

Doomsday 71

Chapter 71: I am born to be useful

"How does Vice Mayor Ge think about this plan? Can it be implemented!"

Just as Ge Zhongping was thinking wildly, Han Zhongguo's loud voice came.

"Then show your hands to vote!"

Ge Zhongping woke up from Hu Si and knew that the matter was irretrievable, but in the end he still didn't give up and wanted to change the voting.

"Good! A show of hands!"

Han Zhongguo himself did not expect Ge Zhongping to agree, and being able to vote by show of hands was what he wanted, so he agreed.

"Okay, then!" Ge Zhongping put his finger on the table weakly, then looked at everyone and said, "If you agree with Vice Mayor Han's plan, please raise your hand!"

"Hoop!"

Han Zhongguo was the first to raise his hand, and then the two of Han Zhongguo raised his hands. When Lu Guoliang slowly raised his hands, Ge Zhongping only felt that his eyes were dark. He knew that his guess was fulfilled. Guoliang raised his hand, and the six neutral groups raised their hands.

At this time, only Ge Zhongping, Luhai, and the four of his faction did not raise their hands, but it doesn't matter whether they raise their hands or not. Ten to five is absolutely overwhelming.

Ge Zhongping helplessly also slowly raised his hand. After all, he is the leader. If he stands on the opposite side of everyone, then he will be isolated. If he can't, he has to raise his hand, but he is infinitely suffocated, Lu Hai. He was staring at Ge Zhongping with his eyes. When he saw him raising his hand, the five of them could only agree with him.

"Okay! Passed unanimously!"

Han Zhongguo said loudly, although he tried to suppress his inner joy, the excitement in his tone was still audible.

After that, everyone still planned the next step. Ge Zhongping finally tried to set up a temporary working group consisting of four people, Ge Zhongping, Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang, and finally Lu Hai was pulled into the working group by Ge Zhongping and Han Zhongguo two I also knew that I could not be forced to be too eager and finally agreed, so that the four in the group became a tie, and no one knew what would happen next.

Not to mention that these people are really good at doing things seriously, and they are large and powerful. Al Qaeda has hundreds of people. They began to dismantle shelves and set up shelves at the entrance of the mall under the arrangement of two experts.

The shelf is split into individual units, and then connected with angle irons and screws. A narrow passageway that can only be passed by one person is built along the gate, and the frame is made of densely crisscrossed angle irons. , Surrounded tightly on the wall, forming a huge strange building like a bird's nest.

The frame uses physical principles and is very strong. More than a dozen people stand in the passage and push the frame forcefully. The staggered frame forms a whole and strengthens stability. To say that these experts are still somewhat useful, only few There is still some help in this professional field.

In the morning, the supermarket shelves were completely dismantled, and the result was that a large frame with a length of 30 meters by 5 meters and a width of 3 meters was erected at the entrance of the underground shopping mall. In the middle is a passage that only allows one person to pass through, and both sides are opened. A passage through which people can enter to kill mutant dogs that enter the middle passage.

After a busy morning, it is finally over!

They did not dare to waste time and did not go to the morning to eliminate mutant dogs and search for food. There will be more people starving to death tomorrow. So the framework was confirmed by two experts. The police team organized here quickly took their place and held guns. To every position of the frame, two hundred young adults were organized to take self-made spear weapons, and they could enter the channel to kill mutant dogs at any time.

For a while, the air in the base can smell tension, everyone is waiting, and the time waiting for the blocked gate to open, no one knows whether it is life or death.

How much effect this framework can play is really unpredictable, including Han Zhongguo was also sweating on his head at this time, and Ge Zhongping was holding a handkerchief and constantly wiping the sweat on his head. At this time, he thought of Han Zhongguo's ancestors. Eight generations scolded it again, but at this time he knew he could only believe him.

At this time it was almost noon, the sun was high in the middle of the sky, and the strong sunlight was shining on the street. Di Ping and his group of four were already very close to the base. They came to the hotel where Yue Lie two hid last time, and the group entered Take a break in the hotel.

Di Ping, who had been away at noon for a whole morning and experienced two battles, also had to rest. There was still a bigger battle waiting for him in the square, so he had to be energetic.

At this time, everyone in the base was holding their breath and looking at the gate. At this time, three people were dismantling the protective wall that was blocking the door. As the protective wall was dismantled a little bit, a little light came in. His heart was squeezed.
