

Doomsday 781

Chapter 781: Demonstrating strength arouses anger

Today is very lively in front of the tavern. It should be the most lively day since it was built. Many people in the base know that there is a tavern combining Chinese and Western elements, but no one has ever gone in because he never opens the door.

But today it opened the door for an unprecedented time, because today the city lord came.

At this time, the tavern was full of people. If there are outsiders, you will be shocked. Not only the high-level base of the base, but also the city lord guarding the dragon team, the personnel are basically there.

Wu An, the pub manager, was busy serving wine with two waiters.

Di Ping tasted Wu An's new wines recently. Since the last time he was granted resources, Wu An was excited for a few days. He took advantage of the opportunity to draw a lot of resources from Liu Bingyu, but made some good wines.

However, this was not the ice jade blue flower that Di Ping drank last time. There are too few ice jade blue flowers, which he enjoyed when he was fine.

The wine I drank this time was "Yuluchun" brewed by Wu An, which is also a specialty wine from Wu An's hometown. He moved to the earth.

This wine is crafted from polished rice, figs, hosta flowers, calla lilies and other flowers. It has a pure taste, a soft and soft mouth, and a light floral fragrance with endless aftertaste.

Di Ping took a sip, the rice fragrant mixed with a light floral fragrance, very elegant, but not too fragrant, and the mouth was extremely refreshing, as refreshing and sweet as the early morning dew.

Without the pungency of a white wine, it was more refreshing. After a sip, the taste buds in the whole mouth seemed to be opened, refreshing and covering the mouth and throat, and the whole person suddenly became more energetic.

Everyone was shocked by this kind of wine. They had never drunk such a good wine before, and felt that the previous wines could not be regarded as wine, and could not be compared with it.

One by one, with surprises on his face, nostalgia on his face, or bowing in contemplation, or applauding and singing, they were all moved by drinking such a good wine.

Humans are tragically plagued in the end of the world, but for animals and plants, it is like a long drought and rain. Especially plants are evolving and growing rapidly. The energy and substances contained in many plants have greatly increased, and they are not comparable to those before the end of the world. This is one of the reasons why wine is so good.

Owen and Boogie, after a sip of wine, they were silent, but a tear came out of the corner of their eyes.

This is when they were mercenaries. Every time they came back desperately and could drink such a sip of wine, they felt that this life was enough. Now that they suddenly thought of their previous life after drinking it, they couldn't help but shed tears with emotion.

Today, Di Ping brought a group of people here. One is to let everyone know about this place and implement distribution according to work. If the city guards have wage income, they have to consume, and the tavern has to be open, or else there is money. Nowhere to spend.

The second is to transfer jobs for the fat people who have successfully awakened, and Yun Mengsi, a new woman who joined the base.

Five people were successfully awakened this time. Fatty Chen Gang, Leopard team captain Xu Sheng, and Li Shuang, a thin young college student, were only 21 years old, but they were very independent, simple-minded, and kind.

The other two are called Tang Zhandong and the other is Zhang Zhengyi.

Tang Zhandong is a burly and powerful body with a height of more than 1.8 meters. He was an octochi boxer before the end of the world. He often fought in boxing matches. He had a calm and strong personality and was extremely brave in battle. He belonged to the second team of Tiger Team Zhang Liang.

Zhang Zhengyi, born as a soldier, entered the police force after changing jobs. He performed quite well in the previous underground shopping mall. He followed Han Zhongguo against Ge Zhongping and he had a sense of justice.

The person is not as tall as one meter and seven, but the body is quite good. It seems that he hasn't stopped exercising after changing jobs. He stands straight and his eyes are piercing.

Once these people were successfully transferred, their strengths improved, and they were given an extra guarantee in the face of the coming crisis.

Chapter 782: Crazy killing for building a city

The high-level base of the transfer base knows that the transfer of Liu Han, Luo Xinyi, and Yue Lie is no secret.

The reason why we are all here today is to join in the fun, and want to see what the job change is like.

Di Ping on the third floor has already stipulated that non-transferees are not allowed to go up, and the sense of mystery must be retained, so everyone can only wait on the first floor. Under Di Ping's leadership, six people go to the third floor to prepare for a transfer.

Fortunately, there are good wines on the first floor. Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang are enjoying the wine, and now they don't have much strong desire to go up.

The six people followed Di Ping upstairs with a nervous mood. The six people had different thoughts, joyful and worried, and a little afraid of the unknown.

"Di...The highest authority, first open!"

Di Ping led everyone up to the stairs on the third floor, a red light swept across, an electronic sound came, and then the heavy black iron door opened, and a bright light appeared.

Everyone was surprised to follow Di Ping up the stairs. As soon as they reached the third floor, they saw two tall black metal armored warriors appear in front of everyone. The two armored warriors stood motionless, with a broad sword in their hands resting on the ground, silent. Like a mountain, but it makes people feel a sense of horror.

"Di...The highest limit confirmation is on!"

The armored man didn't move, but suddenly a green light flashed in the eyes of an armored robot, sweeping across Di Ping's body, then a cold voice sounded, and the door suddenly opened.

The six were already stupid, and carefully passed through the two robots, fearing that the powerful robot would suddenly attack.

As soon as Di Ping stepped onto the third floor, the lights in the empty hall suddenly lit up, and the entire third floor was illuminated like daylight.

At this time, everyone who went upstairs looked at everything here curiously, it seemed that everything was so fresh.

"Okay, come here!"

Di Ping greeted everyone to gather. He wanted to confess some knowledge about the job transfer to everyone. When everyone came around, he looked at everyone and said solemnly:

"Next, you must remember clearly what I want to say, and don't be careless. This is related to your future development!"

"It's the city owner!"

The six hurriedly responded.

"You are all called the awakened now. You have awakened your potential, but you still don't understand the use of your potential. So you need to change jobs and become professionals. Once you become a professional, you can learn skills to use your potential. Come to fight!"

"Professionals are divided into six major professions, namely warrior, mage, barbarian, stalker, priesthood, and shooter; and each major profession can advance to multiple professions, such as warriors, can advance to swordsman, You can also advance to a guard or a magic swordsman, so choosing each profession is very important, and it is related to your future career direction!"

The first time they heard these contents, the six people were shocked, and their expressions were also excited. What a wonderful system, as if playing a game.

In fact, according to Di Ping's understanding, this occupational system, that is, a system that facilitates the awakened person to choose the direction of spiritual practice, was created.

If there is no such thing, it is to let Di Ping watch the cheats store in the market. He doesn't know how to start or how to practice. This is the foundation and inheritance. Without this knowledge on the earth, it would be too difficult to rely on them to explore.

Therefore, every job transfer is accompanied by systematic skills. Without martial arts and exercises, the teaching of the system is the most convenient and practical. Every professional can quickly form combat effectiveness, which is difficult to achieve quickly in a normal training system. Effect.

Although there were very few system skills, like Di Ping, who had only three skills when he was transferred to a fighter, it was these three skills that allowed him to survive in the end times, and to live well.

The earth does not have a cultivation system. It is quite difficult to form a complete system. Everything starts from scratch.

In doing so, the system can quickly form a combat system, so that everyone can clearly choose their career direction, and then slowly join the practice to form a complete practice system.

Chapter 783: Two women are not relaxing

"City Lord, can we choose whatever we want?"

The fat guy who loves playing games the most, he was very excited at this time. The more he listened, the more he felt that this was like playing a game, and he could change jobs to various occupations. If he still stayed, he asked anxiously.

"In principle, you can choose whatever you want!"

Di Ping smiled slightly.

"Great!"

The fat man almost jumped up like he liked it, and said with joy.

"However, everyone has different talents and different career biases. It is best to choose the right talent to achieve the best cooperation!"

"Uh!"

The smile on the fat man's face froze for a moment, and he looked at Di Ping with a bitter expression: "No! City Lord, you make me happy for nothing!"

"Okay, now you follow my instructions to change jobs. There is a professional idol in it. If you go in and find that the idol lights up, it proves to be suitable for your talents. The brightest is the most suitable. Don't choose randomly. You must see each job introduction and choose carefully!"

Di Ping ignored the fat man playing treasures, but looked at the people with a serious expression.

As time went by, Di Ping became more and more aware of the functions of the various buildings in the system. Before, he was too reckless. He chose his favorite warrior profession without careful observation, but he remembers that the warrior profession was also the brightest at the time. It's just that he didn't pay attention.

"It's the city owner!"

Although everyone was stunned by the information they had just learned, listening to Di Ping's serious character at this time, they quickly calmed down.

"Who will come first!"

Di Ping glanced at Six Human Dao.

"I come!"

Di Ping didn't expect Xu Sheng to be the first to raise his hand, but Fatty hesitated.

"Okay, go up, remember to press your hands on the surface of the black column, and stare at the surface of the black column, calm down, don't panic!"

Di Ping saw that the other people were not rushing forward, so he nodded at Xu Sheng.

Xu Sheng walked steadily without any hesitation. He walked quickly to the pillar, pressed his hands on the pillar, and began to stare at the dense runes on the black pillar.

"Om!"

A full minute has passed, and when everyone is a little anxious, there is a sudden humming sound.

Then, the pillar body lit up, and the few people who were scared and nervous were agitated, and many of them were calm enough not to scream.

At this time, everyone suddenly said that Xu Sheng actually closed his eyes and stood motionless on the pillar, as if he was asleep.

The five of them saw Di Pianyuan calmly looking at Xu Sheng, knowing that there should be no problem, and the five of them calmed down.

As time passed, a few people waited anxiously, watching Xu Dui stand in front of the pillar with closed eyes. Everyone was a little restless for a while, fearing something wrong.

After a full two or three minutes, Xu Sheng, who was standing still with his eyes closed, suddenly exhaled a long breath, then suddenly opened his eyes, flashing light in his eyes.

"how about it?"

"City Lord, I succeeded, and I am now a fighter career!"

Xu Sheng walked back quickly with some excitement.

Di Ping threw an exploration technique in the past, and Xu Sheng's message was shown in front of him. Xu Sheng turned out to have B-level potential, and his talent skill was actually life recovery, which was a powerful skill.

"Huh!"

Xu Sheng excitedly shook two punches at the air quickly, only to see the shadow of the fist without seeing the fist, the fist wind roared, the sound made noise, the air seemed to be torn apart, everyone felt the strong wind hitting people, and the power was extremely terrifying.

"City Lord, I think it has become stronger, and at least the strength has increased by nearly a thousand pounds!"

Xu Sheng threw two fists down, his expression even more surprised.

Once transferred, the system will further deepen the development of the body, and the strength, physique, and speed will be strengthened, which is much stronger than the ordinary awakened.

This is the fact that although Xingzhi was an ancient martial arts cultivator, he was still inferior to Luo Xinyi and Yue Lie in power.

Chapter 784: Collect crystal nuclei and run into dangerous places

Xu Sheng's change aroused the excitement of a few people who were a little nervous. Since there is no danger, they can still increase their strength.

So the few people who had been timid enough to step forward now began to fight.

In the end, the fat man was very powerful and rushed to the front. Before everyone reacted, he pressed on the pillar, but he was impetuous, and he did not communicate with the system after waiting for a minute or two.

The aroused people laughed, and the fat man blushed with shame. In the end, it was Di Ping's guidance to communicate with the system.

Five or six minutes later, the fat man finished his job change. He opened his eyes in excitement and punched the air. The fist blew and made a popping sound, echoing in the shaking hall.

"Fatty, what career did you change?"

Yun Mengsi suddenly looked at the fat man and asked with a smile.

"Of course it's a barbarian, the death spinner of the Bouji instructor is so handsome, and now, old Chen will do too! I want to kill the Quartet! Haha..."

The fat man rubbed his hands in excitement, his hands danced with pride, and when he was excited, he couldn't wait for the axe in his hand to swing a few times, as if he had already killed all sides on the battlefield, and couldn't help laughing wildly.

"Chen Gang, Race: Terran, Level: Level One, Potential: Level B, Talent Skills: Tenacity, Occupation: Barbarian, Skills: Swing, Universe Strike, Wild Dance"

"Okay! Don't play tricks, change one!"

Di Ping used his probing skills to observe the fat man's job transfer, and he was also happy. The fat man was also a B-level talent. This was already a mid-range in the awakening, so he was happy in his heart and just smiled and said something.

At this time, several other people couldn't hold back anymore and moved forward one after another.

"Tang Zhandong, race: human race, rank: first rank, potential: B rank, talent skills: huge force, occupation: barbarian, skills: swing, world blow, wild dance"

"Li Shuang, race: human race, rank: first rank, potential: C-level, talent skills: violent, occupation: warrior, skills: slash, collision, taunt"

"Zhang Zhengyi, race: human race, rank: first rank, potential: C-level, talent skills: guardian of the wood (quick recovery), occupation: priesthood, skills: critical strike, healing, holy strike"

The professions chosen by these people are very similar to their own personalities. Tang Zhandong is warlike and chooses barbarians. Liu Shuang doesn't look young and thin, but he is brave in fighting, so he chose fighters.

Zhang Zhengyi is upright, has a sense of justice, and has a pure heart. He has chosen the priesthood. There will be two advancement directions for the priesthood. One is the priest and priest who focuses on healing, and the other is the guardian paladin, which can not only heal , The combat effectiveness is also quite strong.

The only woman among the six, Yun Mengsi, chose the profession of a mage first as Di Ping had expected.

"Yunmengsi, race: human race, rank: first rank, potential: A rank, talent skills: charm, occupation: mage, skills: fireball, ignition, staring at calmness"

Why is it that Yunmengsi's choice of Master did not come to Di Ping's expectation?

There are three advanced directions for mages. The first direction is elemental mages. The main elemental attack is also the career direction with the strongest attack power among mages.

The second direction is the Witch Doctor Department, which focuses on the power of healing and cursing. It is the most loved and feared wizard among the wizards, and is called the wizard.

The third direction, the illusion department, focuses on illusion attacks. Among the mages, it is the most confusing and full of mysterious mages.

And Yunmengsi's talent charm, choosing a wizard is the most suitable, and then directly advance to the illusionist, simple and perfect, is the most suitable talent.

Chapter 785: Gunshots in the Silent City

After the six transfers were completed, Di Ping also gave a weapon each.

However, this time Di Ping did not give a very good weapon, but a medium-grade D-grade weapon, six of which cost nearly two hundred crystal coins.

Only from deciding to implement the points system, Di Ping decided that in the future these people's promotion resources must be earned on their own, and he will no longer fully supply them.

Now that there are few people, he can support, and there are many people, and he can't provide comprehensively. People don't suffer from lack and happiness. In any case, he can't be equal to one person.

When the points system comes out, everyone will earn points, and use points to consume directly or exchange points for crystal coins.

This is Di Ping's plan. He will use the points system and the crystal coin system to tie everyone to the chariot of the sanctuary.

In the next step, he is also preparing to open the market. These people have points and can spend in the market with crystal coins, and the money will flow back into his pockets to contribute to the development of the base.

This is Di Ping's big plan, and he still needs to use economic power. Just relying on himself to build the crystal nucleus, he will not be able to upgrade the buildings of his system to many levels, and the consumption of the crystal nucleus will be massive.

He is ready to use the function of the system building to realize his big plan, that is, all the awakened will be controlled by him and cannot be separated from the chariot of the city of refuge.

Without gossip, this is only part of Di Ping's grand plan. No one knows such a grand design in his heart. Of course, it is just a rudimentary form in his heart now.

The six Li Shuang used a knife, Tang Zhandong used an axe, Zhang Zhengyi used a broad sword, Chen Gang used an axe, Xu Sheng used a broad sword, and Yun Mengsi used a staff.

After getting the weapon, the few people could no longer contain the excitement in their hearts, and they ran to the entrance of the tavern and began to show them.

For a time, the light of the sword fluttered, the blade of the sword crossed the sky, the axe and the wheel flew randomly, and the fireball flew.

It was lively now, and the front door of the tavern was suffering. The six people were like inexhaustible men who pushed the forest in front of the door ten meters forward. All the trees in the middle were destroyed by a few people.

There were broken branches and leaves everywhere, and if Owen were not there to take care of them, the broken tree would have to hit the tavern.

Di Ping also just smiled and watched a few people vent. The cruelty of the last days made everyone extremely depressed. The strength of this struggle has a trace of the power to control their own destiny. These people are crazy to vent the depression in their hearts. Mengsi also went crazy for a while.

In the end, all of them were exhausted, and they laughed among the broken branches and leaves. For a time, the laughter flew into the sky and floated far and far.

They were so happy, they could make a group of people who hadn't awakened, but they were dumbfounded, and they all looked enthusiastically.

Although these recruited heroes like Owen were powerful, they didn't know where they came from after all. They weren't the people around them. They didn't envy them much.

After that, the three of Yue Lie successfully awakened. Although everyone envied them, they were not very eager. After all, this person was a minority, and everyone felt that the probability might be relatively low, and there was only a slight movement in their hearts.

But this time it was different. There were six more people at once, and all of them were people I knew around him. As soon as a few people showed their strength, they could no longer stop the desire in their hearts.

Everyone looked at Di Ping with eager eyes, and they felt hairy in his heart.

I have to explain to everyone that why these people will awaken mainly depends on three directions. One is good talent, the second is to absorb a lot of energy from meat to improve physical fitness, and third, to practice exercises to increase the chance of awakening.

Before, the seniors at the base were not young anymore. Like Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang, they were all over thirty or forty years of adulthood, and they did not follow the practice every day.

And Liu Bingyu's women are even more so, they will follow a bunch of stinky men to practice exercises every day.

But now is different. Di Ping believes that after tomorrow, these people will rise up to practice and will work hard.

Because this is a matter of survival later, who dares to be careless.

Chapter 786: Giant scorpions appear in the square

However, the fat guys were too early to be happy. Early the next morning, they were pulled up by Captain Owen and started a new day of training.

They had just gained strength and had to learn to master it, and Owen was instructed by Di Ping to let several people have combat effectiveness as soon as possible.

The next few people are suffering, Owen, Boogie, Mork, Ava, and Gina have turned into battle, but they have been training hard.

But it's not bad. Several people have some foundation. They learn quickly and can basically master their strength in the morning. They will not crush the cup, smash the table, or step on the floor.

But the most bitter thing for a few people is that they don't know what the city lord is going crazy.

All the members of the city guard were pulled out for actual combat, hunted and killed mutant animals around the base, looking for food to rescue personnel.

For three days in a row, Di Ping personally led the team and slaughtered frantically. The mutant animals that had just rushed around the base suffered losses.

Three professionals led a team, carpet cleaning, and now there are 17 professionals in the base plus Di Ping. Han Ming doesn't know whether he lives or die. If he were there, there would be 18 people.

The seventeen people were divided into six teams and set out to clean up in different directions every day, killing wildly, clearing the surrounding mutant animals, and a large amount of mutant meat and food poured into the base.

It was just two shortcomings, killing more than 200 mutant animals, collecting more than 100,000 catties of mutant meat, nearly 500,000 catties of various foods, and a population of more than 2,000 people.

Every day in the base, like the New Year, a large influx of materials made everyone excited and numb.

Under Di Ping's leadership, the base's range of activities expanded to nearly five kilometers. If Di Ping weren't afraid of causing the mutant golden eagle, the range of activities would be larger.

He didn't expect that there are so many people alive. He already knew about a dozen bases in Zhongzhou City.

One thousand of these two thousand people came from one of the bases that had previously attacked the guards of the city of refuge.

The leader of this base, Zhang Cheng, received an announcement from the Bianzhou base, so he was immortal. For the promise of the Bianzhou base, he went to ambush the team of the asylum city, but I did not expect that Irving was so strong that he had not succeeded, but he was stuck in his account card. On the spot.

He fled back in a panic. After a few days with trembling, he thought it was all right, but Di Ping didn't forget him, so he looked at him as soon as he cleaned the surroundings.

Zhang Cheng was killed on the spot by the mutant tiger. Although he had dozens of guns, Di Ping didn't do anything at all. The mutant tiger was defeated in one blow, not to mention Gina's terrifying fireball attack and Daniel's like a cannon. The musket attacked.

At this time, the mutant tiger was invincible in front of them. It couldn't move the gun or hurt the knife. How to fight this battle.

Originally, Di Ping wanted to leave this matter to Cheng Chao and the others. He happened to be near the base, and these people attacked them again looking for death.

Now Di Ping didn't say anything at all, so he straightened it out, so that there were nearly a thousand people and countless supplies.

This is an underground mall, and the food stock inside is quite large. Now it's all cheap Di Ping.

There is a reason why Di Ping took people so crazy to clean up mutant animals.

One is to improve the combat effectiveness of these people who are transferred as soon as possible. This goal is achieved. The battle is the fastest growing. In just two or three days, these people have quickly mastered their own strength and grown into qualified fighters.

The second is to clean up the surrounding mutant animals as soon as possible to reduce the occurrence of concentrated siege by mutant animals at the end of the protection period.

Of course, both of these points are secondary and incidental tasks. The main purpose is the dialogue between him and the system.

When Di Ping asked the system how many coins would be needed to enclose the entire base to build a city wall, the system told him that it would cost more than 12,000 coins.

But there were only more than 8,000 crystal coins in his backpack, which was a lot worse, so he had to kill the mutant beast to obtain the crystal core.

The base protection period is only three or two days away. Once the protection period is over, there is no tall city wall protection, and the base is not fortified.

The demise of the Jincheng base deeply stimulated him, and the construction of the systematic city wall became the most urgent task at present.

Chapter 787: Have kind thoughts to save lives

This three-day cleanup made him feel that the number of mutant animals around the base is increasing, and the quality is also increasing.

If you walked for a long time before, you might not be able to run into mutant animals, but in these three days, as long as you don't take long to go out, you can definitely run into one or two.

Sometimes we can also encounter mutated actions of social groups, such as mutated jackals, wild boars, and wild wolves. Two teams were surrounded and almost unable to get out. Fortunately, Di Ping was notified by the watch, and he quickly rescued the two teams. Come down.

At this time, Fatty, the guys who had been screaming and fighting, with plenty of energy, finally curbed a little.

After three days of killing, Di Ping's heart became more and more anxious, and only two hundred crystal nuclei exchanged more than 1,200 crystal coins.

In addition, he saved only 10,000 and nodded his head, which is not much different from 12,000, but there are still two days left.

This made him dare not slacken in the slightest. The city wall was not built. Once the protection period was over, mutant beasts might rush in and attack ordinary people at the base at any time.

Lack of money!

Di Ping scratched his head with some headaches. The mutant animals are not fools. Now within five kilometers of the base, they are almost cleared by him. Many mutant animals are afraid to stay in this area, resulting in the least harvest on the third day. Yes, less than twenty mutant animals were hunted.

If this continues, tomorrow will not be able to collect all the coins needed.

"Town Lord, is the food not to your appetite today?"

Seeing Di Ping holding the chopsticks to stop, frowning, as if the food was not to his appetite, Cheng Chao, who was sitting next to him, asked in a low voice.

Usually, Di Ping's appetite is the biggest, and his appetite is always very good. There are very few such cases, as if he can't put down chopsticks.

"Oh Nope!"

Cheng Chao's question made Di Ping react from his meditation, and he slowly shook his head.

"The City Lord has something on his mind!"

"Uh! What's up!"

Di Ping was taken aback, how did Cheng Chao know that he was on his mind.

"Look at that!"

Di Ping was taken aback for a moment, and then he saw Liu Bingyu and Yun Mengsi's two women fighting for wine. They stared at each other with swords and lights, and the wine was dry, very bold.

"This....."

Di Ping looked at the two girls who were fighting cock-fighting, and laughed dumbly. With a wry smile, Di Ping shook his head and said, "Big Brother Cheng, this is also taking me away!"

Cheng Chao was also the first to follow Di Ping, and his relationship was relatively familiar. Di Ping's temperament was also relatively easy, and it was common to make jokes.

Only since the arrival of Yun Mengsi, he always approached Di Ping from time to time, and his eyes quickly melted on Di Ping, which everyone could see.

This made Yu Shujie, Ning Nan, and Liu Bing's daughter very upset.

Especially Liu Bingyu, she is not Yu Shujie's easy-going temperament, she is tolerant of everything, and will sulki herself all day long. She is also the girl of the sky, who can she?

So there was a very interesting scene, as long as the two of them got together, they would fight in secret.

Yun Mengsi is not only naturally charming, she is also a transparent, icy and intelligent woman who manages the Yun Group in an orderly manner, showing extremely high resourcefulness and skill.

And Liu Bingyu is also the master who has seven orifices and exquisite heart, is beautiful, has a quick mind, and has a terrifying emotional intelligence. He was also a well-known talented girl in Kyoto circles before.

When the two got together, it was really a match. For a moment, they faced each other, and Di Ping had no choice but to get a headache.

Chapter 788: Burning scorpion barbecue incense

Di Ping looked at the two women who were in the fun of Dou Jiu, and felt a little pain in his head. He pressed his eyebrows and shook his head helplessly.

"The city lord has other thoughts?"

Cheng Chao is such a winking person. At a glance, he saw that Di Ping was not upset for these two women, but obviously had other concerns, so he approached and asked in a low voice.

Di Ping raised his head and glanced at Cheng Chao who was asking him with concern, his brows moved, and he paused and said slowly:

"Big Brother Cheng knows where there are the most mutated animals?"

"The most mutated animals?"

Cheng Chao frowned and asked puzzledly:

"City Lord, are you asking this?"

"We still lack some crystal nuclei, and now the surrounding mutant animals have almost been cleaned up, it is difficult to obtain crystal nuclei!"

Di Ping was not full of Cheng Chao. He sighed, put down his chopsticks, and said slowly.

"Oh!"

Cheng Chao nodded suddenly, didn't ask too much, contemplating his eyebrows:

"The place with the most mutated animals?"

As he said, Han Zhongguo, who was poking his head towards him and listening to the conversation between the two, asked:

"Does Chief Han know where there are most animals?"

"Uh!"

Suddenly questioning, Han Zhongguo was taken aback, but he immediately replied:

"Of course it's the zoo! What's wrong?"

"You are nonsense!"

Cheng Chao said irritably.

Who doesn't know that there are many mutant animals in the zoo, but you have to dare to go?

There are not only antelopes and peacocks in the zoo, but there are also tigers, lions, rhinos, elephants, and crocodiles. These may be terrifying beasts before the end of the world, but once they mutate, they still have to go to the zoo if they want to die.

Han Zhongguo was scolded as silly, and he didn't know who he was provoking. He stared at Cheng Chaodao:

"What is nonsense, didn't you ask me how many animals there are? Where can it be if it's not a zoo?"

"What are you nonsense, I don't know how many zoo animals are?"

Cheng Chao also stared.

The two started a debate because of the zoo, and they were familiar with each other and loved to carry it a little bit. Di Ping ignored them, he leaned back on the chair and began to think.

He heard all the conversation between the two. He didn't expect the zoo before, but now Han Zhongguo mentioned it, he was also taken aback.

But the facts are just as Cheng Chao said. The zoo is not a good place. Big cats ran out of the zoo. A mutant tiger is so strong, not to mention the large number of beasts inside.

There was a drum in his heart. If there were one or two mutant beasts as powerful as the Komodo dragon, wouldn't he go like this to find death?

However, Di Ping finally decided to go to the zoo. Now the crystal nucleus is still more than a thousand away. It is no longer allowed to touch a single mutant animal outside. It takes a large group of mutant animals to collect enough in the shortest time.

"Just go to the zoo!"

Di Ping suddenly raised his head and said in a deep voice, with a blast of light in his eyes.

If you want to survive, you have to go forward bravely, afraid of everything, so you don't want to live, he decided to go to the zoo.

"City Lord, you have to think twice, the zoo is too dangerous!"

Cheng Chao's expression changed, and he said quickly.

"Yes! City Lord, don't dare to fool around, there are too many beasts in the zoo!"

Han Zhongguo's expression also changed, he didn't care about quarreling with Cheng Chao, and hurriedly persuaded him.

"Don't worry, I won't force it. If I can't do it, I will withdraw again. I am not stupid!"

"This....."

The two of them were embarrassed, but they didn't say more. They all knew that Di Ping was usually gentle, but he was very assertive. Once a decision was made, it was difficult to change.

Chapter 789: Proud and complacent

For this trip to the zoo, Di Ping was also extremely well prepared, and he drew out the high-end combat power in the basic base.

Except for Irving and Mok staying behind to deal with the starting incident, the City Lord Guards let him all be taken away. The reason for leaving Irving is that this guy's current strength can be said to be the strongest except Di Ping, and has reached the first and third levels. , The s-level talent is revealed at this time, the same is the first and third levels, but he is not a star and a half better than Buji and others.

Fifteen professionals, the lineup is unprecedentedly strong, as long as you don't run into a mutant beast like the Komodo dragon, there are not many mutant animals that can compete with it.

The zoo is located just south of the base, fifteen or six kilometers away, and is already in the center of the city, which is why Di Ping doesn't want to go.

The environment in the urban area is complicated, and there are more mutant animals, which can easily cause damages in surprise attacks. Therefore, he did not bring the city guards with him this time, only 15 of them.

Five kilometers later, everyone jumped over the highway, exited the hunting area of the base, and entered the urban area. Di Ping's cleaning team rarely enters this area, which he strictly forbids.

It was not the same if it had not been cleaned up. After a while, I encountered mutant animals. This time it turned out to be five or six mutant goats. This made everyone excited, which was a good sign.

There was no need for Di Ping to take action at all. Fatty's best fighters had already rushed to Bao Yuan.

Di Ping's backpack has been emptied. Five or six goats are not a problem, and they are loaded directly into the bag. On the road behind, I don't know if I was lucky. After walking for two or three kilometers, I didn't even encounter a mutant animal.

This made everyone very frustrated, but Di Ping was a little heavy, and he always felt that things were not right.

Given the number of animals in the market, it is impossible not to encounter one at all. It seems that they are all hiding from them. If it is not too bad luck, there must be some reason.

"Boom....."

Just as everyone was a little depressed, suddenly there were two crisp gunshots in front of them.

The whole city was silent, and there was no rushing sound. The two gunshots sounded like thunder that shook the world.

The sudden gunshots shocked everyone, Di Ping also listened, hearing the gunshots not far away, he should be able to hear what happened with his ears.

"Boom..."

Two more gunshots followed.

And Di Ping also heard someone shouting loudly, the reverberation was very serious and he couldn't understand what it was.

"San Jose, this is a domestic police pistol, about one kilometer away!"

Tang Zhandong raised his brow at this moment.

"What should I do under the City Lord?"

Yue Lie also stepped forward and asked.

"Go and see!"

Di Ping's thoughts moved, and he decided to check it out. Since he was not far away, he wanted to know who else would dare to come out in this city.

"Watch out!"

Di Ping gave an order and ran out first, and when he moved, dozens of people around him quickly followed.

How fast the people are, shooting like arrows in the city toward the place where the sound is made.

The crowd arrived within a kilometer of a kilometer, and the closer they got, the clearer the noisy sound was. Di Ping could hear the hissing sound. The sound was so sharp that it was hard to hear far away. , The ear-piercing of this close listening.

This hissing sounded into one piece, and the number was not a small number. It should be an ethnic group. Di Ping moved in his heart and rushed over if he didn't, and he had to observe what was going on.

Standing on a 20-meter-high building, Di Ping looked at the black and horrible creatures in a commercial plaza in front of him. Goose bumps all over his body and his skin tingled.

The people who followed Di Ping also saw their scalp numb, especially a few women, their eyes flashed with horror, and they couldn't help but shudder.

Chapter 790: Kill millions with one foot

"Is this a crayfish?"

Luo Xinyi said suddenly.

"I'm going! Hey, I said Luo Xinyi, do you want me to braise two for you!"

Liu Han said not angry.

"I dare to eat you braised? You thought I really didn't know it was a scorpion!"

Luo Xinyi raised her eyebrows and said to Liu Han proudly.

"You bull! This can also be a mouthful!"

Liu Han felt that the noise was stiff, and gave Luo Xinyi a thumbs up with a wry smile.

The conversation between the two made everyone laugh, diminishing their fear.

That's right, there are densely packed scorpions about the size of a lobster in this square. There are tens of thousands of scorpions. All the shrimps are dark, holding two large tongs, and a blue scorpion tail is standing behind them. You can see that the toxicity is severe.

At this time, these scorpions were besieging an impenetrable statue of the solar system about ten meters high in the middle of the square, and there were five people on this statue.

The four men and one woman were all young people. The oldest one seemed to be forty years old. At this time, he was holding a dark pistol in his hand, and he shot and killed the mutant scorpion climbing up the statue in horror.

The surface of the statue is relatively slippery. The scorpions are really hard to climb. Scorpions are constantly falling, but more scorpions are coming up, and it seems that they will pile up very high in a short while.

Although the five people looked anxious and panicked one by one, they were still calm on the whole. They didn't scream, they just kept waving the weapons in their hands, knocking out the mutant scorpions that climbed up, and reminding their companions from time to time.

Fortunately, this statue is relatively tall and strong, otherwise the five would have been swallowed by swarms of scorpions.

"City Lord, do you want to save people!"

Zhang Zhengyi couldn't bear it, walked up to Di Ping and asked in a low voice.

"How can this be saved? My skin is numb, and I won't be eaten by a scorpion after I go down!"

Di Ping looked at a large group of densely packed scorpions on the square. The scalp was also numb. The scorpions were not terrible, but their blue tails were not as good as they were. At first glance, they knew they contained extremely poisonous. Got it.

"what!"

While Di Ping was pondering, he was awakened by a scream. He looked up and saw the lowest young man among the five. He fell from the statue softly and let out a scream.

"Xiao Wu!"

Several people in the statue were fighting with the scorpions, only to find out at this time, they let out an exclaim, but it was too late.

As soon as the person fell into the scorpion group, he was quickly swallowed, screamed in pain, but stopped after a few sounds, and the whole person turned into a  skeleton in an instant.

"My god! What a cruel!"

The fat man swallowed his saliva and murmured with horror on his face.

Everyone saw a chill on the back, and the scorpion seemed to be entrusted by a starving ghost. As soon as it surged up, a single person swallowed only a skeleton in a blink of an eye.

"Xiao Wu! You demons, I'm fighting with you!"

At this time, the middle-aged man with the gun also saw it. He was startled, his eyes flushed red, and he let out a ferocious roar, and the pistol began to roar.

Bang bang bang...

After dozens of gunshots were fired, several scorpions were broken into pieces, but most of the bullets were empty and hit the concrete floor, splashing pieces of debris.

Kaka Kaka.....

The pistol has run out of bullets, and the middle-aged man still pulls the trigger frantically.

"Uncle Gu! Xiao Wu has gone!"

At this time, a young man on the side grabbed the crazy middle-aged man, his eyes filled with tears in his voice and he persuaded.
