

Doomsday 931

Chapter 931: Tragic past Bibi is

"Turn your head fast!"

The few people who were hiding found that Han Ming did not turn his head, but turned his back to the mutant wolf indifferently, with a smile on his face, watching the mutant wolf approaching step by step, a few people suddenly became anxious.

"This guy is not stupid, right?"

When one of them looked at the silly Han Ming, he said blankly.

"Go! Go out and save people!"

Brother Fang threw aside a table in his hand, anxiously said.

"no need!"

At this time, a hand was pressed on his shoulder and prevented his movement. He looked back and saw that it was Guo Liao. The young man had doubts in his eyes. Guo Zi looked at him with a wry smile and shook his head. Look!"

He hurriedly turned his head and looked at the battlefield, only to see the giant wolf who had just taken two steps, his body started to shake, his eyes gradually lost, as if there was no focus, the coldness had disappeared and became confused.

puff!

With a soft sound, a spring of blood spurted out of the giant wolf's neck, which went straight for three to four meters. Then the giant wolf's huge body shook and fell to the ground. The blood spread quickly, and it was flat after a while. A large film, under the moonlight, is like a **** moon reflected in the water, cold, gloomy, bloody, and terrifying, making people horrified.

"What's the matter? What's the matter?"

The few people who didn't understand it all yelled. After all, they were looking through the gaps. They didn't see the first details clearly, and they couldn't get their eyesight. They didn't know what was going on, why the mutant wolf was so sudden. He fell to the ground in blood.

And Guozi's face was an awakened one, he saw it really, just before he was caught off guard, the mysterious man quickly waved the weird bow in his hand, and the two sharp blades in front of the bow instantly cut across the mutant wolf's neck. It was too fast, most people only saw a cold light flashing by, but couldn't see what was going on.

And the position of Guozi's face can be seen clearly, even the person called Fang Ge didn't see what was going on, he still wanted to rush out to save people!

Who is Han Ming?

He is a killer, and all the methods he can use are one-strike lethal methods. He has always killed the enemy with the fastest and most economical method to deal with the enemy. He never uses a second blow, and usually is a fatal blow.

He knew the effect of the knife he had just made, so he didn't need to look at it, and he knew the fate of this giant wolf.

However, now his actions are like a masterpiece, in the eyes of everyone, it is elegant, handsome, standing with back hands, milky white moonlight spread all over his body, the whole person is lingering with a mysterious and breath, it is no doubt a master style. Let people worship.

At this time, the few people hiding in the room are already showing little stars, even if the faces of Brother Fang and Guozi are full of brilliance.

The two of them just awakened suddenly. Sora possessed a lifetime of great strength, but they couldn't use it. They were ordinary people who knew how to fist and don't know how to kill. And Han Ming was different, not only proficient in ancient martial arts, but also possessed A killer skill, after awakening, it is simply as powerful as a tiger, and his lethality rises sharply, bringing him to the extreme. Even if Di Ping is equal in strength, he will not be his opponent.

However, after Di Ping only practiced a few martial arts, his combat techniques have risen rapidly, and the combat skills in the martial arts have pushed his combat power to a new height. I believe that after a while, as Di Ping will use these martial arts By the time, even with equal strength, Han Ming will not be his opponent.

Chapter 932: Observe the six characters

After the initial horror, Fang Ge finally reacted, chasing the mutant giant wolves that had no way to the sky and no way into the ground, and they all fell down. Once the threat to them disappeared, they finally breathed out. People hurriedly opened the blocked gate.

If someone else rescues them, if they still stay in the room and can't come out, this is not justified.

It can be said that these people still maintain a sense of innocence. They don't know the danger of the end times. Once the crisis is lifted, no matter who Han Ming is, they will come out directly.

"In Gero's side, thank you so much for this brother's help. We are so grateful!"

The person who called Fang Ge showed a rough smile, and smiled and clasped his fists from a distance.

The next year Han Ji is not very big, he has a fair face, and he is very young. If he is not called a little brother, Fang is embarrassed to say it.

However, if he asked him to call the eldest brother, he really couldn't call it out, and he was so kind as to call him brother!

"You're welcome, just a little effort"

Han Ming shrugged slightly and said indifferently.

"Eh! Brothers are a small effort, while I wait is a life-saving grace. What is the use of brothers for our brothers in the future, despite the order, my Lu Fang will definitely not frown!"

Lu Qiqiang looked straight and shook his head.

"Yeah! Brother, if it were not for you, we would be in danger today!"

Guozi also gave Han Ming a fist with a grateful face.

"Yes! Yes!"

The other four people also said one after another.

Han Ming looked at the few people very seriously, only thanking it from the heart, not like a perfunctory, from this point of view, only that he was not the inhuman being saved, so he smiled satisfied and said: "Okay, no Having said this, this is not a place to talk!"

As he said, his eyes swept into the gloomy forest with a serious expression on his face and said: "There was too much movement just now, let's talk about it when we find a safe place!"

When he said this, several people reacted immediately, with a nervous expression on their faces. Lu Fang raised his eyes and glanced at the surrounding boundless forest in horror. He felt his scalp numb and quickly said, "Yes, yes! Let's find a place first. Hide!"

After speaking, he looked at Han Ming and said, "This brother, I know a place, it's safer, let's go hide!"

Han Ming nodded: "Okay!"

Several people were about to leave in a hurry, when Han Ming suddenly retracted the foot that had just stepped forward.

"what happened?"

Lu Fang, who was waiting for Han Ming to go with him, saw this and stopped and asked inexplicably.

Han Ming looked at the corpses of the mutant wolves on the ground, pointed his chin and said, "This is a good thing. It would be a waste to stay here! Let's bring some to fill our stomachs!"

He is really hungry. Except for something to eat in the morning, he hasn't dripped water yet, and his hungry chest is attached to his back. After awakening, he has a large appetite and consumes quickly. There is no food in his stomach and he can't lift it. vigorously.

"Can this be eaten?"

Lu Fang looked at the mutant wolf on the ground with a puzzled expression.

"Of course you can eat it! This is a good thing!"

Han Ming gave Lu Fang a weird look.

"Brother, have you eaten? Isn't it poisonous? How does it taste?"

Lu Fang looked at the mutant wolf in the pool of blood, his throat moved, and asked Han Ming carefully.

"Eat it! Is this good wolf meat poisonous? Does it taste? You will know it after eating it, it is simply delicious on earth!"

Han Ming had a bit of aftertaste of the stew, but he just felt a little burning in his stomach, making him hungry.

"Okay! Let's go!"

After taking a mouthful of saliva, Han Ming swiped the bow in his hand, and a giant wolf fell in his hand on the hind legs, and then looked at the humans with the wolf's leg.

Chapter 933: The skill of not getting home

"Brother Fang, let's get one too!"

A young man swallowed his saliva, looking at Lu Fangdao with longing in his eyes.

They are hungry too! I haven't eaten seriously for a few days, and my stomach is already empty. When Han Ming said that wolf meat can be eaten, my stomach was even more hungry and feverish.

"Give me the knife!"

Lu Fang looked at the giant wolf's legs on Han Ming's shoulders, licked his lips, then gritted his teeth, took a machete from one of his brothers, and slashed at the other hind leg of the giant wolf.

Although the machete was sharp, it took a bit of effort to chop the giant wolf. The wolf's fur was extremely tough, and the bones were even harder like steel. Lu Fang managed to chop off a wolf's leg after slashing ten knives and then held it in his hand. , A smile appeared on his face.

Han Ming himself wanted to carry a whole wolf, but at this time the giant wolf was still bleeding. If he carried it, it would definitely flow all the way. If a mutant animal was tracked up, the safe place would become a dangerous place. He Han Ming could not make such a mistake.

Someone wants to ask, is there no blood if you chop a wolf leg?

At this time, the blood pressure of the giant wolf's body has completely broken down, and a lot of blood has poured into the neck wound. This time it has almost flowed, and now there will be no blood coming out of the base in other places.

In this regard, Han Ming is an expert. Survival in the wild is his compulsory subject. This is all basic common sense.

And Lu Fang didn't understand them, but seeing Han Ming doing this, he also learned how to do it. The main thing is that it is really inconvenient to carry a giant wolf.

A group of people, led by Lu Fang, walked back to the village, passed through the village, and walked inward along the bare hillside path. The path was more than one meter wide, and below it was a steep cliff about 30 to 40 meters high.

Everyone walked carefully for two to three hundred meters, turned a bend, and walked for another twenty meters. A cave appeared in front of everyone. The entrance of the cave was about ten meters high and seven or eight meters wide. More than a few meters, forming a huge cave area is not small, more than 100 square meters.

And the place where the opening is facing the straight and tall cliff and the mountain wall on the opposite side, you are not afraid of being seen by mutant animals, and the side of the village is blocked by trees and mountain walls, and you can't see this side.

Lu Fang seemed to be familiar with this place. He took out a lighter and lit an oil lamp hanging on the wall of the cave. The dim light was lit up in the cave at once, which was indeed much brighter than the moonlight outside.

"This is a good place. Brother Lu is really good at finding it in this place!"

Han Ming looked at the cave and sighed, who could have imagined that there is such a cave on the mountain wall. You can't see the situation if you don't walk over, but as long as you put a person at the turn, you can stare at the village. All movement.

"Of course, this is Brother Lu's hometown, of course I'm familiar with it!"

At this time, one of the young people was not without pride.

"Oh!"

Han Ming looked at Lu Fang in surprise, "This is Brother Lu's hometown?"

"Ok!"

Lu Fang's rugged face showed some difficult smiles, as if barely mentioning the joy of his hometown.

Han Ming is such a smart person, he can tell at a glance that he is in the wrong state, so he asked softly, "Brother Lu, are you okay?"

Lu Fang smiled bitterly and shook his head and said, "It's okay! I just thought of my family and made my brother laugh!"

"Brother Fang, sorry, I shouldn't mention it, I..."

The young man who had just spoken also realized at this moment, and looked at Lu Fang with a look of regret.

"Forget it, it's all over, no big deal, this ***** world may be a relief!"

Lu Fang rubbed his face fiercely, as if he wanted to rub his sorrow away.

Han Ming also shook his head helplessly. He still didn't understand that Lu Fang was definitely a family member. It was because of an accident. In this last family, the family was ruined and his wives were scattered too often. Although Han Ming was alone, he was already alone. He watched too much life and death. In the small town where he lives, he saw thousands of people die, but he was helpless, he could not save anyone, so he could only hide himself tightly and bury his head in the ground. Inside, as invisible.

He sighed, stepped forward, patted Lu Fang's shoulder lightly without saying a word, any words at this time were pale and weak.

Chapter 934: Disturbance caused by eating meat

Lu Fang looked at Han Ming with a sad smile, his smile was so reluctant, and a drop of crystal flashing from the corner of his eyes made this stout man add a touch of tenderness.

"I'll get some materials and come back!"

Lu Fang refused to show his cowardly side to everyone, he quickly waved his hand, wiped the drop of crystal from the corner of his eye, resisted the grief in his heart with a smile, and looked at everyone.

"Brother Fang, I'll be with you!"

Guo Zi Lian walked over quickly.

The two walked out, and the cave was silent for a while. The remaining four were not familiar with Han Ming and did not communicate too much. The four began to clean up the giant wolf's legs on the ground.

Although these four people are young, from Han Ming's eyes, they are all people who have experienced hardships. They are very skilled in their movements, and they usually seem to be working.

These four were busy, Han Ming became idle and began to look at the cave!

The cave is not empty. There are a lot of things. There are not only wooden tables and chairs, but also stoves and iron pots. There is not much dust on them. Obviously some people have used them recently. gray.

What surprised Han Ming the most was that on the innermost side of the cave, he actually saw a dripping pit, one meter above the ground, forming a one-meter-square puddle, and a stalactite-like puddle fell from the top of the cave. The cone-shaped white stones were dripping with water from above, and the puddles on the platform had long been filled with clear water, and it was still running down, the ground was soaked in a large area.

There is still water in this cave. This is really a natural hiding place. As long as there is food, you can live here forever. It is very hidden.

"Old Lu, what do you think of this person?"

Turning around the mountain wall, Guozi said with a low voice to Lu Fang.

When Lu Fang heard the words, his steps were just a meal. He pondered for a moment and whispered: "It's hard to say! This person is very cautious, never talks much, and still refuses to share his name with us. Watch him stretch out his hand and watch him move cleanly. Spicy, unanimous mission, I think he is definitely not an ordinary person!" When he said that, he stopped, a sharp light flashed in his eyes, and his expression was somewhat relaxed: "However, I don't think he is malicious, he should It will not be against us!"

At this time, there was no madness on his face, his eyes flashed brightly, but a hint of shrewdness appeared. People really can't show it. It turns out that his ruggedness is only an external appearance.

"Then you said can you pull him into our team?"

Guozi said with a mysterious smile on his face.

"Yuanhua, you really dare to think about it! Will such a character join our team? You don't feel the indifference and arrogance that he inadvertently reveals! This is a dragon, our small diving beach can tolerate it. This real dragon!"

Lu Fang opened his eyes and looked at Yu Yuanhua, then shook his head with some emotion and smiled bitterly.

"What a pity! If he can join us, our security will be greatly increased and we will be able to reach the new base soon!"

Li Yuanhua felt a little regretful when he heard Lu Fang say this.

He and Lu Fang are no longer friends for a day or two. The two have the affection of classmates, the meaning of classmates, and the affection of colleagues, and they know quite well. He knows this friend, regardless of his performance, but in fact He has a great feeling in his heart, what he understands is generally not wrong, he agrees and believes this.

"It's not a pity, it's good to be able to save one's life. There are too many metamorphisms. In this last days, you can only take one step!"

Lu Fang's voice was full of depression.

The two of them were not in a good mood because of this sentence, and they stopped making a sound later, and began to draw wood from the piles of timber piled up in a family at the end of the village.

Yu Yuanhua looked at his back and his nose was sore. He, a friend who has never given up, is indeed lonely and sad today.

Chapter 935: Out of the cave in the middle of the night

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua, the two can be said to be iron brothers. They went to university together, graduated together, and looked for a job together. Regardless of his appearance, Lu Fang is more anxious, but in fact, people have very emotional intelligence, because they are in a mountain village. I was born in a poor family, so I worked extremely hard. I started working when I was in school and accumulated a lot of work experience. It was after work that I had become a sales manager in the company in just two years and managed an independent department with more than 30 people.

Yu Yuanhua's family background is relatively good. The annual turnover of his parents' business company is also hundreds of millions, so the family is also rich, and he does not need to make money at all. He joined the company for fun, so he entered the same company for sales with Lu Fang, but , Others are relatively indifferent and less talkative, so in the company it is not obvious, so I became the little supervisor of the personal affairs department.

This time it was Lu Fang who came back to see his parents with his girlfriend who had known him for more than two years, and Yu Yuanhua also came to his hometown to play with him. The three of them went to his hometown to meet their parents. Jincheng, which is considered the most prosperous place in the mountains, broke out in the end times.

The three of them hid in Tibet. As a result, their girlfriends were killed in an encounter with a mutant dog. The two were also seriously injured. Fortunately, they encountered the army entering the city to protect the citizens from retreating. They followed the army to the Jincheng base.

It may be that they were stimulated, and both of them awakened after the injury, but they were both smarter and no one dared to tell. They thought that this kind of mutation was a kind of mutation and was afraid of being arrested by the military for research. After hiding deeply, the two decided to return to the mountain village to rescue Lu Fang's parents.

As a result, the two came out three or four times, and they were chased by mutant animals. They had no way to enter the land. They had to escape back. The mountainous areas returned to forests and hunting was prohibited. .

Just when the two were trapped in the base in a desperate situation!

Suddenly Komodo, the giant beast, attacked the base on this day. Only a charge smashed the ten-meter-high wall. In front of it, the wall was like paper, and the army's powerful artillery could not harm it. .

When the military district saw that it could not resist, it hurriedly protected the city residents to retreat, and Lu Fang retreated together.

What excites him is that the army's marching route turned out to be towards his village. He was so excited that he found that there was no one in the village, and even the cave for evacuation in the village had traces of activity but No one was found.

Now he was in a hurry. The army took a break for more than ten minutes and then went on the road again. He was worried that his parents would stay behind. However, Yu Yuanhua and the dozens of other bases grouped together stayed with them, Looking for another hiding place he knew.

As a result, no one went there. The cave where he hid was covered with mottled blood, and there were some traces of mutant beast activities, and he also saw his father's copper pipe that never left his body on the ground, which was still covered with blood. .

Lu Fang was completely desperate. From the disappearance of all the villagers and the copper pipe left by his father, it was not difficult for him to judge that his parents should have been killed. Lu Fang almost collapsed, holding the copper pipe and crying like a child.

He cried for half an hour, and finally after a few people tried to persuade him, he was relieved.

So the group wanted to rush back to the village to rest in order to catch up with the large army, but on the way they encountered mutant wolves. A dozen people, only six of them survived. If Di Ping hadn't saved their lives, they might have died too. .

Lu Fang hadn't been relieved from the pain before, and the whole person was a little depressed, which made Yu Yuanhua very worried about his iron buddy.

"Don't worry I will be fine!"

As if feeling the worry in Yu Yuanhua's eyes, Lu Fang picked up a bundle of materials and gave Yu Yuanhua a difficult smile.

"That's good! I thought you iron man was going to fall!"

Yu Yuanhua looked at Lu Fang, who was pretending to be calm, and felt his nose sore. He endured the sadness in his heart, and laughed and joked.

Chapter 936: The scary spider comes quietly

A stove was ignited in the cave, and the flames jumped. Everyone was sitting around the stove, their eyes fixed on the meat rolling in the iron pan.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua found firewood, and there was water in the cave. The four of them had already cleaned up the giant wolf's legs. The oil and salt were all on the stove, and the meat was stewed directly in a large pot.

At this time, the smell of meat is already permeating the cave, the smell is tangy, and the greedy people are drooling.

"Brother Han, is this meat really edible? But it smells so delicious!"

Lu Fang sniffed vigorously with a greedy expression.

During the stewing process, everyone had passed their names, and Han Ming had also told them his names, and he also knew the names of several people.

The strong man is called Lu Fang, the Guozi's face is called Yu Yuanhua, the remaining four young people, the two with guns before, the darker and thinner are called Chen Fang, and the short, white young man is called Zhang Zheng; and the two with swords are both. They are big and tall, all over 1.8 meters, that is, they are thinner. One with round face and small eyes is Liu Changhe, and the other with thick eyebrows and big eyes is Zheng Guanshan, both of whom are Lu Fang, a good brother Yu Yuanhua made in the Jincheng base. They went out of the city to find food together. They had experienced many life and death, and the relationship was very strong.

"Don't worry about it! This is a good thing, you'll know in a while!"

Han Ming turned over the sound of meat in the pot with a spoon, and said with a smile.

"Brother Fang, I think it can be eaten. With this fragrance, regardless of whether he can eat it or not, I have to make three bowls in a while!"

Liu Changhe stared straight at the cauldron, and greedily sucked down the drain.

"You are not afraid of being poisoned!"

Zheng Guanshan seemed to be unable to see Liu Changhe's greedy look, and said angrily.

"I will eat the poisoning too! I said that the mutant dog that I killed before should not be thrown away. You don't listen. You must know that the dog meat will roll three times and the gods will not stand steady, alas! My heart hurts!"

With that said, Liu Changhe patted his thigh with a heartache on his face.

"You are such a foodie!"

Zheng Guanshan scolded.

"What's wrong with food? It's better than starvation, right?"

Liu Changhe stared.

"Yes! It's better than starving to death!"

Lu Fang picked up the wood in the stove hole with the fire stick in his hand, and sighed with emotion.

His sigh of emotion made everyone dark, and they were not talking, looking at the stove in a daze.

Han Ming's eyes swept across the faces of a few people. He is not a talkative person at first, and always likes to observe others. The characters of these people have been touched by him for a while.

Among these people, Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua are awakened, but they are obviously centered on Lu Fang. Lu Fang's outgoing and generous personality can attract people, but he is partial and careful, making people comfortable to get along with. Yuanhua's personality is very easy-going, as if he doesn't care about anything, but he doesn't talk very much, so it is difficult for him to be the center of the crowd.

Among the other four, the black and thin Chen Fang is loyal and always likes to be silly, while the white-faced Zhang Zheng is very shrewd. His eyes are always dizzying and he is very scheming. Liu Changhe has a very carefree personality. I don't care, he is similar to Yu Yuanhua's personality, but Zheng Guanshan with thick eyebrows and big eyes is different, he is not very talkative, but he will definitely talk about the point when he opens his mouth, and he has a unique vision and insight.

On the whole, he has a good view of these six people. They can unite in this end of the world. When fighting, no one is greedy for life and fear of death. All of them have shown their heroic side. This made them part ways when they wanted to eat this meal. Dart Han Ming suddenly moved his mind.

It happened that Lu Fang and his entourage were also preparing to rush to the new base in Jincheng tomorrow. This was consistent with his goal, and they could all go on the road together.

Although Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua are not very good at fighting, they are also awakened, and they are only a help. The road is dangerous, and it is more safe to get on the road together.

Chapter 937: Everyone wakes up in the middle of the night

At this time, there was a lively activity outside, and there was a roar of wild beasts, screams, and even fighting from the village.

Obviously, the previous movement has attracted mutant beasts, especially the **** air, which has attracted some predators in the jungle.

Through the sound, you can hear that there is a wealthy dog, and the roar of a mutant wolf, mixed with the sound of a cat.

This is simply a big pot. A few mutant wolf corpses attracted many predators in the jungle. It can be seen that the jungle is not as calm as it seems on the surface. These mutant beasts seem to have run out of thin air.

Everyone in the cave listened to the clear roar of the beast outside, one by one, holding their breath, they did not dare to make a move, even the oil lamp was turned off, fearing that the light would attract the attention of the mutant beast.

Fortunately, after half an hour of trouble, the movement fell silent, and at this time the stew was ready, and the aroma was stronger than before, permeating the entire cave. If it hadn't been for the presence of mutant beasts outside, they would have rushed forward. Go and eat the meat.

"Brother Han, come first!"

Lu Fang held a large iron spoon and filled a large bowl of meat, and gave it to Han Ming in the envy of several people.

Han Ming saw that although several people were very hungry, they did not take the initiative to put the meat in the pot. They all looked at himself together. Knowing that it was not easy to refuse, he took it and smiled slightly: "Then I'm welcome Eat now!"

Lu Fang smiled and said, "You're welcome! Brother Han killed this giant wolf, but we've just followed!"

As soon as Han Ming took the bowl, the few people couldn't wait and hurried forward to get the meat, but then Han Ming suddenly said, "I'll remind everyone!"

Everyone stopped and looked at Han Ming blankly, not knowing what he meant.

Han Ming smiled and said: "This meat has a lot of energy. You can eat just one bit. I don't necessarily have to finish this bowl. You can start with a little bit less. Don't eat too much at a time. You can't stand it!

The reason why he reminded him was that he had suffered before. Last time Di Ping mentioned that he ate meat, he was hungry, and he ate too much, and he almost couldn't walk. Only later did I realize that this thing has a lot of energy. It's easy to digest, and there are not many people like Di Ping.

Besides, except for Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua, these four people are ordinary people, and it is quite powerful if they can eat half of it, so he reminded him not to break it.

"Oh!"

Liu Changhe had already filled a spoonful of meat, and was there in a daze, but he knew that Han Ming shouldn't lie to him, so he looked painful and reluctantly poured a spoonful of meat into the pot. .

Then he took another spoonful, only half of it this time. He raised his head and looked at Han Ming. He still shook his head. His face collapsed, and his face began to tremble cautiously. Spoon.

But obviously, he didn't learn the skill of shaking spoons of the aunts in the school cafeteria. With the craftsmanship of the aunts, only two pieces of ten pieces of meat can shake, and it is the smallest, but he just can't get rid of it.

The crowd almost didn't laugh, and looked at him as if they were about to be separated from their beloved ones. Han Ming couldn't help but smile.

"My day, you have to work hard!"

Zheng Guanshan shook Liu Changhe's hand fiercely. This force was relatively strong, half a spoonful of meat jumped out most of the time, and only three pieces of meat remained in the bowl alone.

Liu Changhe's expression changed in an instant, as if he had just been rounded by someone, and he glared at Zheng Guanshan with a grieving look, and then filled his mouth with a little bit of meat and soup at the bottom of the spoon into the bowl.

The crowd was holding a smile on their faces for a while, and it was quite hard to endure it. If it weren't for the fear of the loudness, and smile at ease, the ceiling of the cave would be overturned.

Chapter 938: Tinking from the canyon

After animals have undergone mutations, their meat quality has indeed changed. You must know that wolves are carnivorous animals with a lot of exercise and all meat is extremely tight. Although a little rough, the taste is extremely delicious.

After the mutation, the meat is not only not rough but also very refreshing, chewy, full of refreshing spirit, and very delicious.

Everyone held a bowl. Although they were greedy one by one, no one ate it first. They all held the bowl and looked at Han Ming.

Han Ming also understood what the few people meant, this is not to eat!

He smiled slightly, picked up a piece of wolf meat and put it in the mouth water, and suddenly a sweet scent was fried on the taste buds. The wolf meat has been stewed for a long time. It is very soft and almost melts in the mouth. Han Ming is hungry early. It didn't work, and I couldn't stop when I tasted this deliciousness, no matter how many people were, I started to gobble it up.

Lu Fang glanced at each other with joy in their eyes. They picked up the chopsticks and started making them. They hadn't eaten anything seriously for a long time. The food distributed by the base was not even half full, so they could only guarantee that they would not starve to death. It is a dream to eat full.

Had it not been for Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua to take the people out to find food, a few people would have been hungry with some old people on the base and could not walk, but when the city was broken, thousands of people were hungry and could not walk. , Failed to escape.

The more than 1,000 corpses that Han Ming saw were not accurate at all. The number was more than half the difference, but many people were buried in the rubble.

"It's delicious! It's delicious!"

Liu Changhe grumbled wolffully, as if a starving ghost was reborn.

However, several other people were not better than him, and they ate the meat in the bowl intently and evenly, and didn't have time to pay attention to him.

The whole cave was quiet, only the sound of chewing colliding with the tableware was heard.

Liu Changhe finished the small half-bowl of meat with two strokes. At this moment, he was a little bit unsatisfied. For a while, he looked at the hot food his companions were eating, and then he looked at the clean bowl he had licked. Looking at the steaming iron pan with eyesight.

The longing look is like a greedy child, looking at the candy in the showcase!

Han Ming eats fast but is very elegant. He is strictly trained. After a bowl of meat, he is not much slower than Liu Changhe.

He raised his head and saw Liu Changhe's appearance. He smiled and shook his head. He has had an experience, and he understands Liu Changhe's mood at this time the most, so he said aloud: "Wait for a while. Try, if you can, eat more!"

"Oh!" Liu Changhe turned around and looked at Han Ming. He said something that seemed to understand, and then he glanced at the iron pan on the stove with nostalgia, and walked to the side angrily.

Han Ming is almost half full for a bowl, and a bowl of meat is just over a catty. The bowls in the countryside are all Porcelain bowls, which can hold them.

He walked to the stove and filled another half bowl with Liu Changhe's envious eyes. He walked to the side and ate quietly. The last bowl was eaten too fast and he didn't taste it. For the second bowl, he decided to savor the meat. taste.

Liu Changhe was caught in a violent struggle at this time. He remembered very much that he was Sheng, but in the end he still did not move. At this time, almost everyone had finished eating.

They all heard what Han Ming said, and stopped and waited. Anyway, the meat is in the pot, so when can't you eat it!

"Brother Lu, you two can eat more. After awakening, your body needs a lot of energy. It's hard to eat without eating mutant meat!"

Han Ming watched Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua put down their bowls and waited for him. He knew that the two of them should not understand, so he spoke.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua both looked surprised, and only then did they realize that they hadn't eaten enough before because they were awakened and needed a lot of energy.

However, the two of them saw that Han Ming only ate a bowl and a half, and the two of them did not dare to serve more, and followed by a small bowl.

Chapter 939: The sky is like a tide

Several people, Liu Changhe, looked at the three Han Ming who were chewing slowly, with deep envy in their eyes, they were not full!

However, their eyes shook immediately, and they felt their stomachs start to get hot, and then it was warm, as if drinking a bowl of spicy lamb soup in the twelfth lunar month of winter, not only the stomach was warm, but also the body began to warm.

Moreover, the original feeling of empty stomach disappeared, and suddenly there was a feeling of fullness, as if I had eaten a few bowls of rice.

They didn't eat less, and that one also ate only half a catty of meat plus a bowl of soup. The energy in the giant wolf meat was very sufficient and it was quickly nourishing their bodies.

"It feels full!"

The thin black boy Chen Fang suddenly patted his stomach with a satisfied expression.

"Hmm! Me too!"

Zhang Zheng and Zheng Guanshan are also lazy.

"But I feel there is still room to eat, I can eat more!"

Liu Changhe pouted his lips.

"Can you still eat? Goodbye, you are definitely a pig!"

Zheng Guanshan pointed his thumb at him.

Liu Changhe didn't care about the contempt on Zheng Guanshan's face. He smiled and rushed to the side of the pot with a bowl, took a large iron spoon and plunged it into the pot, and poured out a large spoon.

But in the end he sighed and turned his face a little bit reluctantly. The spoon began to shake. After shaking for half a minute, he left half a spoonful and put it in the bowl.

Everyone looked at him as if he was trying to give up his wealth. They all felt funny, but at this time, everyone was warm and leaning against the wall and didn't want to talk.

Liu Changhe killed half of the bowl again, and his appetite was about to catch up with the Awakened. Han Ming looked at Liu Changhe a little unexpectedly. Ordinary people generally couldn't be full after eating two or three. He actually killed half a catty.

After everyone had eaten, all of them were lazy and didn't want to move. There was no bed in this cave. Fortunately, the people left a few quilts before laying on the ground and fell asleep.

They were tired a long time ago, but today they experienced too much. First, the mutant beasts attacked the city, and then they abandoned the city to escape. They traveled more than 30 kilometers on the mountain road and were chased by a few mutant wolves. I was also afraid that when I relaxed, I couldn't hold it anymore, and fell into a deep sleep.

Han Ming is okay, he finally has a full stomach, as the old saying goes: there is food in his stomach, not panic! Now that he was full, he felt a lot more comfortable. He took the quilt and walked to the entrance of the cave, spread it on the ground, and then sat cross-legged on the quilt to meditate and practice the meditation exercises he had learned before.

This kind of exercise is not very useful, it is to control breathing and achieve a calm and natural state, so as to adjust one's own functions and achieve the effect of rest.

The cave fell silent, only the faint breathing of a few people could be heard. Fortunately, a few people did not have the habit of snoring. Outside the cave, in the distant forest, one or two roars of beasts and unknown birds were heard from time to time. The sound, or the sound of insects, made the entire mountain village more silent.

I don't know how long he has been sitting cross-legged, and Han Ming is also a little confused and is about to sleep.

Ding.....

Suddenly a series of slight light tapping sounds awakened Han Ming. Years of assassin's career made him close one eye even when he was sleeping, never let him sleep too deeply.

His eyes opened suddenly, as if a bright light flashed in the dark night, bright and bright, he did not move, even his head did not move, just looking in the direction of the sound.

The sound stopped, only the rustle of the wind blowing over the leaves, and the sound of insects, there was no other sound.

But Han Ming did not relax. His instinct for danger was extremely strong. He felt a little abnormal just now, and the ding sound was definitely not the sound made by leaves.

Chapter 940: Thrilling fleeing

Ding.....

Time seemed to have stopped. Han Ming looked like an old hunter, staring at the direction of the sound without blinking. Three minutes had passed. If ordinary people had given up long ago, Han Ming would not. His instinct did not disappoint him, and his voice sounded again.

This time, under the circumstances of Qingming, his statement was clear to his ears, and he knew that he did not guess wrong.

"what is this?"

When Han Ming saw something climbing up on the opposite mountain cliff, his eyes suddenly burst, his face was full of unbelievable expressions, and even more shocked.

I saw a white spider crawling slowly on the opposite mountain wall. The whole body was as white as snow, crawling slowly upwards on the cliffs, like a silent ghost, looking to make the scalp numb. There is no feeling of joy for white things.

At this time, it was almost four o'clock in the morning, and the moonlight was not very bright, but fortunately, there was a hint of afterglow that allowed Han Ming to see the spider clearly.

The reason why Han Ming was shocked was not that he had never seen a white spider, but that he had never seen such a big spider. His body was about the size of a basin, and the claws were as long as one meter, and they were as pointed as spikes. Looking at his spider's claws, he knew how sharp it was, and every time it moved, there would be a light sting on the cliff wall, like steel scratching the stone surface.

Han Ming didn't dare to move, and quietly watched what the spider wanted to do, did he find them?

This spider is very strange and does not form webs. It is like an expert climber. It walks flat on the rugged mountain wall. It moves very dexterously, and it jumps five or six meters away. The mountain wall opposite Biru was only more than ten meters away, and Han Ming was really afraid that this spider could jump over.

This crystal spider seemed to be looking for prey, crawling fast on the cliff wall, a pair of small dark eyes scanning around sharply, revealing a cold and merciless wave.

"Hmm! It smells so good!"

Suddenly a mumbling dream word came from the cave.

But it was this dream speech that blasted a thunder in Han Ming's ears. The sound was not loud, but at night in such a quiet mountain, it was almost the same as a cannon. Although it was not far away, it was in this small space. It's too clear.

"broken!"

When Han Ming saw the crystal spider suddenly turned, a pair of dark eyes looked here, the furry tentacles trembled violently, he knew something was wrong.

With a move of his hand, he held the middle-aged war bow in his arms for an instant, drew out an arrow like lightning with his left hand, opened the bow and set the arrow, and faced the mutant spider on the opposite mountain wall.

"His!"

It's just that before his arrow was shot, the mutant spider on the opposite side suddenly moved his limbs, suddenly leaped in the air and leaped towards this side, and the speed was so fast.

Han Ming's expression changed. As expected, the spider could fly more than ten meters away. He did not dare sit cross-legged on the ground and stood up suddenly, and the arrow in his hand suddenly shot out.

Boom.....

A bowstring rang, like a cannon in this silent night, and the whole cave hummed with it.

Ding!

A clear sound of golden and iron strikes sounded, and the crystal spider's body seemed to have been hit by a fast car. It had already leaped half the distance, but suddenly flew out.

A jet-black arrow carried it and nailed it straight to the opposite mountain wall, and the tail of the arrow trembled and buzzed.

Han Ming let out a sigh of relief. The arrow finally hits. Otherwise, waiting for the mutant spider to enter the cave, it will be troublesome. He saw the speed of this crystal spider, which is really fast as lightning and extremely sensitive. In this small space, I am not afraid, but ordinary people like Liu Changhe are in danger.

"hiss!"

Suddenly a sharp neigh sounded.
