

Doomsday 951

Chapter 951: Life and death speed to desperation

With the appearance of the mutant spider king, the entire spider colony suddenly became quiet. All the spiders quietly joined the spider king, looking to the east, and the entire mountain village suddenly returned to peace, as if nothing had happened before.

Lu Fang and others dare not get out of the air, because it is too close to the village. It is no more than two hundred meters away from the Spider King, and the nearest mutant spider is only fifty meters away. It is not good to say it. A fart can start thunder.

"Wow!"

Suddenly, the mutant spider king raised his head and roared. The roar was sharp and long. It rang across the entire land. The sound blasted into the sky with great strength. The countless mountains responded continuously, as if proclaiming his power to the world. Tian Jedi's momentum rises suddenly, and the power is overwhelming.

This time the roar was not aimed at Han Ming and others, but Han Ming was still beating wildly by the mighty power, while Chen Fang and the others turned pale, looking at the mutant spider, their eyes showed deep horror.

"What is he doing?"

Han Ming felt a trace of joy from this cry. What is this giant spider king joying?

Forcibly suppressing the discomfort and doubts in his heart, he put his eyes tightly on the mutant spiders. He always felt that it was strange that these spiders gathered here at this time and did not chase after others.

At this time, the East suddenly appeared a touch of white fish belly, although there was only a ray, it brought a ray of light to this dark and silent world, as if it had been torn apart.

The bright moon hanging diagonally in the west also became dim and dull at this time, as if shy, hiding quietly among the clouds, as if looming.

The moment the fish belly appeared white, the entire spider group was in a commotion. All the spiders suddenly stood up and supported their bodies as hard as they could, as if they were trying to reach that ray of light.

The same is true of the Spider King. His huge body was supported by eight pairs of steel pillar-like claws, and it was raised two meters high at once, standing on the street in the village, as if it were a hill with the surrounding houses. Only at its feet at this time.

"It's going to dawn!"

Han Ming muttered to himself.

When this ray of light came, it was constantly changing. It seemed that every second the light would add one more point, gradually expanding a little bit, and within a short while, a piece of sky was already reflected.

At this time, a little red light seemed to rise from the sea, and once it was revealed, it dyed the eastern half of the sky red, like a girl's shy face, and the red is so exciting and infatuating.

At this moment, the mutant spiders standing still in the village looked like they had been frozen, standing still collectively, but none of the tens of thousands of strange beasts made a sound, all facing the east.

Immediately afterwards, the red light gradually expanded, and a glowing red rounded corner exposed his head. The whole world seemed to be alive at this moment. Han Ming could feel a sense of agility spontaneously, and some of them were unclear. Feel the joy of body and mind.

"That is?"

Suddenly Han Ming opened his eyes wide, and he found that a piece of red light suddenly spilled over the village and fell on the white spiders, as if to dye every spider red, and Han Ming was shocked that the spider was illuminated by the red light. The place quickly became crystal clear, as if it were about to become transparent. Han Ming could even see the structure of their bodies under the red light. He was surprised that the spider was actually absorbing this red light, and the red light visible to the naked eye seemed to be slow. Slowly blend into the general, and illuminate the spider's body a little bit.

Sometimes including the Spider King is the same, its whole body is draped in the sunlight, and the red light merges into the body little by little, making its huge body slowly and translucent.

Lu Fang and others looked at the scene in front of them dumbfounded, and were even more shocked by the weird behavior of these spiders.

Chapter 952: A line of life suddenly appeared

At this time, Han Ming had a real sense that these spiders seemed to be waiting for this red light.

Could it be said that there is any benefit to this red light, or does it help them?

Han Ming looked at this surprising scene with some puzzles. He really couldn't understand it. He could only attribute it to the habit of these spiders. Just like the lack of water in the desert, many insects stand upside down in the morning, condensing the moisture in the air through the carapace. , To solve the water problem, are these spiders also the reason?

But in the next moment, he didn't think like that. When the last point of the mutant spider's body became transparent, Han Ming discovered that a faint green mist suddenly rose up above them, and the condensation of thousands of spiders slowly gathered in the sky. , Forming large expanses of light green clouds.

At this time, a morning breeze blew over, turning the green mist into fragments.

"Smelly!"

Han Ming suddenly smelled a stench, and he almost spit out the overnight meal, and then his complexion changed. He actually felt dizzy and his chest was stuffy.

Not good and toxic!

Han Ming didn't understand at this time, it turned out that these mutant spiders rely on the morning light to remove toxins from their bodies.

But at this time, he couldn't think too much. As soon as he found that it was poisonous, he saw that the faces of Lu Fang who were hiding aside were not good, and they obviously had symptoms of poisoning. He hurriedly shouted:

"Hurry up, you can't stay here!"

Needless to say, Lu Fang and the others felt it too. They had been staring at it. When they felt dizzy, they didn't know that the green mist was a toxin.

Anyway, at this time it was almost dawn, and many animals have returned to their nests. It is much safer in the forest at this time.

Everyone dared not stay, and when the mutant spiders were still basking in the sun, they would wait more. Who knows if the spider king just didn't want to care about them because he was basking in the sun. , Are you coming to eat people?

There was no need to argue about Han Ming's proposal. Everyone followed him to the forest, while the spiders in the village were still quietly basking in the sun.

At this time, the red sun had risen in half, and red rays of light shot into the forest, falling mottled on the ground, falling on the wet and dewy vegetation, shining with colorful light.

A group of people sprinted through it quickly, letting the dew wet the clothes and hair regardless. At this time, it was a race against time, and that was all in control.

"Wow!"

Everyone had just rushed out of less than a kilometer, and suddenly there was a roar behind them. This roar was filled with infinite anger and seemed to be angered. The sound was as loud as the sound of rolling thunder from nine days, and most of the people who were sleeping for a long time Shocked to wake up, buzzing back.

"hiss!"

Then came the collective hissing sound from the group of spiders, the sound was sharp and harsh, and it was crushed towards Han Ming with strong coercion.

Some animals that are accustomed to going out in the morning for food, roared at this moment, and hid in their nest with their tails trembling.

"Wow!"

Behind him came a rush of messy beating sounds, as if a rainstorm hit the forest.

"Speed up, we are going to chase over!"

Hearing the movement behind him, everyone changed their colors, Han Ming let out a low voice, and the speed suddenly accelerated.

Needless to say, Lu Fang and others did not dare to neglect, their speeds were all accelerating suddenly, even Chen Fang and the others were shaking their legs like a wheel at this time, and they dared not relax for a moment.

The sounds behind him became louder and denser, and swept toward this side like a tsunami, and the scared people turned pale.

After walking in the forest for a full three kilometers, everyone panted like cows, their feet staggered, and all of them sweated like pulp. It was better for the three awakened Han Ming.

At this time, Chen Fang, Zhang Zheng, and Zheng Guanshan were already showing despair on their faces, and they could no longer run!

Chapter 953: Billowing torrent hinders the road ahead

"Run!"

Lu Fang's expression changed as he watched the three slow down, and he roared in a deep voice.

He was also uncomfortable at this time, still holding Liu Changhe in a daze. He felt heavy on his legs for these two kilometers, but he could still hold on. Now the spiders are still chasing after him.

"Run... No... Move... Now!"

Zhang Zheng was panting hard, his expression also floating in despair.

"No...give up! I...we still...hopeful!"

At this time, Lu Fang didn't care about anything else and also gasped and shouted in encouragement.

"Really...no...it works!"

Zhang Zheng's face was pale and he said intermittently.

"Wow..."

The buzzing behind him got closer and closer. This is the sound of spiders passing through the vegetation. Hearing it was no more than a hundred meters away, he couldn't help but feel despair when he looked at the panting three people. .

He and Yu Yuanhua and Han Mingdao are strong, but what about these three people, leaving them only a dead end.

"go!"

At this time, Han Ming rushed over suddenly, grabbing Zhang Zheng and shouting at several people: "Yuanhua bring Chen Fang!"

Everyone was taken aback for a moment, and then they realized that Zheng Guanshan of the three is tall and has strong endurance speed. He can span a long distance in every step, and the speed is not slow. Moreover, it is not a big problem to see his condition. He should be able to run. a while.

Yu Yuanhua reacted immediately and rushed to catch Chen Fang, who was already unable to run, and turned to follow in Han Ming's footsteps.

"Guan Shan... Add... work hard!"

Lu Fang reminded Zheng Guanshan to follow closely. Zheng Guanshan also nodded, gritted his teeth, and accelerated again.

After running for another kilometer, Zheng Guanshan was a little dysfunctional. Running in the jungle was exhausting. Even Lu Fang felt that his feet were heavy. Running with a person was different from running with himself. At this time, Liu Changhe's body was as tight as a mountain. Pressed him.

Yu Yuanhua was not strong. He ran for a kilometer with a big living person, and he was almost reaching the limit. At this time, Han Ming was better. He had experienced too much extreme training, and he had long been used to it.

But at this time, the rushing sound behind him has been following closely, as if it was an undead soul.

Everyone's faces showed despair again, feeling that the road ahead was a bit confused. These mutant spiders obviously refused to let them go, and couldn't help regretting why they didn't take advantage of the spiders to stop and eat the morning sun before they ran early, and they were not curious and secretly sneaking. Watch it, this is it!

The old saying is true, curiosity killed the cat!

"Brother Han, Brother Fang, you go, Brother Yu! No one can live with us!"

Suddenly, Chen Fang on Yuanhua's back spoke.

Everyone looked over, and saw that his face was serious, not like a joke. Although his face was pale, anyone could see the firmness in it.

"Correct"

"Let us go! We all have to finish playing with us!"

Zhang Zheng struggled a bit on his face and shouted through gritted teeth.

"Naughty! Keep running away!"

Han Ming suddenly shouted sharply.

Zheng Guanshan, who suddenly fell three or four meters away behind everyone, was affected by the words of the two people. Without paying attention, he was caught by a stone under his feet. He had reached the limit, his legs softened and he fell to the ground.

"Guanshan!"

Lu Fang, who was only in front of Zheng Guanshan, heard the movement and turned his head and shouted in shock.

"what!"

Zheng Guanshan pressed the ground and wanted to stand up, but there was severe pain in his ankle. His ankle was sprained and he didn't stand up. He smiled helplessly at Lu Fang and said, "Brother Fang, you go. leave me alone!"

"Crap...what! Get up quickly"

Lu Fang stopped and shouted sharply.

"Brother Fang, take Changhe away!"

Zheng Guanshan was sad, waved at Lu Fang, and then suddenly stood up with a long knife, looking in the direction where the spider was chasing, his expression all determined.

Chapter 954: Jumping into the river to escape and enter danger

"Guan Shan, get up!"

Lu Fang's eyes suddenly became blood red, and he rushed back with an angry roar.

"Old Fang, you are in no hurry!"

Yu Yuanhua grabbed Lu Fang and looked at him and shook his head, with sadness on his face. After all, Zheng Guanshan was also his brother who was born and died together.

It was too late. Zheng Guanshan was already behind. When everyone found him on the ground, he had already rushed more than ten meters away. Now the middle distance is nearly twenty meters. It takes time to run back.

But their staying mutant spiders have already rushed up, but they do not stop at one step, just like the waves swept across the sky, with a terrifying aura. He wants to rush back to save people, and it just rushes up at the speed of the mutant spiders. At that time, no one will want to run away.

"Guanshan up!"

Chen Fang and Zhang Zhengshen shouted anxiously.

They usually have a pretty good relationship, and at this time they are very anxious when they see that they are about to fall into the mutant spider colony.

"Hurry up!"

Zheng Guanshan suddenly turned his head and shouted sternly.

"go!"

There was a sense of powerlessness in Lu Fang's heart. He really couldn't save him at this time. He took a deep look at Zheng Guanshan, then stomped his feet bitterly, gritted his teeth and screamed, twisting and rushing out, the corner of his eyes A drop of crystals spilled.

Lu Fang turned his head and ran out first. Yu Yuanhua followed him. Han Ming also shook his head and quickly followed. Chen Fang and Zhang Zheng on their backs looked back at Zheng Guanshan who was standing upright. With tears in his eyes, everyone was silent at this moment and ran mad.

Han Ming didn't say anything, because this was a matter between their brothers. He had tried his best to save these people. Now each of them took one person, and he didn't have the energy to take Zheng Guanshan anymore. In fact, he liked this guy very much. , If it's not really no way, he still has to save it.

Zheng Guanshan held the long knife tightly in both hands, his face was absolutely staring at the surging wave of spiders rolling in. At this moment, he was no longer afraid, unexpectedly calm before, facing death, he There is a touch of detached ease.

In the last days, it may be a sin to live, and if you die, you will live in peace. He doesn't want to escape, he is tired, but even if he is dead, he has to stand and die.

"kill!"

Seeing the white waves rushing in, Zheng Guanshan suddenly opened his eyes and yelled, raising the knife in his hand and cutting it out.

As soon as Lu Fang rushed out more than 20 meters, there was a roar behind them. Everyone knew that this was the death of Zheng Guanshan. At this moment, everyone's eyes became warm and Chen Fang let out a depressed cry.

Lu's face was sinking like water, his teeth rattled, and he felt uncomfortable at this time, like a knife cut by a master, and followed his brothers to die in front of him one by one, which was torment in his heart time and time again. He felt that he could not bear it anymore, he really wanted to die with his brothers at this time.

It's no wonder that Lu Fang's heart is sad. He is a good-natured, loyal, and courageous guy who is heart-warming to the good brothers around him, otherwise Zheng Guanshan and others would not gather around him, and he would be the same. convince.

After he and Yu Yuanhua awakened, they did not dare to speak up. The two often went out to find food and slowly made these friends. Zheng Guanshan and these people can be said to be friends who have survived all kinds of dangers with him.

The relationship between the few people is quite strong, no different from his brothers, but he watched one by one die beside him. There are only five of them left by more than a dozen brothers, and Liu Changhe is still alive and dead. do not know.

Although Lu Fang is a sturdy man, his heart has been poked through a thousand windows and holes. His heart is dripping blood, and his eyes are flowing in his eyes and in his heart.

Chapter 955: The thrill of the water finally got off

Han Ming kept looking behind him, only to see a rolling white torrent swept over him, Zheng Guanshan only came and swung a knife, the whole person was instantly swallowed up by the torrent and disappeared.

He only felt that his scalp was numb, and such a large group of mutant spiders rushing in was too terrifying. If there was an impact like this on the mountain path before, no one of them would survive, but now I don't know if he can survive. Up.

The mutant spiders are chasing after them. They have caught up to nearly three kilometers, but they still don't give up, they are very persistent, and they have a posture of not giving up a few people.

Han Ming was a little helpless. He didn't know if he took out these mutant spiders and got his nest, or robbed his son, or stole his wife, so he must kill them all like this?

The mutant beasts in the forest also suffered. From time to time, there was a scream of wild beasts. It should be that many mutant animals could not escape into the range of the spider army and were wiped out by the spider group.

At this time everyone knew that there were so many mutated animals in this forest, and they heard no less than 30 horrible roars this time.

This made everyone even more panicked and ran desperately. Without Zheng Guanshan, the speed of the three Han Ming and Han Ming significantly increased again, and they shuttled through the jungle like three arrows. The speed was extremely fast and the momentum was like a horse. It was too late to clear the way. Rampage past.

"Huhuhu!"

Yu Yuanhua and Lu Fang were panting like cows, and their physical strength was close to the limit. Their legs were as heavy as lead-filled, and it seemed that every time they took a step, they had exhausted all their strength.

"Fang...Brother, let us go!"

Chen Fang suddenly cried out.

"Shut up! Then...I'm afraid...death, and...together, I...will you...give up brother!"

Although Lu Fang was panting, his tone was extremely firm.

At this time, Han Ming also felt bad. He didn't expect that the mutant spiders were still chasing after escaping so far. Moreover, these spiders didn't seem to know that they were exhausted. The speed did not weaken at all, but was getting faster and faster.

His strength has also begun to decay. He still carries Zhang Zheng. Although his physical strength is stronger than Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua, it is not endless. His breathing has begun to rush, and his lungs are actually hidden and a little torn. The pain was cracking, and the legs became sore and weak.

But now, he is a bit difficult to ride a tiger. Now letting go of Zhang Zheng, he believes that he will be able to escape, but now he can't let go. These people feel good to him. They get along all night and experience life and death. Tie Bengzheng, a good guy, he likes it from the bottom of his heart. He is a person who walks in the dark and never believes in anyone. He has no friendship, no love, and no family affection, but it doesn't mean he doesn't want these, he also wants Living a normal life, so he longed for such feelings from the bottom of his heart, and these few people made him feel like a friend in just one night, which was very sweet and beautiful.

Now let him put people down and run for his life. He really can't do it. Although he is a killer, it doesn't mean that he has no feelings. He is not a cold-blooded animal, but his feelings are deeper.

Moreover, he is a principled killer. Over the years, he has never touched the blood of women, children and children. He has kept his last trace of being a human being. He did it.

This is why Di Ping can tell at a glance that this is a usable person. He doesn't have that kind of hostility. His eyes are very straight. This is also related to his hiding, but people can't hide it completely. Di Ping believes him. Eyes and feelings, so I used Han Ming boldly.

It is now proved that Di Ping still has a vision to recognize people, and Han Ming did not leave because the mission is unknown, and is still actively trying to track down here.

So at this moment of life and death, since he can't leave everyone behind and escape alone, he has to survive. If he wants to survive, he has to find a way to take everyone out.

Chapter 956: Zhang Zheng drowned and fell into a faint

Han Ming was extremely calm at the moment. He didn't have time to discuss with a few people the question of whether to stay. He was violently active now. Although he was running with a cold face, his Lengjun eyes were like electric lights everywhere. Shooting, looking for a chance to escape.

"Shusha!"

The dense sound behind them chased everyone behind them like a tsunami, and the sound was only 20 to 30 meters away. Everyone felt as if they were being held tightly by their hands, and they were about to suffocate. Now no one is in the mood anymore. To discuss, Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua's desperate urging force followed Han Ming's head and ran wildly. Now as long as they slow down, they will be swallowed by mutant spiders in the blink of an eye.

"It's saved!"

Suddenly Han Ming's ears trembled, his face showed ecstasy, and he shouted loudly.

"what?"

With this shout, he attracted everyone's attention, and Lu Fang looked at Han Ming in confusion.

"Come with me, before...there is a river in front of you!"

Han Ming yelled, his speed suddenly accelerated, and he suddenly changed his direction and rushed forward to the left.

"Yes... the river?"

Both of them were dumbfounded by Han Ming's sudden actions, wondering why the river in front of them was saved?

However, seeing Han Ming's turn, Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua didn't talk nonsense. They pressed their doubts to the bottom of their hearts, and then turned to quickly keep up.

Just after running five or six steps, Lu Fang's eyes suddenly lit up, and then a ball of scorching burst instantly, and the speed suddenly increased again.

And Yu Yuanhua also realized it was only half a second late, and his face was full of excitement for the next second. He only felt a sudden surge of power in his body, and his spirit was extremely excited. He seemed to have taken a perfect supplement. Like a pill, the strength under the feet is agitated, and the speed is also increased, as if the wind is under the ribs.

With excitement surging on their faces, the speed of the three of them increased in an all-round way. In the blink of an eye, they once again moved away from the mutant spider group behind them. The distance that had already been narrowed due to the turning direction once again opened up to 30 meters.

"I see! Spiders are afraid of water!"

Chen Fang on Yu Yuanhua's back also reacted at this moment, and his face was full of surprises and exclaimed.

Yes, spiders are afraid of water. In general, spiders breathe by the book lungs in the abdomen. Once in the water, the book lungs cannot breathe in the air normally, and they will soon suffocate. Except for some aquatic spider hairs that can form bubbles in the abdomen, they can support it for a while. Breathe, but it will die for a long time.

And these white spiders are obviously very smooth and have no fluff. Terrestrial spiders like this are extremely afraid of water, even if it rains, they will hide in advance.

Han Ming has so much knowledge about the wild, and of course he knows this problem. When he ran just now, he wanted to save if there was a river, but suddenly he heard a faint sound of water in his ears, and he was very surprised at that time.

This is really dozing off and giving pillows. Whatever they want, they can escape by crossing the river.

Knowing that it was saved, everyone felt agitated, and no one wanted to die before they would die!

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua rushed desperately with Han Ming, which would calm down their kung fu breath. Sometimes people's willpower was really terrifying. Just now, both of them had their calves spun and their feet were soft.

It would run like a wheel, wind under his feet, and the speed was not much slower than Han Ming. If the spiders behind could talk, they would definitely open their mouths and curse, they could no longer keep up.

"Wow..."

The group of people ran for more than two hundred meters, and finally heard the clear sound of water flowing in front of them. The original worry was relieved, and all of them were filled with joy.

"Come on, there are still two hundred meters!"

Han Ming has been paying attention to the movement, he turned his head back and yelled, and then speeded up again. It was really moving like a rabbit and lightning fast. At this moment, Han Ming interpreted this word to the extreme.

At this time, all the talents discovered that Han Ming had always retained his energy, but once he unfolded, he was like a galloping horse, stepping two meters with each step, like a gust of wind spinning through the jungle.

What shocked Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua the most was that Han Ming's breath was always steady, and he did not breathe like Lu Fang and the others.

Chapter 957: Destroy morale

"Wow..."

Everyone rushed for a hundred meters with their heads dull again, and the rushing sound from the front was even louder. The sound was unexpectedly magnificent, and the sound of rolling water was like a mountain torrent.

Listening to the sound of water waves, everyone knew that there was definitely a big river in front of them. Just listening to this powerful current would not be small.

However, at this time, whoever cares about the water is as long as there is water.

When everyone rushed out of the forest and came to an open field, they were dumbfounded when they saw a big river about 100 meters wide and ten meters away.

The turbid river water is like rushing down from nine days, rushing downstream in a turbulent vortex, the waves colliding with each other, like thousands of wild horses rushing, the momentum is amazing.

"This!"

When Han Mingren saw this scene, his head was dizzy, his face turned pale, and he stared at the turbulent river in a daze.

No matter how the river descended, people were swallowed by the river in an instant. I didn't see a huge tree on the water being easily wrapped up by the terrifying torrent and rushing downstream. From time to time, I was shot up by huge waves. He fell heavily into the water and continued to rush downstream.

"rustle.....!"

At this time, there was a loud rustle in the woods behind him, like a wind across a bamboo sea. Everyone knew that the mutant spider had caught up. Through the cracks in the trees, one could see the white figures walking through the woods.

"How to do?"

Everyone look at me, I look at you, looking at each other, then they all look at Han Ming.

After this journey, everyone has become accustomed to Han Ming's command, and he has indeed led very well. Without him, everyone would have been killed by the spider, so there is still a chance to escape here!

At this time everyone regrets it! Why did you have to be curious before and hide in the spider rally? If you ran early, you would have escaped!

But now is not the time to regret!

In this situation, there is really a chasing behind and a stumbling block before!

What should we do now?

Either being swept away by the river and drowned, or eaten by the mutant spider, there are only two options.

Now that all the power has exploded, I can't run anymore!

Besides, how far can you escape?

Han Ming's face was also ugly at this time. He didn't expect that this big river would be so dangerous. After the end of the world, the old ancient rivers were restored to their appearance before the ages. The river was full of fierce surgings and became a moat on the earth, blocking people. Thoroughfare.

Such a large river is as powerful as a mountain torrent. Looking at the huge vortex, you know that people may be swallowed when they go down. Looking at the flow of the river, the waves are more than ten meters away, and the speed is scary.

"hiss...."

At this time, the neighing sound of mutant spiders came from behind, obviously mixed with excitement, they knew that their prey was about to reach their mouths.

There is no time for everyone to think!

Han Ming's eyes were cold, he suddenly put Zhang Zheng down, and put his bow in his hands on his back, and then suddenly swept his foot on a bucket-thick trunk beside him.

boom!

How powerful is Han Ming's power. Once the outbreak power was amazing, he swept the big tree with one kick, the broken wood splashed, and the big tree collapsed.

Several people looked at Han Ming blankly, not knowing what he was doing, there was still energy to compete with the tree at this crisis.

"Hurry up! Jump into the river with the tree!"

Han Ming saw how many people were still still, and suddenly his eyebrows were erected and he shouted.

"Oh!"

Several people were taken aback for a moment, but they reacted instantly. Yu Yuanhua took Chen Fang and ran over, while Lu Fang hugged Liu Changhe and hugged the trunk.

Zhang Zheng didn't need Han Ming's instructions to rush up and hug the tree trunk.

"Lift! Punch, jump!"

Han Ming also hugged the big tree, yelling two words in a concise voice, and then everyone lifted the tree, everyone rushed to the river, ten meters away, four or five steps, everyone stepped over, and then there was no pause. Jump into the rolling river.

A group of people jumped off the bank of the river more than three meters high, bang! The big tree splashed into the water, and it happened to be hit by a huge wave. In an instant, several people were swept into the water by the flood.

But at this moment, the mutant spiders behind him happened to pounce. They were too fast and could not stop the rush for a while. They plopped and rushed into the river. The mutant spiders behind knew the situation ahead and rushed over. , Waiting to see Dahe can't stop.

This means that it stopped when it stopped. Nearly a hundred fell into the water in an instant, but these spiders were very flexible and smart. It seemed that after hearing the neighing of the spiders in front, the group of spiders in the back stopped quickly.

What fell into the river was just a whirl, and was instantly swallowed by the river.

The mutant spiders roared at the river angrily for a while, but they were obviously afraid of the water, and none of them dared to go into the water. After a while, they retreated one after another, and disappeared into the jungle in a while.

Chapter 958: Brotherly kneeling for help

As soon as Han Ming and the others entered the water, a huge wave rushed and shot everyone into the water. A powerful suction pulled everyone tightly. The giant tree was like a match in the river. The current is rolling, sinking and floating!

Everyone felt that their body was no longer under control, and was swept downstream by a powerful force at the extremely fast speed before.

The few people couldn't see anything at this time, they could only hug the tree trunk tightly, being carried by the powerful impact, a large amount of river water rushed into their noses and mouths, but at this time, no one cared.

People often say that they conquer nature. It is only at this moment that they really feel how ignorant they are and how humble humans are in front of the mighty power of nature.

Han Ming is powerful, but at this time, facing the rushing river, he can't do anything. The huge waves swept everyone, sometimes slapped and sank to the bottom of the river, and sometimes was thrown high. The force was more than ten thousand catties. In front of this power of heaven and earth, the power of's is as small as an ant.

The more powerful he is, the more he knows of awe, the more respect he is for the heaven and the earth, at this moment he has a sense of powerlessness in his heart.

Han Ming and the others were dizzy at this time, and they didn't know how many sips of water they had drunk. Although he tried to shut his mouth, he always had to change his breath. The water could always find the opportunity to pour into his mouth and choke him. Cough.

The same is true for Lu Fang. Originally, his water is good, but now it is useless at all. The powerful whirlpool is sucking his body tightly with infinite suction.

He felt that it was getting harder and harder to clamp Liu Changhe. The powerful force wrapped Liu Changhe, and with all the strength, he pulled Liu Changhe. He clenched his teeth tightly for fear that he would be swept away by the river, although he was choked. A few salivas and a terrible cough, but he still held it back, at this moment his endurance exploded again.

I don't know how long he has been charged, let alone how long he has been charged. It seems that after a century, Han Ming feels the strong pressure seems to pinch his neck. To stop his breathing, he had already drunk a lot of water, and his lungs were choking even more severely. Fortunately, he was trained to hold his breath to support him.

But others are not exactly like him. He feels that there is something wrong with Zhang Zheng next to him. He seems a little confused, and the hand holding the big tree is a little soft. It seems that he may loosen it at any time.

This made Han Ming feel a little momentary. He knew what might be wrong with Zhang Zheng, but he couldn't see it now. For fear that he would be washed away by the water, he hurriedly freed his hand to grab Zhang Zheng's arm.

If he let go, that Zhang Zheng would be swept away by the river in an instant!

boom!

At this time, a huge wave hit, Han Ming and his group were thrown high, and at the moment when he was out of the water, Han Ming began to breathe in big mouths to supplement oxygen, and his eyes quickly swept around to observe the environment.

boom!

When the huge wave fell, several people were thrown into the water again, followed by the torrent and rushed downstream.

There was a hint of liking on Han Ming's face, because he had already seen the situation clearly just now.

The river course is widening, and the river course becomes extremely wide a kilometer away, where the water flow has slowed down, and it is time to think of a solution by then.

But the distance of this kilometer is not long for the torrent speed at this time, it is only one minute, but Han Ming is extremely anxious, because Zhang Zheng's body is already soft and muddy, as if he has passed out. This is not a good state, and Han Ming is a little worried about Zhang Zheng's safety.

Just when Han Ming was a little anxious, the speed of the group of people slowed down, like a car suddenly decelerating, the turbulent river water entered the flat area, without the strong coercive force before, everyone's body was light. .

"Let go and swim down the current to the shore! Ahem..."

Han Ming tried to lift his head from the water and shouted loudly.

At this time, a wave was about to come, and a large amount of water was poured into his mouth, choking him coughing again and again.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua are still sober. After all, they are awakened. Both their physical strength and the ability to hold their breath exceed ordinary people. When they heard Han Ming roar, they quickly let go and swim diagonally along the river to the shore.

At this time, the big tree can no longer be the help of the people. The big tree is swept by the river, and they have no power to drive it and can only loosen it.

Chapter 959: The killer also admires brotherhood

In the fast-flowing river water, you must not try your best to flow to the river, so that your water is useless, the strong hedging force of the current will prevent you from getting to the shore, and many people will panic and desperately panic as soon as they fall into the water or are swept away by the current. Swim to the river, the result is a strong reverse force that takes the whole life downstream. It is difficult for manpower to resist this pulling force. Once the power is used up, it can only be swept away by the current.

And Han Ming has gone through too many such trainings, going up the mountain and entering the water, those are the most basic survival skills, he knows how to protect himself in the rapids.

Therefore, as soon as he felt that the impact of the water had decreased, he hurriedly seized the opportunity, but once the river narrowed and the water flow rose again quickly, the few people had no chance.

He first loosened the big tree. At this time, the big tree was wrapped in the water, and the strength was so great that it was difficult for them to change with strength, so they had to throw away the big tree and swim past.

Han Ming grabbed Zhang Zheng, who was already loose, and desperately paddling the water towards the lower reaches of the river.

And Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua also learned the same way, each bringing a person with him, swimming diagonally with him to the shore.

Several people turned to the shore in the river water, but the undercurrent of the river has been sucking them tightly, making their movements very slow. They can only move closer by the downward momentum of the river. .

Fortunately, Han Ming's method is more effective, using the impact of the river water to reduce the pulling force of the undercurrent, which was washed by the river water for nearly one kilometer.

Finally, after a few people were exhausted, they finally touched the river bank, but everyone was taken by the current so quickly that they couldn't climb onto the bank. As soon as they hit the mud on the bank, they were taken down by the river. .

Han Ming was eager and quick, grabbing the road and a branch stretched out by the river to stop the momentum.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua seized the opportunity, and also stretched out their hands to grab the branches, and the strong pulling force slammed the small tree with the thickness of an adult's arm.

However, everyone's enthusiasm was offset, and finally stopped rushing downstream. A few people hurriedly grabbed the weeds on the shore, climbed up to the shore full of yellow mud, and lay on the ground without an image and gasped.

"puff!"

Han Ming spouted a mouthful of river water with some sand in it. He pulled the limp Zhang Zheng ashore, and then lay on his back on the grass without moving.

"Damn!"

I almost hung up today! This time it's overkill, and I have to find the boss to get some benefits when I go back, otherwise it's too bad!

Han Ming was breathing heavily, while discussing in his heart.

"Right! Zhang Zheng!"

Suddenly, Han Ming stood up and sat up with Ji Ling. Just now he felt that Zhang Zheng was wrong, his whole body was soft, and he was confused. He didn't know if he was choked by the water.

Zhang Zheng was pulled up by Han Ming, and he crawled on the grass without moving. He stood upright as if he was dead. Han Ming was shocked when he saw it.

He hurriedly stepped forward and flipped Zhang Zheng over, only to see that Zhang Zheng's originally pale face turned extremely pale at this time, looking scary as if he had lost blood.

Han Ming hurriedly stretched his hand under his nose. The next second Han Ming's face changed, he didn't even breathe!

"not good!"

Han Ming was anxious, and he didn't care about being tired. He turned over and jumped up from the ground. He checked Zhang Zheng's entire body from top to bottom, and found that his lower chest was a bit wrong. He took off his clothes and looked at it. Large areas of bruises.

Han Ming hurriedly touched and touched with his hand and found that there were two fractures in the ribs, but fortunately they were not deformed and did not stab the internal organs. This was relieved. It is possible that Zhang Zheng was injured by this injury and caused a lot of water. Then he passed out.

He hurriedly untied Zhang Zheng's clothes completely, pressed his palm against his chest, and felt it for a moment. His eyes lit up instantly, and he felt a faint heartbeat, so he hurriedly began to squeeze his chest.

Several people in Lu Fang were also startled by Han Ming's actions. Lu Fang hurriedly checked Liu Changhe, who was in a coma. He felt his breathing and his nervous expression finally eased. However, his expression changed immediately and he hurried up and ran to Han Ming. Around.

To say that Zhang Zheng is moldy enough, he also entered the water. Chen Fang had nothing to do, just choked on some water. At this time, he was lying on the grass and panting. It means that Liu Changhe, who was in a coma, was breathing normally. He was hit by something that not only broke his ribs, but also suffocated.

Chapter 960: Heart is not at peace

"Zhang Zheng! Zhang Zheng!"

Lu Fang rushed over, bowed his body, looked at Zhang Zheng's face and exclaimed anxiously.

"Zhang Zheng?"

Yu Yuanhua and Chen Fang also rushed over, seeing Zhang Zheng's eyes closed and his face pale, his complexion suddenly changed, and they were equally panicked.

"Get out of the way, don't block the air circulation!"

Han Ming shouted in a deep voice while pressing Zhang Zheng's chest and mouth.

The three of them froze for a moment and hurriedly moved away. They saw that Han Ming's movements were very proficient, and they must understand first aid, but they were all blind and knew nothing. They had to obey Han Ming's instructions and walk away first.

Han Ming pressed Zhang Zheng's chest rhythmically, and from time to time he lay down to listen to him.

"What about Brother Han? How about Zhang Zheng?"

Everyone watched Han Ming's actions, but Zhang Zheng seemed to be unresponsive, and Lu Fang couldn't stand up and asked anxiously.

"Do not talk!"

Han Ming didn't lift his head, and stopped drinking in a low voice.

Lu Fang was reprimanded by Han Ming's solemn tone, and he dared not talk.

After pressing for a few times and artificial respiration, Zhang Zheng still did not respond, and Han Ming frowned.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua rub their hands in a hurry, but don't know how to help, so they can only look at Han Ming anxiously.

After a moment of silence, Han Ming bent over again, starting from Zhang Zheng's abdomen and pushing upwards, three times from bottom to top, he suddenly picked Zhang Zheng up and lay on one of his arched legs, fingers heavy. Point on several acupuncture points on Zhang Zheng's back spine.

Then the palm of the hand was raised high and then patted Zhang Zheng's back heavily.

boom!

With an empty muffled noise, Zhang Zheng's whole body was shaken, and then he heard a "wow", only a puff of blood spurted from his mouth and nostrils, and then he started coughing.

Seeing Zhang Zheng's bleeding, Han Ming's nervous expression eased, and he exhaled a long breath. With these few movements, his forehead was actually sweaty.

"Zhang Zheng!"

The three rushed over in surprise, and Lu Fang hugged Zhang Zheng and looked at him worriedly.

I saw Zhang Zheng had opened his eyes, his eyes were still a bit hazy, as if he hadn't recovered, he looked at the crowd a little confused.

"Fang...Brother!"

After a full half-minute delay, Zhang Zheng reacted from the confusion and recognized the person in front of him. He looked at Lu Fang weakly.

"Zhang Zheng, what do you think!"

Lu Fang asked softly.

"I am so tired!"

Zhang Zheng spit out a word softly, closed his eyes again and fell asleep deeply, blood gushing out from the corner of his mouth, and there were blood traces in his mouth and nose.

"Brother Han, what's the matter?"

When Lu Fang saw this situation, he was immediately anxious, and looked at Han Ming and asked anxiously.

"It's okay to suffer a bit of internal injury, it's not a big problem, let him rest for a while!"

Of course Han Ming knew what was going on. His first aid just now was not a normal method. Didn't he look at him at the beginning and it was useless?

He felt that Zhang Zheng still had a heartbeat, so he tried to use normal pressing to get the water out of Zhang Zheng's belly. Once the water came out and breathing was normal, Zhang Zheng should be able to wake up, but the water could not come out. Now he was in a hurry. Zhang Zheng was bruised and his rib was broken. It is possible that there was blood in his body, and the blood was blocked, which made ordinary first aid methods useless.

He had to use a special life-saving method, this method is very simple, in fact, first acupuncture acupuncture points through the acupuncture points, let the blood flow again, and re-transport oxygen into the heart and brain.

Then the last palm is the key to shake out the blood in the chest and abdomen. This palm is heavy and breaks the person. It is useless if it is lighter, but it is difficult to master. This is also a kind of exercise. This is also a risky attempt, but luckily it succeeded.
