

Doomsday 921

Chapter 921: Gunshots in the village at midnight

Di Ping had already rolled down on the wicker chairs, curled up on the ground in pain, his body shrank into a ball, trying to relieve the pain of the flames, but everything seemed to be a journey, as if the soul was burning, then This pain can not be alleviated by any action.

Time passed every second, but he felt that a second was as long as a year. He breathed and breathed like a lifetime. Time seemed to have stopped at this moment. He was already so painful that he couldn't make any movements, and his teeth clenched. It sounds, as if the teeth will break in the next moment.

The blood of his whole body was flowing through his whole body at an unprecedented speed, like a flood raging, rampant, and the meridians violently, forming a strong blue dragon on the red skin, constantly twisting and terrifying and hideous.

Di Ping felt that he was dying and could not bear it anymore. He had thoughts of suicide in his mind. He felt that every second was suffering. He no longer wanted to bear it. He had already thought of death, and his mind started to There are many phantoms.

For a while, he was standing on a cliff of ten thousand meters long and jumping down, and for a while, he plunged down on the sea, and for a while, thousands of knives were slashed towards him, and for a while, the beast opened its huge mouth and bit at him. .

But these illusions changed in an instant, jumping off a cliff but floating on the flat ground, plunged into the sea and found that the sea only reached the feet, thousands of knives were cut down like illusion, and the moment he bit down, he found that I stood at a very far and extremely high place, looking at it all seemed so far away.

The moment he wanted to die became a delusion, his heart suddenly filled with infinite sadness, and he couldn't die even if he wanted to die.

At this moment, he didn't even have the strength to bite his tongue, let alone move, he could only whine silently with his mouth open.

I don't know how long it has passed, as if it was a century long, and the whole world was going to decay.

Suddenly, Di Ping's mind flashed in chaos, as if a little starlight was rising from the endless dark chaos. Although the starlight is small, it is like a lighthouse on the sea in the dark night to point out the direction to the traveling ship, as if it was The lights at home in the rainy night warm the wanderer's empty heart.

A breath of clear spirits came out from this starlight, and his already somewhat confused consciousness instantly became clearer, and this clear breath of spirits was not only a clear consciousness, but also seemed to relieve his pain of burning flames. .

"Ok....."

Di Ping uttered a soft hum, as if he had released a trace of soul from the endless waves of pain, escaped from the Hell of Abi, and his body relaxed a lot.

And the appearance of this starlight seemed to represent the transformation of the whole process, the flame burning seemed to be slowly fading, the flame temperature weakened, and it gradually became warm and moist.

It seemed that the scorching sun suddenly turned into a misty spring rain, and the flame was not burning the body, but began to moisturize the body. The muscles, bones, skin, and meridians that had been burned by the flame and seemed to be turned into ashes were all rejuvenated in the flame.

Like a spring willow tree sprouted, a little green came out of the ashes, and then went crazy, countless sprouts springing up like bamboo shoots after a rain.

Di Ping felt that his whole body was cheering and leaping, and he was sucking in the breath of life emanating from the flames. A feeling of refreshing radiated from all parts of the body, like soaking in a hot spring after extreme fatigue. The feeling of comfort cannot be expressed in words.

At this moment, it was the transition from ***** to heaven. The sudden extreme enjoyment caught him off guard. He couldn't imagine going from the most painful and unbearable to the sudden refreshing extreme, unable to describe and explain.

Waves of warm feeling surrounded him tightly, like a fetus swimming in the mother liquid, carefree, and extremely comfortable.

At this moment, Di Ping fainted gorgeously. He did not faint from the pain before, but in the waves of pleasure, he fainted.

Di Ping slept heavily on the ground, everything in the room was calm. If it weren't for his slight snoring and slowly rhythmic chest, he might think he was dead.

No one saw it at this time. If anyone were in the room, they would find that there were countless glittering light spots rushing into Di Ping's body.

Countless fluorescent lights are gathering, enclosing him in it like a light cocoon.

Chapter 922: Suddenly fighting at the entrance of the village

At this time, in the blue brick house in the mountain village shaded by a giant tree 30 kilometers away from the Jincheng base in the south, Han Ming dignifiedly held the window and looked out. At this moment, the curtain of the inner room rang, a stout man. Dashing walked out.

"Brother Han, what should I do now?"

The stout man frowned, and walked over to Di Ping and said softly.

"How is Yu Yuanhua now?"

Han Ming didn't look back, looked outside, and asked in a low voice.

"Yuanhua has fallen asleep, and his injury is serious. He has to recuperate for two days!"

The stout man said with a gloomy expression.

"Well! Yes, take a break, how far is Lu Fang from the new Jincheng base?"

Han Ming withdrew his gaze from the outside to look at the burly man. He never showed a stern, stern smile on his face.

"Not far! This is Huangling Village about five kilometers across three hills to reach Longjing Valley, which is the new secret base of Jincheng!"

Lu Fang took out a map, spread it on the ground, and pointed to the route through the moonlight from the window to show Han Ming.

"Grandma, if it wasn't for these dead spiders to block the way, we would have arrived long ago, I don't know if we can go around this time!"

Lu's eyes screamed bitterly.

"We should be out of the sphere of influence of this group of mutant spiders, take a good rest, and we will try again tomorrow!"

Han Ming patted Lu Fang on the shoulder and said.

"Then Brother Han, go and rest! I'll watch the night!"

Lu Fang nodded, folded the map and put it in his arms while speaking softly.

"No, go and rest! Tomorrow Yuanhua will need you to take care of it, so I can watch the night!"

Han Ming shook his head.

Seeing the firmness in Han Ming's eyes, Lu Fang didn't insist. He nodded and said, "Then Brother Han, I'll go to rest first, and I'll do it for you later!"

Han Ming did not refuse to nod and said, "Okay, go now!"

Lu Fang turned around and opened the curtain to enter the back room, while Han Ming leaned against the wall under the window sill, gently wiping the double-headed gold-winged war bow in his arms, as if stroking his beloved woman.

This bow is too strong. In this dangerous apocalypse, he has encountered many life-and-death battles, but with this bow, he escaped from birth again and again, so he likes this bow more and more. Reluctant to let go.

Touching this war bow, he thought of the powerful and mysterious city lord who had cast effect. This bow was given by him. Not only that, but also taught him powerful techniques. He felt that he had no idea about the boss who had just taken refuge. Report, now only to complete the task assigned to him by the City Lord is the best result.

Han Ming thought about the days he was separated from Di Ping, and he felt a little sigh. The world is really getting more and more dangerous. This is the third time he has escaped from the dead. It can be seen from his torn clothes that he has these days. All kinds of disasters experienced.

Since accepting Di Ping's mission last time, he rushed all the way to the Jincheng base, but he was also too late. What he saw was full of broken walls and broken corpses everywhere, with blood spilling over the ruins. By this point, his scalp was numb, sweat poured out immediately, and he secretly said that it was not good.

Questions about Jincheng base! And it was a major event, the base was destroyed.

Judging from the traces, the base's accident did not last long, because there are still flames on the ground, and there are corpses and red blood stains everywhere, and there is no mutant animal present. He judged that the mutant animal did not dare to enter here. Jincheng base should It was destroyed by some powerful mutant creature.

The huge white claw marks everywhere and the deep huge claw prints on the ground all show that this is the work of a huge terrifying monster.

Chapter 923: Awakened

Han Ming looked at the devastated Jincheng base and didn't know where to go. Di Ping gave him the task of bringing back his parents, but now the Jincheng base is gone, and his task cannot be completed, so what should I do now? ?

Should I leave and go directly to Zhongzhou to find Di Ping, or leave?

But in an instant he would drive the thought of leaving away from his brain. Although he was a killer, he was extremely principled. Since he had already taken refuge in Di Ping, he would not just let his words go and get fat. He was a person with a beginning and an end.

However, he Han Ming has his own pride, so he went back empty-handed. He couldn't do it. He was entrusted by others, loyal to others, and the task was not completed. How to go back with the face, only need to bring back the exact information. To let the city owner know whether his parents are alive or dead, there must be an explanation.

Han Ming looked at the ruins and was silent for a moment. He decided to investigate. The Jincheng base was destroyed. It is impossible for no one to escape. Looking at the size of the base and the size of the house, Han Ming judged that the population of this base is definitely not less than 10,000, but look. Although the corpses on the ground contained only a thousand incomplete corpses, they still did not match the size of the base.

Where did the rest of the people go?

Since he didn't die here, he fled and fled there. This is what Han Ming cares about at this time. He wants to find these people. One is to see if the city lord's parents are there. If not, he will also The exact information was obtained and the content was brought back to Di Ping.

In this way, he can be regarded as having an explanation.

Tracking is one of the most basic skills for a killer like Han Ming. He carefully probed the base and finally found a trace.

He found a large number of traces of human activities from the woods on the east side of the base. He carefully checked the traces left on the scene. He roughly judged the number of people to be as many as thousands. The weeds on the ground were trampled on the ground in patches. It left a trace of fifty meters wide in the forest.

Seeing this, Han Ming once again had a calm smile on his face. He knew that his judgment was correct. Although the Jincheng base was destroyed, the base did not die. A large number of people evacuated.

City Lord Nadi's parents might be among these people and have a great chance of survival. After all, according to the City Lord, his cousin is an actual military officer and has certain rights.

However, Han Ming still felt uneasy, and went around the ruins to see if he found anything.

Han Ming was used to seeing the ***** loyalty. At this time, looking at the tragic situation of the ruins, he couldn't bear to look again. Judging from the appearance of the corpses, most of the people who died here were killed by broken bricks. There were many corpses shattered, and the wound looked like it was bitten by some giant beast.

In the ruins, Han Ming saw a lot of huge claw prints. From the traces pressed out on the ground, it can be seen that this monster is huge, and the masonry under the giant claws seems to be unable to bear its weight, and it was crushed. .

Moreover, there were broken guns and piles of bullet shells everywhere. It can be seen that the battle was very fierce at the time, but it seems that the military was defeated. This behemoth cannot be solved by these guns.

This made Han Ming's scalp numb suddenly, and he felt that he shouldn't stay here anymore, there seemed to be a big horror here.

As a killer, Han Ming was very concerned about feelings. Once he had this feeling in his heart, he didn't stay at all. He had already seen most of it, and it was basically impossible to judge from the corpse. He decided to chase in the direction of the team's withdrawal.

Chapter 924: Awakening strength has high and low

In this respect, Di Ping is not as good as Han Ming, and the people who wander in the dark world are indeed extraordinary.

After walking less than one kilometer, he heard a huge roar from the ruins of Jincheng behind him. Even at such a distance, he could feel the terrifying power.

Han Ming stopped and glanced back. His face became extremely ugly, and his eyes were even more fortunate. If it was a step late, he would be hit by this terrifying behemoth.

He didn't dare to delay, and chased him along the trail left in front.

This road is obviously not peaceful, the blood everywhere and the yellow bullets in the grass can imagine the tragic retreat.

After traveling for ten kilometers, there have been few marks of fighting in ten places, and corpses can be seen everywhere, and there are bright red blood marks everywhere, even the soil is soaked with blood, and the ground has messy mutated animal paw prints.

Looking at all this, Han Ming shook his head somewhat helplessly. Such a large group of people walking in the jungle is as bright as a kilowatt bulb in the dark. The mutant animals move without the wind, which is weird.

The team was also obviously aware of this problem. The original marching route, which was nearly fifty meters wide, became a trace only ten meters wide. The personnel gathered together to resist the sneak attack by mutant animals.

After checking the blood traces, Han Ming judged that these people had been away for no more than five hours. At his speed alone, he believed that in three hours, he would be able to catch up with the large troops in front of him, and he could be faster if he did not take the danger into consideration.

He started consciously speeding up, striving to catch up with the army in front of him as soon as possible, because it was almost dark, he rushed all the way from Di Ping's hometown to Jincheng, and it was 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The road on the road was washed away by the flood, so he had to go. It took him nearly a day for more than a hundred kilometers.

In the Jincheng base, there was a delay of almost an hour. It was almost six o'clock when the sun was west, and the forest was covered with red clouds.

He must speed up. If he can't catch up with the big army before dark, he will have to find a place to settle down, knowing that being in such a field at night is no different from looking for death.

After a short time, the night gradually shrouded, a faint mist began to fill the forest, and a chill was already encircling him from all around.

Han Ming looked at the forest that had become a little gloomy due to the sun's sinking for a while. He shook his head helplessly. It seemed that he could not catch up with the big army because he hadn't heard a sound from the front. The trace shows that he was not chasing the wrong one, and the only thing left is that the distance is still a little far away.

His judgment was not entirely correct. Originally, he thought that the large forces must be slow. He didn't expect that these people were all running for their lives at this time, and the speed would certainly not be slow. Some slow people have fallen behind and fell into the mouth of mutant animals. The remaining one who didn't run fast, fearing that he would be like a person who was left behind, entered the mouth of the mutant animal and turned into a lump of animal dung.

He tightened his feet, and Han Ming walked for another half an hour. The sky was finally completely dark, and the boundless forest was even darker. If he didn't understand that it had begun to rise, he could no longer see the path under his feet.

At the last moment, Han Ming finally saw a village in the mountains!

In places that have gradually entered the mountainous area, there are really few villages, unlike the road ahead, where there is a village every short distance.

With a house, he doesn't need to risk sleeping in the wild, which makes his originally tense heart relieved a lot.

Chapter 925: Suddenly shoot a giant wolf

Han Ming cautiously walked into this mountain village. This village was built on a huge rock with the back of the mountain. Because it is all rocks, there are not many trees, only some weeds and small trees emerge from the cracks in the rocks. , So the whole village looks very empty.

The village is small, with less than ten houses, basically all of masonry structure.

In the past few years, the people in the mountains have also become rich. The mountains rely on the mountains to eat the mountains and the water and draught, and the abundant output in the mountains also makes the mountains live in brick houses.

Han Ming stood at the entrance of the village, carefully checking the traces on the ground. Sundries, food, mineral water bottles, etc. were everywhere on the rocky ground.

Obviously, the previous large forces have also been repaired here, and these are all left by them.

Since the large army has rested here, I believe there should be no danger. The terrifying roar of the beast from time to time in the forest, and the roar of wolves, pressing him tightly, Han Ming tightened his body and looked back at the jungle behind him. , Turned around and walked into the village, trying to find a house, just find something to eat, and rest for one night, so that tomorrow I can catch up with the army.

I rummaged through all the houses and found nothing to eat. The man in front of him was really ruthless. He didn't even leave a grain of rice. Han Ming had to be hungry for the night. Let's hunt some prey tomorrow, right?

Han Ming randomly chose a house to block the door, put a bed back on the ground, half-sleeping against the wall, a long-term habit, he never let go of his vigilance in an unfamiliar environment.

Listening to the roar of the beasts in the forest, Han Ming thought about it for a long time, and finally fell asleep.

"Boom!"

Just as Han Ming was asleep, two crisp gunshots suddenly sounded in the quiet mountain village. Han Ming suddenly opened his eyes. There was no trace of the confusion of ordinary people who woke up after falling asleep. They were extremely clear and bright.

He didn't move much, listening to the movement outside, his eyes gleaming in the dark night.

"Hurry up, get to the village ahead!"

At this time, noisy voices came from outside the village.

"what!"

Then someone let out a scream.

"noob....."

Several people exclaimed, their voices angry and desperate.

Obviously, some people were chased by mutant beasts, and some people were chased by mutant beasts.

"Xiaobai is out of help, fast into the village and find a place to resist!"

At this moment a mad man was roaring.

boom!

With a loud noise, someone smashed the door of a room open. Han Ming knew it was a family at the entrance of the village. Han Ming lived in the middle of the village, two or three houses away from the entrance.

"Go in! Get something to block the door!"

The rough voice sounded again, very calm at this time. Although the voice was anxious but very clear, there was no tremor.

Bang bang bang...

There were three more gunshots in a row, and then I heard a savage roar, which was obviously the mutant beast.

Han Ming touched the ground lightly with his palm, and stood up as soon as his body floated. He came to the window and observed the situation outside through the broken glass window.

It was only forty or fifty meters away, and he could see the situation clearly at a glance. In front of the door of a house at the entrance of the village, there was a sturdy middle-aged man standing, looking at someone in his thirties and eighteen meters. He was stout, sturdy and scary. With a thick wooden stick in one hand, he shouted at a group of five people who were less than five meters away from him.

These are five young people. Everyone's expressions are clearly seen under the bright moonlight. All of them are pale, sweaty, and their eyes are horrified. They are running desperately.

Three of the five people ran in front with long knives, while the other two held a pistol and fired their guns behind them as they ran.

Chapter 926: That arrow in the night

I saw two giant wolves hanging from five people less than ten meters away, and three giant wolves were surrounded together not far away, seeming to be eating something.

When Han Ming saw it, he knew that this was the slow runner who was thrown down by the giant wolf. He was being eaten by three giant wolves. The red blood flowed silently like a stream, spreading out a large area. In the cold moonlight gleamed with a strange red light.

With his ear power, he could clearly hear the biting sound, harsh and terrifying.

At this time, he understood that these people should have been hung by these giant wolves in the forest, but these people could even run into this village with two broken spears, which made Han Ming a little puzzled. .

With five huge mutant wolves like a tall horse, he could only flee in the past, but only with the bow given by Di Ping, he is not afraid of these five giant wolves, although it will cost some means to fight. , But not enough to make him escape.

He decided not to move for the time being. These five people can escape here to show that there are some means. He wants to see if these people are worth saving.

He is not a kind-hearted Xiaobai. He always takes action as he wants. He is never governed by rules. Even after these people die, his brows will not be frowned, but in this last days, mankind suffers The catastrophe is human beings, and if these people are not bad in humanity, he can save them.

So he decided to observe what he was talking about!

A tall and thin young man with a face of Guozi rushed to the door and flashed aside, shut the door and let the other two rush in, but the two who had fired a few shots fell behind.

At this moment, the giant wolf who had been hanging leisurely at the back suddenly roared, and a brutal color exploded in his **** eyes, and rushed towards this side.

The scared expressions of the two shooting young men changed, and they ran wildly when they turned their heads back, and they were no longer able to shoot!

"Hurry up!"

The brawny man shouted anxiously, while a young man with a face of Guozi on the other side also shouted loudly: "Don't shoot, come here!"

Although they are only three steps away from the door, their speed is still not as fast as the mutant giant wolf. The two giant wolves are like galloping horses, rushing, and they are squeezed like a mountain before the violent momentum.

The faces of a few people were ugly, but the two who rushed into the room just now stood behind the door and waved anxiously.

"I block, fast forward!"

Seeing that the giant wolf had already pounced close, and was about to pounce on the two of them, the thick man guarding by the door suddenly yelled, and then raised the **** mace in his hand and rushed towards the two giant wolves.

call!

I saw the strong man approaching the two of them in one step, unexpectedly very fast, swept out the mace in his hand, and went straight to the two giant wolves with howling.

Han Ming narrowed his eyes, this turned out to be an awakened one?

This was the first time he saw the Awakened except Di Ping and his group, and it turned out to be in this mountain bump.

boom!

Regardless of Han Ming's shock, with a crisp sound, the mace was hit on the head of a giant wolf, and the giant wolf let out a horrible roar and turned out.

At this time, another giant wolf also rushed up, opened its mouth to face the burly man, and took a bite. With a huge mouth of blood and a pungent stench, Bai Sensen's fangs shone cold in the moonlight.

At this time, the strong man was numb with his arms shook by the force of the counter shock, and his mace was even more bounced. It was too late to withdraw at this time, and he could not stop the giant wolf's attack. He didn't even have time to react to the giant wolf that was rushing forward. He could already see the white fangs of the giant wolf clearly.

"Brother Fang!"

The two people in the room saw the most truth, seeing the brawny man dying, and the two screamed in horror.

"Ice shield!"

Suddenly, the young man with the face of Guozi who was guarding the door shouted coldly.

In Han Ming's horrified white eyes, a white ice shield one meter high and half a meter wide formed in front of the strong man. The giant wolf hit the ice shield with one head, but it was obvious that the ice shield was not very defensive, and only blocked it. In one second, it instantly collapsed into broken ice!

Chapter 927: The crushing of combat skills

"Another Awakener?"

Han Ming was really shocked, he almost yelled out a little bit, but fortunately, his long-term assassin's instincts prevented him from making any movements.

He had to be shocked. In this ravine, he saw two awakened persons at once?

He has some doubts whether the awakening has already broken the streets. Before Di Ping led three or four, but he saw two more today. Because he has been in the small town all the time, he really does not know the information outside the end of the world. He thought there were many awakened people.

However, with Han Ming's eyes, it can be seen at a glance that these two people are ordinary people, obviously without good fighting skills, and relying entirely on brute force. If you face these two giant wolves, you will definitely not be so embarrassed.

Han Ming is watching a play, and the scene will change quickly!

Although the ice shield was broken, and the time to stop the mutant wolf was very short, it was enough for the strong man, and he suddenly slammed the high-bouncing mace down.

In the middle of the giant wolf top door, with a muffled sound, the giant wolf was smashed on the ground by his **** mace, with blood flowing on the top of the head. The mace is made of an iron rod with a cloth on it. Full of sharp cones, the stick went down, and blood holes were punched in the head of the giant wolf, and blood spurted out.

And obviously the strength of the strong man is not small, and the mouth of the giant wolf is also spurting blood!

However, the strong man seemed to be uncomfortable. He gasped, his hand holding the mace was trembling slightly, and he gritted his teeth as if he wanted to lift the mace and give the giant wolf on the ground again.

"Brother Fang, goodbye, go!"

At this time, the young man with the face of the Guozi who issued the ice shield pulled him to the room.

Ooh...

The three giant wolves who had been gnawing finally discovered the changes here and raised their heads. When they saw the clear scenery here, they suddenly roared in anger, and their bodies suddenly moved and rushed towards this side.

"Block the door!"

The two rushed into the room, and then the four in the room hurriedly moved things to block the doorway.

Three dozen meters away, for the giant wolf, it is a matter of instant, the giant wolf rushed towards the door, bang! With a loud noise, the wooden door that had just been blocked was shattered by the powerful impact of the giant wolf. If it weren't blocked by a table moved by a few people behind the door, the giant wolf rushed in.

Then, the giant wolf frantically bit and attacked the table, chair and bench that blocked the door. For a while, fragments of wood splashed, and the giant wolf's fangs and claws were like steel swords and iron hooks. After a while, the table was demolished in half.

Several people shouted, moving things in the room to block the door, while the two armed men drove towards the giant wolf and wanted it to stop biting.

Bang bang bang...

After a few shots, the giant wolf rushing in the front let out a scream, and a few blood bursts out of his body. It was obvious that the shots were all hit. The giant wolf finally couldn't stand it, stopped, and began to retreat. .

Seeing this, the few people who were desperately moving furniture let out a sigh of relief, and the two who opened the gun sat down with their bodies weakened, their voices trembling, with lingering fears.

"My god! Fortunately, retreat, otherwise it's dangerous!"

"Don't worry, as long as you shoot through the door, they can't get in!"

At this time, the strong man moved a table to the door and blocked it, then sat down on the ground and said tiredly.

"Brother Fang..."

At this moment, the two gunmen looked at Brother Fang with bitter expressions.

"What's wrong with you?"

Brother Fang looked at the strange expressions of the two of them in a puzzled way.

"We have no bullets!"

The two looked at the guns in their hands and cried.

"what!"

Brother Fang, obviously didn't expect to suddenly appear in such a thing, there are no bullets, what if these mutant wolves are rushing straight?

However, the solemn expression on his face stayed for a second, and he suddenly smiled and lifted the mace in his hand and said: "Forget it! We still have this, I don't believe they can come in!"

Chapter 928: Hungry Han Ming wants to eat meat

"Brother Fang, no, the mutant wolf is coming up again!"

At this time, the two people who had rushed into the door first were lying on the crack of the door and looking out, and the two of them whispered nervously.

Everyone's expressions have changed, what are they really afraid of?

Several people hurriedly looked out through the cracks in the door. Sure enough, the three giant wolves were roaring low, with their hideous fangs exposed, staring fiercely at the door, and pushing in step by step.

"Broken! The two mutant giant wolves are not dead!"

At this time, the young man suddenly fell in love with Guozi's face and exclaimed in surprise.

"Oh shit!"

Brother Fang, he has already seen it at this time. The two giant wolves who were knocked to the ground and bleeding on the ground by him staggered to their feet. Although they looked miserable, they did not suffer too much from their actions. He was very scared because of his injury, he did his best to hit the giant wolf without smashing it to death.

"This...what...what to do? Five...head!"

A young man holding a pistol also saw this scene, his face pale in shock, and his words trembled.

"Don't be afraid! We guard the house, as long as we dare to come in, come and kill one by one, the guy in our hand is not a stick of fire!"

Brother Fang, his complexion sank, and he threw the guessing stick in his hand to the ground with a bang, watching several people and said in a deep voice.

"Yeah! What are you afraid of? There is a place to hide now, and I am afraid that he is a bird. I dare to come and kill the wine one by one!"

A young man carrying a knife suddenly stood up, waved the long knife in his hand, and exclaimed with excitement.

Cuckoo!

When he talked about drinking, some people groaned in their stomachs. With this call, several people all laughed, and the nervous atmosphere was diminished. Even the young people who were nervously talking and knotted looked much more relaxed. , The fire rekindled in the eyes.

The human spirit is very complicated. Some people are afraid of cowardly killing an ant, but once their spirit changes, they may become a murderer, killing people like slaughtering chickens, never being soft. This is a very strange state of mind. The few people who were mourning, now their nervousness has gone, and their fighting spirits have renewed.

"Move some furniture and plug it up, I don't think he can take it all down!"

Brother Fang moved a writing desk from the back room, blocked the door, and said bitterly.

"Yes, move more things!"

Several people were shocked when they heard this, and hurriedly got up to move things to block the door.

Han Ming saw what was happening outside through the window. He wanted to take action, but he finally resisted it. After all, he didn't know who these people were, and among them were the awakened ones. If he saved people by himself But these people weren't good people, and they might still attack themselves, so he decided not to move.

The two giant wolves that had been defeated stood up again, and he saw it. At this time, he felt a little puzzled. These two were also awakened, but they were much weaker than himself.

But why are the people around the city lord stronger than the other, he feels very sensitive, the woman beside the city lord, he is not an opponent, each of them is extremely powerful, killing mutant giant wolves one by one is like playing, but today these two People are weak.

With a full blow, he didn't even kill a mutant giant wolf. The one who put the ice shield looked very dazzling, but it was not lethal, not even the strong man.

This made Han Ming very puzzled, but immediately he also wanted to understand that this may have something to do with the technique provided by the city lord, that is, Yue Lie's young man had not awakened early, but his strength exceeded him, which had to make him think The exercises come from above.

Once he was sure of his thoughts, Han Ming was happy, but Yue Lie passed his first-level cultivation technique, as long as he cultivated, he believed that his strength would soon catch up with them.

This allowed him to follow Di Ping's pace more firmly, never lagging behind, and to complete the task assigned by the City Lord anyway.

"Wow!"

Suddenly there was a roar of a wolf, Han Ming looked up, and saw five giant wolves rushing towards the doorway in the finished shape.

Chapter 929: Apocalyptic chaos and low life

"Brother Fang, the giant wolf is rushing!"

An exclamation came from the room.

"Crack!"

Two giant wolves slammed into the doorway one after the other, making a cracking sound, and the pieces of broken wood splashed.

"Stand not back!"

The six people tightly behind the door, their complexion changed drastically, and the arms of the few people hit by the powerful force were numb. One can imagine how powerful these giant wolves are, and with this one impact, a table has fallen apart. , It takes how many tables are enough for these giant wolves to hit, once the giant wolf rushes into the room, everyone in this small space has no room to dodge, and it will be dangerous by then.

This cast a shadow over the hearts of the six people. Fang Ge hurriedly shouted when seeing the status of the others:

"Slash with a knife, don't be bitten! From now on, life and death are in the hands of wealth and wealth. My brothers have given me full energy. Those who don't want to enter the wolf belly as wolf dung, all give me round the knife wheel. Chop me!"

Brother Fang, standing in the middle of the doorway, with one hand against a table and a mace in the other hand, his eyes widened, and he was waiting for the mutant animal to rush in, so he could rush to solve it.

"Get ready, here again!"

Guozi's face reminded a few people with his hands behind a square table.

Several people hurriedly waited for this impact. With a loud bang, the outermost chairs shattered in an instant, and the broken pieces of wood splashed like rain.

Click...

Immediately afterwards, something that worries everyone happened. Two giant wolves rushed into the doorway, and began to bite their claws at the obstacle in front of them desperately, with creaking noises, under the giant wolf's steel teeth and iron claws, wooden tables, chairs and benches. It's like paper.

A few people could already smell the stench from the giant wolf's mouth, so they dared to neglect, and hurriedly moved things to block the door, but the room was very simple, that is, two beds, two writing tables, and a table of eight immortals. A few, just a few chairs.

But this time the two giant wolves have been dismantled almost, and there is still a bed and a bar behind. The six people are already a little desperate. The obstacles are removed. At that time, the giant who has been waiting on the side As soon as the wolves poured in, all the six people faced was a dead end.

Fighting with terrifying mutant beasts such as giant wolf in this narrow space, they still have confidence, so the six faces already showed despair.

On the way, more than a dozen of them have lost their lives. They fled all the way to this place, but they didn't think that the result was still not able to escape!

"Get your weapons ready!"

A trace of despair flashed in Fang Ge's eyes, but then a strong desire surged again. He wanted to live, he didn't want to die in these mutant wolves like this, turning into a pile of wolf dung. If you want to live, you have to work hard. , A ball of energy exploded in his eyes, and he lifted the mace, ready to fight at any time.

"Tweet!"

Suddenly a sharp sound of breaking through the air sounded, which was obviously a scream that could only be emitted by a sharp weapon with a high speed piercing the air.

Boom!

It was like the sound of something sharp shooting through the rock.

Ouch!

With a stern scream, a giant wolf seemed to have suffered some abnormal pain, and it uttered a dying struggle.

This sudden change shocked everyone, even the mutant wolves waiting to attack outside were also stunned. Two giant wolves who were about to succeed in attacking the doorway were stunned at this time. The same was nailed to the wall by a dark long arrow.

This arrow was quite fierce, passing directly through the seam between the shoulder bones of the two giant wolves, so it was almost a fatal blow. The two giant wolves were nailed to death by this arrow.

Chapter 930: Hidden cave to avoid crisis

"Tweet!"

At this moment, there was another screaming sound, and a sharp arrow shot from the darkness with the wind whistling, flashing like a stream of light under the moonlight.

Ouch!

It was another giant wolf who let out a scream, and saw a beam of blood shot from his chest and abdomen, and a dark arrow with blood was fixed on the wall with a "duo" sound.

The giant wolf stiffened, shook a few times, and then crashed to the ground, stirring up dust on the ground, and blood quickly gushing over the ground.

"What is going on? Who shot the arrow?"

At this time, all the people hiding in the room shouted in surprise.

Ooh...

The remaining three giant wolves seemed to have just reacted at this time. They suddenly turned to look in the direction where the arrows were shot. Their eyes were suddenly red, and they howled in anger, their sturdy limbs kicked on the ground, and their huge bodies suddenly shot out like running. Bullish.

"Eh! Someone!"

Exclaimed a young man standing by the door.

"There! Let me see!"

Everyone was shocked and they all squeezed in. Through the gap of the chairs, they saw a mysterious man in white standing in the street, he was holding a strange bow and shooting arrows.

He didn't seem to be afraid at all when facing the two mutant giant wolves rushing, he still held the bow calmly, showing the extreme coolness.

"No, the wolf is going to rush forward!"

The six people squeezed by the door all saw this scene, their expressions changed greatly, and they cried out in surprise.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a crisp sound of strings, a flash of cold light, and a sharp arrow shot from his bow, as fast as lightning, and instantly greeted the mutant giant wolf.

A giant wolf dodged to hide, but it was too late. The speed was too fast. With a click, the sharp sound of the sharp arrow shot through the bones rang out. The giant wolf was hit by the powerful force of the sharp arrow. The meter-long arrow shaft pierced deeply into the center of the giant wolf's eyebrows.

The giant wolf fell to the ground and twitched, and was shot through his head. It was obviously hopeless.

"Wow!"

But at this moment, the other giant wolf did not stop, and its speed suddenly increased. It was more powerful and rushed towards Han Ming, who was less than five meters away. His huge mouth opened, and his sharp fangs flashed with a cold light. , Cold and ruthless.

Han Ming had no time to shoot the second arrow. The distance was too close. Seeing that the giant wolf had already pounced in front of him, the stench of the smell rushed into his nostrils, but he did not move.

"Hurry up!"

The few people who watched seem to have been scared and stupefied, and he didn't dare to move. Fang's eyes widened and shouted anxiously to remind the mysterious person.

At this moment, Han Ming moved, and he suddenly shook his body. He didn't retreat but moved forward, rushing towards the mutant giant wolf.

A wolf and a person met in the air. Suddenly, Han Ming's body turned dexterously in the air, and the two-headed gold-winged war bow in his hand swiped lightly. The movements were natural and elegant, as if there was no trace of firework, like fluttering. Passed by the giant wolf like a fairy.

puff!

The sound of a sharp blade across the body was very clear in the quiet mountain village, and it made the scalp numb and the body stiff.

Everyone saw a burst of cold light flashing across the sky like a meteor. Under the cold moonlight, it was so strange and beautiful.

Boom!

Two heavy objects fell to the ground.

One person and one wolf crossed in the air and landed on the ground at the same time. Han Ming's bow in his hands was behind him, the golden bow reflected the moonlight, bright and dazzling, and the giant wolf also landed on the ground at the same time.

After that, it suddenly turned around, with a pair of ferocious eyes staring at Han Ming, as if trying to swallow Han Mingsheng, his eyes were cold and scary.
