

Doomsday 771

Chapter 771: After hearing the bad news, everyone is shocked

The fire dragon will chase Di Ping half a meter behind him, but Di Ping's figure holding Gina disappeared, pulling out an afterimage in the air, and a person appeared twenty meters away.

"Crash!"

He just appeared in shape, activated the skill again, and his body disappeared again.

He felt that Gina's energy was continuously pouring in, giving him the courage to inspire. Although his whole body was torn again, but he could only hold on to it.

Already close at hand, Di Ping was already standing two or three meters away from the river bank. At this position, he could jump into the lake with a single stride, and he could smell the freshness of the lake water.

This is a taste of freedom, a taste of aftermath.

He changed Gina, and made a light leap, the whole figure was like a mermaid, and he jumped into the lake in an instant.

"boom!"

The lake water aroused Lao Gao, splashed water, Di Ping's diving skills were so bad.

"call!"

The fire dragon followed Di Ping closely and swept more than ten meters from the lake. It seemed that because the food did not reach his mouth, he shouted unwillingly and then disappeared.

Di Ping was very watery. He dived five or six meters away and emerged from the surface of the water. Gina was engrossed in casting the spell just now. He poured a sip of water into the water and coughed as soon as he came out of the water.

But Di Ping patted her back quickly, let her breath pass, and saw that he was all right, then he spit out a mouthful of salty lake water, touched the water on his face, and looked to the shore.

"I wipe it!"

This look shocked Qiuping. The original lush, wooded forest disappeared directly in front of Di Pinyang. At this time, countless trees all turned into charred roots, with black smoke, and many of them were still there. There is a fire burning.

"My God! How strong this flame is, it burned countless trees in ten seconds with only a few roots!"

Di Ping secretly smacked his tongue.

At this time, he looked a little horrified, at the end of the burning ashes, a terrifying behemoth stood.

"Oh oh..."

The terrifying behemoth screamed into the sky, as if to show off its masterpiece or swear its sovereignty to the world.

Like tigers roaring in the mountains and forests, like dragons on the sea, like a natural king, watching the world, with an overbearing aura soaring into the sky, even the clouds in the sky seem to be frightened by this terrifying aura and scattered, revealing the blue sky.

This picture was frozen in Di Ping's mind. At this moment, he didn't even have a trace of fear, but a hint of excitement. For the first time, he had a strong yearning for such a strong posture.

One day, he could do the same, screaming proudly, swearing his strength to heaven and earth.

"Mutated Komodo dragon, bloodline level: S-level, talent skills: flamethrowing, enhanced level: second-tier ninth level, skills: trampling, steel armor, screaming, with a trace of ancient fierce beast bloodline, powerful, impossible Strong enemy, if you encounter the host, please escape as soon as possible!"

Di Ping was so excited that he couldn't help but threw a probing technique over. When he saw the information display, he was stunned.

"Second-level and ninth-level? My God!"

He almost screamed, he knew that this monster was powerful, but he thought that it was not a second-tier ninth-level mutant beast.

And there are four skills, the one just now should be the flamethrowing skill, it's too ***** strong, how long has it been before the animals have evolved to such an extent.

If this monster reaches the third rank, does it have to be?

He found that he had underestimated the power of this second-order peak mutant beast, and looked at the ruins of the burning flames two to three hundred meters in size. Suddenly, Di Ping's heart beats wildly.

The second rank and the ninth rank are so powerful, how about the third rank?

Di Ping felt that maybe he didn't even have the courage to escape. No wonder the system said that Samsung was dangerous before it could kill him. He really believed it. He could already imagine what a Tier 3 mutant beast would become. .

"Damn! It's broken!"

Suddenly, Di Ping felt a strong crisis hit. When he raised his head, he was facing the ferocious eyes the size of the lanterns of the mutant Komodo dragon, and he was shocked.

"Wow!"

The mutant Komodo dragon was stunned for a moment, and a fierce light suddenly appeared in its eyes. It roared wildly, stepped forward, and rushed over here.

Chapter 772: The tiger's body shakes the universe

This little bug dodges its attack three times and five times, which makes it completely angry, which is challenging its dignity.

The huge body of the Komodo dragon seemed to be a moving mountain, with a terrifying aura, crushing towards Di Ping.

Sure enough, he was right to guess, using exploration skills on too powerful mutant beasts will indeed be discovered, and now his intestines are full of regret, and he can't wait to give himself a palm, secretly cursing himself for being so cheap?

I have to look at it, now it's good!

He is now more than ten meters away from the shore, and if he swims to the shore, I believe the mutant Komodo dragon has also arrived.

Some people will say, why don't you swim deep in the water?

Try it. It is faster than the Komodo dragon in the water. It is more flexible in the water than on the shore. The Komodo dragon is a good swimmer.

Di Ping is a person who has seen the animal world. He has a deep understanding of this, and he dies faster in the water.

Boom boom boom...

The Komodo mutant dragon stepped on the ground with heavy steps, as if stepping on his heart, and his heart shook wildly. At this moment, the expression on his face changed drastically.

"the host!"

Gina also saw the horrible figure of the Komodo dragon running wildly, but Di Ping stared blankly, she had to cry anxiously.

"go!"

Di Ping's face sank and finally settled, and a word broke out between his teeth, and then he took out something with his hand.

This is a teleporting scroll, with a snapping sound, the spring opened, and a golden light suddenly appeared, shooting directly into the sky from Di Ping's head, forming a beam of light through the sky.

This sudden mutation caused the mutated Komodo dragon rushing to froze for a while, and looked up at the beam of light, with a trace of doubt and fear in his eyes.

However, when it felt that the beam of light seemed to have no offensive power, it ran again, and the anger in its eyes became more intense.

"Quickly!"

Di Ping looked at the mutant monster rushing, feeling extremely anxious. There was time for the teleporting scroll to activate, usually about two seconds.

But at this time, Di Ping felt like the year passed, especially the monster is approaching. He could already see the **** flesh in the monster's steel teeth, and seemed to be able to smell the stench in the big mouth of the blood basin.

The mutant Komodo dragon rushed to the shore and the huge body had already jumped up, rushing towards Di Ping, and the **** mouth full of white Sensen fangs bit towards Di Ping.

boom.....

A terrifying bite sounded, and the shaking ears buzzed, but there was no joy in the eyes of the mutant Komodo dragon, but a trace of doubt flashed, as if the bite was wrong!

boom.....

The huge body of the monster fell into the water, causing waves tens of meters high, and the entire lake was agitated, as if a heavy bomb exploded in the lake, forming waves of five or six meters high waves toward the shore. Take it.

The Komodo dragon, like a flood dragon, turned over in the water and stood up. A pair of ***** eyes scanned the surface of the water.

But the surface of the water was extremely empty, and there was nothing else but waves spreading outward.

"Oh oh..."

The mutant Komodo dragon was angry, and it roared in anger, and the huge stone pillar-like tail, which was about ten meters long behind it, slammed the water.

Boom boom boom...

There was a roar, splashes of water, waves surging, as if a tsunami suddenly occurred on the lake, boundless huge waves rushing around.

At this moment, the terrifying roar could be heard within a hundred li, and all the creatures were lying on the ground shivering to relieve the fear in their hearts.

Chapter 773: Discuss the plan and quarrel

In the conference room on the top floor of the Bianzhou base management office building, a dozen people were gathered at this time, sitting around the high-end long conference table, vomiting clouds.

These people were obviously old smokers, one after another, and the entire meeting room was filled with smoke, and they almost couldn't see the face of the opposite person.

The commander-in-chief of the Bianzhou base, Chu Dingbang is also a big smoker. He is already the third cigarette he has smoked, but no one in the conference room speaks first, as if they are silently waiting for something.

Chu Dingbang's eyes scanned everyone's face through the thick smoke, especially when he paused for a moment on the face of Song Hanbai, the provincial chief.

At this time, Ning Hanbai raised his face and looked at a military map hanging on the wall in a daze. It seemed that there was a beautiful landscape on the map, and the cigarette between his fingers was almost burning. He didn't even notice the cigarette holder part.

咚咚...

Chu Dingbang put out the cigarette **** in his hand, knocked heavily on the conference table with his fingers, making a dull sound, and immediately awakened everyone and turned his eyes to him.

Chu Dingbang is fifty-five years old this year. He is considered a young man among military commanders. He is not tall, has dark skin, and a thin face. He looked down upon a small old man with half-white hair. Feeling extraordinary, with sword eyebrows and tiger eyes, the eyes are piercing, cold light flashes from time to time.

Sitting on the main seat, with a straight back and looking around, the momentary pressure doubled, and few people dared to look at him.

"Counsel Zhao, you will update us on the latest situation!"

When Chu Dingbang saw that everyone was focusing on it, he said in a deep voice without expression.

"It's the commander!"

At this moment, a man in his thirties who was sitting next to him stood up, opened the folder in front of him and began to read:

"According to the latest feedback, three of our five combat troops have successfully arrived at the Dancheng Gathering Area, Ancheng Gathering Area, and New Town Gathering. They have recruited more than 13,000 personnel and collected more than 700,000 kilograms of food. Is preparing to ***** back!"

Everyone quietly listened to Chief of Staff Zhao's intelligence. When they heard more than 700,000 kilograms of food, everyone's eyes lit up, showing joy, and began to communicate quietly.

Even Song Hanbai, who has been frowning, has a rare light on his face. Recently, the food shortage problem has deeply troubled him, driving him crazy.

Hundreds of thousands of mouths were open to eat, while the base supply was shrinking, he was a little afraid to face a pair of hopeful eyes.

"Boom!"

Chu Dingbang saw the rumbling noises, a trace of dissatisfaction appeared in his eyes, and he slammed the table lightly. Everyone was shocked, and the conversation quickly stopped, and the venue became quiet again!

Song Hanbai, who was sitting next to Chu Dingbang, narrowed his eyes, his original joy disappeared, and a strong worry emerged.

"Our other two teams are not going well. The third dispatch team, Zhang Haiping, heading to the Yanjin gathering place, was attacked by powerful mutant beasts. Zhang Haiping was seriously injured and dying, and more than half of the troops died. At present, the rest are in the closed city for rest, waiting for the base Rescue!"

Staff Zhao continued to read, but as soon as his words fell, there was silence in the venue, and everyone's eyes flashed with astonishment.

The news was too shocking. They didn't even know the information. The entire army was almost wiped out with more than a hundred people fully armed and a powerful armed force guarded by tanks.

What kind of mutant beast is so powerful!

Although the base experienced many mutant beast attacks when it was built, it was ultimately difficult to withstand the powerful artillery fire of the army. Based on their insights, the army should be invincible. How could it be nearly annihilated? Even Zhang Haiping Seriously injured.

Chapter 774: Escape from the dead and return to base

"What time is this?"

At this time, an old general with white hair who was over half a hundred years old stood up, his face became extremely ugly, and his eyes were full of incredible expressions.

This old general is no one else, but Zhang Haicheng's father, Zhang Beiwang, the commander of the first armored division. It can be said that he holds the strongest army in the base and is of high authority.

His son Zhang Haicheng, who is also the sub-regiment level of the actual tank division, was also earned by Zhang Beiwang this time out. I hope that the credit earned by his son as soon as possible can be upgraded to another level and reach the sub-regiment level.

But he couldn't think of a foolproof mission, but it failed, and people were seriously injured and dying. He was a middle-aged son. If something happened, he would suffer the pain of losing his son, so he would burst into bed.

"General Zhang, this happened yesterday, and we just received a return this morning!"

Staff Zhao looked at the General Zhang and said apologetically.

"Accordingly, Haicheng should have reached the gathering place in Lancheng. How could he encounter a mutant animal attack today? How many mutant animals can even Haicheng's tank unit be defeated?"

General Zhang Beiwang was also a soldier in his life. He had never seen any battles before, and death was also commonplace. After the excitement just now, he calmed down after a while, staring directly at Staff Zhao and asked in a deep voice.

"This....."

Staff Zhao was pierced by Zhang Beiwang's gaze, but he still did not answer, but looked at Chu Dingbang with embarrassment.

Seeing the gaze of Staff Zhao, Zhang Beiwang turned his gaze to Chu Dingbang, and the crowd at the scene also turned their gaze to Commander Chu, who was sitting on the chair.

"Xiao Zhao, tell everyone, there is nothing to hide!"

Chu Dingbang didn't seem to feel everyone's gaze, but said slowly without expression.

"It's the commander!"

Staff Zhao nodded, then opened the folder and took out a file bag. Just as he was about to open it to read, Chu Dingbang suddenly knocked the table heavily, glanced sharply, and said in a serious tone: "This is The information returned by Zhang Haicheng's ministry is classified as a first-level secret. I hope everyone here today will adhere to the confidentiality regulations and not spread it out, otherwise the military law will be used!"

Chu Dingbang held the military and political power, held a high position, and suddenly spoke in such a stern tone. Everyone was shocked, and their faces collapsed, feeling that things were definitely not easy.

"Zhang Haicheng's ministry, three days ago, had arrived at the Lancheng gathering place, but the reception was not smooth. After two days of negotiation, no progress was made. However, the Lancheng gathering place suddenly launched a coup d'etat and attacked the army. The two sides had a military conflict!"

Staff Zhao opened the file bag, shook a few pages, and his face was cold.

"At the Lancheng gathering place, I don't know where to obtain a lot of weapons and once confronted our army. Finally, Zhang Haicheng ordered tanks to attack, and this took the Lancheng gathering place!"

His face was heavy and even his tone became low.

"But when Zhang Haicheng received the personnel and counted the materials, he was attacked by a powerful mutant beast. Zhang Haicheng attacked with all his strength, but in the end three tanks were destroyed and more than half of the personnel were killed and injured. Zhang Haicheng was hit by the tail of the mutant, and his whole body was shattered. In the end, it was the soldiers desperately trying to rescue the **** fracture."

Everyone felt the trembling in Staff Zhao's voice, as if they were afraid. When they heard a mutant beast, many people's eyes flashed with horror, even Song Hanbai's unchanged eyes for thousands of years also flickered.

"Counsel Zhao, a mutant beast? Are you sure that the intelligence is correct?"

Zhang Beiwang had an extremely ugly expression on his face, and his eyes were full of suspicion when he looked at Staff Zhao.

Chapter 775: Relatives hopeless to survive

"General Zhang, there is no joke in the army, Zhao Gang dare not talk nonsense, this is a document, General Zhang can look at it!"

Staff Zhao felt Zhang Beiwang's questioning tone, and immediately straightened his body and handed over the documents in his hand with a serious expression.

"This!"

Zhang Beiwang was stunned for a moment. Although he was the commander of the division, Staff Officer Zhao was from Chu Dingbang. Zhao Gang gave him a shot, and he didn't know whether to pick it up or not.

"Lao Zhang, you are also anxious, let Staff Zhao finish talking!"

At this time, an elder general who was sitting next to Zhang Beiwang took him a hand, smiled and rounded off the field, and said to the staff of Zhao:

"Counsel Zhao, go on!"

When he said that he made a look at Zhang Beiwang, Zhang Beiwang nodded to Staff Zhao and sat down.

Zhao Gang's expression calmed down, and he nodded at the old general. He didn't want to offend a substantive general like Zhang Beiwang. It was just that the suspicion just now made him very uncomfortable, so he added a sentence without warmth, but the sentence is over. , He also regretted it. At this time someone gave him a step, and of course he had to come down.

"General Zhang, according to the information, is indeed a mutant beast, which caused most of Zhang Haicheng's casualties, and Zhang Haicheng was seriously injured!"

Staff Zhao looked at Zhang Beiwang and said.

"This is real?"

This is not only Zhang Beiwang's horror, but everyone present has changed a lot. The generals are okay, and the officials in the provincial government have not only changed their expressions, but also screams. Song Hanbai's eyes only flashed with deep dissatisfaction.

"What monster is so powerful? Can even tanks be destroyed?"

Zhang Beiwang looked at Counselor Zhao and asked.

"It's a huge green cow with a height of five or six meters and a length of more than ten meters. This cow is so powerful that the body is impenetrable. The shell will be bounced immediately after hitting it. As long as it hits, even the tank can be overturned. It has a pair of horns. It is three to four meters long, and it can penetrate the steel armor of the tank with a light touch, and this monster can also breathe fire, and the flame can spray forty to fifty meters away. Many sergeants were burned by the flame!"

Staff Zhao's voice was horrified, and his eyes trembled rapidly, as if he was also facing such a terrible monster.

"What? Is there such a terrible monster?"

All the people on the scene screamed, and their faces turned pale. They had all fought against mutant beasts, especially the people from the provincial government who had escaped from mutant crocodile mouths. They had all seen the power of crocodile.

Who would think that there is not only this powerful mutant beast around, but there are other equally powerful mutant beasts, is there a way for human beings to survive?

Many people have a deep sense of powerlessness in their eyes. They originally thought that with the powerful firearms of the army, there is no problem in survival in the last days. Now it seems that everything is too simple.

If the Bianzhou base encounters such a powerful mutant beast, can it be resisted? At this time, many people have a drum in their hearts.

"Yes, according to the latest data analysis obtained by our communications department, many of the bases that have been contacted have been captured by powerful mutant beasts and turned into ruins. Among them, the Jincheng base was destroyed by a mutant lizard, and the Seoul base was destroyed by one. The giant mang was destroyed, the Yaxin base was burned by a firebird, and some bases are now lost, and it may be destroyed by powerful mutant beasts!"

Staff Zhao's words were not surprising, and he threw a blockbuster again. Everyone in Feng was buzzing, and for a while, he couldn't think normally.

Although they don't know about these bases, they all existed in the previous military districts. These bases should also be built by military districts, but they have been destroyed in less than a month. So next time it's the turn of the military district. Continent base.

Chu Dingbang's slab face had never changed. At this time, there was also a hint of unnaturalness, smoking a cigarette silently, and staring in a direction with a blank look.

This world is less and less the world they knew. The outside was so dangerous. They settled on the Bianzhou base and thought it was safe. Only now do they know that they are in danger of being destroyed at any time.

Chapter 776: Cultivating the body method to advance quickly

The cigarette in Song Hanbai's hand also trembled, and long ash fell on the table. The last Emperor Lake incident had a great impact on him. Seeing tens of thousands of people were killed by mutant crocodiles at will, he had nothing to do. , The military's powerful weapons are so weak and pale in the face of these terrifying mutant beasts.

Now when I think about it, he feels that his whole body is full of powerlessness, and there is a deep shame. He left his father and elders on blind dates, and the full 10,000 people who can reach the Bianzhou base, although not running by themselves, but a group of people. It pressed him over, but the self-blame and guilt in his heart hurt him deeply.

The whole room fell silent, and everyone's faces were full of deep worry.

"Commander, I request to lead the First Regiment of the First Armored Division to respond to Zhang Haicheng!"

Suddenly Zhang Beiwang stood up and broke the silence in the room. He looked at Chu Dingbang firmly.

Although the mutant beast is very powerful, Zhang Haicheng is his only son, and he is a middle-aged son. Naturally, he is very precious, and he has high hopes. No matter how dangerous he is, he has to bring his son back.

"Commander, I think this is wrong!"

As soon as Zhang Beiwang's voice fell, Liu Zhenya, Chief of Staff of the Military Region, changed his face and hurriedly stood up and said.

"What's wrong, what's wrong with me rescuing our soldiers?"

Zhang Beiwang was also anxious, and immediately shouted with a cold face when Liu Zhenya was opposed.

"Lao Zhang, I am not opposed to the rescue of the third dispatch team, but the timing is inappropriate!"

Liu Zhenya didn't get angry because of Zhang Beiwang's anger, but said calmly.

"The chief of staff talk about it! Why is it inappropriate?"

The more Zhang Beiwang listened to Liu Zhenya's face, the more angry he became at this time, and he didn't care if he ran into the official, his tone was not so good, and he didn't call for the military position like he usually called Old Liu.

Although Liu Zhenya is one level higher than him at the base, he is at the rank of deputy commander, but Zhang Beiwang's military rank is also a major general, and his rank is equal.

Furthermore, he is the main division commander, has an old seniority in the army, and Liu Zhenya is an old adversary, and he is not very polite when speaking.

"Lao Zhang, look at your temper!"

Liu Zhenya looked at Zhang Beiwang speechlessly and shook his head:

"Lao Zhang, don't forget, we are going to wage war against Zhongzhou Sanctuary City in the past two days. The first regiment is the main force. If we are transferred now, we will be unable to launch an offensive against Sanctuary City!"

Zhang Beiwang was taken aback for a moment, and then he stared: "Why do I say you disagree? This is the reason! Your grandson Liu Zhenya is a human, but my son Zhang Beiwang is no longer a human. Go and save your grandson. My son, let's save each one!"

There was a trace of embarrassment on Liu Zhenya's face, and she shook her head with a wry smile: "Look, Commander, this old Zhang has misunderstood what I meant!"

Zhang Beiwang didn't let him go, and said with a sneer on his face:

"Who doesn't know that Old Ghost Liu has many hearts and eyes, you can have kind eyes, and the sun will come out from the west!"

Everyone on the scene watched the fighting between the two men, especially the group of people from the provincial government, who were happy to have the military infighting. This would be more beneficial to them. They would not like to see a united military.

"Well, what you are like is an old person, is there any mention of it?"

When Chu Dingbang saw Song Hanbai's smile, he slightly raised a mocking expression at the corner of his mouth. His face sank on the spot, and he swept across them coldly and shouted.

Chu Dingbang is monopolizing power in the military area. He follows the rules and has no prestige. No one dares to challenge him. Even Zhang Beiwang, Liu Zhen, the runner-up middle-aged man, was drunk by him and had to sit down angrily. Dare to talk nonsense.

Seeing that all the generals were yelled by Chu Dingbang, they immediately sat in danger, not even daring to explode a single hair, which made Song Hanbai's eyes change.

This is not a good phenomenon. Since the end of the world, Chu Dingbang's power has become stronger and stronger, and it has reached the level of saying nothing, and gradually some bad signs have appeared.

But when his eyes swept over, Chu Dingbang had been standing straight and straight, a young man of medium height, thin body, scars on his face, and sharp eyes. He couldn't help but shudder in his heart. The trace of dissatisfaction in my heart was deeply suppressed.

Chapter 777: Strong soldiers and strong fighting spirit

Chu Dingbang didn't notice Song Hanbai's instant look. He coughed slightly and broke the silence in the entire room. He glanced around and saw everyone concentrating their eyes before saying in a deep voice, "Today we will discuss this. There are two issues, one is the issue of sending troops to Zhongzhou Sanctuary City, and the other is the issue of the rescue of the third dispatch team. Let's discuss it!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the audience suddenly became quiet, everyone was silent, all eyes trembled rapidly, not knowing what they were thinking.

"Song Capital, what is your opinion on this matter!"

Chu Dingbang glanced around, but his gaze fell on Song Hanbai, and he probed his body slightly and asked.

"Commander Chu, you also know that I don't understand military affairs. It's okay to take care of people's livelihood issues. Don't ask me about this!"

Song Hanbai did not answer Chu Dingbang's words, but smiled and put out the cigarette **** in his ashtray.

He couldn't answer at all. Based on his understanding, Chu Dingbang had no sincerity to ask his opinion. If he said it, he would directly say no and put his own face there.

I have made it clear before that military affairs are completely in the responsibility of the military region. My own opinions are not beautiful. The more I take my time on my behalf, he is not a young man, and he is not the first day to be mixed in officialdom. He can be in his position. None of them are simple characters.

"Haha! Old Song, you are humble!"

Chu Dingbang was very satisfied with Song Hanbai's attitude, with a rare smile on his black face, and even the symphony was replaced by Old Song.

Song Hanbai just smiled, did not answer, and began to communicate with the cup in his hand. It seemed that the pattern on the ceramic tea cup was very beautiful.

"Commander, I am opposed to the use of troops in the Central Continent City of Asylum. Not to mention that we are not strong enough, but the road is not close. Once we encounter danger again and cause troop loss, no one can bear the responsibility!"

Before, the infantry division Chang Fang Daocheng who was sitting on the edge of Zhang Beiwang and pulling him said solemnly.

"Commander, our ultimatum has already been released, and the plan has also been released. At this time, if our military area does not move, it will definitely make people laugh, and it will also make many people doubt the strength of our military area. People will be vacillating, and it will be difficult to carry out work in the future!"

Liu Zhenya didn't wait for Fang Dao's words to fall, so he continued.

His reasons made many people who agreed with Liu Daocheng's opinion just now nodded thoughtfully.

Within a hundred kilometers of the Bianzhou Military Region, there are many gathering places, including shelters like the city of refuge. Many people are unwilling to merge into Bianzhou because they doubt their strength and whether they can protect so many people.

If the Sanctuary City attacks the Fourth Dispatch Team Liu Minsheng Department, and the entire army is wiped out, the base of such a vicious incident is not involved, it will soon become a chain reaction, making people think that the Bianzhou base has no ability to attack.

In this way, those organizations that originally intended to join the Bianzhou base will hesitate.

"Yes, beat his mother! Dare to attack the army without authorization and kill the chief officer of the army. Such forces must be eliminated and severely punished to deter Xiao Xiao!"

A sturdy and burly middle-aged colonel stood up angrily and shouted.

"Yes, yes! You can't let it go, or it's all the same, and we should not take our military area seriously later!"

Another senior officer agreed.

Chu Dingbang was silent for a while. He looked at the noisy crowd, his eyes were full of excitement. With his style, people who dare to move him, then wait?

He Chu Dingbang can only take advantage of him, and he can't suffer anymore.

"report!"

Just as everyone was talking fiercely, a clear report suddenly came from outside the door.

Chapter 778: The career change is clear

"Wow..."

The teleportation well of the sanctuary city suddenly poured out a large amount of clear water out of thin air, and the water rushed to the surrounding area, shocking the four combat team members who were guarding the outer circle, and then hurriedly jumped away to dodge the flood rushing water.

Immediately after the horrified eyes of the three insiders, two figures suddenly appeared on the platform of the transmission well. These were not others, but Di Ping and Gina.

"puff!"

As soon as Di Ping landed, he spouted a mouthful of blood, and Gina had passed out, lying in his arms.

At this time Di Ping and Gina were extremely embarrassed, their clothes dripping down soaked with water, blood was hanging on the corners of their mouths, and their faces were extremely pale.

With a squirt of blood, Di Ping finally felt better. He secretly cried out fortunately, and he almost fell into the mouth of the Komodo dragon.

He couldn't have imagined that the Komodo dragon would be so powerful, and his light aura would hurt him. If it were not for the teleportation scroll, he would have to confess it today.

The outside world is getting more and more dangerous, and I have been too careless recently, thinking that the mutant golden eagle can pose a threat to me, now it seems that I am thinking too much.

At the beginning of evolution, there are too many powerful mutant animals in the wild, and any one can kill it.

"City Lord!"

At this moment, the four people who were panicked just now realized that the person on the teleportation platform was Di Ping, and they rushed over and shouted in surprise.

"City Lord, are you injured?"

One of the team members reacted quickly. As soon as he saw Di Ping's mouth bleeding, his face was pale, his body was scorched, and there were black bloodstains everywhere, his face suddenly changed. In this way, the city owner must have been injured in danger, and he could not care about it Shui hurried forward to support Di Ping, who was shaking.

The other three team members only discovered this situation now, and their complexions changed suddenly. They had to know that the City Lord was invincible in their eyes, how could they get injured, and how powerful the mutant beast was.

"It's okay, little hurt!"

Di Ping smiled palely.

It's just that his smile is uglier than crying. Today, he sprayed several mouthfuls of blood, and his body was already a mess. The forcible use of collision surgery made his body seriously overloaded. If it hadn't been for Gina to treat him, he would have collapsed. Can't get up.

Gina was unconscious, so she didn't talk nonsense with a few city guard sergeants, picked up Gina to endure the pain, and rushed to the castle.

"You tell Angela and Mok to go to the main tower!"

He told the four people as he ran.

"It's the city owner!"

The four hurriedly responded.

"Why is the city lord injured? What mutant beast is so powerful that even the city lord is injured?"

The four city guards only ran far away when Di Ping swallowed their saliva and said in horror.

"Cut! It's rare and weird, haven't you heard? There are so many powerful mutant beasts outside, and even the city lord may not have beaten it!"

At this time, the other sergeant of the city guard was relatively clear and bright, and did not believe in Di Ping's strength, so he said objectively.

"How is this possible! The city lord is so strong, how powerful is this mutant beast?"

The other three shouted suspiciously.

"Stop talking, go and call two instructors! Don't miss the major event of the city lord!"

The speaker didn't say much, and said seriously.

"Yep!"

The four nodded again and again, and then they hurried to the castle.

Not to mention that these people were looking for Angela and Mok. In the horrified eyes of everyone at the base on the road, Di Ping ran all the way back to the main tower. After a while, Angela and Mok arrived in a panic. Fortunately, the two did not have a mission today.

When seeing Di Ping and Gina's situation, both were shocked, and without delay, they hurriedly started treatment.

Mok was already Level One and Level Two, and the healing power of Healing Technique was further enhanced. He woke up only after dropping two Gina, and his complexion slowly recovered.

It was Di Ping's strong body. The two of them threw six treatments in a row. Di Ping felt that his health was almost the same. Although there were some discomforts, he believed that he could heal after two days of rest.

Chapter 779: Become a warrior

Di Ping's situation was spread out in a short while, and the high-levels of the base hurriedly rushed in, all looking anxious and worried.

When he saw that everything was normal for Di Ping, his face was ruddy and he was relieved.

Fortunately, Di Ping has changed his clothes, otherwise his body is scorched everywhere, his hair is curly, and blood is stained. These people will not be surprised when they see it.

Gina also woke up at this time, and the crowd just gathered together, Di Ping recounted what had happened to the Jincheng base before.

When he finished speaking, horror appeared on everyone's faces, the Jincheng base was destroyed, and the mutant beast was so powerful that Di Ping almost couldn't return. This should be terrifying.

The terrifying crocodile in Emperor Lake had already made them feel powerful enough, who knew it could be even more powerful, destroying a forest of one or two hundred meters in a single blow, this strength has exceeded their cognition.

At this time, everyone is beginning to worry about the future of the base, what should we do if there are such powerful mutant beasts around the base.

The last days are getting more and more dangerous, and everyone's heart is extremely heavy.

Di Ping was also uncomfortable. The trip was not smooth, the Jincheng was destroyed, and there was a Komodo dragon. He already had little hope for the possibility of his parents' survival.

Under the attack of such a mutant beast, not to mention the inconvenience of his parents at such an age, it is impossible for a lieutenant general to escape in front of such a powerful mutant beast.

With a roar, you can shake a blockbuster to death, not to mention the terrifying talent skill Flamethrowing.

Di Ping, who was in a heavy heart, didn't say much to everyone, and let everyone go back with a few words of comfort. His consumption today is really too great.

The extreme escape made his mind and body endure great damage, which requires time to recuperate before he can recover.

The clues of his parents were broken, he had no way of starting, and now only five days before the castle protection period, he had no time to go out.

Once the protection period ends, the base will face a real test, and whether it can survive will be his next goal.

He can only suppress the pain in his heart, with the longing for his parents, to live well, to create a living space for the living, and to make a way for the future.

Di Ping stood in front of the window and looked at the busy crowd in the base. He wiped away the tears from the corner of his eyes and reorganized his mood. He wanted to live for his parents and for more people who died.

During this trip, Di Ping truly realized his lack of strength. If he had faced the mutant golden eagle before, he still had the courage to fight, while facing the Komodo dragon, he did not have the courage to fight at all, even running away. It almost became an extravagant hope. This was because the dragon didn't really target him at the beginning.

He decided to change. Before, he wanted to accumulate more coins for later use, and he was reluctant to spend it. This time he really had a good posture and martial arts, then he would not get it so serious. Overloaded the battle of collision. skill.

He moved as soon as he spoke, and silently opened the system exercises page and chose the martial arts.

The system interface changed for a while, and three exercises appeared on the interface, which Di Ping asked the system to filter down.

The body method evolved from the simulating ape movements. It is known for its flexibility and changeability. It has many movements and jumps and is unpredictable. It is suitable for use in battle. It entangles opponents with flexible body methods and makes them unable to cope with it. The D-level superb exercises, the price is 1200 coins.

Snake walking. This body technique is known for its speed. Its movements are erratic, like a snake. Its position is flexible and changeable during battle. It can confuse opponents. It runs like a snake and rushes very fast. The rank is The D-level superb exercises, the price is 1200 coins.

Eight pole steps, step on eight poles, unpredictable body skills, confuse the enemy, always launch attacks in impossible positions, suitable for combat and short-range assaults, the rank is the D-level ultimate skill, the price is 1200 crystal coins.

Chapter 780: Career choice

To say whether these martial arts are superior or inferior, there is no clear difference, just look at the suitability.

The ape body method is suitable for agile fighters, such as Ava. Once you learn this body method, your movements will be more flexible and changeable. The attack is always unfinished, and the speed is extremely fast.

Snake walking is more of a moderate body and martial skill, and it can also be used for combat. It moves more dexterously, and its attack position is changeable, making people difficult to guard against. It is also more suitable for driving on the road, and its speed is fast.

Many people have seen the speed of a snake on the road. Once it moves like an arrow, it swishes forward, especially when it is chasing prey.

The octopole step is purely a combat footwork. The foot is octopole, which is easy to change. Sometimes left, sometimes right, sometimes later, dodge the enemy's sight and attack from an impossible position. It is especially suitable for short-range assaults. The distance is more than ten meters. A flash step came to the front, and it was incredible fast.

However, Di Ping had the collision skill, and there was some conflict in using this skill, and finally he chose to snake.

After confirming the purchase, the number of crystal coins in Di Ping's system has shrunk again, becoming more than eight thousand crystal coins, but he does not regret it, he can survive better if he is stronger.

Turning off the system, Di Ping recruited a martial arts jade piece from his backpack, stuck it on his forehead, injected spiritual power, and learned how to snake with speed.

Now that the mental power is strong, learning the exercises is just a while, but I feel my head tightens, and then I have more information.

After reading the exercises briefly, Di Ping's face showed joy.

If he had learned this snake walking before, his speed could only be increased by two or three layers, plus the collision skills, he would not be forced to the point where he almost collapsed.

After learning the exercises, Di Ping asked Patton to get some food, but didn't go to the cafeteria, so he simply ate a bit and fell asleep.

The physical and mental loss made him fall asleep as soon as he stuck to the bed, and he didn't even eat dinner, which made the high-level officials of the base very worried.

After Liu Bingyu came several times, Patton stopped him from going back, and Han Zhongguo was anxious, but he couldn't help it.

Don't think Barton is just a housekeeper, but no one in the base dares to be disrespectful to him. You must know that he can influence the city lord and even the city lord's guards, who dares to mess around.

Early the next morning, Di Ping woke up, he felt refreshed, all the pain he suffered before had disappeared, and his body was full of strength again.

"It's good to be alive!"

Di Ping couldn't help but sigh, but there was a deep sadness in his heart. The whereabouts of his parents were unknown, and his life and death were hard to know.

Practicing this in the morning has become his habit. Today, the Tiger Spirit Art that he wanted to taste advanced to the second floor, and reached the second level of the second form, and his strength was further improved.

An extreme escape, the discovery of the potential of the body allows him to easily reach the second floor, and he feels that there is still room for improvement.

After practicing the Tiger Ling Jue, practice the Kuang Lang Sword Technique.

Knife technique has also improved today. I used to be very reluctant to use the third wind rush, and now I can easily use it. If I use it at full strength, he can use three blows. The only thing is that he has not been able to master the stacking technique.

After experiencing life and death battles, he is making rapid progress, and his strength is increasing at a speed visible to the naked eye every day. He believes that one day the mutant Komodo dragon will also fall under his sword, and that day will not be too far. .

After cultivating the sword technique, he began to practice snake walking again. The martial arts body technique is not difficult, and he has the guidance of the exercise technique, so that he can quickly master the martial arts.

It can be considered to be able to show it, and it has entered the rough stage. There is still a lot of way to go if you want to achieve proficiency, depth, and even success.

There are several levels of any exercise or martial arts. The first level is rough, that is, it can be easily displayed. The second level is proficient, the third level is profound, the fourth level is great, and the fifth level is perfect.

Any exercise or martial skill that has reached a state of consummation is basically the practice of this exercise to the extreme, and it can already reach the stage of integration, sublimation and evolution.

Therefore, anyone who can cultivate a martial skill or exercise to the Consummation level will definitely be a master-level figure.
