

Doomsday 92

Chapter 92: A bowl of dog meat leads to thinking

"Haha! Really, this broth smells sweet! Eat it all!"

Han Zhongguo smiled and took it from the delivery staff. Several officials also took the bowl. In fact, they were greedy for a long time, but Di Ping didn't say anything. They really didn't dare to go to eat. They all experienced this young man. The strength and means.

When Di Ping saw the bowl full of meat, he didn't say anything. This is the privilege of any place, even in the animal kingdom. After the lions and lionesses hunt for food, the lions in the lions eat first. Before the lioness can eat.

So there is no need to be true. Those who want to go up there, who want to be a leader and suffer from suffering are not good. He is not pedantic to take the bowl and start eating.

Lu Hai, who brought him the meal, breathed a sigh of relief at this time. He was really afraid that Di Ping was so flabbergasted that he would get angry when he sees more meat in his bowl and make himself trouble.

The managers of the base on the side held their bowls and watched Di Ping took it and ate them without saying anything. They also looked at each other easily and started to eat.

Just now they took the bowl and saw that there was a lot of meat in the bowl. They immediately felt a little drumming. They were also afraid that Di Ping would lose his temper because of this.

Ge Zhongping was holding the bowl and did not eat at this time. His eyes flashed triumphantly. He guessed that Di Ping would definitely lose his temper. He felt that this young man was a stunned young man and would lose his temper!

By that time, these people will definitely not look good on their faces, and they will feel resentful in their hearts, and they will definitely feel that there is no future in following such people, and then they will be able to pull everyone to themselves again by secretly connecting.

But things did not develop in the desired direction. He is not the only wise man in this world.

When he saw that Di Ping just took a look and didn't speak, he was actually eating.

At the same time, he was a little scared. He used to think that this young man was too strong and easy to deal with. Only then did he realize that he did not understand this man.

This person is too complicated and mysterious, and he has the means to be flexible. Such a person is terrible. Would such a person make him feel better?

Thinking of this, his hand holding the bowl was trembling, and he felt that the bowl was heavy.

Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang were also very surprised. They were taken aback when they took the bowl, and they also had worries in their hearts. They were also afraid that Di Ping would get angry. This would definitely lose heart.

But he didn't expect Di Ping to handle it so well. The two looked at each other and smiled, knowing that Bai was worried, picked up the bowl and ate, they were really hungry and greedy, and they were groaning in their stomachs.

At this time, many of the team members were eating and looking at this side. When they saw that Di Ping was also eating meat with a bowl, they immediately exchanged glances with each other, and then they all ate the meat in their bowl with ease.

The meat of Lu Hai was not simple. The idea was from Ge Zhongping. It was to make Di Ping make mistakes so that all the management and team members felt that they would not benefit from such a person.

I want Di Ping to lose the hearts of the management, and I can pull these people to my side when the time comes. It can be said that it is with good intentions, but I did not expect to make Di Ping wedding clothes instead, so that more people recognized Di. Ping, at this time, his mouth bitterly looked at the meat in the bowl, but he had no appetite at all.

Di Ping is not a young white who just came out of society. A few years of business has made him understand too many things. This world is not black and white, nor is it completely right and wrong. Different positions are opposites.

Although he can not rely on these people, as long as there are people, there is a class. This is determined by human nature. Whether it is human nature or evil nature, as long as people live together, there will be no absolute justice. Below, otherwise it is not a dish of scattered sand, why should we live together? That is not to gather strength and fight against risks.

This is a truth that even primitive people understand. Why do many people still naively think that there is fairness in this world?

Di Ping swears that he has never eaten this delicious dog meat. He had eaten it before the end of the world. Although it was very fragrant and tasted good, it was a far cry from the mutant dog meat now.

The mouth of this bite of meat is really fragrant, the stewed dog meat is tender and slippery, and chewy, without any external taste, with a special freshness, as if seeing green eyes.

Especially after the dog's belly, a warm current rises from the stomach and flows slowly to the whole body. How sensitive is Di Ping?

Although this warm current is small and unnoticeable, he can still feel it.

After a bowl of meat, Di Ping feels full. This feeling has never been felt since he strengthened. He usually doesn't feel full after eating five or six bowls of rice. He always seems to feel hungry, but now this bowl has changed. The dog can feel full by himself.

And the stomach is warm as if there is a small sun shining on, and then this warmth flows from the stomach to the whole body, and the body also feels warm as if every cell is jumping, every pore is breathing, and the whole person is extremely happy. .

The exhaustion of the body for a day has disappeared. Originally, there was some faint pain in the muscles of his body, but this time it also slowly disappeared. Not only did he feel better!

And it seems that the body also has weak strengthening, but the strengthening is not obvious when the physique is too strong, but the strengthening effect will be much better for ordinary people, and it is also good for physical pain.

He was overjoyed that these meats can really strengthen the body and increase physical strength. If long-term consumption is believed to be useful to himself, it is even more precious to ordinary people. Long-term consumption of ordinary people can not only enhance physical fitness, but may also stimulate The potential in the body may also be.

Only now did Di Ping understand why he had eaten so much before. It turned out that as he strengthened and upgraded, ordinary food became more and more difficult to meet his physical needs.

At this time, he has to eat these mutated animals or mutated plants, these energy-containing foods to provide what his body needs, which makes him a little regret that he shouldn't waste all the mutated animal meat!
