

DOOMSDAY SANCTUARY

Chapter 9: Hard to walk in the last days

Di Pingxin carefully checked the map again. He used to walk these roads a lot before. He was familiar with it, and there shouldn't be any mistakes. Then he retracted his eyes and nodded at Wang Delin, indicating that he was OK.

"Is everyone here?" Wang Delin asked Di Ping, nodding his head, turning around and looking around.

"Everyone is here!" At this moment, the white-faced middle-aged man who opened the door to Di Ping yesterday replied with a glance at a paper with densely packed names in his hand.

"Good to go!" Wang Delin waved vigorously, then looked at Di Ping and the four "I hope some brothers have worked hard to lead the way!"

Di Ping didn't answer, but just nodded and took the lead to walk out. Chen Gang was still the same, with open eyebrows and nodding while smiling, but Li Sheng and the migrant worker Luo were expressionless and looked at Wang Delin. Just follow Di Ping and walk out.

The four of Di Ping went downstairs first, and looked around carefully. They finally found that something was wrong, and then they continued to walk outside; the trail between the corridors was completely invisible, and could only be distinguished from the long, slightly lower grass. The outline of the way out; the four people walked up the path, followed by a group of people, with a variety of weapons in their hands, including kitchen knives, wooden sticks, and an aunt holding a water puller for the toilet, looking nervous ,

Looking around, can people rely on the spectrum, does the mutant beast need you to pass the sewer for him?

Di Ping glanced back and almost didn't smile. I thought, aunt, can you be more funny? The fat man Chen Gang seemed to see the forbearing expression on Di Ping's face. When he looked back, he couldn't help but laughed out loud. He thought that it might be wrong, and quickly covered his mouth. Li Sheng and Luo brother glanced at Chen Gang. Unexplained, he followed Di Ping nervously and looked around.

Only Di Ping and Chen Gang looked at each other and smiled. Everything was silent. This action seemed to dilute the gloom in Di Ping's heart, and his mood was not as nervous as at the beginning.

The weeds on the trail are no more than knees, and the grass on the side of the road is more than one meter deep. The wind blows and the people who listen to it are hairy, it seems that there are wild beasts hidden in the deep grass; Di Ping raised his ears and watched carefully. There was movement all around, and the long sword had been out of its sheath, and it was placed diagonally on the shoulder, making it convenient for the sword to be drawn at any time.

Fortunately, there was no danger as long as they walked out of the community, but the four of them were already sweating, and it was indeed a test of courage to explore the road in such an environment.

When the large troops from behind gathered at the door again, Wang Delin also rushed up. It was not easy to see him soaking through his shirt. Not everyone can face the unknown dangers calmly.

"Fortunately, it is safe! Everyone is here!" Wang Delin said to Di Ping as he wiped his sweat while walking.

Although it was the first fall today, it was not sultry at all, and there was some breeze that sent refreshing; but the sweat on my body never stopped.

"Okay, let's go!" Di Ping didn't dare to delay, and said Wang Delin immediately after hearing that everyone was there.

"The road below may not be easy, so be careful!" Wang Delin glanced at the dense woods outside the community, a trace of fear flashed in his eyes, and his face turned pale and whispered to Di Ping.

"Go!" Di Ping nodded, waved to the three of them, and took the lead to walk outside the community.

The wide road outside the community was completely occupied by trees. The landscape trees planted on both sides are now as low as 50 meters. Some of them grow as fast as 100 meters. The two strong trees can't be hugged together, but the thick rhizomes The 50 cm thick road was pulled to pieces, and weeds grew densely from the cracked place.

There were dense weeds and huge trees in front of him, as if he was in a virgin forest. A breath of wildness came to his face. Di Ping couldn't help but fought a cold war, and the chill in his heart suddenly rose to his forehead.

I took a difficult step and walked onto the road. Although the road was a little difficult to walk, it was fortunate that the outline of the road was still there. In most places, the cement was thicker and the weeds could not grow, so people could walk; a pedestrian, cautiously Moving forward, more than a hundred people are now silent, like a ghost force.

"Wow..." Everyone cautiously walked out for almost two kilometers all the way, and they could immediately enter the ring road. Suddenly, a dog barking came from the front, and the people were frightened.

As soon as Di Ping heard the dog barking, he was also a sharp spirit. His whole body was chilly. He was really afraid of what would come. The road was safe. He was a little relaxed. Who thought it would happen.

"Hide!" Di Ping didn't have time to think about it. He greeted the three of them to hide behind a few scrapped cars on the side of the road, and then turned his head and gestured to the group of troops more than 30 meters behind the four.

Suddenly there was a flurry of jumps behind him, huffing, looking for obstacles on the side of the road to hide his body. Fortunately, there are many scrapped cars on the side of the road, and they can also be able to do it behind the big tree held by the two and in the clumps of weeds. Hide people.

Seeing that everyone was hiding, Di Ping turned and looked forward nervously.

"Wow..." The dog's bark is getting closer and closer, getting more and more anxious. It's not too far from here, I believe you can see it in a while.

Sure enough, in less than a minute, a dozen giant mutant dogs appeared more than 200 meters away from the crowd. These mutant dogs were chasing and biting a goat and deer. This goat was also mutated. The horse is almost as tall as an adult, but a dozen times. Mutant dogs are not comparable. Some of them are taller than goats. These dozen mutant dogs are like a litter of mad dogs, constantly rushing up and biting. The goats are scarred and blood is flowing on their necks. Can't run away.

The goat kept waving with the horns on its head, sweeping the mutant dogs out, but other mutant dogs rushed up again. The lethality of the horns was too weak, and the mutant dogs that flew out turned up and rushed up again to bite; Soon the goat fell in a pool of blood, and a dozen mutant dogs rushed up to grab the meat.

The mutant dog is getting closer and closer, sniffing his nose, as if searching; Di Ping hides behind the car, holding a long sword tightly in his hand, and dare not come out. This is especially true of the three people around him. Dare to emerge; hope to hide, but Di Ping miscalculated the people's hearts. The four nearest people here have not collapsed. The hundred people team 30 meters away unexpectedly collapsed first. Several of them cried and turned around. Run, and this run, the crowd in South Africa couldn't hold back, and they collapsed together.

The mutant dog immediately noticed that with a low growl, five or six mutant bodies bowed, and four thick limbs slammed on the ground. They shot out like an arrow and chased the crowd. How fast, like lightning, humans without mutations are its opponents. Before they could run more than a dozen steps, the mutant dog caught up with the person behind, fell to the ground, biting on the neck.

"Ah..." With a scream, he crawled in the pool of blood and convulsed, and the mutant dog immediately released the sharp mouth of the blood and chased the other person.

"Ah..." In a short while, five or six of them were bitten by the mutant dogs, and they screamed.

"Asshole! The bread in your hand!" Di Ping cursed secretly. So many people are really fighting. It's really not easy for a mutant dog to kill people so easily.

"Wow..." At this time, the seven or eight mutant dogs who hadn't followed behind also barked and chased up, joining the chasing crowd.

"Di·DiGe···Ge, what shall we do?" At this moment, the fat man Chen Gang asked tremblingly.

"What to do, run! Can you still beat them?" Di Ping gritted his teeth and glanced at Chen Gang's two hundred catties in hatred.

Now no one can save anyone, let's run! Even if Di Ping had a heart, he didn't have this strength. He went up to deliver food to the dog. After saying that he turned around and ran into the grass on the side of the road. Chen Gang and the three also glanced at each other and looked at The person who was constantly being bitten by the mutant dog on the ground in the distance did not have the courage to stay longer, and followed Di Ping into the grass with a cat waist.

The four of them left the road for more than 30 meters and started to walk back carefully. Now they dare to go to the provincial government. They are simply looking for death. The whole army will be wiped out as long as they go out. They also go to meet and want to vote early. If you lift it, go quickly, whoever loves to go, Di Ping will not go anyway.

There are also many smart people rushing into the grass, and more people rushing all the way to the community on the road. Sometimes people just run in one direction when they encounter danger and don't know the turn. At this time, they just want to run. Go to a place you are familiar with.

"Ah..." A scream sounded in front, Di Ping just pushed aside the grass, just in time to see a mutant dog biting the back of a woman's neck, and when he heard the sound, he raised his head and met Di Ping's eyes.

"Mom!" Di Ping cursed in a low voice.

The mutant dog barked and bowed, and his limbs slammed toward Di Ping. He immediately rushed in front of Di Ping. The * fangs were clearly visible, and the target was facing his neck; Di Ping was here. When I forgot everything, after killing the mutant mouse twice, my heart had become firm, and seeing the mutant dog pounced, it was too late to swing the sword, and the long sword turned into a thorn to face the mutant thorn.
