

Doomsday 80

Chapter 80: Base rescue is tender and seductive

At this time, Di Ping, who was sober, suddenly felt a pain all over his body, and the pain became clearer and stronger, as if every muscle was being torn apart. The intense pain made Di Ping's teeth involuntary. Trembling with a creak.

"boom"

The mineral water in Di Ping's hand was squeezed by him, and the water splashed everywhere, but he didn't feel it at all. The waves of pain that were stronger than waves made him lose his awareness of the outside world. The hands clenched by the pain creaked straight, and the blue veins on the arms bulged, like strong tree roots knotted around the arms.

"Ok...."

A muffled hum was squeezed out between Di Ping's clenched teeth, and the sweat on his head poured out in an instant, and it dripped from his forehead, and the clothes that were originally stained with blood became soggy.

"Master, what's wrong with you?"

Gina also found out that Di Ping's state was wrong, and hurriedly stepped forward to support Di Ping, whose body was trembling and shaking, with concern in his eyes. At this time, Di Ping heard Gina's voice but didn't even have the strength to speak. He didn't dare to loosen his clenched teeth. He was afraid that once he loosened it, he could not help but scream in pain.

Gina helped Di Ping feel that his body, which was constantly trembling due to the intense pain, seemed to understand something. After a moment of sinking, his right hand stretched out, and suddenly a white light appeared in his hand, like a light bulb glowing white. Gina's white fingers are more tender and dazzling.

The white light gathered and thickened, as if it was a cloud of white mist. It seemed to feel the same. Only then did Gina gently press the palm of her hand on Di Ping's chest. The white light seemed to have found the entrance and began to sink into Di Ping's body quickly.

Bai Guang kept entering Di Ping's body, and his whole person immediately shook, and his brows that had been distorted by the pain began to relax slowly, and his expressions also calmed down, not so distorted.

He suddenly felt that his body, which was about to collapse, felt a cool air. This coolness was like the breeze of a spring morning blowing over his body. It was like a gentle wave hitting the beach, and the movement was so relaxing and gentle. , As warm as a lover's finger, every time she passed her torn beating muscles, she was quickly calmed down, and the pain slowly disappeared.

Seeing Di Ping's stretched brows, Gina finally showed a hint of joy. His magical calmness was originally able to restore magic and vitality, and had a certain therapeutic effect, and it could also improve people's spirit and purify negative states.

Based on Di Ping's painful state just now and the soothing expression after undergoing magical treatment, she knew what Di Ping was doing.

The coolness came quickly, and it went quickly, but after ten seconds or so, it disappeared after flowing through the whole body. The pain immediately rushed up like a tide. Di Ping couldn't hold back for a while, and he let out a painful grunt.

Gina's palm flashed again, and the holy white light pierced Di Ping's body as if it were spiritual. As the white light entered the body, Di Ping's brows were soothed again, and Gina cast a calm breath four times in a row. Di Ping was relieved from the pain, but Gina was sweating profusely, and her body began to tremble slightly.

She has lost a lot of mental power in the killing mutant dog group just now, and now she has forcibly cast five spells, her weak mental power is no longer enough to support, she has reached the limit, not supported by willpower , She had fallen down long ago.

"Okay Gina! I'm fine!"

Di Ping felt that the pain was not so obvious anymore. He could bear it completely. He watched Gina frowning again, with big eyes, shaking hands and preparing to cast the fifth spell. He grabbed Gina's palm and stopped Gina. At this moment, Gina, whose vision was already blurred, his heart was full of touch, and his hand gently pulled Gina's messy hair away, and gently wiped the sweat from her forehead.

"Master, you terrified Gina!"

Gina couldn't support it anymore, her body slowly leaned against Di Ping's arms, her eyes looked at Di Ping tenderly, her voice soft and weak, as if she was tired to say every word.

Di Ping felt sorry for a while, hugging Gina's soft body, smelling the fragrance of Ruoruuowu, but at this time, there was only love for Gina in his heart, no distractions, half holding Gina, slowly Go to the sofa that fell to the ground by the wall, pick up the sofa with one foot and put it back in place, and then let Gina sit down and let her rest on the sofa.

"Gina, take a break! Don't worry, I'm fine!"

Di Ping whispered in Gina's ear, and brushed Gina's head comfortingly.

"Good host!"

Gina nodded obediently, and then slowly sat cross-legged on the sofa and began to adjust her breath. In fact, the roots of her ears were already red at this time, but they were buried in the black robe and Di Ping couldn't see it. She liked the master's gentleness very much. Concern, this made her feel very comfortable, and it also made her very shy, so she had to use her breath adjustment to calm her agitated mood.

Seeing Gina cross-legged to adjust her breath, Di Ping stood up again, took out his broken sword from the ground, and sighed long!

This Han sword that accompanied him from birth to death finally came to an end. Although this Han sword could not keep up with his own progress, he was a nostalgic person, and looked at the broken Han Jian with a bit of reluctance.

Putting down his heart, Di Ping walked to the corpse of the mutant Tibetan mastiff and started to look for the crystal nucleus on the head of the Tibetan mastiff that had been smashed by him with a broken sword. Bai Ruo Ningzhi exudes a mysterious and soft light. This jade bead is magical. There is no trace of blood on the flesh and blood. It is like a white jade lotus that is not stained with mud, and it is holy and can not be removed.
