

Doomsday 751

Chapter 751: Evolution accelerates human worries

Di Ping felt his scalp explode, and his whole person jumped up. He was most afraid that someone would tell him something was wrong.

Day by day, so many things happened? He couldn't let himself live in peace, he was full of helplessness.

"What happened?"

Di Ping opened the door and asked Li Sheng who was waiting anxiously outside the door.

"City...City Lord, Fat...Fatty suddenly fainted, and he can't wake up no matter how he calls!"

Li Sheng also said anxiously for not wiping the sweat on his face.

"Fainted? Did you send it to the medical office for examination?"

Di Ping was shocked when he heard that the fat man had fainted. Could it be that he was seriously ill, so he asked urgently.

"I saw it, even Director Ning has been investigating for a long time, and nothing has been detected!"

Only then did Li Sheng have time to wipe the sweat off his face, panting.

"Go and see!"

Di Ping frowned, and Ning Nan didn't see the problem either. He was a little worried about whether the fat man had a problem with his body.

As soon as the two of them got off the city main tower, Liu Bingyu walked over. Seeing her hurriedly walking and running, there seemed to be something urgent.

"Bingyu!"

Di Ping looked at Liu Bingyu, who was walking in a hurry, stopped and shouted.

"what!"

Liu Bingyu was obviously thinking about something, and was startled by Di Ping's sudden voice. He raised his eyes to see Di Ping and said anxiously: "City Lord, just now Ning Nan reported it to him and found that many people had a fever and two of them were dizzy. If it fell, she was worried that it was a high-risk infectious disease, and requested a unified review, isolation, and control of the infection!"

"infectious disease?"

As soon as Di Ping heard this word, his head buzzed, and his throat mentioned in his heart. Infectious diseases are a great horror of human beings. Every time they happen, they will bring a lot of death.

"go!"

Di Ping did not dare to neglect, waved his hand with a gloomy expression, ran forward, and followed Liu Bingyu who was following as he walked:

"How many people have a fever? Who are they?"

"There are four people who have a fever. They are from the combat team. Three of them fainted. There is a fat man. Xu Sheng has a man named Li Shuang who is also from the combat team!"

Liu Bingyu ran after Di Ping and said.

When Di Ping heard that Xu Sheng still fainted, he was taken aback on the spot and stopped.

"what!"

Liu Bingyu was jogging all the way, talking, not paying attention to Di Ping's stop, and hitting Di Ping's back, screaming in shock.

Liu Bingyu felt Di Ping's thick back and the smell of grass-like sunlight coming in, and his pretty face blushed.

"How does the city lord return?"

Li Sheng looked at Di Pingdao who had stopped suddenly.

"It's okay, let's go!"

Di Ping looked back and nodded apologetically to Liu Bingyu, then waved his hand.

He suddenly thought of a possibility, such as a concentrated disease, and all of them are in the combat team. Is this somewhat unreasonable?

You must know that the combat team has the best food, and they are all young people who are in good health and have strong resistance. If this happened to ordinary people, he still understands, but the concentration of the combat team will not explain it.

There is another possibility, that is, awakening like Yue Lie and Liu Han before.

You should know that the combat team eats mutant meat every day, and is cultivating with explosive apes. Someone should have awakened long ago, but they have never appeared.

In today's widespread fainting, fever may be a sign of awakening.

When he thought of this, Di Ping's worries were reduced by half, but joy came to his mind, and his pace became faster. He wanted to verify whether his thoughts just now were correct.

Liu Bingyu was suffering this time, Di Ping pressed the speed, it was also extremely fast, Li Sheng had to follow a trot, not to mention that she was a weak woman, and she pulled down more than 20 meters in a while.

Chapter 752: You have to harden yourself

This is a villa next to the medical office. It was temporarily cleaned up to settle all those who had symptoms.

At the door, a dozen city guards wearing masks, gloves, and holding weapons stood at the door with a serious expression. They saw Di Ping coming and saluting his body. Then they looked at Di Ping with eager eyes, but no one was confused. move.

Di Ping nodded, and thought to himself that the reaction was fast enough and he hadn't arrived yet. Not only did he arrange a new isolation place, but the city guards also arranged people, and the military capacity was much more regular than before.

When he entered the villa, he saw busy Ning Nan at a glance. She was busy checking the temperature of a patient with two nurses at this time, and the sweat on her forehead could not even wipe it.

"City Lord, Fatty is here!"

Li Sheng rushed to the front, pointing to the innermost room of the hall and shouted.

Ning Nan was awakened by Li Sheng's cry. She raised her head and looked at Di Ping. Di Ping felt heartache when she saw her swollen eyes and her face looked haggard.

This is also a very strong woman. Before she came over from the sadness before, she immediately devoted herself to high-intensity work.

"City Lord, you are here!"

Seeing Di Ping's arrival, Ning Nan quickly handed the thermometer to the nurse and walked over.

"How is it going?"

Di Ping looked at Ning Nan and asked in a low voice.

"Six people have been found, and three of them fainted, but their vital signs are normal and no danger is found. The other three have a high fever and are under further observation!"

There was a trace of fatigue on Ning Nan's face, but her eyes were extremely bright. She approached Di Ping and whispered in a somewhat excited tone:

"I suspect that this is the same disease as Yue Lie, Luo Xinyi and others before!"

"you sure?"

The excitement flashed in Di Ping's eyes, and he lowered his voice and asked.

"It's not too sure, but the symptoms are very similar. I thought it was an infectious disease, but I haven't found any organ failure in an infectious disease, so I suspect that it is the awakening that you called the city lord!"

Ning Nan shook his head and said in a low voice with a serious expression.

"Go and see!"

Di Ping suppressed the ecstasy in his heart, but still could not conceal his excitement, and his voice trembled a little.

If you really guessed right by yourself, these people are all entering the awakening state, then once the awakening is successful, the base will immediately have six more masters, which will greatly improve the strength of the base.

There are only twelve awakened people in the base until now with Di Ping, which is half more at once, and that's okay. How can this make him not excited.

Fatty and Xu Sheng were in the same room. Their faces were flushed, as if they were two cooked red lobsters. They were lying on the bed without moving. Only their noses were moving. Breathing quickly.

Standing in front of the fat man's bed, Li Sheng looked at Di Ping expectantly. Just now they had a conversation. He and Liu Bingyu were so close, they could all hear it.

Looking at the fat man with flushed brows and frowning face, a trace of worry flashed in Di Ping's eyes. He put his hand on the fat man's forehead. The temperature was scary, and it was a bit hot.

"Exploration!"

Di Ping directly performed a probing technique on Fatty. He wanted to determine if it was the same as that of himself and Ning Nan. It seemed that the appearance of Fatty and Xu Sheng were indeed similar.

"Race: Terran, Rank: None, Talent: None, Skill: None, Status: Potential Awakening..."

Sure enough, Di Pingyuan's gripping heart was instantly let go.

But he was still worried, and looked at Xu Sheng again, and found that the same was true, in a state of awakening.

At this time, he turned his head and looked at Ning Nan, Li Sheng, and Liu Bingyu who were nervously looking at him and nodded slightly.

"Yay!"

Ning Nan threw a fist in excitement, with brilliant joy on his face. Even Li Sheng's paralyzed face also showed a rare smile, and Liu Bingyu's originally nervous and tight face also showed a smile.

Chapter 753: Buy exercises to increase strength

Di Ping was not relieved, he checked all the people and confirmed the situation before he was relieved.

However, the situation of the other three people with fever was different from that of Chen Gang. Chen Gang showed that they were already awake, and these three showed a genetically unstable and active state.

He didn't understand what this state really meant, but literally, genes were changing. Whether this change was good or bad is still unknown.

However, the three of them looked normal, that is, they had a fever, and there was no physical failure.

Chen Gang, Xu Sheng, and Li Shuang, the three of them have already begun to awaken. Whether they succeed or not is up to them. No one can help.

"Don't be too tired, pay more attention to rest!"

The awakening time is not easy to say, Di Ping stopped staying to check, and left to Ning Nan, watching Ning Nan's caring instructions as he left.

"Yeah! I get it!"

Ning Nan's face showed a sorrowful smile, and her pale face showed weakness, and it still looked cold and glamorous before. It seems that Ye Lu's death touched her more.

Di Ping felt a little pain in her heart, but she didn't say anything. Ye Lu's death could not be blamed on anyone else. It was her own choice. When Ning Nan was sad at this time, persuasion was useless. I believe it will gradually get over. Hurrying is a good medicine for pain.

He didn't know how to comfort Ning Nan, so he simply said a few words and left.

Before leaving, he had arranged for Li Sheng to invite Mo Ke over. If there was a sudden situation, Mo Ke could play an emergency treatment role, so he left with confidence.

He still attaches great importance to the safety of Fatty and Xu Sheng, and his two captains shouldn't be in trouble.

And once the two awakened successfully, their subordinates will increase by two, and their strength will be further strengthened. What if all six succeed?

Di Ping felt excited when he thought about it. This time there are six people, and then a few people next time. After a while, there will be hundreds of awakened people under him.

However, immediately Di Ping smiled and shook his head. Six people are already a blessing in heaven. Don't be too greedy. He has talked with a few recruited heroes, but he knows the probability and difficulty of awakening.

There is only one talent in Wanzhong who has such a talent. It is conceivable how many chances there are, and how many people in his own base, less than four thousand people, but so far has awakened so many people.

This ratio is quite high. How many good things do you think?

However, through chatting, he also learned a piece of information, that is, in Owen's world, the chances of awakening in upper-class families are far greater than those in lower-class families.

In addition to removing the good genes, eating a large amount of mutant beast meat, absorbing energy and improving physical quality through special exercises, thereby enhancing the chance of awakening is one of the major reasons.

You know, the combat team used to supply mutant beast meat every day, and the high-level base of the base is not limited to manage enough, plus the D-class strong forging body technique contributed by Buji, the training of violent ape's fighting strength, if these People can't wake up yet, that talent is really bad.

In Owen's world, people at the bottom have the opportunity to eat mutant beast meat, and they have no access to the ranks and classes of exercises. Therefore, the awakening rate is so low. Only the very talented people have the opportunity to awaken. Generally, the talent is due to coincidence. To awaken.

Di Ping thought as he walked. He felt that his judgment was generally not bad. This should be the reason. The accumulation of some time ago, so concentrated outbreaks.

He suddenly had an idea, it seems that the supply of mutant beasts has increased, and now each city guard can only get two or three pieces of meat a day, which is a little bit small.

Now the stock of mutant beasts in the warehouse has reached more than 90,000 catties, plus the more than 10,000 catties I brought back this time, and the stock has reached 100,000 catties.

With so much mutant meat, and it is increasing every day, these are enough to support the consumption of five hundred city civil army.

Di Ping decided to increase supply tomorrow!

Chapter 754: Morning wind brings good news

Yesterday, the public trial meeting, after which the troops organized and worked for a whole day, now the base has basically started to be formal, and everything has been unsteadily developed.

The previous changes did not cause any negative effects, but made the entire base more united, and gave birth to a kind of vigorous vitality. Everyone has a bright smile on their faces, and they seem to be full of hope for the future life.

Seeing all this, Di Ping felt inexplicably better when walking inside the base.

Yun Kuohai moved quickly. In only one day, all the staff were recruited. Di Ping saw a team of five people, wearing military and police security uniforms, walking neatly with security sticks in his hands. Step, patrol the base.

The first person was Yun Kuohai's capable subordinate Ahai, and Ahai also saw Di Ping. His eyes no longer had the previous vigilance and precautions, but more complicated meaning, with respect, fear, and Somewhat ashamed.

He hesitated in his footsteps, but in the end he led the team to Di Ping and the whole team gave a military salute to Di.

"City Lord!"

All five of them saluted Di Ping feverishly.

Di Ping nodded, returned a military salute, and then watched Ahai lead the team away again.

All of them kept their eyes straight, their chests were straight, as if they were being tested by the general, and their faces were flushed with extreme excitement, and their steps became stronger.

Di Ping smiled slightly, and then watched the team go away.

This Yunkuohai is indeed capable, and he has made the public security in just one day. Just watching the steps, you will know that you have worked hard and walked quite neatly, although it is still a bit strange, especially in your own Under my eyes, some people are a little messy, but overall it is quite good!

Di Ping doesn't like A Hai very much. Although A Hai is very loyal, he always feels very gloomy.

Especially when I watched Di Ping practice twice before, it made Di Ping very unhappy. He didn't want to be seen, but if you were not secretive, like a thief, it would make people unhappy.

However, Di Ping didn't want to pursue it either. Everyone's environment is different, and his temperament is different. Ahai is a bit similar to Han Ming. One is a killer and the other is a thug. They are both walking people in the dark. They are naturally cautious. Otherwise, he would have been killed, so his peeking behavior is understandable.

"Aw..."

Just as Di Ping slowly walked towards the castle, there was a roar of the beast, and then a white light and shadow quickly came to Di Ping like a white horse.

"Did you go there?"

Di Ping angrily slapped the big cat who was holding his head against his coquetry, and cursed calmly.

"Woo....."

The big cat lowered his head aggrievedly, whispering and groaning, making Di Ping amused.

"Okay! Don't pretend, don't you know if you will stay home next time?"

Di Ping smiled and rubbed the soft head of the big cat.

"Woo..."

The big cat understood, and nodded humanely.

When Wang Dequan attacked the base, the big cat didn't know that it was going crazy. If it was at home, it might not be necessary for Di Ping to come back. A big cat could handle these people.

The big cat, which is already level one and seven, is not a star and a half strong. It is as fast as lightning, firing a cannon? Don't even think about hitting it. The defense with thick fur is quite strong, ordinary bullets can't break the defense, and the fur is as strong as steel.

If it is there, it will be able to beat the general army in a few strokes.

But this guy ran back from madness until today. I don't know if he was mad, could it be a tigress.

Chapter 755: Be proud and show off

Di Ping suddenly discovered that after a few days of absence, the big cat seemed to have become stronger again, his aura became stronger, his fur was smoother, shiny, and very comfortable to touch.

There was doubt in his mind. After a few days, he didn't see how the mutant tiger suddenly became stronger again. He took a look at the spot on the spot, which made Di Ping stunned for a moment.

Originally, the mutant tiger has actually been promoted to the first rank and the eighth rank, which is one level higher than his own. You must know that the mutant tiger has just been promoted not long?

"Big cat, why are you stronger again?"

Di Ping asked with a puzzled look on Mutant Tiger's head.

Hearing Di Ping's question, Mutant Tiger tilted his head as if thinking.

Suddenly a thought came to Di Ping's mind. Di Ping was stunned for a moment, but instantly understood that this was the idea passed from the mutant tiger, and it came from the pet system. Di Ping instantly understood what it meant.

This is the power of the pet system, and can communicate with pets through this system.

"You mean it feels warm and the wind blows, and then I want to sleep, and that's it when I wake up, right?"

Di Ping understood this mental consciousness and tried to build strong language so that the mutant tiger could understand it.

"Woohoo!"

The mutant tiger nodded excitedly, as if Di Ping understood its words.

Di Ping was suddenly shocked when he saw this. Could it be that the animal mutation has accelerated, or the mutation of the mutated tiger was caused by some other reason. If the mutation is really accelerated, the human situation will be even more dangerous.

Di Ping suddenly thought of a possibility. He hurriedly closed his eyes and began to feel the energy elements in the air. The increase in mental power made him quickly feel the changes in the energy in the air. The energy was indeed stronger than before. This feeling was very subtle, you won't find it if you don't pay attention.

His face was extremely ugly, and he didn't give up. He carefully observed the vegetation around him, and when he looked at it, his heart was cold. Sure enough, the vegetation accelerated again.

A lot of grass was cleared, but now it is growing again, and some big trees that have been cut down have also re-grown new shoots, as if spring had arrived.

The earth's energy has increased again over time. Animal evolution has rushed to the front of humans, but now the process has accelerated. Can humans keep up?

Di Ping had no sense at all. Even if he has a system, he still needs time to develop himself?

Once the protection period has passed, even a mutant golden eagle can kill itself. If the golden eagle evolves again, then...

He didn't dare to think about the result anymore, and for a moment he had the urgency to speed up the improvement of strength.

Feeling terrified by this sudden speculation, he slowly walked towards the castle with a heavy heart.

The big cat didn't know what Di Ping was thinking, but was wagging its tail happily like an obedient puppy, stepping along with Di Ping.

Everyone hurriedly dispersed when they saw a person and a tiger coming. The big cat looked like a pug to Di Ping, but it was not like that to others. In the eyes of the tiger that was always closed, there was fierce light. Who would dare to get close? Up.

Di Ping did not pay attention to all this, and at this time he worried about his parents again.

There is no news from Han Ming. He activated the teleport well again last night, but he still didn't have Han Ming's coordinates, which made him panic.

I don't know what went wrong, was Han Ming ran away, or Han Ming had an accident, or Han Ming did not find Jincheng?

He and Han Ming decided to spend three days. This is already the second day. If he doesn't show up again, he will have to rush over, even if things are delayed, he must go.

Di Ping, who was distraught, didn't want to go back to the City Tower at this time. It was easier to think about things when one was inside, so he had to find something to do.

With the mutant tiger, Di Ping came to the workshop. He hadn't learned the nine-hammer forging since he learned the forging. He just took a brief look. He was going to learn the forging to make his mind more free.

Chapter 756: Awakening is not all smooth sailing

As soon as Di Ping arrived at the entrance of the workshop, Liu Anhe had already opened the entrance of the workshop and was waiting in front of the door.

After Zero became the smart program of the watch, he followed Di Ping personally, which made it convenient for him to do whatever he wanted, which was very efficient.

It feels much more humane than the system. If the system is as obedient as Zero at any time, Di Ping should be happy.

Liu Anhe took a few iron ingots produced by the manor from the workshop warehouse and gave them to Di Ping.

In addition to the knowledge of the base, the most basic first step of forging is forging. The impurities in the iron ingot are forged at a high temperature to become refined iron. The less the impurities, the higher the purity and the quality of the weapons produced. The better.

The Nine Hammer forging technique has been deeply in Di Ping's mind. Before, he briefly read the knowledge of bases, and now it is time to start testing.

The stove rises, and the warmth in the forging room rises. The raging flames are extremely warm, and the iron ingots are already red in a while.

Di Ping, who has never played iron, finally knows the difficulty today.

Either the clip is not stable, or the hammer is not hitting the place. If the two hands are not well matched, the place is always not hit, and after a while, he is busy sweating.

Ironing is not as strong as possible. Each hammer pays attention to the strength, the strength is appropriate, the shock effect is good, the impurities are released quickly, and the strength is easy to destroy the structure, but it is not easy to produce impurities, and the iron will become soft and more inappropriate Cast weapons.

Di Ping's character just refused to admit defeat, he didn't believe that he could not even the most basic forging.

As a result, clanging sounds rang in the casting room endlessly.

After playing for a whole afternoon, Di Ping found that he was really not that easy to learn. His strength was great, but now his arms, legs, and waist were not pain-free. The movements always felt awkward, and he still couldn't find the feeling under the hammer.

But overall it's not bad, the hammer is finally much more accurate, and it won't be often empty or biased.

Di Ping was embarrassed when he saw that the exploration technique in his hand gave iron ingots with a purity of only 20%. Did he think it was simple?

Fine iron requires a purity of over 80%. This 20% is not useful at all and cannot be used to forge weapons.

But it's still a gain, the nine hammer forging method, he has already touched a bit of the first hammer, and he may be able to learn it after practicing.

Besides, he was in a stinky sweat, and he was in a much better mood, not as impatient as before.

And he felt that his mood had improved again, the feeling of impetuosity at the beginning was gone, and his heart became much calmer. He took a breath and felt refreshed, as if his energy and spirit had improved.

When he came out and found that the sky had darkened, the number of people active in the base had gradually decreased, all those who should have finished work had finished, and the people who worked in the manor had all got off work and rested.

The manor is now a big sucker, and several large workshops have already begun to use. Now the most important is the smelting workshop and the home. The Mithril and Crystal workshops are unable to start without materials.

Di simply took a bath and saw that it was seven o'clock. It was Patton who came to invite Di Ping to have a meal. Now there are more and more people in the small restaurant. You can only sit down after three tables.

The dinner party every night has become a habit of the base. In the evening, everyone gathers for a meal. Although it is not very rich, everyone can chat, talk, and exchange feelings together.

Patton had always wanted to arrange Di Ping to dine on his own, and the city lord still wanted to be style, but Di Ping liked this feeling better, there were more people, so he didn't listen to Patton's arrangement.

This makes Patton very helpless, a noble dining etiquette useless.

Chapter 757: Depart again to Jincheng

The father and daughter Yun Kuohai were also present. The two liked the harmonious and lively atmosphere of the base. Yun Kuohai was already heroic, and he was also very proud of drinking. Soon they got in touch with Han Zhongguo.

And among Yun Mengsi's dealings with a few women, he was able to do well. Liu Bingyu and Han's sister-in-law Liu Shufen could play with them. Like Yu Shujie, Ning Nan was her opponent.

In particular, her charming charm, which is always revealed in all her activities, makes a group of men confused and enchanted. v Her charm is different from Liu Bingyu's soft and charming, and also different from Gina's charming, but a kind of charming like a fox fairy. Seductive, the man's blood was tumbling at the first sight, and his breath was unstoppable.

The joining of Yun Mengsi and Yun Kuohai and the conscious interaction made the whole atmosphere very lively. If Fatty, the spirit of the person, is here again today, the atmosphere will be even more lively.

If it were not for the safety of Fatty and Xu Sheng, Di Ping would have been more comfortable eating this meal.

After eating, Di Ping rushed to the medical office to check the conditions of several people.

Fatty, Xu Sheng, and Li Shuang are in the same situation, but the pained expressions on their faces have become deeper, and they make unconscious groans from time to time.

For the other three, one of them is now in a coma, and the other two are still in low-grade fever, so the condition is not too serious.

Now they can only rely on themselves, whether it is a dragon or a worm, it depends on their own will and luck.

After leaving the medical office, Di Ping came to the market and entered the Treasure Building. Accompanied by Doro, the manager, he replaced all the crystal nuclei collected recently and the crystal nuclei accumulated during the daily cleaning of the base.

The total number of crystal nuclei has been handed over more than 1,700, a total of 4,970 crystal coins have been exchanged, and the total number of crystal coins has once again risen to more than 10,000.

Why are there so many exchanges? The main reason is that the quality of the crystal nuclei this time is much higher than before. Many of them are first-order and second-class crystal nuclei, and there are also first-order and third-order crystal nuclei, especially the one that Di Ping obtained. A ninth-level black bear crystal nucleus, a mutant queen bee crystal nucleus, and a first-order pinnacle crystal nucleus of the armored tooth beast.

A black bear crystal core can exchange for 28 crystal coins, while the steel armor fang beast has exchanged for forty-five crystal coins.

And the giant wolves that were hunted before were all first-tier and second-tier, and the wolf king even reached the first-tier and seventh-tier, so they exchanged so many at once.

Only at this time did Di Ping know that the price of crystal nuclei of different ranks to exchange crystal coins was also different.

With his pockets bulging again, Di Ping decided to increase the strength of the next few recruited heroes. The main reason for this crisis is that Owen is not strong enough in Phuket.

If the strength is enough, it will not be killed by a single shot.

This time Di Ping decided to buy the skill. He bought the warrior martial arts "Cross Slash" as a d-class martial skill. It promotes blood, and instantly cuts the cross swords. It is a group attack skill with extremely high lethality. The price is 300. Crystal coins, because they are a single skill, have only one trick, and the price is not high.

I bought a copy of the priesthood technique "Holy Light Half Moon Slash", a d-class martial skill that uses holy light to condense into a half moon blade, with extremely fast attack speed and additional holy light burning damage at a price of 300 coins.

Then I bought a book of spiritual meditation ideas for Gina. Yuqing Zhenjue is different from the spiritual meditation ideas. It is more like Taoist exercises and lacks the guidance of elements in meditation, so Di Ping did not use it for Gina, but bought it again. A book.

"Void Spirit Meditation", a d-level strong meditation practice method, cost 800 coins.

This exercise is simple and quick to practice, and it is easy to enter a state of emptiness and emptiness. It can quickly communicate with the bridge of elements and accelerate the speed of element integration and absorption. This is an extremely rare meditation idea.

Di Ping believes that this exercise allows Gina to practice and will definitely increase her strength quickly, which is many times higher than the introductory meditation technique she has practiced herself.

Then, he bought another spell for Gina, "Frost Arrow" cost 300 coins.

Frost Arrow is a single high-attack spell. The water element condenses into ice arrows, attacking the enemy, and attacking secretly at a fast speed.

Gina's group attack is quite powerful, but there are weaknesses in the single body. The fireball attack speed is slow and the movement is large, which makes Gina very disadvantaged when fighting.

The Frost Arrow technique has high attack power, is silent and extremely fast, which is helpful for Gina's attack.

Chapter 758: Crazy killing to resolve hatred

After a while, more than one thousand crystal coins are gone. There were originally more than 10,000 crystal coins, but now there are only more than eight thousand.

Di Ping said with emotion, money is really not spent!

He prepared that the remaining coins should not be squandered. He has to consider building a city wall. Animals mutate faster. There will be no wall protection at that time. The base is basically not fortified. Just relying on Luo Quan's construction team to add some wood to it is of little use .

Five or six high walls, mutant tigers don't have to jump over easily, so the construction of the city wall is a top priority.

By the time Di Ping returned to the main tower of the city, it was already more than ten o'clock in the evening, and a lot of time was wasted by choosing exercises first.

Sitting cross-legged in front of the window, he began to practice today's Yu Qing Zhen Jue. The improvement of his spirit has made him taste the sweetness, and he is more and more dedicated to his cultivation.

Cultivating overnight, I suddenly opened my eyes in the morning, and a ray of light flashed in his eyes, like a starlight, extremely bright.

The Jade Qing Zhen Jue is indeed powerful. Every time you practice you can feel progress, and wake up in the morning with a refreshing look, no different from a deep sleep.

Habitually opened the system hero recruitment panel and glanced casually. There were still three d-level potential heroes, and there were no high-quality heroes. Di Ping closed the system disappointedly.

It was six o'clock, and he was preparing for today's practice, but just after he washed his face, the door was knocked, the watch on his wrist lit up, and the image outside the door appeared before his eyes.

It was none other than his secretary Liu Bingyu who knocked on the door.

Although Liu Bingyu looked very anxious and knocked on the door a little hastily, there was a hint of joy on his face.

Seeing this, Di Ping relaxed a little. It seemed that something was not wrong, so he ordered Zero to open the door.

"Sanctuary, good news!"

Liu Bingyu stepped through the door quickly, with a look of excitement.

"What good news!"

Di Ping poured a glass of water and looked at Liu Bingyu with a smile.

"Fatty, they are awake!"

Liu Bingyu's pretty eyes turned into a willow leaf, and said with joy.

"Fatty woke up!"

Di's expression, who had been light and breezy, changed into a startled voice.

"Hmm!"

Seeing Di Ping's loss in an instant, Liu Bingyu nodded with a brighter smile.

"Go and see!"

Di Ping put down his teacup with a snap, stopped practicing, and hurriedly walked out.

"Eh! Wait for me!"

When Liu Bingyu reacted, Di Ping had already walked out of the door of the room, and she hurriedly followed along all the way.

If a group of princes and ladies in Kyoto saw it at this time, they would surely fall their eyes. This was still the old lady of the Liu family who was as wise as a demon, calm and decisive, and was obviously a tolerable little woman.

As soon as Di Ping walked out of the path, he saw a large group of people gathered in front of the villa where the Fatty and them were in a circle, not knowing what to do.

He also exclaimed from time to time, as if watching a performance.

Seeing this situation, Di Ping was stunned for a moment. He wanted to step over to see what happened. At this time, Liu Bingyu trot all the way, panting and yelling: "City...the lord... ..You...you wait...wait for me!"

Di Ping looked at Liu Bingyu, who was holding her waist with one hand while panting, and smiled slightly, but stopped and waited for her.

When I was in a hurry, I forgot about her. I walked in a hurry. Although I was walking, but the speed was not slow, Liu Bingyu would definitely be exhausted if he wanted to keep up.

"Tired..... I'm exhausted...I'm tired!"

Liu Bingyu finally ran to Di Ping'an, wiping sweat while panting.

"You have to exercise!"

Di Ping whispered softly while supporting Liu Bingyu, who was about to fall as weak as Liu Fufeng.

Chapter 759: Regaining sobriety

This was not a casual comment by Di Ping. Seeing Liu Bingyu's breathless state after running two steps, he felt that he had to do something.

Nowadays, the sanctuary city has such good conditions and food for cultivation techniques. Women can also practice to increase the chance of awakening, so that they can survive better in the last days.

Women accounted for nearly one-fifth of the base, and the number is not a small number. If they can awaken a part of it, it is also a force that cannot be underestimated.

"City Lord, you are serious!"

Seeing Di Ping's serious expression, Liu Bingyu did not pant, looking at him in horror.

"Of course it is true. Starting tomorrow, you will also join the training. I will ask Ava to train a few of you!"

Di Ping nodded seriously.

"OK then!"

Feeling Di Ping's indisputable tone, Liu Bingyu nodded aggrievedly. She didn't want to be a vase. It would be nice to be able to fight with Di Ping like Gina Ava!

Thinking of this, Liu Bingyu immediately became happy again and was about to walk to the medical office. When she looked up and saw the crowd gathered in a circle, she suddenly questioned:

"What are they doing?"

In this moment, Di Ping had already understood what was going on inside. He smiled and said, "The fat guy is showing off!"

This fat man is really out of cure. I was worried about what happened to him, but just now he heard the loudest voice in it, the most lovable, yelling boasting strongman.

"It's really him!"

Liu Bingyu listened, and a smile appeared on his face for a while.

"boom!"

In the crowd, the fat man threw a large Taihu rock above his head to the ground, smashed it with a bang, and then shouted arrogantly: "Come on, who will try to compare with Fat Brother! Xu Sheng, do you want to come!" "

Speaking maliciously, Xu Sheng, who was standing not far away, stretched out a finger and hooked provocatively.

"I'm not going to compare strength with your big idiot! You guys are speed type, you can catch me if you have the ability!"

Xu Sheng smiled with his arms around.

"I rub, you are as fast as a rabbit. If you guys go and catch you, let's compare our strength, dare to compare! Or Li Shuang, let's compare."

The fat man widened his small eyes and yelled completely shamelessly, watching Xu Sheng ignore him, and directly looked at Li Shuang who was standing not far away.

"Okay, Fatty, don't bully Li Shuang, why don't you compare your strength with the city lord!"

Xu Shenghào didn't care about the fat man's arrogance, but looked at him and smiled slightly.

"City Lord, is that a human being? I don't compare with him! That's not all right!"

The fat man rolled his eyes and said angrily.

"I am not a human, so what am I?"

Walking to the outer circle with Liu Bingyu, he deliberately sullenly shouted.

"Ah! City Lord"

Everyone was startled at first, and turned their heads to see Di Ping standing in the outer circle, suddenly cried out in shock.

"City Lord!"

Fatty, Xu Sheng, and Li Shuang followed to greet Di Ping.

In Di Ping's serious gaze, the fat man seemed to feel the cold winter wax moon, his body was cold, his calf was spinning straight.

"Fat man, you just said I am not a human being, then what am I?"

Di Ping looked at the fat man again and asked in a deep voice.

"Then...what? I...then what?"

For a while, the fat man stammered, couldn't say a word, sweating on his head.

Xu Sheng and Liu Bingyu suddenly felt funny when they saw the fat man sweating anxiously, and Liu Bingyu chuckled.

Although this fat man was timid, his temper was not small, and everyone was irritated when he was violent, but he was afraid of Di Ping, and he trembled with fright.

This is what is said, one thing drops one thing! Di Ping faints as soon as he appears fat.

Chapter 760: I will be a criminal

"City Lord, you are God! Hehe!"

The fat man held back for a long time, suddenly his eyes lit up and he blurted out, and then he felt that this flattering was too loud, and he laughed embarrassedly.

"All right! Stop selling treasures!"

Di Ping gave the fat man an angry look, but his eyes swept over Xu Sheng. Li Shuang and Li Shuang asked softly: "When did you wake up and how did you feel?"

"Back to the city lord, I woke up in the middle of the night, I didn't dare to let them alarm you!"

Xu Sheng stepped forward to reply respectfully, patted his chest as he said, smiled with a simple smile and said: "It has never been better before, now my whole body is full of strength!"

"it is good!"

Di Ping was also happily watching the three nodded in satisfaction.

The base now has three more Awakeners, and the strength is further enhanced. How can this not make him happy.

"How about the other three?"

Di Ping looked at Xu Sheng and asked.

"One person has gone back to normal with fever and is still under observation, and the other two are still in a coma..."

Xu Sheng replied.

Upon hearing this, Di Ping was a little disappointed, and the fever returned to normal, indicating that he did not awaken and failed. It seems that awakening may not be 100% successful, and I don't know if this person can awaken a second time.

But then he calmed down. Three people succeeded at one time, and the two were in the awakening stage. The probability was already quite high.

The odds are much higher than what Owen and others said.

Di Ping took Liu Bingyu into the medical department. No matter these energetic guys, he wanted to see what happened to the other fainted person.

When I entered the room, I saw Ning Nan curled up on a single sofa by the wall and fell asleep. The noise outside didn't even wake her up, and she seemed exhausted.

There are three beds not far from the sofa, and three people are sleeping on the bed.

Two of them were flushed, their brows were furrowed, and their faces were distorted. They seemed to be still suffering.

Di Ping did not bother Ning Nan, he directly used probing techniques at the three of them.

Sure enough, the two comatosees were in the awakening stage, while the others showed that the awakening failed, the evolutionary energy was insufficient, and they entered the latent stage, waiting to be awakened again.

I heard Gina said that if the second awakening is unsuccessful, there will be no chance at all. The two consumption will hurt the root, and the body's potential can no longer withstand the third consumption.

This is really heaven and hell. If this young man wakes up and finds that everyone else has successfully awakened, but he has failed, how would he feel?

Di Ping shook his head, took Liu Bingyu back gently, and went out to train the crowd outside, let them all be quieter, afraid to disturb Ning Nan's rest.

A crowd of people hurriedly fell silent, the city lord was Lian Xiang Xi Yu, they dare to sabotage, the Fatty didn't dare to scream.

In front of the castle, the hundreds of guards have begun morning exercises, the team is neat and magnificent,

Many people dared to feel the changes in the training of Violent Ape's fighting strength, and their strength, speed, and physical fitness changed with the practice.

Therefore, everyone was very serious and sweaty, but no one shouted tired, and followed the movements of the instructor Boogie.

Di Ping came to the teleportation well and began today's search. Liu Bingyu's surprised gaze showed the teleportation well, but the result disappointed him again, and he did not find the locator coordinates belonging to Han Ming.

Frozen for a while, he had already decided that he would leave after finishing the arrangements today. Han Ming might be unreliable. It was already the third day.

Walking back to the city main tower full of thoughts, Liu Bingyu felt the anxiety under Di Ping's hidden calm surface, so he didn't dare to say a word.
