhongping heard Han Zhongguo's argument and immediately mocked.

Ge Zhongping did not speak, but quietly watched the disturbance in the court, but he was not in a calm mood. He felt that things were a little beyond his control. Why was it only his own people who made the disturbance at this time? Lu Hai was the leader, and Han Zhongguo said One faction, including Lu Guoliang's neutral faction, silently watched without a word.

Are these people already united to pass each other's breath?

Otherwise, why did he behave so calmly? This thought came out, and Ge Zhongping suddenly came out with a cold sweat on his back.

He couldn't figure out how these people united. It seemed that there was no sign. How could it not be united. The more he thought about it, the more he was afraid. He took a deep breath and wanted to calm himself down. If it was such a big deal. Up.
