

Doomsday 791

Chapter 791: The use of boxing power is endless

"Hey, these scorpions will also shoot venom!"

When Di Ping didn't know what was going on, the fat man exclaimed from the side.

Di Ping took a closer look, but it wasn't. The tails of these scorpions could actually emit a small faint venom. The spray distance was not far, only about two meters.

The guy just didn't notice, he was sprayed with venom, and the statue fell into the mouth of the scorpion.

The scorpions are also very clever. They start to stack up and continue to surge upwards. At this time, all the poisonous scorpions are concentrated under the statue, piled up on the statue, like a layer of active seaweed.

If this continues, these scorpions will be able to occupy all the space for the activities of the four people in a short while, reaching a distance of two meters, and one round of venom, these people will not be able to survive.

"City Lord!"

The fat man finally couldn't bear to look at Di Ping.

Everyone focused their gazes on Di Ping, some were full of expectations, some were calm, and some were excited.

The calmer ones are recruiting heroes. They wait for Di Ping's orders in all their actions, and they have seen too much about the world they are in. They are already relatively plain, that is, the experience of a few awakened people in the base like Fatty. Less, keep that kindness.

Di Ping smiled slightly and said, "How do you want to save people!"

His question stopped everyone.

Yes? How to save people, the number of these scorpions is tens of thousands. Once they are touched, they will die instantly, and they can spray terrible venom.

"Gina, it's time for Mengsi to test the two of you. Are you sure you can clean up this group of scorpions?"

Di Ping looked at a dozen people looking at each other, smiled slightly and looked at Gina and Yun Mengsi.

Speaking of dealing with this kind of gregariousness, the small individual mutant beasts, the wizard is the most effective way, and the ignition technique is the nemesis of this kind of mutant beasts.

In the face of such a mutant animal, the warrior is very sad. The warrior has to fight at close range, and once it is close, the venom spray alone can make you forget about it.

"Let's try!"

Yun Mengsi nodded slightly excitedly.

In the past few days, if we talk about progress, Yunmengsi's progress is quite large. After three days of fighting, he quickly mastered the fighting skills, and the use of spells is already quite proficient. In addition, he has improved his strength by practicing the "Void Spirit Meditation" given by Di Ping. quickly.

Gina, not to mention, she has already practiced the meditation technique given by Di Ping, and she has already practiced the meditation technique given by Di Ping, not to mention, she will progress even faster if her talent is not restricting her development. Even Di Ping can provide energy. No need to.

The two women came to the edge of the building and looked at the swarm of scorpions in the square below 40 meters away. They were silent, and gently raised the staff in their hands.

The crystal at the top of the staff lit up, and the space around the two women fluctuated, and then countless spots of light began to gather quickly, as if they were soldiers who had received the order to gather.

The two women cast spells together, and the energy fluctuations became more intense. The elements were so rich that they were amazing. The flaming element seemed to ignite a little flame around the two women, and everyone retreated to avoid the high temperature of steaming.

After a while, the flames condensed into fireballs, as if controlled by an invisible hand, and began to surround the two women.

Like lively elves, jumping and walking happily, terrifying heat is emitted from each fireball.

As a result, the people who were standing not far away from the two women were separated again, afraid of being burned by the intense temperature.

The intense energy fluctuation finally attracted the attention of the scorpions in the square below, and they all hissed and looked here.

Seeing the reaction of the mutant scorpion group, the four people on the statue also raised their heads to look here, and then their eyes flashed horror.

Because they saw dozens of fireballs, shooting straight here like shooting stars.

Chapter 792: Hear the awakened again

Originally, Di Ping didn't want to take this flood. People are dying in the last days. He wants to save but can't save it.

But when he saw that these five people were still able to help each other in times of crisis, they were obviously a group of relatively conscientious people, which moved him to save others. People must save themselves before anyone can save them.

What's more, if there are so many mutant scorpions, if they can get crystal nuclei, there will be a lot of them. Can they be exchanged for money no matter how small?

The landlord's house can't open the pot now, so let's deduct a bit! !

There is also a third reason, that these people under his own softheartedness, want to save people, he has to conform to the people's will, right?

Based on these three reasons, he decided to save people, and also to consider the magical level of Gina and Yunmengsi.

The two of them cast spells together, which is obviously more powerful than one. At least twenty hot pots are condensed around each, and the two are nearly fifty flame balls.

As soon as the flame ball separated from the staff, it seemed to have been suddenly accelerated, and it smashed against the scorpion group in the center of the square with a strong wind, and smoke flicked through the air.

Boom boom boom

With more than a dozen roars, Di Ping's ears were aching, and sparks exploded in the mutant scorpion group in the middle of the square.

Like grenades exploded, countless scorpions were exploded, and the power of the ignition technique was once again revealed.

This wave of fireballs blasted the scorpion group dumbfounded, hissing, and running around avoiding the flames.

But the two women would give them a chance, another two waves of fireballs blasted into the scorpion group, and then the two women held the staff high, and the crystal at the top of the staff was like a burning lamp.

The flame did not dissipate, but began to spread across the square. The flame surrounded the scorpion group. The scorpion group scurried like a headless flies, but they couldn't escape the flame. Numerous scorpions were burning and making a snapping noise.

As if setting off firecrackers, clouds of green smoke began to rise above the square, and the smell of barbecue entered the nose.

The three people standing on the statue were frightened and looked horrified. They looked at the hissing and screaming mutant scorpions. It took a while before they were relieved. They looked up and saw the one standing on the top of the mall. Di Ping and his party.

"Over there!"

The four people exclaimed, with surprises in their eyes, they finally met someone, and they were life-savers.

Bang bang bang.....

The explosion sounded like a bean exploding. Hundreds of mutant scorpions died in the flames, but the number of scorpions was too much. After the panic just now, the scorpions quickly found their way and began to clump together like a snowball. Roll out of the flames.

Gina and Yun Mengsi had already seen sweat beads on their foreheads, and it was extremely mana-consuming for them to maintain the flame.

Seeing that a large number of mutant scorpions were about to roll out of the flame circle, the two of them were willing to do it, and their aura suddenly rose. When the staff in their hands waved, the flames suddenly spread out without wind.

Surrounded by the  ball formed by the scorpion group, it burned desperately, and the crackling sound continued, and the scorpions kept peeling off the black ball and turning to scorched ashes.

In the end, they rolled out and quickly rolled out about twenty meters, and the casting limit of the two women was also reached, and the surging flames subsided.

"Ok....."

The two of them let out a sullen resentment, their bodies staggered and almost fell, Di Ping's hands were quick and quick, and he supported them both.

"How! Are there any injuries?"

Di Ping asked concerned.

The two women shook their heads wearily, looking pale, Gina looked at Di Ping and said with deep regret:

"Master, Gina has let you down!"

Even Yun Mengsi half leaned in Di Ping's arms, with a shy face, nodding in agreement.

Di Ping smiled and shook his head:

"You are great! Let's rest now for the two of you!"

Chapter 793: There are strange beasts underground

The two women performed amazingly. They wiped out most of the scorpion with a single spell. At a distance of 20 meters, the scorpion paid nearly half the price. The number has changed from 10,000 before to at most 3,000. This shows the terrible spells.

The few people standing on the top of the building looked at Gina and Yun Mengsi with eagerness in their eyes. Some of them, like Di Ping before, regretted not choosing the profession of Mage.

This class is so handsome, standing still upstairs will wipe out most of such a huge group of scorpions, but fighters can't achieve this effect anyway.

In the early stage, the mage profession had an unparalleled advantage, and short-range professions would suffer a lot, but now Di Ping does not envy the mage profession anymore.

After many fights, he felt the strength of the warrior. The powerful strength gave him terrifying combat power, and the strong physical quality gave him continuous fighting power. As long as he was not exhausted, he could continue to fight. This is not available in the mage profession.

The mutant scorpion group had already discovered Di Ping who was standing upstairs after the panic just now, and of course they knew that these people had attacked them.

Ever since, a group of scorpions rushed to this side angrily, but missed the previous target. Thousands of terrifying scorpions, swarming, the momentum like a black ocean is still very scary.

However, seeing this scene, everyone was not at all scared at this time. Seeing the power of the two wizards, these people were holding a sigh of breath, passion surged, eager to try, and wanted to perform well.

"I'll leave it to you, pay attention to the scorpion spraying poison!"

Di Ping glanced at everyone and shouted in a deep voice.

"Yes"

Everyone responded in unison, their voices were loud and magnificent.

"Go!"

Di Ping waved his hand gently.

Then there were more than a dozen figures who jumped directly from the twenty-meter-high upstairs, and fell to the ground abruptly, smashing the marble floor of the ground into pieces, and the rubble was splashing in all directions.

Then, without exception, it was all right, holding the weapon in his hand, and screaming at the scorpion swarm.

This scene was seen by the eyes of the four people standing on the statue, and their eyes were almost startled and fell to the ground. Is this a human being? It's okay to jump down this high! It's okay for people, it's okay for the ground!

Only a few people are left on the top of the building, Angela and Zhang Zhengyi, the two of them are priests. In this kind of battle, they do not fight for the advantage. They mainly ensure logistical supplies. The two are nurses in the game to protect the lives of soldiers in front of them. Yes, of course you can't rush to the front.

Angela is okay, he doesn't like fighting by nature, but Zhang Zhengyi is a little depressed. He also wants to go to battle to kill the enemy, but his career choice makes him only behind. Before the priesthood is advanced, he will suffer more in combat.

A group of people were excited, and rushed to realize that they were thinking too much.

The mage is very cool, but it's different when it's their turn. It's okay just to go up. It can kill two or three with a single sword, but it won't be hit. The scorpion keeps spraying venom. Helping people is very distressed.

If you don't hide, the poison will be powerful at first glance. If you spray it on your body, it will be troublesome. For a while, everyone's scalp numb. Who dares to try the poison, so just hide it!

This time the fighting festival was disrupted. A dozen people were very vigorous. The rumble of weapons was just a few of those who didn't kill them, and they fought and dodged the venom in a hurry.

The mutant scorpion is also very cunning. The tail swings and the venom splashes like rain. If it is accidentally sprayed, the venom will be sprayed. When the venom falls on the ground, it immediately screams, white smoke is rising from the ground, and small pits are corroded on the ground.

"Poisonous, shut up your breath!"

Smelling the smoke, everyone was dizzy and almost fainted. They hurriedly reminded each other and held their breaths, so that the poison gas did not collapse.

When Di Ping saw that this was not possible, the crowd couldn't kill a few of them after a while, and they were almost poisoned. He couldn't let these people suffer damage. He was originally to teach them a lesson, so that they don't know the severity, especially the few who just awakened in the base. personal.

Headed by Fatty, one by one, they felt terrible after changing jobs, a little ecstatic, and now just let them know some lessons.

Thinking of this, Di Ping and Gina confessed that the people floated down from the upper floor, landing lightly and silently, as if there was no weight.

Chapter 794: Strong opponents are not equivalent

"All back!"

Di Ping fell to the ground, his body kept leaping forward, learning to be a snake, his speed was so fast, he came to the crowd and stood still, then he shouted in a deep voice.

"Yes!"

Although everyone didn't know what Di Ping was going to do, Di Ping's prestige in everyone's hearts was too high to imagine. When he heard the order, he responded in unison, and then quickly leaped back.

Di Ping stood with his hands on his back, without even taking out his weapons, as if he was a tourist watching the scenery, leisurely and calmly.

"Uncle Gu, what are they doing?"

The four people standing on the statue were full of questions, and one of them asked the middle-aged man in a low voice.

"I don't know what he is doing?"

The middle-aged man named Uncle Gu also had obvious doubts on his face, and shook his head.

"I think it is looking for death. Faced with so many mutant scorpions, one person is either crazy or stupid. Even Chief Zhang dare not do this!"

The young woman among the four raised her eyebrows and whispered sarcastically.

"Hey, don't talk nonsense, others are saving us, you can't hurt others with words!"

Uncle Gu sank his face and looked up at the young woman and shouted in a low voice.

"Oh! I know Uncle Gu!"

Obviously, this Uncle Gu is very prestigious among the crowd. The young woman pouted and nodded at the end.

Not to mention that they have doubts, even Di Ping's men are also wondering at this time, what happened to Di Ping today, is it handsome?

But no one dared to say that Di Ping's strength has penetrated into their hearts, since he dared to do so, there must be a reason.

A dozen people quickly flew back, and the mutant scorpion was taken aback for a moment, then quickly crawled and charged towards Di Ping.

Soon quickly, the black sea tide spread over quickly, and it was in front of Di Pinyang in a blink of an eye.

Di Ping suddenly opened his eyes, cold light flashed in his eyes, qi and blood surged, his heart burst like a galloping horse, banging loudly, and the clothes all over his body suddenly rose without wind, and a powerful momentum suddenly rose.

The few people standing not far behind him felt a horrible aura pressure silently, like countless steel needles, their pores were a bit tingling, and everyone's complexion changed drastically, and they all stepped back to avoid Di Ping's aura.

The mutant scorpion group on the opposite side felt the most direct, and the black tide of terror stopped in an instant, as if time was static and stopped abruptly.

If you get close, you will find that all the scorpions are trembling, as if they are being pressed down by an invisible energy, and they can't move.

"dead!"

Suddenly Di Ping moved, he gave a low drink, and suddenly stepped forward.

boom.....

What kind of kick it was, everyone felt the ground move, as if the sky was cracking and the ground cracked, with a muffled roar on the ground.

Then everyone saw the horrible scene, and the four standing on the statue were even more stunned, and even forgot to breathe.

With this roar, thousands of mutant scorpions on the ground seemed to have been bounced by the elastic bed, and they bounced more than half a meter high.

Bang bang bang.....

Then it exploded like firecrackers, and thousands of mutant scorpions the size of crayfish broke instantly, as if countless green flowers bloomed.

When the green blood of all the mutant scorpion fragments scattered on the ground, everyone recovered, and for a while, the whole audience was breathing air-conditioning.

This is horrible?

Everyone knows that the city lord is powerful, but when the city lord is so strong, it is simply not a human being. This method is so suspicious of God.

Just a stomped foot, instantly killed thousands of mutant scorpions, how powerful this was, a dozen of them were tired to death, but they killed more than a hundred.

It is Gina and Yun Mengsi, the two masters who have the advantage of professional battle. They tried their best to kill half of them, but the lord only used one kick?

A kick?

It was too exaggerated. Everyone looked at the horrible scene with stunned faces, and stopped thinking for a while.

Chapter 795: Cunning giant scorpion sets a trap

Di Ping didn't care about everyone's exclamation, he closed his eyes and slowly felt his kick just now.

In fact, he didn't expect to cause such a result, he was just testing his own ideas, right.

After Bengquan Jin reached the third level, he became more and more experienced in the use of power, and the control of power was more arbitrary.

During this period of cultivation, he found that he knew too superficially about the third layer of Jin. The reason why he could easily reach it was that his physique was too good. After repeated scouring of the system, his strength far exceeded that of the same level. Martial artist, also practiced Tiger Spirit Art, which allowed him to quickly cultivate to the third level of strength.

But this kind of cultivation is rough, and he hasn't mastered many details, but during this period of cultivation, he can see more deep-seated power applications.

The result of today's trial satisfied him, and it also surprised him.

The effect caused was too amazing. Only then did he understand that the martial artist reached a certain level of offensive power so terrible, and the destructive power that could be achieved was not worse than that of the mage.

He didn't even think about it, how much his power reached?

The force of more than 20,000 catties is more than ten tons. How terrifying is under a single blow. Coupled with the use of his energy, these mutant scorpions are just a little stronger, and the powerful shock is transmitted to them. These little guys are basically Unable to fight it, Shengsheng shattered his body.

"Gu....Uncle Gu, is this...is this still a human?"

The young man next to Uncle Gu stared wide, and stammered as if he saw a ghost.

"what!"

The young girl who had just spoken badly screamed and hurriedly covered her mouth.

"He is terrible, he is much stronger than Chief Zhang!"

A young man beside the young woman swallowed his saliva and said in a harsh voice.

"City Lord, you are too good, can you teach me this trick!"

The fat man ran over with a look of amazement, looked at the wreckage, smashed his mouth, and exclaimed.

"Go! You are the fat guy who wants to learn the trick of the city lord. Let's practice for another ten years!"

Liu Han rushed up with a look of contempt, squeezed the fat man aside, and looked at Di Ping with a flat smile:

"City Lord, see if I can learn it!"

Just as soon as he finished speaking, he was grabbed by the fat man and held him back. The fat man twisted his mouth aside and said with contempt:

"Hehe! I haven't found anyone daring to squeeze with the fat man, Liu Han, you are the first one, are you brave?"

Liu Han was obviously weaker than the fat guy in strength, and he didn't get rid of even after shaking it a few times, but he was not convinced by his mouth and cursed:

"Hey! You fat man, you have the ability to let go of your Master Liu, let's practice! What a good guy to attack behind!"

These two live treasures, as soon as they got together, kept arguing. Fatty has found his opponent now. Liu Han is not a fuel-saving lamp, and that mouth never suffers.

Di Ping was too lazy to care about them and allowed them to mess around, but some people were unwilling, and Boogie stepped forward to separate the two and shouted in a deep voice:

"Okay! Don't delay things, quickly pick up the crystal nucleus, and transfer it later, it will be dangerous if it takes a long time!"

The two hurriedly said "Oh!" and hurriedly went to clean up the crystal core.

Fatty, Liu Han is obviously still afraid of Boogie. Boogie is their instructor. In the previous training, they abused the two. Boogie's sexuality is fierce and grumpy. The underground race solves all problems with fists, so he has been dealing with problems. They are simple and rude.

These awakened people in the base mentioned that Boogie had no scalp numbness. He guided the practice to not die but also peeled off the skin. If you are not obedient, you will be obedient.

Recruiting heroes are already collecting crystal nuclei without ordering. This is a good thing for the top and the bottom. Di Ping collects the crystal nucleus, so the following people are the most active to collect the crystal nucleus every battle.

"You all come down!"

Di Ping didn't care about the crowd collecting the crystal nuclei. He looked up at the statue and smiled slightly.

Chapter 796: Human scorpion fight against the enemy

"Xia Gu Xing, thank you hero for saving your life!"

The four people came down from the statue one after another, and the middle-aged man walked quickly to Di Pinyang, thanking him with excitement.

"No thanks for the hard work!"

Di Ping looked at Gu Xing who was grateful, and smiled slightly.

"Should...should...not a hero shot, today we are going to die on the spot"

Gu Xing hurriedly waved his hand.

"Don't call me a hero, just call me Di Ping, Mr. Gu!"

Di Ping smiled slightly.

"How can it be, it's not suitable!"

Gu Xing shook his head again and again, somewhat cautiously.

"Ok, deal!"

Di Ping steadfastly interrupted Gu Xing's words, and continued to pull like this forever.

"Oh! What a shame!"

Gu Xing saw that Di Ping was unwilling to talk more about this issue, he was not insisting either, and nodded with a wry smile.

"Mr. Gu, why are you here?"

Di Ping didn't want to talk more, the topic changed.

When Gu Xing heard Di Ping's question, his body was shocked, he sighed, and said bitterly:

"Oh! A word is hard to say!"

After Gu Xing told the matter, Di Ping understood their identities.

Gu Xing is a policeman. After the end of the world, he did not move with the provincial government. He stayed to protect his family. He took his family and gathered many people into the underground air-raid shelter in Denton Department Store Plaza in the city center.

There is plenty of food and air defense facilities. The thick iron gates protected them from the initial safety and survived the initial crisis.

Everyone hid here, it was okay at first, but later it didn't work.

After all, thousands of people gathered here, and some people were added later. The number reached two thousand at one time. The consumption of so many people is terrible.

In the department store base, there are mostly some retail foods, and there are not many stocks such as rice noodles. Such foods are difficult to satisfy the hunger, so more than ten days later, food shortages appeared.

In the end, the base organized a food hunting team to look for food outside to supply the consumption in the base.

But how dangerous the outside world is, only after passing through them did they realize that searching for food has become a path of no return, and nearly five hundred people disappeared in the process of searching for food.

The survivors are afraid to go out anymore. The outside is too dangerous. Going out is almost a dead end. The crisis facing the base is getting bigger and bigger, and the surrounding food is almost searched. They have to go further. Place, who dares to go now.

Gu Xing couldn't do it, and he didn't want to go, but there was his wife and children in the base. In the end, he couldn't. He had to lead the team out.

When they found the mall here, they didn't want to think that this place had become a scorpion den. They were chased out by these mutant scorpions when they entered the mall, and then they met Di Ping.

Through chat, Di Ping got an important message.

It was in this Denton gathering place that there was an Awakener who was still very strong. Those who practiced ancient martial arts in the past have greatly increased their strength after awakening. It was he who led everyone to survive and became the leader of the base. People are extremely chivalrous. Every time he desperately finds food to feed more than a thousand people in the base. If it weren't for him, more than a thousand people would have starved to death. Hearing Di Ping would also feel respect. This kind of person is stupid. But it is also worthy of admiration.

This person's name is Zhang Hengcheng, who is known by the people of the base as the violent boxing, practicing ancient Wu Xingyiquan. Once the attack is extremely fierce, many mutant animals are usually beaten to death with his boxing.

This made Di Ping suddenly become interested in this person. This was the third time he had encountered the Awakened. It seemed that there were more and more Awakened on Earth, not just in his base.

"City Lord, a total of more than 1,200 crystal nuclei have been collected!"

After Di Pinggang and Gu Xian finished talking, Yue Lie came over with a bag.

"so small!"

Di Ping took the bag and saw that it was a lot smaller than the mutant crystal nucleus he had hunted before, not even one-third as large as a soybean.

He was slightly disappointed. Nearly 10,000 mutant scorpions had just such crystal nuclei. It seemed that there were not many crystal coins that could be exchanged at this time, only a few hundred at most, which is far from more than 1,000!

"Mr. Gu, let's find a place to rest first, we can't stay here for long!"

Di Ping took the bag and put it into the backpack, turning around and said to Gu Xing and his party.

"Boom boom boom..."

As soon as his words fell, Gu Xing was about to answer, when suddenly there was a bang in the mall, and a strong vibration came from the ground, as if it was an earthquake.

Chapter 797: Crazy battle is really good

"What's the matter, is there an earthquake?"

Liu Han stared in surprise and exclaimed.

"Whether the earthquake can do this! Maybe the mall is about to collapse!"

The fat man said irritably.

Everyone turned their eyes to the direction of the mall. They were all curious about what was going on. No one ran away scared. Each of these people was bolder than the other. Gu Xing was a little scared when they fell, but seeing these people did not move, they Still not moving.

Di Ping felt unusual. He actually had a sense of uncertainty. The direction of this voice was faintly coerced, and it seemed that there was a powerful and terrifying existence coming out of the ground.

It's definitely not a little guy that something is so powerful and can make such a big noise. Di Ping is actually a little excited.

He was eager to fight. Although several extreme battles were almost dead, his strength grew rapidly, which made him gradually fall in love with this feeling.

He is different from others, he upgrades directly every time, and then he only needs to gradually become familiar with the power of this level, without a little accumulation, so he can best integrate the increased power with himself in the battle.

Of course, he would not be so stupid that he knew that an invincible fool had to go forward, a terrifying mutant beast like the Komodo dragon, he would still run far and far.

He was waiting. He now has strong soldiers and strong horses. Even if the powerful mutant beasts, he dared to touch them, so he decided to stay.

"The strange beast from the master is very powerful!"

At this time, Boogie walked to Di Ping and said softly with a serious expression.

As an underground race, Buji is most sensitive to the breath of alien beasts. He already felt the strength of alien beasts, so he reminded Di Ping the first time.

"I know, pay attention, and follow the order later!"

Di Ping nodded to indicate that he knew it, and then his eyes swept toward the crowd and said solemnly.

"Yes!"

Everyone should be in unison.

Boom boom boom...

The rumbling sound approached, as if a tank was rampaging in a shopping mall, breaking the walls and banging.

"Go away first and find a place to hide!"

Di Ping felt the stronger and stronger momentum, and he said to Gu Xing's group with a serious expression.

"Good! Good!"

Among the four, the young woman named He Zhi had already paled with fright. Had it not been for Gu Xing and the others, she would have ran away, and immediately answered Di Ping's words.

"Xiao He!"

Gu Xing glared at He Zhi sternly, and feeling Gu Xing's anger, He Zhi hurriedly lowered his head.

"That..... Okay!"

After reprimanding He Zhi, Gu Xing groaned for a while, feeling that he could not help here, so he nodded in frustration, then looked at Di Ping and said, "Mr. Di, pay attention to safety!"

Seeing Gu Xing and his party walking away quickly, hiding in a shop on the other side of the square and watching secretly, they didn't just leave without being unreasonable.

Di Ping's heart moved, and the ghost face slicing saber appeared in his hand, the long blade gleaming with the cold light in the sun, and his eyes looked sharp at the exit of the mall.

All the members of the Castle Guards also drew out their weapons, ready to deal with the coming of the crisis, and everyone was faintly excited, longing for a hearty battle.

Boom boom boom...

With a bang, the cement wall of the mall suddenly burst open, and countless masonry shot out, and a huge hole appeared in the entire wall.

"Good rub! What a big scorpion!"

Liu Han screamed with staring eyes.

Not only was he screaming, almost everyone was shocked, it was indeed a big scorpion.

I saw a huge black scorpion rushed out of the large hole in the damaged wall of the shopping mall. It was one meter, three to four meters high and nearly five meters long. The slender three to four meters long scorpion hook stood tall behind him. , The sharp tail needle of the blue barking knew that the toxicity was extremely terrible.

Two huge scorpion claws, like steel tongs of an excavator, were quickly gripping, making a toothless steel clash.

You don't need to try to know that if you are clamped by this pair of large pliers, you have to break your body, and everyone will have a tingling scalp.

Chapter 798: Tianwei is in a panic

Di Ping is also tingling his scalp. Such mutant beasts are the most difficult to deal with. Not only do you have to deal with its pair of large steel tongs, you also have to guard against the mysterious scorpion tail behind the giant scorpion.

It is extremely poisonous. Before the end of the world, this scorpion poison is very powerful, and it will definitely be even more terrifying after the mutation. If it is stabbed by it, it will either die or be injured.

I played a small one just now, and now the old one is here, and it is still very powerful.

"Prepare to fight, warriors, barbarians come forward, mage shooters attack, the priesthood pay attention to protection!"

As soon as the mutant giant rushed out of the mall, it stared at Di Ping and his group with its fist-sized scarlet eyes.

"hiss....."

It seems that he saw the remains of the descendants of one place, the mutant giant scorpion raised his hair and made a harsh neighing, and the sound was sharp and piercing, and the eardrum of the shaking person was in pain.

"Mutated Emperor Scorpion: Bloodline Level: a, Talent Skills: Steel Armor, Strengthening Level: First Tier Nine, Skills: Venom Jet, Hammering, weak ancient blood, violent personality, powerful combat power, high danger level!"

Using a probing skill to see the giant scorpion's information clearly, Di Ping cursed in his heart that this was the wicked man who smoked. Something is not easy to raise. If it is not a scorpion to play with, this thing mutates and kills.

The emperor scorpion, native to the open savanna and tropical jungles of western and central Africa, is not only one of the largest scorpions in the world, but also a very well-known pet scorpion in the pet scorpion around the world. Because of its weak Toxic, fierce personality and domineering appearance, it is a very popular classic pet.

Di Ping didn't expect that there were people in the country raising this thing. Damn it, this emperor scorpion had a trace of ancient blood, and after apocalyptic mutation, it grew into such a terrifying monster.

However, when there was no nonsense at this time, he wanted to try the fighting power of this giant scorpion.

"Pay attention to defense and follow my instructions!"

Di Ping yelled, and with a sword war in his hand, the whole person suddenly leaped forward like a snake shadow, and the speed was extremely fast, pulling out the afterimages.

The mutant emperor scorpion rolled over towards Di Ping like a tank, waving two giant steel tongs, and smashed towards Di Ping who was rushing over.

Before the strong wind whistling, the giant tongs brought the strong wind and whistling down towards Di Ping. Just feel the vibration in the air to know how powerful this force is. If it is smashed into meatloaf, how can Di Ping Let it hit.

"court death!"

Di Ping's eyes were cold, and his body suddenly stopped. He kicked the ground and flew up in the air. He lifted the saber knife high, holding the knife in both hands, as if falling from a nine-day star, with an astonishing aura, toward the mutant emperor Scorpion. Chopped down.

The light of Senhan's knife flashed a dazzling light and shadow in the sky. At this time, the knife could not see clearly there, and the whole eyes were full of light.

"when....."

With a terrifying sound, Di Ping's sword was slashing on the steel clamp that the mutant emperor scorpion greeted.

The Emperor Scorpion reacted quickly. Di Ping didn't expect that his foolproof knife would be blocked by him. At the intersection of the knife and pliers, a spark flew.

The powerful counter-shock force bounced Di Ping's saber high, and Di Ping's body volleyed out.

With a bang, he retreated five or six steps in a row before Di Ping stood firm, his chest churned with blood, and almost no blood came out.

The mutant emperor Yi Scorpion was also uncomfortable. Its strength was not much stronger than Di Ping. Its body was cut down by Di Ping's powerful knife. The whole body seemed to be pushed back by a huge force for five or six meters .

The steel-like claws made several deep marks on the ground, and a white mark appeared on its pitch-black giant tongs, which was cut out by Di Ping.

Chapter 799: The result of Crazy Battle

"City Lord!"

When everyone saw Di Ping being shocked back, they suddenly exclaimed and were about to rush forward.

"It's okay! No need to come up!"

Di Ping waved his hand to stop everyone from coming forward. He shook his numb arm, and a smile of excitement appeared on his face. He waved his long knife and let out a long whistle: "Cool!"

Then he slammed on the ground, a painful whine from the ground, and his people had rushed up again.

This blow aroused Di Ping's intent to fight. This is the fight. It is evenly matched, and the fight is interesting.

Just now, even though Di Ping's arms were numb and blood was tumbling, but at the same time, it made him feel that the hidden power in his body seemed to be activated again, giving him a sense of impulse not to fight.

hiss.....

The mutant emperor scorpion was also a little stunned by Di Ping's blow. It was not injured, but it was actually repelled. The violent emperor scorpion looked at the rushing Di Ping and suddenly became angry. It hissed wildly. Waving steel tongs to welcome Di Ping.

"Fusion Skill: Flame Strengthen, Slash!"

Di Ping suddenly shook his saber in his hand, and flames surged from the saber knife, and the blade turned red, like burning steel, with flames attached to it.

Hum.....

The sword buzzed, and it was faster this time. The sword seemed to be a shooting star across the sky, leaving a trace of flame burning in the sky, with a faint smoke tail, as if the air was burned by high temperature.

when.....

There was another tremor, and the saber was bounced from Lao Gao and buzzed.

Di Ping flew back five or six meters again, his face was flushed abnormally, his chest was fluctuating, as if he was injured, but his eyes brightened.

hiss....

The Emperor Scorpion neighed again, and although Di Ping was repelled by the blow just now, a deep knife mark was left on its steel clamp.

The knife mark was about an inch deep, and the flames burned on it in pitch black, but it didn't hurt the inside. The steel tongs were too hard and too thick, and it didn't even cut it with a single knife.

The mutant scorpion was angry. Although this knife hurt it, the powerful force passed from it was to numb the limbs that shook it. It neighed angrily, and used its pair of large steel tongs to hammer the ground madly. It roared like an earthquake.

"Big guy come again!"

Di Ping contemptuously picked his finger at the mutant emperor scorpion.

"I wipe it!"

Suddenly Di Ping felt a powerful energy explode in front of him, his face suddenly changed, his steps were repeated, his body was like a flowing snake, shooting more than ten meters horizontally.

Then he saw that where he was standing, in front of the mutant giant scorpion, the ground suddenly exploded like a bomb, and cement bricks splashed around.

If he hides a step late, he cannot be injured by this powerful force. Once he is injured, no one can suppress the mutant giant scorpion.

This scorpion is so insidious that he actually knows how to paralyze himself. If he hadn't read the information before and knew that it had the ability to hammer, but he didn't expect the attack skills similar to seismic waves to almost capsize in the gutter.

"Again!"

The mutant emperor scorpion just froze for a moment. It didn't seem that Di Ping would have escaped so quickly, but it did not give up. Suddenly its body moved, and the scorpion tail about four or five meters long behind it stabbed Di Ping at once.

The speed was terrifying, and a blue needle shadow was drawn in the air, and a sharp wind howled unexpectedly, which pierced Di Ping's chest.

Seeing the scorpion tail attacking like a steel spine, even Di Ping changed color.

This speed is too fast to give myself time to react. Lan Wangwang's steel scorpion-like scorpion needle has been seen extremely clearly.

Chapter 800: Cunning poisonous scorpion steals poison

"Snaking"

Di Ping took a step, his body flashed more than one meter away, and he narrowly avoided the Emperor Scorpion's scorpion tail.

boom.....

The scorpion tail pierced his chest with a strong wind, and there was a violent sound, and the scorpion tail steel needle plunged into the ground with a crisp sound, and the gravel flew away, and a deep hole appeared in the ground with a strong toxin. A puff of white smoke rose from the burning ground.

Di Ping secretly cried out that it was dangerous. If he hadn't learned the snake walking method, his dodge speed had increased a lot, he would have to be injured just now.

"cut!"

However, it was only a momentary change of mind, and his fighting consciousness was already very strong in many battles. Seeing the scorpion tail, pierced into the ground, he swung his knife towards the scorpion tail for the first time.

If you can sever the emperor's scorpion tail, then half of its combat power will be removed, so you don't need to be afraid of his poison, you can concentrate on fighting with it.

The sword swept across, a shadow of the blade flashed, and it cut straight to the scorpion tail, just about to hit the scorpion tail, and suddenly Di Ping found that the scorpion tail was moving.

The speed was so fast that when he was about to touch his sword, the scorpion tail was taken away. It was only one step away. This step caused all this to come back without success, even faster than his own speed, Di Ping secretly smacked Tongue, this scorpion tail is too flexible!

The scorpion tail retracted, and the steel tongs of the Emperor Scorpion came again, hammering down towards Di Ping, as if a mountain was pressing on the top, coming with a strong wind, and Di Ping felt that the sky was dark, and the surrounding wind pressure pressed him. , His pores hurt by the strong force.

"hide!"

Di Ping didn't dare to face it hard. The steel pliers of this guy looked like two sledgehammers. They looked absolutely heavy and heavy, and the power of the mutant scorpion was not smaller than that of him. To gain the advantage, he must be injured to block himself, he can only hide.

boom....

With a loud noise, the steel tongs hit the ground like a heavy hammer, and the ground shook for a while, and countless splashes of rubble flew out like bullets, hitting Di Ping who had just flashed out, and it was painful. It can be seen how fast.

Is it mine?

Everyone who stood not far away watched the battle, and there was a look of horror in their eyes. This hammered ground was hammered into a large pit two meters wide and tens of centimeters deep. The thick concrete floor in the pit was all shattered, as if it were Smashed by a meteorite.

"Crazy Wave Knife Technique·First Style, Breeze and Drizzle"

Di Ping was also angry, and was chased by the mutant emperor scorpion, which made him very frustrated, and used his strongest moves in a rage.

Hum.....

The long knife trembles and buzzes, and the entire square seems to be the sound of waves. The waves pat on the shore, the sound seems to be there and it seems to be far away, and it is not real.

The sword was lifted by Di Ping, and his aura began to rise, his blood rushing like a horse, his heart like a drum, banging, and his muscles and bones burst into bursts.

"hiss....."

The mutant emperor scorpion also felt Di Ping's aura rising, as if he felt threatened, and even stopped with a neigh, raising two big steel tongs to stare at Di Ping vigilantly.

Two auras that were so powerful that they were heart-palpitng suddenly collided between a person and a beast, as if in reality, an invisible wave occurred between the two, and Qi Jin suddenly rushed to the surroundings.

"The City Lord is so strong!"

Everyone was shocked by this powerful aura and backed away, with a strong horror in their eyes. The city lord's strength was beyond their imagination, and he and others could be repelled by the momentum alone.

The momentum continued to rise, as if accumulated to the limit. Suddenly Di Ping moved and rushed towards the Emperor Scorpion. He waved his saber in his hand, and he cut out countless knives in an instant.

The cold light exploded in the sky, and the blade light seemed to turn into an endless wave and rolled straight toward the mutant emperor scorpion.

The mutant scorpion also moved, and two huge steel tongs approached Di Ping with a fierce wind.

One person and one beast collided at high speed, and then everyone felt that the sky was quiet, and then countless sparks flew like iron flowers, and then a violent wind hit like a violent tornado, and the shaking everyone backed again. .

boom.....

Then a series of explosions sounded, and the rapid steel humming, like a continuous explosion of thunder in the sky, the ears of the people shook, almost deaf.
