

Doomsday 86

Chapter 86: The mission is completed

Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang's eyes met again, and both of them thought in their hearts that they were so powerful young people, and they were a little unhappy in their hearts.

Although they had opinions on Ge Zhongping, they were also members of the same party after all, and they were both high-ranking officials who followed him.

Even though people are strong this year, they don't give themselves the face of waiting for others. They sit on the main seat without saying a word. Don't such a strong person know whether it is a blessing or a curse to the base?

However, the two sighed, and their hearts were dark, have they forgotten by others?

They were chased by mutant animals like bereaved dogs, and escaped into this underground shopping mall. However, they were trapped underground by mutant dogs for a few days. Their lives could be lost at any time, so they could talk about their rights.

They are all very smart people, seeing the giant mutant Tibetan mastiff that is so powerful that people are desperate, and the powerful and mysterious power of Gina and Di Ping.

This makes them feel that this world may have changed!

Those who have become strong respect the weak and feed on the weak and become more cruel and naked. If they don't change their mentality, they may also be eliminated.

These two people can be said to be very savvy people who can climb to this position, and they can turn into ghosts if they don't sound plucked hair. You can understand the key point after a little thought.

At this moment, both seemed to know what to do, and the two looked at each other with a smile and calmly sat down to find a seat.

Di Ping is not too powerful. He did this for a purpose today. If he wants to take control of the base, he must have reliable people. Now there is no one under him, only Yue Lie and Liu Han. The egg doesn't play much role at all, and none of these people can deal with them. It will be difficult to gain absolute authority without suppressing them.

Just sitting in the main seat just now, I just want to see everyone's reaction to see if these people understand that the world has changed. The strong is respected. Without power, it can only be reduced to food. When you see Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang calmly sitting down, he was overjoyed, knowing that some of these people understood.

Most people already showed discomfort on their faces, but they were shocked by the strength of Di Ping, and the mysterious black-robed beauty who had been following him all the time. They didn't want to become black carbon like a mutant dog, but their faces were not good.

But still no one dared to object, they took their seats one after another, and some people did not respond and had already found a seat.

Most of these people are members of Lu Guoliang's faction, and this faction itself doesn't account for much discourse in this base, so they have no opinion on who sits in the lead.

You have to say that both Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang understand why Ge Zhongping, an old officialdom fried dough stick, didn't know what Di Ping meant.

This is not a complaint. It should be said that Ge Zhongping's political wisdom is higher than Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang, otherwise he will not quickly take the leadership of the base.

But today he has been neglected and suppressed by Di Ping, losing face, his heart is full of anger, and he can't calm down and think. At this time, he has been thinking about how to find opportunities to kill this arrogant young man. Think of something else?

Especially during this period of time, enjoying the power of dominance brings me different feelings. The beauty asks and asks for him. The woman can easily get it with just a little food. Without the suppression of the rules before the end of the world, he who wants to enjoy it is like poisoning. I like this feeling so much, but now Di Ping wants to take away his rights, how willing to be, it can be said that his mind is completely filled with desire, how can he sink his heart to think about other things.

Di Ping sat in the first seat and closed his eyes slightly. He was really tired from the first battle. He was still exposed to many problems in the battle. His strength was much stronger than the mutant Tibetan mastiff, but he was disgraced and his long sword was too bad. It was broken, and there are many issues worth thinking about.

He rested in the sand and summarized the post-war gains and losses, Gina stood behind him, a pair of blue eyes gleaming from the black robe from time to time, scanning everyone present.

The high-ranking class of the base that was sitting down was a little dumbfounded. If there was such a situation, he closed his eyes and took a rest, leaving himself and others here.

Only seeing this young man covered in blood, and the mysterious beautiful woman behind him, no one dared to move, and could only sit there and wait, no one dared to speak first.

Ge Zhongping lit a cigarette and approached the sofa, and then spit out a puff of smoke, hiding his face in the smoke, not knowing what he was thinking, Han Zhongguo Lu Guoliang once again smiled bitterly at each other, and then took out the cigarettes. .

This time it's not that Di Ping deliberately cooled them down, but Di Ping just closed his eyes and wanted to slow down. He thought that it would take a few seconds to sum up, but he did not expect that there was a system voice in his mind. .

"Di...the rescue mission is completed, 500 crystal coins are obtained, and a handle of a black gold war knife"

"Di····Get system equipment and enable backpack function"

"Di...open the backpack and get 50 squares of the backpack, and the Ujin sword has been put in the backpack to occupy one space!"

A series of beeps came to Di Ping's mind. Only then did he remember that this rescue is a mission. Now the system prompts that the mission is complete. Not only did he get 500 coins, but he also got a Ujin war knife. His long sword was just right. Broken, this Wujin sword is sending carbon in the snow, it came too timely.

But what excites him most is that he actually turned on the backpack system. This is a magical object. With it, he no longer needs to carry a bag and shake it everywhere.
