

Doomsday 89

Chapter 89: The shocking mentality of evil

Tens of thousands of people gathered in this piece. People trampled and squeezed each other. For a while, there were countless deaths and injuries. The crocodile seemed to be a wild horse running out of its rein. Rampage, * wind everywhere.

At this time, the mutant animals that had been waiting all around were also culled, including mutant dogs, mutant rats, mutant cats, mutant snakes, etc., as well as mutant tigers, mutant leopards and other large beasts!

Human beings are running around like a little chicken being chased. At this time, they hate their parents for giving birth to a leg.

How did people run past these mutant animals? Thousands of people immediately fell under the mouth of the mutant animal, and countless people died under the giant mouth of the mutant crocodile. The blood stained the whole land and the blood flowed into the lake. The entire lake was stained red, and at this time the lake also began to churn, thousands of mutant fish vying for the human corpses that fell into the lake.

For a while, it was like being in purgatory, screaming, roaring, chewing, and the roar of the beast was full of blood and stumps.

The * horror of the whole scene is unimaginable, even when Di Ping, who heard people talk about it at this time, could feel the horror of * blood.

Speaking of this, the entire conference room was quiet, and many people were trembling, as if they were still in the environment at the time, unable to extricate themselves.

These people were all in the forefront at the time, and they ran out of the crowd as soon as the incident happened, avoiding the attacks of the mutant animals, and then gathered in this base to linger.

They have also seen the tragic situation at the time. The army's bullets were of no use to the big crocodile. A tank fired only two shots but could not penetrate the crocodile's scales. The giant crocodile had not fired the third round. Pounced on and slapped it into a partial ba.

The army had to retreat as soon as it saw the situation. Some people followed the army and evacuated quickly. Most of them were killed or ran out by chance.

They are also considered lucky. They have stolen the siege of mutant animals and entered this underground base. Many other people have no such luck.

After listening to these, Di Ping also took a deep breath. He felt that his chest was so heavy that he seemed to have difficulty breathing. He could not imagine how tragic it would be at that time.

But you don't need to think about it and know what the situation will be like when an accident happens. There are so many crowded and trampled people, they can't run, and crocodiles are crushing around like road rollers. It's really lucky to be able to run out. Up.

According to Han Zhongguo's description, the number of casualties on the spot should be more than 10,000. Most of the people dispersed and I don't know if they could survive. Thousands of people evacuated with the military, but they just failed to keep up and had to stay underground. Hidden in the mall.

Di Ping squeezed his fist fiercely, feeling extremely sad and indignant. The human race will be so weak after the end of the world. In front of these mutant animals, they will become slaughtered targets. There is no strength to fight back, and they can only watch. One by one was brutally murdered.

Although he is not a compassionate saint, what he has seen and heard hurts him and made him more determined to increase his strength to save more human beliefs, and fight for the survival of these last-day struggling human beings. He has to work harder for it.

Originally, he just wanted to increase his strength, find his parents, rescue them, and then provide his relatives and friends with a safe place to live.

But with the powerful help of the system, he had everything he experienced in the last days, which slowly changed his mentality. He decided not only to provide safe living conditions for his relatives and friends, but also a kind of ambition. Your own castle becomes a sacred place to protect mankind, allowing more people to get a chance to survive.

The atmosphere in the entire conference room is silent and scary. Everyone, whether it is evil or evil, is silent at this time. The sadness and despair on each face are not artificial. In fact, there are all kinds of sadness, I don't know. How much longer can I live longer than others in this last days.

"Boom"

Suddenly there was a knock on the door, which shocked everyone in the silence, and saw that the door was pushed open from the outside, and Lu Hai walked in with a sweat, which brought everyone out of the silence. Woke up, some people rushed to wipe the tears from the corners of their eyes secretly.

"Mr. Di, the meat is all stewed, do you want to go see it?"

Lu Hai learned well this time, instead of looking at Ge Zhongping, he looked directly at Di Ping and said respectfully.

"Haha! Great, I can smell the scent a long time ago, let's take a look!"

Di Ping put down the teacup in his hand that had been drunk and laughed and stood up to invite Han Zhongguo.

Hearing what Di Ping said, everyone also hurriedly got up, their noses kept twitching, don't tell me, the door was closed just now, everyone didn't smell anything, and now the door was opened by land and sea, and it was stewed. The smell of meat rushed into the room, and the room was suddenly filled with attractive aromas.

"Haha! It's so fragrant, let's try it too! Xiaodi, please!"

Han Zhongguo's roaring laughter sounded again, clapping his hands in applause, and people had already stood up and reached out to ask Di Pingdao.

"Haha! Okay, go together!"

Di Ping also did his part. He laughed and walked out first. Lu Hai hurried out to lead the way. A group of people behind followed him. Ge Zhongping fell behind again, his face gloomy, watching Di Ping and a group of people's background faces flashing. Yinyin sneer.
