

Doomsday 731

Chapter 731: Think about the path of leadership

Before Lu Guoliang finished speaking, he was interrupted by Di Ping waved his hand. Di Ping smiled and said, "Don't worry, I am not soft-hearted, let alone any other reason. I have a way to find this person!"

"what way?"

Lu Guoliang asked in surprise.

"I just remembered it too, but I forgot it before, so you will wait for me for a while and give you the answer later!!"

Di Ping smiled calmly.

"Ok!"

Although Lu Guoliang was puzzled and didn't know what Di Ping was doing, he still nodded.

"Barton, you accompany Chief Lu, I will go to the control room and come down in a while!"

Di Ping gave a command to Button, then nodded to Lu Guo, turned and walked to the control room.

"It's the master!"

Button respectfully sent Di Ping away, and then looked at Lu Guoliang and said, "Chief Lu, please sit down, I will pour tea for you!"

Not to mention what Lu Guoliang was talking about with Button, we came to see Di Ping, he walked to the control room and said to the air: "Zero, do all activities in the system building have video records!"

"Yes Master!"

Zero sound echoed in the air.

"Great!"

Di Ping clapped his palms with excitement, and finally let go of his original anxiety. He excitedly said to Zero, "Zero, you call up all the video data of Ye Lu in the base!"

"Good host!"

Zero's voice came, and then several virtual large screens in the control room began to change images, and video images appeared one after another.

I have to ask, why didn't Di Ping just call it, why did he go to the control room to adjust the zero?

Just now Di Ping almost called the zero adjustment directly, but in an instant he thought that this was inappropriate in front of Lu Guoliang. If Lu Guoliang knew that all his activities in the base were recorded, what would he think?

No one wants their every move to be monitored by others, so once this incident is revealed, it is easy to disgust everyone in the base.

And Di Ping only knew that anyone could be found through zero in the system building. He didn't know if there were any image materials. He was asking with a hint of hope just now, not wanting to have it.

"Master, there are a total of five thousand three and seventy-one video materials about Ye Lu. The total screen time is two hundred and thirty hours. Will the master play them one by one?"

The space-time virtual screen finally stopped flickering, and the sight information was displayed on the virtual interface one by one, watching densely with dizziness, and then zero voice sounded in the space.

"I wipe it! More than two hundred hours, when do I have to see it?"

When Di Ping looked at the full screen of video data, his head suddenly got a little big, he was dumbfounded as to how to find it.

"Master, fifty virtual screens can be played in the control room, and the total playing time is four hours. Does the owner want to play on separate screens at the same time?"

It may be that after hearing Di Ping's sigh, Zero's voice sounded.

"Four hours?"

When Di Ping heard it for four hours, he was happy at first. This time was less, but then he shook his head with a wry smile. These four hours were not too much. On a fifty-fifty screen, how did he see it?

"Zero! Is there another way?"

Di Ping asked with the last faint hope.

"May I ask what information the master is looking for?"

As soon as Di Ping's voice fell, Zero's voice sounded in the void.

"Eh! There is a show!"

When Di Ping heard this, he immediately became excited and said anxiously: "Zero, find me the man who has the most contact with Ye Lu!"

"Good host! The screening results will be displayed in five seconds!"

There was a zero voice, and then I saw the screen on the virtual screen began to change like lightning, making people feel dizzy at first glance.

Chapter 732: Make up your mind

Five seconds is short, but for Di Ping, who was waiting anxiously at this time, it was as difficult as a year.

"Beep!"

Suddenly, there was a beep, and the virtual picture stopped abruptly, and some pictures were displayed on the five virtual screens.

"So it's really you!"

Di Ping looked at the content in the picture, his eyes became fascinated, and a cold light appeared in his eyes.

Almost all the pictures have a man and a woman, some in the room, some in the woods, basically two people are hugging each other, there are whispers, laughter, and some restricted-level pictures, which make people watch. Blood spurts.

The female character in the picture is Ye Lu, and the man is not another person, but Feng Ziming, a handsome man in the combat team.

Di Ping looked at the two people on the screen with cold eyes, and a sneer appeared at the corners of his mouth. As expected, this person was Feng Ziming.

Before, he liked this Feng Ziming very much. Not only was he handsome, but he was also very sunny. He was very capable of doing things. He was very thoughtful and flexible. He felt very good. He always had ideas and cultivated well, but he never thought about it. Betrayed.

People do evil and cannot live, and they will pay a price for doing things. He will not let go of the betrayers.

It's just that Di Ping's eyes flashed when he looked at the screen. He was thinking, whether this Feng Ziming was alone or if he had another co-worker, whether it was him who killed Zhou Chunchun!

"Zero, is there any video data of Zhou Chunchun from the Ministry of Communications?"

Di Ping has already felt the benefits of the smart system hand, of course he still has to look at Zero to know if he knows.

"Some masters, do you want to call it out?"

Zero replied.

"Call it out!"

Di Ping nodded.

"Good host!"

As soon as the zero sound fell, the images in the screen changed for a while, and within a second, some images were displayed.

"Master, there are a total of 33 video screens, one hour and fifty minutes!"

As soon as the screen stopped, zero voice came.

"Why so little?"

Di Ping looked at more than 30 video files on the virtual screen and asked puzzledly.

"Master, Zhou Chunchun rarely does activities in and around the system building, so there is little video data!"

Zero voice explained calmly.

"Oh!"

Di Ping nodded understandingly, "Help me bring up the video screen where Zhou Chunchun has the most contact with men!"

"Good host!"

The picture changed again, and the data stream flickered, but for a second, the picture stopped.

"Ten scenes in total! Thirty minutes long, with five male contacts, five times with the most contacts!"

Zero's voice came again, and then huge pictures were displayed on the virtual screen.

In the picture, there are also a man and a woman. The two figures are in a wood. Di Ping sees this location is on the edge of the newly built market.

The market was not open to the public, and no one went there. It was very quiet. No one would notice the two of them moving here, but he did not expect that there would be surveillance at a certain distance from the system building, and everything about them was recorded. Down.

It's just a pity that there is no picture of Zhou Chunchun when he was killed, no system building where the broadcast truck was parked.

"Damn it!"

Di Ping looked at the person in the picture, and his heart was instantly angered. This person is not someone else, but Feng Ziming.

In the picture, his smile is so gentle, so sunny and charming, Zhou Chunchun has a shy expression and a happy smile on his face.

She knew that she liked a person with a heart like a poisonous snake. Not only did she fail to get happiness, she was wiped out and ruined her young life.

Chapter 733: Watching life is everywhere

"Zero, are there any conversations that are detrimental to the base in these videos?"

Di Ping suddenly thought of something and asked Ling.

"Master, please wait a moment!"

As soon as the voice of Zero fell, the picture began to change again. Two seconds later, the picture stopped, and the voice of Zero sounded again: "Master, after analysis, there is no dialogue about the content of the base, it is all human love!"

"Oh!"

Di Ping nodded in disappointment.

It seems that there is no direct evidence to catch this Feng Ziming. It is not because he was in love with Ye Lu and Zhou Chunchun at the same time that he was behind him. At most, he can only say that the other person's character is bad, and he stepped on two boats.

In fact, Di Ping really didn't do anything to catch him. As the lord of the city, killing someone is nothing, but Feng Ziming as the captain, with an extraordinary status, would attract a bad impression if he did it for no reason.

And Di Ping doesn't want to do this either. The most important thing is that the content of these videos can't be made public. If this publication is acceptable, it must be bombed!

Anyone who wants to be watched everywhere, watching this video, some are in a human room, dear, even Han Zhongguo must be bombed, he must suspect that all the intimacy with his wife has been recorded.

This announcement was even greater than the impact of the inner ghost on the base. Thinking of this, Di Ping swished and sweated behind his back.

In other words, Liu Bingyu's daughters couldn't spare him. They definitely suspected the perverted city lord, and it was okay to peek at them taking a bath.

"Zero, the video screens admitted in the base will be sealed for me in the future, and no one can retrieve them without my permission!"

Di Ping wiped the sweat from his head, and his voice sternly ordered zero.

"Oh, master!"

"I said zero, would you not record my video?"

Just as Di Ping was about to breathe, he turned and walked, suddenly remembering something, jumped up and asked anxiously.

"Without the owner's authorization, Zero has no authority to monitor the owner, and cannot keep any owner information!"

Zero replied.

"That is not bad!"

Di Ping took a long breath, letting go.

He is also afraid! Thinking that all of his activities had been filmed by Zero, if the intimacy between him and a woman was also recorded that day, and it was accidentally spread out, he would not be popular.

Suddenly he had an impulse to see information about Yu Shujie, Liu Bingyu, and others, but in an instant he scolded himself for nothing.

"Zero, monitor in the future, and notify me if there is any hostile language against the base!"

Di Ping was about to leave, suddenly remembered, stopped and said to the air.

"Good host!"

Zero sound rang in the room.

.....

"City Lord, how is it? Do you have an answer?"

Seeing Di Ping's return, Lu Guoliang, who had been waiting a long time ago, stood up and asked anxiously.

"Yes!"

Di Pingyan nodded gloomily.

"Great!"

Lu Guoliang's face burst into ecstasy, and he stroked his hand with excitement: "Who is the city lord?"

"Feng Ziming!"

Di Ping looked at Lu Guoliang, and a few words popped out of his teeth, his eyes cold and scary.

"What?"

Lu Guoliang jumped up in shock, with an unbelievable expression in his eyes: "How could it be him, City Lord, have you made a mistake?"

"It can't be wrong! It's him!"

Di Ping said in a low voice.

Lu Guoliang looked at Di Ping's expression not as if he was joking, his eyes also became complicated, and he shook his head and said in indignation:

"Feng Ziming usually performs very well, is humble and polite, and is very considerate in dealing with people and things. The team he leads is very capable, how can it be... Hey this man! I really can't see it!"

Di Ping also nodded sadly:

"I don't want him either, but people can't look at the surface, some people are kind but disgusted!"

"Yeah!" Lu Guoliang also sighed, but his expression suddenly flickered, his eyes flashed coldly, and he said in a deep voice, "No matter who it is, dare to sell the base, you can't let it go. The * grabs it, I want to ask him why he is betraying!"

Di Ping was silent for a while, exhaled, shook his head and said:

"It's not good to catch him directly!"

Chapter 734: Deep at night, the gate opens

"Can't catch him, what's the matter?"

Lu Guoliang asked puzzledly.

"I know it's him, but we don't have direct evidence, and it's not easy to arrest people directly!"

Di Ping smiled bitterly and shook his head.

"This is a bit difficult!"

Lu Guoliang's brows were also twisted, and his expression was solemn:

"Feng Ziming is not an ordinary person, and has a certain influence on the base. If it is not handled well, it will definitely cause a lot of misunderstandings. Once a bad association arises, it will be detrimental to the development of the base. You must treat it seriously!"

Di Ping rubbed his eyebrows. He thought it would be easy to solve it by knowing who it was, but now it seems that he wants to make things simple.

"In this way, call Han Zhongguo, Cheng Chao and Li Sheng over and let us discuss it before making a decision!"

After thinking for a while, Di Ping decided that everyone should discuss and decide together!

Lu Guoliang thought for a while and nodded:

"That's all! Then I'll call them over!"

Seeing Lu Guoliang leave, Di Ping suddenly remembered something. He wanted to stop him, but seeing that he had already closed the door and went out, he said to Patton beside him:

"Barton, please confess to the restaurant that the evening meals can be a bit richer, so as to bring the wind to the cloud and the sea!"

"Good host!"

Button also led the way out.

Di Ping sat down heavily on the wicker chair, and now he really found that the management foundation is not a simple matter, it is very brain-intensive, only a few thousand people made him a little big head, it seems that the mechanism really needs to be adjusted Up.

As the number of people grows and becomes more and more complex, if there is no reasonable organization and mechanism, the base's affairs will be crushed to death, and there is no way to do other things.

This time out, he felt the importance of strength, and he wanted to spend his limited time on improving his strength.

He always feels that the end times will become more and more cruel. Once the novice protection period expires, the base will face a huge test.

Especially the discovery of Void Pupa Dao made him feel even more pressing for time.

Samsung is dangerous! That has a Tier 3 life form, and now Tier 2 will be his life, let alone Tier 3.

The enhancement of his strength and the enhancement of the strength of the heroes are the guarantee of the security of the base in the future.

Making up his mind, he began to think about the restructuring of the base. Before long, the door rang and Lu Guoliang, Han Zhongguo, Cheng Chao, and Li Sheng walked in.

"Sit down!"

Di Ping didn't get up, and pointed at the sofa to several people.

"Thank City Lord!"

Several people thanked and took their seats.

"Brother Lu, have you told them about things?"

Di Ping looked at Lu Guoliang and asked.

"No, I'm afraid to show off the wind!"

Lu Guoliang shook his head and said.

"Then tell them about the situation!"

Di Ping said calmly.

"Ok!"

Lu Guo bright spot nodded, and then told the three of them about the matter.

When Han Zhongguo heard it, he sprang up and yelled angrily: "His grandma's, it turned out to be the * egg, let me see if I will shoot the son and grandson!"

"Okay! Don't worry, it's to discuss strategy, not to make you lose your temper!"

Lu Guoliang pulled Han Zhongguo to sit down, and said angrily.

Di Ping found that Li Sheng and Cheng Chao looked the same, but their eyes were slightly surprised, and then they looked at each other to restore peace.

"Brother Cheng, Li Sheng, I don't seem surprised you two?"

Di Ping was a little confused about their performance, so he asked.

Chapter 735: Set fire in the middle of the night for murder

Cheng Chao and Li Sheng looked at each other again, and then Cheng Chao said slightly:

"City Lord, we visited through today's investigation, and some clues have been directed to Feng Ziming, but there is no conclusive evidence to return to the city owner!"

Di Ping's expression changed. He didn't expect Cheng Chao and the two to find Feng Ziming's head. This made him very curious. What they found out, so he asked:

"What clues did you find?"

Cheng Chao nodded and said: "The first is to find out that Feng Ziming is closely related to Ye Lu and Zhou Chunchun. Although he is very secretive on each date, some people have seen it. Now five people have confirmed that they have seen them secretly. Dating, the behavior is very intimate, not like a normal relationship!"

Di Ping nodded and motioned for them to continue.

Cheng Chao continued with a serious face: "The second point is that Feng Ziming was found to be a righteous person during the interview, and he would make friends, especially spending money like dirt. He often gave away the resources in his hands. He attracted a group of people, not only It is his third team, and even several other teams have been wooed by it. Therefore, the reputation of the combat team is quite high, even among the ordinary people!"

Li Sheng looked a little embarrassed and said: "Even many people in my team have been blessed by him. Staff Cheng and I said that his ambition is not small and his intentions are impure!"

Di Pingjing listened quietly and did not speak, but Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang had a ugly face. They didn't even know about these situations. If they didn't listen to them today, they were shocked.

Cheng Chao continued:

"There are several people under him who have bullied the masses, but Feng Ziming has always shielded these people and pleaded for them many times. In order to maintain the stability of the teams, the staff office did not impose too severe punishment!"

"Why has no one ever told me about these things!"

When Di Ping heard this, his face suddenly sank, and he knocked the teacup in his hand heavily on the coffee table.

"This one!"

Cheng Chao's face was suddenly embarrassed.

"What is this! What do you say, why hesitate!"

Di Ping said with a deep face.

"OK then!"

Cheng Chao glanced at Li Sheng, then said with a strange expression:

"City Lord, you have always admired Feng Ziming, and praised it many times overtly and secretly. Seeing you like it very much, I didn't dare to say more!"

"I!"

Di Ping's anger went out immediately, and he was speechless.

Indeed, this Feng Ziming performed quite eye-catching in front of him, and he often went out to perform tasks with him, knowing his heart and knowing his mind, and was very good at coming, which made him very happy.

Feng Ziming performed extremely well in all aspects, behaved appropriately, did not seek merit or flattery, and was very graceful. This made Di Ping feel a little jealous at the same time, but at the same time he admired it very much. Everyone saw it.

It seems that Feng Ziming is very good at hiding, but he didn't even notice it.

Di Ping secretly blamed himself for being too tender, not having a deep grasp of human nature, and his eyes were not sharp enough.

He began to reflect on himself. Since the end of the world, as his strength has increased, he has indeed overlooked a lot of things, and is somewhat proud and complacent.

On this trip, he was chased by the mutant golden eagle and had no way to enter the earth, making him truly aware of his lack of strength, but today's game allowed him to recognize his own personality flaws, which must be made up, otherwise How far he can go in the last days is really unknown, although he has a system.

"Okay! This is my problem!"

Di Ping does not shy away from his responsibilities.

This made the eyes of the few people present suddenly brightened. They did not expect that the increasingly authoritative Di Ping suddenly admitted to his mistake. They did not imagine that they were self-assured, admiration and respect emerged in their eyes looking at Di Ping.

Such a leader is what they hope to see, and only such a person can lead the base further.

Chapter 736: Fish in troubled waters

"Now let's talk about how to deal with it!"

Di Ping was frowned upon by everyone's eyes, and hurriedly turned away from the subject, looking at Cheng Chao and asked, "Brother Cheng, based on the evidence from your investigation, can you directly deal with Feng Ziming?"

Cheng Chao shook his head and said: "These evidences can only show that he is closely related to Ye Lu and Zhou Chunchun, and cannot directly correct him!" It seems that he looked at Di Ping's expression a bit ugly, and he changed his words again: "However, it is like His other cover-ups, gangs, gangs, and private frauds can be used to deal with him, but at most it is to cancel his post!"

"This guy is really cunning, letting a woman be a contact and hiding himself behind the scenes!"

Han Zhongguo scolded angrily.

"Is there really no way to take him?"

Lu Guoliang said with a gloomy expression.

"City Lord, I can't use it to talk to him, I'll just grab it and kill it!"

Li Sheng said with a cold face.

"This can't work!" Lu Guoliang hurriedly stopped: "We now have a lot of people in the base. If there is no reason to execute a senior executive, this will easily cause the base to be unstable!"

"Chief Lu, you think too much. With the prestige of the city lord, what is the point of killing Feng Ziming? Who would talk nonsense?"

Li Sheng smiled coldly.

"Li Sheng, don't be so brutal. Although many people don't say it, many people wonder if the city lord will one day kill himself for no reason? If everyone is at risk, it will easily disperse!"

Cheng Chao patted Li Sheng on the shoulder and said earnestly.

"This....."

Li Sheng was speechless.

Di Ping looked at the speechless Li Sheng, and sighed in his heart. Li Sheng was very loyal to him, but his experience before the end of the world hindered his vision. Compared with these people, he was still far behind in terms of the situation. The way to go!

Li Sheng's words were interrupted, and the room fell silent for a while, and everyone was thinking.

"I don't see it as stunned!"

At this time, Lu Guoliang suddenly coughed slightly, attracting the attention of the public, and then slowly said.

"Frighten the snake!"

Han Zhongguo asked with a look of confusion: "Who is the grass and who is the snake?"

Everyone also looked at Lu Guoliang with doubts, only Di Ping's heart suddenly moved, he seemed to know what Lu Guoliang intended.

Lu Guoliang looked at everyone with a mysterious smile and said, "You forgot that Ye Lu is in our hands! There is no more grass!"

"Yes, yes, yes... I said it's Lao Lu, your brain is alive, you deserve to be a dog-headed sergeant!"

Han Zhongguo patted his forehead and praised Lu Guoliang.

"Go! Go! Go!"

Lu Guoliang glared at Han Zhongguo with an annoyed look: "Is there you are such a boast!"

"Haha!"

Han Zhongguo laughed and slapped Lu Guoliang on the shoulder, slapped his mouth straight, and then looked at Di Ping and said, "City Lord, Lao Lu is a good idea. I think that's it. Let me put the news of Ye Lu's arrest. Come out and get him on the hook!"

"Good or good! It's just that Feng Ziming is an extremely cautious person in his work, so he is afraid that he will not be fooled?"

Cheng Chao looked worried.

"Yes, this is a problem, how can you keep him alert, otherwise he won't be taken the bait!"

Lu Guo bright spot nodded.

"The release of this news is very important, how can we let them know naturally without arousing their vigilance!"

Han Zhongguo took out a cigarette and knocked it lightly on the cigarette case, with a solemn expression on his face.

As soon as this issue was mentioned, everyone fell silent again.

Di Ping also fell into thinking, and suddenly there was a flash of light in his mind, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth: "This matter can be solved, I have an idea!"

Chapter 737: Blocking big fish

In the evening, the restaurant was brightly lit. Although the base experienced a catastrophe today, it was solved without danger.

In the evening, I received the wind for the Yun family and his daughter. The dinner was much richer than usual. As the hunting scope of the base continued to expand, the various foods obtained were also enriched.

Yun Kuohai was quite satisfied and felt that he was valued. He was so sociable that he made the whole banquet quite atmospheric, pushing the cup and changing it so that it was not lively.

But just as everyone was eating happily, suddenly Ning Nan rushed in with tears in her eyes and panic.

"City Lord! Please let Ye Lu go! She is still young, I can't stand the suffering!"

Ning Nan rushed in and rushed to Di Pinyang, crying and pleading.

The appearance of this scene confuses many people, knowing that Ye Lu was arrested only a few people, Lu Guoliang, Han Zhongguo, Li Sheng, Cheng Chao, even the Yun father and daughter did not know that Di Ping arrested Ye Lu so quickly Woke up.

Di Ping, who was holding the wine glass, sank, and knocked the wine glass heavily on the table, and said in a deep voice: "What a fool! Ye Lu's matter is heard by the staff office, so she will be released if there is no problem!"

"City Lord, please, she is so beautiful that she can't stand torture!"

Ning Nan cried and pleaded at Di Ping with deep beseeching eyes.

Everyone's eyes stunned, and they wondered why Ye Lu had been arrested, and she was also tortured.

At this moment, Han Zhongguo, Lu Guoliang, and Cheng Chao didn't speak, their eyes were watching Feng Ziming secretly. They saw that Feng Ziming's face changed obviously when they mentioned Ye Lu, but then they calmed down. Come down.

As soon as he was tortured, his face finally changed, a little uncertain, and his eyes flickered.

"She will confess that she won't have to be tortured!"

Di Ping said coldly.

"I persuade her, I will persuade her! Okay? City Lord, I think she was beaten so badly, ooh..."

Ning Nan cried and begged with excitement, with deep worry and fear in her eyes.

"City Lord, what's going on, why did Ye Lu get arrested?"

Liu Bingyu couldn't sit still anymore, and asked excitedly.

She is also a good friend with Ye Lu. She has an accident and always wants to know what's wrong.

"Director Liu, this is the case. Wang Dequan confessed that Ye Lu was the one who betrayed the base, so our general staff is under trial..."

This is Cheng Chao standing up and replied.

"Isn't Wang Dequan crazy? Can he take it seriously?"

Liu Bingyu was anxious for a moment, his eyes were so sharp that he became super.

"He is already normal!"

Cheng Chao said indifferently.

Of course, Wang Dequan was dead. It was Di Ping's idea at the time. He didn't let anyone take Wang Dequan's body and directly caused Gina's two fireballs to burn to ashes.

"This... can't it be tortured?"

Liu Bingyu was taken aback for a moment, and then his tone became weak, but he still asked.

If Cheng Chao and the others made false accusations, she wouldn't be willing, but Wang De is all normal, and his explanation to Di Ping must be taken seriously.

"Director Liu! Please trust our staff, we will not mess around!"

At this time, Lu Guoliang said solemnly.

"City Lord!"

Ning Nan also knew that things could not be done at this time, so she had to look forward to Di Ping.

Di Ping looked at everyone in the field at this time, and felt a little emotional for a while. This is all a drama!

This Ning Nan acted too much. Cheng Chao and Lu Guoliang were acting more like each other. It seemed that Ye Lu had been tortured.

He glanced, Yu Guang saw Feng Ziming's face pale, his eyes wandering, his mind was clearly fluctuating.

"Director Ning, this is the end of the matter. We will talk about everything when the interrogation is over!"

Di Ping deliberately scowled, his expression cold.

Chapter 738: Public Trial Assembly in front of the City Gate

The dinner party broke up because of Ning Nan's intervention. Everyone didn't want to eat, and it ended early.

After Di Ping left, he went to the underground cell of the castle and met with Liu Minsheng. No one knew what he was talking about.

Returning to the room, Di Ping took a break and started the practice of Yuqing Zhenjue. The improvement of his mental power made him taste the sweetness and his cultivation became more vigorous.

In the middle of the night, the castle became extremely quiet, with only the silhouette of the night watchman walking back and forth on the wall.

It was pitch black outside, and a figure appeared at the teleportation well building. This was not someone else, it was Di Ping.

Di Ping couldn't sleep anymore after his training was over. He was still thinking about whether Han Ming had arrived at the Jincheng base and whether he found his parents?

If you find it, how come you haven't inspired the teleporting scroll to come back?

Is something wrong?

The strong worry made him sneak into the transmission well, wanting to check if Han Ming had opened the locator.

The teleport well was activated, but Di Ping was disappointed. Sure enough, the teleport marker was only the locator he had placed in the yard, but Han Ming's did not open, and the teleport well could not be searched.

For a time, Di Ping was in a state of confusion. Didn't he explain to Han Ming before?

After arriving, he turned on the locator, but Han Ming obviously did not do what he said. Could it be that Han Ming betrayed him and ran away at this opportunity.

Shouldn't it?

Although Han Ming just took refuge in himself and lacked loyalty, Di Ping believed that as a smart man, Han Ming should know the benefits of following himself. What is the point of running away?

He turned off the teleportation well and walked towards the castle a little frustrated, thinking about various possibilities in his heart.

However, when he was about to step on the small bridge in front of the castle, he suddenly creaked, and he saw the castle gate open, and a ray of light came out.

"What's the matter! Did you know that I came back and opened the door?"

Di Ping thought secretly.

But immediately, he glanced at the darkness of the night, and overturned his previous thoughts. In such a dark night, it is impossible to see himself dozens of meters away.

Di Ping suddenly had a bad idea in his mind, he stopped, his eyes fixed on the opening of the castle.

When the light dimmed, he saw two figures flashing out of the gap. With a ray of light, Di Ping could see the appearance of the two in the first time.

The first person to walk out was Feng Ziming, and it was Feng Ziming, and the other Di Ping also knew him. He was named Li Jun and Feng Ziming's team member.

As soon as Feng Ziming came out of the door, the gate of the castle closed quickly for a short time, no more than two seconds apart.

The darkness in front of the door reappeared, and Feng Ziming and Li Jun rushed into the thick night with a cat waist. The two of them were covered in darkness. When they entered the darkness, they melted into the thick night.

A cold light flashed in Di Ping's eyes. He didn't expect that Feng Ziming already had such energy in the base, and the doorkeeper had also gotten through.

Although he was shocked, he did not show up. Instead, he moved quickly away from the bridge and quietly hid among the dense vegetation.

Feng Ziming's eyesight was not good, and they couldn't see far. They carefully explored the way, looking in the direction of the medical room.

There was a sneer at the corner of Di Ping's mouth. He thought Feng Ziming would move, but he didn't expect this guy to be so fast.

He actually moved tonight, but the timing was very good. You must know that he drank a lot of alcohol to catch the wind for Yun's father and daughter.

Moreover, Di Ping felt that Feng Ziming's election tonight has two meanings.

One is that Ye Lu had just been arrested today, and the security arrangements might be rushed, so that he would have a chance. Second, the longer the time, Ye Lu once could not stand the torture, and it would be troublesome to confess to him.

"Is this really a person who kills decisively? He never gets rid of mud and water in his work!"

Di Ping sighed secretly.

He didn't believe that Feng Ziming was going to save Ye Lu. He knew what he did to Zhou Chunchun. He was a hero, never benevolent to women, and he was never gentle with women. Once he stopped him. Will be ruthlessly removed by it.

I'd rather take the world's people instead of the world's people. The way of doing things Di Ping most despised and disturbed him the most.

Such a person is the most terrible. There is no bottom line in his actions. Everything is for himself and the suitor does everything. With such a person in the base, it is like raising a poisonous snake and will be addicted to people at any time.

Chapter 739: The waves are calm

If Feng Ziming hadn't betrayed him and betrayed the base, Di Ping would even focus on cultivating him. In the end times, such a person would live longer without abilities.

It's a pity that I don't know why Feng Ziming would go on an evil path to become an enemy of himself. This is a problem that he cannot understand.

Di Ping is not a good man and a believer. There is only one way to betray him, which is death. He even thought that if he couldn't find any substantial evidence, he would find a chance to get rid of this person.

If a person can betray you once, there can be a second time. Di Ping has lost trust in him.

Feng Ziming and Li Jun cautiously touched the medical office, which was not far from the castle, at most 100 meters.

Di Ping lightly moved his footsteps and was 20 meters away from the two of them, and they moved as well. They couldn't see the image 20 meters away.

In fact, in the medical department, someone had been arranged for a long time, but Di Ping wanted to come and see how the two should perform.

"Li Jun, have you checked it out, is Ye Lu definitely locked in the basement?"

The two came to the grass ten meters away from the medical office, and Feng Ziming asked Li Jun in a low voice.

"Yes!"

I secretly listened to the chat between Ning Nan and Liu Bingyu, and there was nothing wrong with it.

"Good! See those gauze and the furniture under the corridor?"

Feng Ziming pointed to the large amount of gauze hanging on a dozen shelves beside the building and the furniture road stacked in the corridor.

"I saw it!"

Li Jun replied.

"After a while, you will climb to the balcony on the second floor, I will light these, take advantage of the mess, and break the window in!"

Feng Ziming's eyes flickered.

"Captain, isn't this bad? It will cause the people in the castle to be alert, and then I won't be able to get out!"

A look of fear flashed across Li Jun's face.

"Don't worry! I will pick you up outside, but once there is a fire here, our team members will quickly rush over. Then you will get mixed in. There will be no problem!"

Feng Ziming said in a low voice with a deep face.

"OK then!"

Li Jun was glared by Feng Ziming, obviously a little scared, and nodded in agreement.

"Then I'm going!"

Li Junmao was about to leave when he got up, but after two steps, he squatted down and looked back at Feng Ziming with a hesitant look: "Captain, does Ye Lu want to kill too?"

"She must be killed! She knows about us, but once she speaks, we all have to die. Do you want to die or live!"

Feng Ziming shouted in a deep voice.

"I want to live!"

"Hurry up, then!"

Feng Ziming lowered his voice and shouted angrily.

If this can be done by one person, he does not want to use this waste.

Li Jun's body was light, so he climbed up to the balcony on the second floor and waved to Feng Ziming.

Feng Ziming got the signal and moved the cat to the side where the gauze sheets were dried.

Di Ping saw that Feng Ziming took a bottle from his arms and sprayed it on the gauze. Following the wind, Di Ping could smell the gasoline.

Sure enough, after a bottle was sprayed, he sprayed some more on the furniture pile, and then saw a flash of fire, the gauze sheets and the furniture quickly ignited, and the flame spread to several shelves in an instant.

Feng Ziming turned his head and ran back, rushed into the grass, and then shouted: "It's on fire!"

In the middle of the night, the sound was like thunder, awakening the entire base.

Especially in the medical department, there was a messy noise. Soon someone opened the window and screamed, "Ah! It's on fire! Get out of the fire!"

Then, there were more shouts, and soon the door opened with a bang, and four or five people rushed out, holding a basin in their hands and clothes, and rushed over.

However, the fire was quite fierce, and Feng Ziming was also fierce enough, not only sprayed gasoline on the yarn, but also sprayed on the furniture stacked in the corridor.

The fire and water are merciless, and the flames spread quickly, rushing into the hallway, screaming.

Chapter 740: The whole army issues laws and builds military style

At the moment when a crowd rushed out shouting, Li Jun opened the window on the balcony on the second floor, and people quickly passed in.

It was when everyone was in a panic, no one paid attention to the voices upstairs, and Li Jun succeeded.

Feng Ziming saw Li Jun jump into the room by the light of the fire, and a smile appeared on his face.

There are not many people in the medical department, with five female nurses and four male security guards.

Four males, holding basins, ran to the river not far away to fetch water. Five female nurses looked messy and panicked. They were at a loss not knowing what to do.

Feng Ziming stared at the entrance of the small building with tension on his face. Now a few people from the medical department have come out, but no one from the combat team has come out.

You know, according to his knowledge, there are still people guarding the basement. If these people don't come out, then Li Jun will not be able to do it.

He regrets a bit now, and asked Ye Lu to contact Wang Dequan today.

He didn't expect that the original mature plan went wrong, Di Ping unexpectedly returned, making his and Wang Dequan's plan into frustration.

Looking at the powerful military, Di Ping was able to settle down for a while, and for a while fear filled his heart.

Although he had not come forward, Wang Dequan confessed that Ye Lu would be able to find him soon, and he had never regarded others as a fool.

What excites him is that Wang Dequan is crazy, and now his burden is finally let go.

But what scared him was that the crazy Wang Dequan sent a message to Ye Lu while Ye Lu was helping in the medical office.

Wang Dequan gave Ye Lu a telegram to contact the Bianzhou base, otherwise he would report her.

This frightened Ye Lu, and immediately notified Feng Ziming.

Feng Ziming was shocked at the time. He knew that Wang Dequan was capable of doing such a thing, so he took the risk and passed the information to the Bianzhou Military Region through Zhou Chunchun, who was devoted to him.

Originally Zhou Chunchun was just his accidental act. Feng Ziming has a big hobby. Many people don't know that it's female sex. He originally said Zhou Chunchun wanted to do something with Fengrun and seductive Shen Manshu, but he hadn't waited. It started, but it was used here.

After Zhou Chunchun notified the Bianzhou base, he arranged for Ye Lu to come to Wang Dequan to communicate the next plan.

Originally, he wanted to kill Wang Dequan. No one knew about him as soon as Wang Dequan died, but Ye Lu didn't dare to kill people, and the time was too short for him to do it.

What happened later was beyond his control, but Ye Lu was caught. He had not seen Ye Lu come back in the afternoon, so he was worried.

In the evening, Ning Nan cried and begged and finally confirmed his worries. Ye Lu participated in his plan all the way. If Ye Lu, a stupid woman, was persuaded by Ning Nan and confessed to herself, then he would be finished.

"Ye Lu I'm sorry, I will remember you, don't blame me!"

Feng Ziming stared fiercely at the raging fire, and the fire shone on his face, revealing the hideousness of his face.

The fire was getting bigger and bigger. There was a breeze today, and the fire was spreading to the second floor. Several women screamed louder and louder, and several security guards ran back and forth holding the basin and drawing water to fight the fire.

And shouts came from the direction of the castle, and more and more, it seemed that they were also awakened.

Feng Ziming knew that the manpower he had arranged in the castle had worked, but it was not going well here, and the guards in the basement had not appeared until now, which made him gradually anxious.

While his head was sweating while he was waiting, he suddenly saw three people rushing out of the small building. These three people were also holding basins, and as soon as they appeared, they rushed to the river.

"It's done!"

Feng Ziming clapped his hands excitedly and almost jumped up excitedly.

The fire looked scary, but in fact it was mainly piled up debris and spilled gasoline, but after the combustibles were slowly consumed, the fire slowed down.

Feng Ziming was in a hurry. If the fire here goes out and the people at the castle don't rush over, then Li Jun will be blocked.

Di Ping had been standing in the dark, looking at Feng Ziming. He had no intention of fighting the fire. He had seen it and knew that the fire would not start.
