

Doomsday 75

Chapter 75: Powerful Fire Shake Beast Soul

The mutant Tibetan mastiff slowly approached the crowd, the low breathing sound seemed to echo in everyone's ears, and the people's heart was dull. At this time, the underground base was quiet and terrifying, and only the low breathing sound could be heard. Everyone seemed to be waiting. The criminals who were sentenced to death seemed to know the fate they were about to suffer, and completely gave up resistance.

"Tweet..."

Suddenly a whistle sounded at the door, followed by a man's frivolous voice.

"Hi, dog, come and give you bones to eat!"

Everyone suddenly opened their eyes when they heard this voice and looked towards the door. At this moment, they were incredible. Who is so bold and dares to play with the mutant Tibetan mastiff. You must see who this person is, and at the same time, your heart seems to rise. There was an unexplainable feeling, it seemed that this voice had a kind of magic, which could bring them the same hope and peace of mind.

"Wow..."

The mutant Tibetan Mastiff seemed to be able to understand, and turned around when he called, and immediately roared when he saw a human standing at the doorway.

"Wow..."

A dozen mutant dogs around the Tibetan Mastiff heard the leader's call and screamed at the human who dared to provoke them.

The man standing at the door was Di Ping. Hearing the gunshots, he led the four of them to the square quickly, and found that there was no mutant dog in the square, and the door to the underground mall was indeed wide open. When the roar came, he knew that the mutant dog had entered the base, so he dared not delay, and rushed in a few steps.

When he saw the mutant Tibetan Mastiff, he was also shocked. This mutant Tibetan Mastiff was indeed too big, comparable to a cow, and he quickly used a probing skill.

"Mutated Tibetan Mastiff: Bloodline Level: D, Talent Skill: Furious, Strengthening Level: Level One and Level Two, Skill: Bite"

Seeing this string of information Di Ping was truly shocked. This was the first time he had faced a mutant animal with a bloodline level.

When he saw this D, he thought that mutant animals may be the same as humans. Humans are divided into potential levels, while mutant animals are bloodline levels. Then this mutant Tibetan mastiff is only bloodline level. It must be more powerful than the previous giant. , Whether I can cope with it, there are worries in my heart.

But looking at this huge mutated Tibetan Mastiff, a strong excitement rose deep in his heart.

Di Ping was also a combative person, and when he encountered a powerful enemy today, he did not worry that he was not afraid, but instead aroused the raging fighting spirit in his heart.

When seeing the mutant Tibetan mastiff breaking through the frame, there are already signs of attacking the crowd, and I have to use taunting skills to attract the mutant Tibetan mastiff's attention, otherwise once attacking the crowd, these ordinary people will not be its opponents, except for tragic death There is no other way.

The mutant Tibetan Mastiff became angry on the spot as soon as Di Ping ridiculed him, and yelled at the man who dared to provoke him.

"Gina!"

Di Ping stood still, with a low drink, and his body flashed to the side, revealing the black-robed man behind him. Not only did the people in the base do not know what this young man was doing, but even the mutant dog was taken aback. , And in this stunned space, the speed of rushing out was slow, and at this moment, Gina stretched out two white, tender and slender hands from the black robe, and the red light flashed.

"Ignition technique..."

A crisp and sweet woman's voice sounded, as if a refreshing wind blew everyone's heart, making everyone present feel warm. It seems that they have forgotten the danger at this time, but the woman who knows this voice is in a black robe What a beautiful face under cover.

But the next moment everyone didn't think so. The woman's voice had not yet fallen, and a dozen fist-sized fireballs suddenly flew out of her palms and shot towards the mutated dogs that rushed over. The fireballs were as fast as lightning, slashing in the air. A dozen red lights and shadows appeared, and the next moment they appeared in the center of the mutant dog group.

"Boom boom boom..."

There was a burst of blasting noises, and fires exploded on the mutant dog's body, and the big fireball split into hundreds of small fireballs, exploding in this space, and for a while, the roar continued like a firecracker, and the whole space seemed to be Are all burned by flames.

The fireball exploded on the mutant dog, immediately exploded with flesh and blood splashing, and the fur flew around. At the same time, the flame was like the poison of tarsal bones. Diffusely, the miserable cry of the mutant dog echoed in the mall.

Everyone was stunned at this moment. Is this still the woman with a charming voice?

This method is too cruel, right?

More than a dozen ferocious mutant dogs just pushed them with both hands and turned into what they are now, which is terrible!

At this time, everyone looked at the black robe man again, not only did not want to open it, but was afraid. I was really afraid that the black robe opened, not a beauty, but a fierce and evil spirit.

Even the mutant Tibetan Mastiff was stunned. He forgot to yell. A trace of fear flashed with his eyes staring at a dozen mutant dogs surrounded by flames, and his body retreated a little uneasy, with a low whine in his throat.

It is natural for animals to be afraid of fire. What's more, such a terrible flame can't be shaken away. The mutant Tibetan mastiff is also an animal and it is also afraid of fire.

More than a dozen mutant dogs kept screaming and rolling back and forth on the ground. At this time, they didn't care about attacking Di Pin. Gina kept pushing her hands flat, and her blue eyes became even more weird under the flames. , Staring at the mutant dog group, only after the mutant dogs were burned into a dark mass did they withdraw their flat pushing hands.

The flame also slowly dissipated in the air, as if it had never appeared before, only a dozen groups of black carbon on the ground were scorching, and the smell of barbecue in the air, indicating that what happened just now was not an illusion.
