

Doomsday 761

Chapter 761: Wolves roar again

After breakfast, under the notice of Liu Bingyu, the captain of the guard Owen, the captain of the city guard Cheng Chao, the chief of staff Lu Guoliang, and the five captains Qi Qi came to Di Ping's room.

Di Ping took out the remaining nine smart watches, and when he talked about the functions to everyone, a group of people exploded on the spot.

They all went up to their hands, as if a child had obtained a beloved toy, they brought them up in a panic, and then they screamed one after another.

Don't say it, the small needle is full of pain, especially if you don't pay attention, it is really scary.

A group of people activated the watch under Di Ping's explanation, and then it was like adding a friend. After a few people added a friend, they could communicate in the future.

There is no other content in the cyberspace yet, and Di Ping hasn't figured out how to get it. Once he thinks about it, it's pretty fast to hand it over to Zero.

Then, he gave the purchased martial arts warrior and priesthood skills to Owen, and let him pass on to several people in the team to practice.

He gave the purchased meditation and ice archery to Gina.

Everyone stopped, and it seemed that the situation was not right. Sure enough, Di Ping explained to the people that he was leaving for a few days, and then, regardless of everyone's surprised expressions, simply confessed the matter and let them leave.

He only took Gina this time, and the two left the castle and teleported to his old house through the teleportation array.

After a brief feeling of emptiness, Di Ping stood in the courtyard of his old house, and the grass that had been removed a lot of it grew up again.

It was green, waist-deep, and the entire yard was abnormally desolate. Di Ping glanced at it, feeling a little sad, but he suddenly turned his head and drove Gina to the Jincheng base.

Jincheng base was not far away, a hundred kilometers away, Di Ping took Gina, touched the highway, found a car, and drove towards Jincheng.

As soon as I was on the high speed, I encountered a mutant dog chase. Fortunately, a few mutant dogs didn't need her to act. Gina killed a few mutant dogs with a few fireballs.

Gina has now risen to Tier 1 and Tier 3, and her spell's attack power has also risen sharply under the greatly increased strength.

Now Di Pinglian doesn't want to collect the crystal core, he wants to rush to the Jincheng base.

After that, there was an attack by more than 30 mutant sparrows, but Gina's ignition technique was quite powerful, and the sparrows couldn't get close to the car body at all. They were burned into roasted birds 30 meters away and landed one after another.

He has never been to the Jincheng Base, but he has been to the Jincheng Military Region. He had accompanied his mother to see him before, and the Jincheng Base was probably built in the Military Region.

Two hours later, Di Ping had reached Jincheng, which was originally a county-level city and not too big. He walked around the city and headed directly to the military area.

However, when he arrived at the Jincheng base and saw everything in front of him, he was stunned on the spot, stunned for a while, his body shook for a while.

"the host!"

Gina screamed, and hurriedly held Di Ping with worry in her eyes.

Di Ping looked at the broken walls in front of him, the broken weapons everywhere, and the blood stains that had long been dried up and black everywhere. He felt that his eyes were black, and his chest was blocked like a heavy stone. Suddenly he itched and took a mouthful. Blood spurted out.

"Ah! Master, what's wrong with you?"

Seeing Di Ping's sudden blood spurt, Gina was frightened on the spot, tears flowed out in an instant, panicked holding Di Ping, who was shaking.

Chapter 762: Roar in the forest

"Wow..."

At this time, a group of mutant wild dogs looking for food in the ruins found Di Ping and the two, and they suddenly roared in excitement.

For a moment, the roaring sound became one piece in the whole ruins, and the mutant dogs in the distance also heard the greeting, and responded in succession, rushing here.

But when Di Ping's five or six mutant dogs were discovered, they had already rushed towards Di Ping with red eyes.

"Master, master!"

Seeing this, Gina became even more flustered. The mage's attack was high, but a group of mutant dogs swarmed up. She was really hard to resist, and hurriedly called Di Ping.

"what!"

What caught Gina's eyes was Di Ping raised her blood-red eyes, the hatred burning in her eyes, and Gina exclaimed in shock.

"I will let you die!"

Di Ping's momentum suddenly rose, and he pushed Gina away abruptly, staring hatred at the mutant dog who roared over, his voice was cold, like the murmur of hell.

Looking at the mutant dog getting closer and closer, he roared, and the people rushed out, **** like a mad dragon, directly facing the first mutant dog.

"boom!"

There was a muffled sound. At first, a tall mutant dog didn't even scream. The entire dog's head was violently smashed into pieces by Di Ping's punch. Blood was splashed. The mutant body that lost its head was strangely left in place without moving a step. , Standing for a moment before crashing to the ground.

"dead!"

Di Ping let out a roar again and rushed towards the other end, the iron head whizzing with a strong wind, the air was squeezed and screamed in pain.

Bang bang bang...

A figure was rushing forward, and every time it moved, a mutant dog's head shattered. In a blink of an eye, all six mutant dogs had been killed.

But Di Ping didn't stop, the mutant dogs that kept coming from each became his new target. He roared and rushed to the newly arrived mutant dog again.

Gina stared blankly at Di Ping, who was **** and slaughtered like a madman, and water mist condensed in her eyes.

She knew that the master was venting the anger and unwillingness in her heart. Once he finished venting it, it would be fine. If you let him hold back, something will happen.

The screams of the mutant dogs were filled with **** breath, attracting more and more mutant dogs, ten, twenty, fifty, one hundred!

The dog barked and roared in one piece, sounded in the whole ruins, the trembling world trembled, and some of the weak mutant beasts flew away.

With so many mutant dogs, the general mutant beasts didn't dare to wipe their edge.

But if someone is present, you will find that this is a battle, this is a one-sided massacre.

Di Ping didn't use the third level of Bengquan's strength, it was all based on strength, explosive force to kill, first-level seven-level strength, 30,000 fear power, once the explosion result will be terrible, none of them The mutant dog can block his punch. He is like a tyrannosaurus, tireless, roaring, pounding, and venting.

In every boxing, the mutant dog's head will explode instantly, and every foot is swept, and the mutant dog's body immediately breaks up. All the way along, all the mutant dog's remains are left. The blood is sprayed, as if A layer of red mist formed in the air.

Ahhhhh...

He thought of all the circumstances, thought of Han Ming's betrayal, thought that Han Ming could not find them, but did not expect the Jincheng base to be destroyed.

Are they still alive?

He didn't dare to think about all of this. Seeing the black bloodstains all over the floor, he could no longer suppress the regret and fear in his heart, and then he spouted a mouthful of blood.

Chapter 763: Horror is coming

The mutant dog rushing like a tide finally couldn't restrain the fear and began to growl and dare not step forward.

Is this a person?

This is the devil, no! More cruel than the devil!

When Di Ping killed nearly two hundred mutant dogs, the jackal race, who was known for its madness, was terrified. He groaned and dared not step forward.

As a result, Di Ping had already smashed his eyes and activated his charge skills. If there is a mutant dog, he would charge there. If he catches up with him, he would kill him. The body is full of evil spirits, like a cloud of blood that never dissipates, simple like a bloodthirsty. The beast, the mutant dog could no longer withstand the fear in their hearts, and fled with their tails between them.

Kill kill kill.....

Di Ping was still staring with blood-red eyes, screaming frantically, waving his fists and attacking everything that he saw before him.

Gina rushed back several times but was frightened back by Di Ping's astonishing aura. She couldn't just cast Di Ping's calmness from a distance, hoping Di Ping could calm down.

Sure enough, a concentration of air fell on Di Ping's back, and he saw his body shake, his head was finally relieved, and the red light in his eyes showed signs of fading.

When Gina saw that it was useful, she quickly threw two passes. After a few seconds, Di Ping's eyes were finally clear.

He looked down at the blood stains on his upper fists, and then at the dark red blood stained on his body, as well as the broken corpses in a place. He was in a daze for a long time before he let out a long sigh and fell into his ass. sit on the floor.

He leaned against a dilapidated wall, breathing heavily. The fight just now took a short time, only ten minutes, but the intensity has never been higher.

He used almost every punch with his full strength, and none of the nearly two hundred mutant dogs had a complete body. It can be seen how strong his attack power is, so his consumption is also huge.

After Qingming came, he felt pain all over his body, as if he was about to tear. If it weren't for Gina's gaze and calm treatment, his condition would be more serious.

"Master, how are you!"

Seeing Di Ping wake up, Gina rushed to Di Ping with tears and asked eagerly.

"I'm fine, Gina, I worry you!"

Di Ping looked at Gina with a gentle smile.

After the crazy killing just now, he has almost vented, and the suffocating self-blame and regret in his heart have been reduced a lot, so that he will not go crazy again.

"Gina, I am worried about you!"

Gina finally burst into tears and laughed, with tears on her face, choked up when she watched Di Ping's voice.

"It's okay! Don't worry! I won't go crazy anymore!"

Di Ping was so moved that he wanted to reach out to touch Gina's pretty face and wipe away the tears from her face, but when he raised his hand to see the red blood on his hands, he stopped his hand again.

Just focusing on killing, his clothes were covered with blood stains all over his body at this time, and there was no way he could not get the blood that was pouring all over the sky.

Consoling Gina, Di Ping, who was already sober, felt really uncomfortable. He found a broken wall, took a large bucket of water from the system backpack, and washed it for a while. It took two buckets of water to rinse it off, and then changed into clean clothes.

And Gina, seeing that Di Ping was fine, she went straight to look for the crystal nucleus.

This is Gina, looking for crystal nuclei in a pile of minced meat is still a test of human tolerance, and most people may have vomited long ago.

"Master, Liu Bingyu asked for a call to connect!"

Di Pinggang was about to call Gina to come back and not pick it up, when suddenly the smart watch rang Liu Bingyu requesting a call.

"Connect!"

Although Di Ping wondered if Liu Bingyu had anything to contact him after walking for a long time, he still let it be connected.

Chapter 764: whereabouts

The smart watch Tianxun system was turned on, a virtual light screen was projected in front of Di Ping's eyes, and Liu Bingyu appeared in the screen.

"What happened to Bingyu?"

Liu Bingyu used the watch Tianxun system for the first time, and when he saw the real picture in front of him, his eyes flashed with surprise, and he quickly reacted, blushing and hurriedly said: "Our hunting team was attacked when we went out today! "

Di Ping's heart sank and asked anxiously:

"What was attacked, how many casualties, and what's going on!"

"Today, Captain Owen personally led the team and was attacked by unknown forces in the city. The opponent had firearms. Five of us were slightly injured and two of us were seriously injured. In the end, Captain Owen and Mok's instructor shot them back!"

Liu Bingyu explained the matter to Di Ping simply and clearly.

"Who is the other party, how many are there, and why are they attacking us!"

"Interrogation prisoners learned that this group of people belonged to a small gathering place with a thousand people in the city. The leader was Zhang Cheng, the former head of a public security office in Zhongzhou City. He made a large number of weapons from the security office. Weapons, and then gathered a group of people, hiding in the underground air-raid shelter of a big supermarket until now!"

"Why are they attacking our people?"

Di Ping asked in a cold voice.

"I don't know yet. Our prisoners didn't know why Zhang Cheng suddenly attacked us, but the interrogation revealed that this was not an emergency, it was an attack specifically targeting our base!"

Liu Bingyu's pretty face collapsed, his eyes flashed with anger and hatred.

"It looks like someone is looking for death!"

A murderous shot in Di Ping's eyes, and his voice was as cold as winter water, and Liu Bingyu could feel a chill across the screen.

"City Lord, what are we going to do now? Captain Cheng Chao and Captain Owen are waiting for your order!"

Liu Bingyu closed the folder, looked at Di Ping and asked.

Di Ping was silent now.

This matter is really difficult to handle. Let Cheng Chao and the others handle it. They are not at ease. They are afraid that there will be casualties in the process.

He couldn't go back now. Although the Jincheng base was destroyed, he didn't necessarily have an accident with his parents. Maybe he retreated early.

He was just angrily attacking his mind. He didn't think so much for a while. Thinking about it now, this possibility is not small. The Jincheng base has a lot of troops, at least a team of thousands of people.

It is impossible to all be killed, and it is also possible that you can't just abandon the city and leave.

Therefore, he still wants to stay and look for clues. It is best to find the survivors and ask what's going on.

He believed that even if the mutant beasts attacked the city, it was impossible for a person to escape.

Therefore, when Liu Bingyu asked, he was silent, and he was considering whether or not to go back.

"In this way, you ask Cheng Chao, Staff Lu, Chief Han, Captain Owen to come up with a plan with you, and then send it to me to see, I can't go back temporarily!"

Di Ping thought for a while, and finally decided to stay and check the clues. Maybe he could find them. The longer the interval, the harder it is to find clues.

"It's the city owner!"

Liu Bingyu nodded.

Di Ping suddenly flashed a cold light in his eyes: "Tell them that our principle is that people don't offend me, I don't offend people, and if people offend me, I must offend them!"

"It's the city lord, I took it down!"

Chapter 765: Terror comes to the limit

Turning off the watch Tianxun, Di Ping pondered for a moment, and decided to relax. Since it was handed over to them, he had to rest assured, I believe that these people will not be worse than themselves, and that their abilities are better than themselves.

Gina frowned and searched for the crystal nucleus among the pieces of meat. Di Ping attacked too fiercely. Nearly half of the mutant dogs had their heads shattered, and the crystal nucleus flew into the cracks of the rock and it was difficult to find.

Di Ping watched Gina holding the stick, looking for it carefully, her heart was moved. She knew that every time she was collecting crystal nuclei, she had formed a habit. Every time the battle was over, she would definitely collect the crystal nucleus. .

He just stood up and prepared to help Gina to collect the scattered crystal nuclei, but now he is short of money.

Just as soon as he moved, he discovered that a group of giant wolves suddenly appeared beside the forest in the distance.

These giant wolves are much taller than mutant dogs, each of them is like a tall horse, two meters small, thirty or forty in number.

The giant wolves should have come smelling the blood. As soon as they walked out of the woods and saw the corpses of mutant dogs all over the ground, the corners of the giant wolves' mouths began to drain.

There was a commotion, the mutant giant wolves roared anxiously, their bodies collapsed, and they seemed to be ready to rush forward at any time.

The giant wolves were taken aback for a moment, then their eyes burst into scarlet red, and the sky was raised with a roar.

"Wow!"

In the woods behind them, there was a roar that should join.

Hearing the roar of wolves one after another, Di Ping's brow furrowed. This is a mountainous area, in the middle of the mountains. The existence of wild wolves is not unusual, but it is scary to not want to have such a number.

There were dozens of giant wolves, Di Ping hadn't paid attention to him, only Gina was there. He was afraid that Gina would be besieged, so he hurriedly shouted: "Gina, come back!"

Gina also saw this group of giant wolves, a trace of terror flashed in her eyes, turned around and ran towards Di Ping.

It's just that her move also signaled the pack of wolves to attack.

"Wow..."

The giant wolves roared and rushed towards Gina frantically.

The arrival of the end times has made all creatures extremely aggressive, and the wolf, an already cruel animal, has become even more brutal. Seeing the existence of humans, the excited eyes are as red as blood, and the smelly mucus drips like rain in the mouth. .

The distance of two hundred meters, the speed of the mutant wolf can be reached in an instant, Gina is slow, and Di Ping is not negligent.

With a move, he rushed towards Gina, and a chilling ghost-faced saber appeared in his hand as he ran out.

The mutant dog flees with fear that he can kill, and the mutant dog is the same. Now when he moves his weapon, the lethality is absolutely different.

It was just a vent before, but now is the beginning of the real killing.

As soon as Di Ping rushed towards him, the fear in Gina's heart lowered. As the person was running, the staff in his hand was raised, the top crystal was lit, and then a dozen fireballs condensed around the crystal.

Then, Gina suddenly stopped, turned back, waved the staff in her hand, and dozens of fireballs broke away from the staff in an instant, slashed fire marks in the air, and shot at the rushing giant wolf.

Boom boom boom...

The three or four giant wolves running in the forefront were hit like a galloping horse, and the three or four giant wolves were knocked to the ground by a strong explosion.

The flames burned like bone poison, and these giant wolves were surrounded by flames, and Pirouzi rang straight, and a scream of screams cut through the sky.

The explosion of fear frightened the wolves that were rushing, and then it seemed that the screams of their companions aroused their ferocity. Qi Qi looked at Gina with scarlet eyes, and the violent killing intent in his eyes let Gina, couldn't help but scream.

Ooh...

The pack of wolves let out an angry low roar, and then shot at Gina like a sharp arrow, and a **** aura rushed toward her like a violent wind.

Chapter 766: The fire dragon roars to life

With her abilities, it is quite good to deal with mutant dogs of rank five, six and one. A giant wolf like this is only three-level up, with a vigorous momentum and much stronger than her.

Just now a burst of ignition technique, wounding the three giant wolves is already a **** luck, that's it, in order to maintain the lethality of the ignition technique, she also consumes three layers of mana.

In the past thirty years, the mutant giant wolves rushed towards her, she had no ability to resist.

She doesn't have Di Ping's ability, there are a few perverts like Di Ping who dare to face so many giant wolves directly.

In fact, let alone Gina, even Di Ping frowned. These giant wolves are much stronger than the wolves they encountered last time.

You can feel the gap just by your aura. If you face one or two hundred people, it will be very troublesome, mainly because Gina is there, and he is afraid that he can't take care of it.

Therefore, he decided to make a quick decision. He couldn't wait for the giant wolves who responded in the forest to come over. He knew that there were a lot of them. If he was surrounded and could run by himself, Gina would be in trouble.

Di Ping held Gina in his hand, gestured to her a look, then waved his sword and rushed up.

Crazy wave knife method, breeze and fine waves.

Di Ping gave a soft drink, the saber in his hand trembling, the sound of waves rang in the air, and the saber in his hand also hummed.

Whizzing.....

The waves are scouring, and each flower is shining with white light, reflecting cold light in the sun.

This is the sea, this is the wave of knives, each wave is a blade of light, countless knives of light are intertwined into layers of waves, lightly and slowly patted at the wolves.

The violent wave knife technique can be high attack, or group attack. The high attack power is superimposed, and it is invincible. The group attack is like a wave hitting the shore, endless.

Puff puff....

The knife wave rolled over, followed by a popping sound, and then you saw it, as if a blood mist appeared in the sky, and countless blood springs were spraying.

And Di Ping had appeared ten meters away, without a drop of blood on his body.

Bang bang bang...

Suddenly a wave of blades swept across, and each giant wolf had three or four scary wounds that turned flesh and blood out, and blood was spraying outward.

In the horrified gaze of the wolves, the huge bodies of the giant wolves collapsed suddenly, arousing smoke and dust, and the blood quickly covered the rubble and bricks.

Di Ping shook the sword in his hand and smashed all the blood away, seeing dissatisfaction in the eyes of the giant wolf lying on the ground.

This knife only killed more than seven heads. It seemed that his speed was not fast enough, Di Ping secretly shook his head.

At this moment, the giant wolf, who was stunned by the sudden change in front of him, reacted at once, and Di Ping roared wildly in his youth, not being frightened by the blood in front of him.

"Come again!"

At this time, Di Ping and the same war **** possessed their bodies, and the giant wolves who roared and shook a little fear. He didn't know that although his body had been cleaned, the **** evil spirits gathered up into the sky like wolf smoke. Pack of wolves.

Ooh...

Suddenly, there was a terrible roar of a giant wolf in the dense forest not far away, as if it was undergoing huge damage, and the scream did not last long, and the scream stopped abruptly after a few times.

The giant wolf, who was hesitating, stopped abruptly and looked back to the direction of the sound.

"Woohoo!"

"What's the matter, what are these giant wolves afraid of?"

Di Ping looked at the trembling giant wolf in his twenties anxiously and wondered. He didn't think it was a pack of wolves afraid of him.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, there was a long roar in the distance of the forest. The sound was long and loud, as if it could penetrate the sky. The dark clouds in the sky were like mist, and Di Ping's heart was throbbing with the sound.

"Woo....."

The restless wolves wailed in fear, as if they had been ordered.

Then he moved suddenly and dropped Di Ping, turned and ran, and disappeared into the forest in a blink of an eye.

How is this going?

Chapter 767: Fleeing into the sky like a dragon

"Master, what's the matter?"

Gina, who was preparing the spell, stopped when she saw this scene, and asked a little puzzled.

"I was wondering too?"

Di Ping shrugged.

"Ka Ka..."

Suddenly there was a sound of tree breaking in the forest, and the smile on Di Ping's face stopped and he looked up to the direction of the sound.

I saw the huge trees in the forest swaying, as if they were forcibly separated by some force, making a cracking sound.

Immediately afterwards, there was a roar of heavy objects landing, like a beast running.

The sound of the woods breaking became denser, and an arrow was visible in the forest and rushed towards Di Ping.

Di Ping's face changed drastically. He felt an aura rising up into the sky like a dark cloud pressing down on the city, pressing it with a terrifying power, and the sky seemed to collapse.

Gina took a few steps back and let out an exclamation. Her face was pale, her eyes looked in the direction of the horror with horror, and a trace of blood flowed from the corner of her mouth.

"Gina go!"

Di Ping also reacted at this time, his face changed a lot and pulled Gina to leave, but Gina, who was impacting with momentum, was injured.

He didn't need to think about it. This was definitely a terrifying mutant beast. This powerful and fierce aura was stronger than all mutant beasts he had seen before.

To say that the mutant golden eagle is very strong, but compared with this monster, it is far inferior to the world.

This aura was not aimed at him at all, but he had already felt the chills, his chest was stuffy with the aura, and he couldn't breathe. If it weren't for the strong mental power, he might not be able to walk.

Such a monster is not something he can deal with at all, so run away! Besides being able to escape, now he finally knows why the Jincheng base was destroyed. With such a powerful monster, even his base can't stop it.

Boom boom boom...

The sound is getting closer and clearer.

Di Pinggang took Gina, who was unable to move, and ran out for more than 30 meters. The ground was full of collapsed houses and broken rocks. It was very difficult to walk, which severely slowed his speed.

But the momentum behind him grew stronger and stronger, and Di Ping felt cold behind him, as if he was being stared at by a poisonous snake.

His face turned cold, he picked up Gina, expanded to the extreme speed, rushed forward, there are still fifty meters, as long as he rushed into the forest, he would have a chance to run away.

This loud noise seemed to be a heavy object falling from the sky, and the earth screamed in pain, followed by a violent shaking, as if it was an earthquake.

Di Ping subconsciously took the time to look back, but with this look, his eyes stared at the boss and his pupils contracted.

"My God, what is that?"

Di Ping almost screamed.

He just saw a huge monster jumping out of the forest at a glance. It was seven or eight meters tall and absolutely over twenty meters long. It had dark green scales and terrifying teeth, like an ancient head. The fierce beast Tyrannosaurus.

"Aw..."

The terrifying giant eyes of the giant monster glanced at Di Ping, and there was a trace of contempt in the domineering eyes, as if it was just looking at a small insect. Suddenly, it opened its hideous and **** mouth and shouted at Di Ping.

An overbearing roar resounded throughout the world. At this moment, it seemed that the world was suppressed by this sound, and everything was silent. Only this sound echoed in the mountains.

Di Ping looked at the monster's domineering aura, suddenly his scalp was numb, and there was a bad sound in the secret path, and he ran wildly when he buried his head.

Chapter 768: Peeking comes at a price

Di Ping only felt a buzzing in his ears, and then his head fainted like a hammer. His heart seemed to be grabbed by a huge force, and his heartache was painful. He spouted a mouthful of blood, staggered and almost threw Gina. Get out.

Di Ping's eyes were blurred for a while, and he raised his head to look forward, a step away from the forest. His eyes were blood red, bursting with hope, gritted his teeth, and rushed into the forest with more effort.

But at this moment, he suddenly felt an extremely violent energy pounce behind him, and the strong wind howled like a torrent.

His scalp was numb, and he threw forward without wanting to hold Gina.

"Kaka"

Di Ping felt as if something had been scratched behind his back, and there was a burst of pain, and then he heard the crackling sound of firecrackers from the woods above his head.

After two or three seconds, the sound disappeared, Di Ping raised his head, and there was horror in his eyes. The forest was pushed down more than 20 meters away. The trees within 20 meters left only half-cut roots or bare roots on the ground. The trunk, the remaining branches and leaves, all disappeared, as if they were blown off by man.

He swallowed hard and moistened his dry throat. He didn't dare to move, and quietly turned his head and looked back.

The monster seemed to ignore Di Ping at all, but after a wild roar, he retracted his eyes and started to take a step forward, walking into the ruins, and lowered his head to eat the body of the mutant wolf.

The huge mouth full of steel-like sharp teeth swallowed a mutant giant wolf in one bite. With the sound of chewing, Di Ping's scalp numb.

He crawled on the ground and didn't dare to move at all, but he looked at it diagonally, he was afraid that his gaze would attract the attention of the monster.

At this time, ten thousand grass horses were running wild in his heart.

How can there be dinosaurs in this world, and they are still such terrifying dinosaurs, whose size resembles the Tyrannosaurus rex, the overlord of the earth during the dinosaur period.

The dark green palm-sized scales glowed a little bit of cold in the sun, and you could feel the thickness without touching it, as if it were steel. Normal guns don't want to hurt them. It's too terrifying.

The monster swallowed a mutant giant wolf in one bite. In this moment, the seven or eight giant wolves killed by Di Ping had all entered its giant mouth.

Then it began to devour the mutant dog, and every time it moved, the ground was trembling, and Di Ping's heart followed.

It was getting closer and closer, and it was almost a hundred meters away. The monster was still devouring the mutant dog corpse on the ground like a glutton. After a while, it had eaten twenty of them, and it was still eating.

"Hurry up and eat! Hurry up and eat!"

Di Ping felt anxious, not daring to move, and crawled his head on the ground, praying secretly.

"Ok!"

Suddenly, Gina in his arms seemed to wake up and let out a slight cry.

This sound was like a thunder explosion, and Di Ping's head buzzed. He didn't dare to neglect, he covered Gina's mouth and looked back.

"Damn!"

At one glance, Di Ping almost screamed.

He originally hoped that the monster hadn't heard it, but when he turned his head, facing a pair of brutal sea bowl-sized scarlet eyes, he almost flew out in shock.

"Oh..."

After a moment of stunned, an extremely angry look suddenly appeared in the monster's eyes, as if it was because Di Ping, the little bug, was not dead, which made it very angry. The sky screamed and suddenly the huge body moved, like Like a big mountain, it rolled towards Di Ping.

Chapter 769: Mixed joys and worries

"I wipe it!"

Di Ping suddenly felt cold, and the strong suffocating coercion swept over him, causing him to be stunned.

"Boom..."

Every step the monster took, the ground shook the mountains, and the shattered ground shattered rocks, making Di Ping feel even more intense when he stuck to the ground.

Regardless of the monster's huge body, its speed is really not slow. At its speed, a distance of 100 meters is at most six or seven seconds. Every step is a distance of seven or eight meters, and the broken walls will not affect it at all. speed.

Di Ping picked up Gina who was just awake and rushed towards the forest. He only hoped that the dense trees in the forest could stop him from the speed of the monster.

He had just crossed the 20-meter blank area that had just been destroyed, and the monster had already reached the place where he had just hidden. One of his hesitation plunged him into a huge crisis.

Running at full strength, the tearing pain in his chest made him take a breath, but he didn't dare to stop at all, his speed increased to the extreme.

"Kaka..."

Under the full impact, Di Ping's speed was full, and his two legs danced like wheels. It seemed to be a swimming fish in the dense woods. He walked fast. The countless leaves hit his face, but he didn't dare to stop. Down because of the cracking sound of trees coming from behind.

He didn't need to look back to know that the monster had chased in, and the trees made a crackling sound like firecrackers, like the drumbeat of a chasing soul, pressing him tightly, so that he did not dare to relax.

"Oh oh..."

The monster uttered a roar, and Di Ping's heart was throbbing with a thunderous sound, his head was heavy, and his steps were a little staggered, and Gina screamed in pain while holding his head.

Di Ping was astonished. This monster was not yet roaring at him, it had such a mighty power. If it issued the same powerful roar as before, he would be in trouble.

He didn't dare to speak out, he didn't dare to stop, but ran with his head buried. This is the time to race against time, racing against life.

Boom boom boom...

Whatever you are afraid of, there is a sudden roar, and then Di Ping feels a terrifying aura coming from behind, as if heaven is coming.

He glanced at it, and he was shocked.

I saw that behind it was like being attacked by a nuclear bomb, a huge flame shot up into the sky, and then a strong gas explosion was generated, rolling towards me.

Along the way, it seemed as if he was being swept by a fire dragon and attacked Di Ping.

"Fuck!"

Di Ping cursed secretly, his body collapsed sharply, he let out a low growl, and activated his collision skills. His body was like an arrow passing through the dense woods, marking a distance of more than 20 meters, and the leaves were hit by the powerful speed. Fragments.

At a distance of fifty meters, the fire dragon rushed to the sky and immediately came behind Di Ping. He could already feel the heat of the high temperature.

"Crash!"

He screamed again, his body collapsed, blood rushed like a torrent, shot out like a sharp arrow again, and launched another collision, another twenty meters away.

The fire dragon followed like a shadow, followed him closely, biting him, his hair was already curling under the high temperature, and the flames had reached his back.

"Crash!"

"Crash"

"Crash!"

Di Ping launched three more shocks on one side, and his body shot out sixty to seventy meters in an instant, and he spouted blood again, his face pale and scary.

He can use the collision skill less than ten times at the highest. Although he has used it five times now, you must know that the previous crazy battle caused all the muscles in his body to be strained, and it was not completely healed, and he also took Gina. This big living person, five consecutive display of the endurance of the body is a huge test, has exceeded the load of his body.

His muscles were trembling, his nostrils were bleeding, his eyes were bloodshot, and blood was already emerging from the gaps between his teeth.

But finally, he rushed out of six to seventy meters and opened the distance from the fire dragon.

But he didn't dare to stop, the fire dragon was still chasing after him, as if biting him, and he was about to catch up again.

Chapter 770: Top secret is revealed

Just more than 30 meters away, the fire dragon tied him again, and the flame tornado had reached his side. He gritted his teeth, his face was fierce, and with a roar, he forced his skills again.

His body instantly disappeared in the fire dragon, and the fire dragon seemed to ran away because of the fat in the mouth, making a terrible roar.

Di Ping appeared twenty meters away, but blood spurted out again. His feet were already trembling, blood was coming out of his ears, nose, and mouth. Blood stains burst out on his skin, and his muscles burst.

"How to do how to do?"

Di Ping asked himself over and over again.

Although, we must know that his speed is fast enough, at most two or three seconds per 100 meters, but at this speed, it still can't keep up with the speed of the fire dragon, and the crisis is approaching, and he is dying, but he is very sober and calm in his head. He was scared himself, his brain was spinning rapidly, looking for a chance to escape.

"Master, you let me go!"

Gina looked at Di Ping, who was bleeding from the Five Views, and her heart was as painful as a knife. She looked at Di Ping's face, her eyes flashed with dismay, but in the end she still looked cold and struggled.

"To shut up!"

Di Ping let out a low growl, he had time to chat with Gina about these useless things, what he thought now was how to escape.

Gina was frightened by Di Ping's hideous roar, her body trembled, and she dared not speak. Di Ping had never spoken to her in such a tone.

"It's saved!"

While running, looking around, looking for a glimmer of life, suddenly his eyes lit up and he saw a big lake ahead.

The surface of the lake was shimmering, and it looked endless, as if there was no edge. When there was such a big lake here, he really didn't know.

However, his eyes lit up when he saw this lake. As long as he could jump into this lake, he would be saved, and he would only be able to escape the deadly fire dragon.

However, the lake was only fifty meters away from him. Given his current physical condition, he might not be able to hold it at all, so he was swallowed by the fire dragon.

The fire dragon screamed behind him, and the terrifying power swept the world, as if swallowing the whole world into the stomach. The scorching temperature, ten meters away, has already felt the roasting of people. If it is swallowed by the fire dragon, it will definitely be There is no life or death.

"Fight!"

Seeing this, Di Ping suddenly gritted his teeth and felt cruel. Now he can only fight for it. If he doesn't fight, he will die. He hasn't lived enough. If he fights, there is still a chance of life.

In an instant, Di Ping turned his mind around these thoughts, made up his mind, and prepared to activate his skills.

Suddenly Di Ping felt that a bright light flashed on his chest, and then he felt a coolness that instantly melted into his chest.

He was too familiar with this energy. This was Gina's healing energy. The energy quickly poured into his injured body, as if the dry and cracked field was moisturized by the spring rain. At this moment, it seemed to make a happy sucking sound.

"Gina!"

Di Ping lowered his head to see that it was Gina, who was using the skills with a pale face, the staff was against his chest, and the energy poured into him from the staff.

His whole body injury is improving rapidly, but unfortunately, this energy is still insufficient, and the injury is only one-fifth better.

As for Gina, her face was even more pale at this time, her forehead was full of beads of sweat. He bit her lips, her eyes were stubborn, she activated the skill again, and the staff in her hand lit up again.

"Crash!"

Di Ping's eyes flashed a touch of emotion, but he knew that it was not nonsense at this time, and any negligence might disappear, so his eyes were fierce and he activated the skill again.
