

Doomsday 961

Chapter 961: Looking for herbal medicine

Zhang Zheng was saved. Although he was injured and a little weak, he saved his life, and he could recover soon.

The three of Lu Fang were relieved now!

At this time, the three of them looked at Han Ming with admiration and gratitude. Not only was this person strong, but he knew a lot. If he were not here today, none of them might have survived. This is a lifesaver. Well, and it was not saved once, how could this not be appreciated by a few people.

A few people took a rest, and brought Zhang Zheng and Liu Changhe up to the river bank to find a place to settle down. This river is not a place to stay for a long time.

After walking for a while, everyone found a cave. There were no traces of mutated animal activity inside. A few people regarded this as a resting place. There were too many experiences today. Everyone had some strange emotions, and they sat on the ground without talking.

The atmosphere is a bit dull, as I think about it, this short time has cost them two brothers and two more injured. One has just woke up, and the other is unconscious. Anyone will feel depressed, if not already seen. Get used to the life and death of the last days, maybe several people can't slow down.

Zhang Zheng and Liu Changhe were placed on the ground, underneath their bodies were weeds cut by Lu Fang and others to prevent the cold from the ground stones from invading their bodies.

Zhang Zheng is no longer a big problem, and people fall asleep, but Liu Changhe's state is not optimistic.

Han Ming opened his two legs that were simply wrapped in cloth by Lu Fang and inspected the bite wound. His brow was frowning. At this time, Liu Changhe's two calves were already bloody, and large muscles were torn. The bare bones were exposed, looking numb.

What worries Han Ming most is that the wound turned black and purple at this time, emitting a faint smell, and it looked chilling.

"Is this poisoned?"

Han Ming recognized this as a symptom of poisoning at a glance, and he instantly thought that those white spiders were poisonous. Before, these spiders gathered in groups to remove the poison from their bodies by swallowing the morning sun.

Before biting Liu Changhe, the toxin in the mutant spider's teeth infected Liu Changhe's leg.

However, Han Ming was relieved that the toxin was not strong. At this time, Liu Changhe's legs were only black to his knees, and he did not move up.

"Brother Han, how is Chang Ha?"

Through Han Ming's previous actions to save Zhang Zheng, Lu Fang believed that Han Ming would definitely be able to heal, so now that he found the backbone, he could only ask him about Liu Changhe's injury.

"The situation is not optimistic, he is poisoned!"

Han Ming said with a heavy face.

"Poisoned?"

Lu Fang was taken aback for a moment, but then cried out in shock, "Those mutant spiders are poisonous?"

"It's the poison from the mutant spider!"

Han Ming nodded.

"Then what to do?"

Lu Fang's expression turned gray and defeated, and his body shook involuntarily, as if he had lost his strength. After a long silence, he suddenly raised his head with hope in his eyes, grabbing Han Ming's hand and shoulder, and begged:

"Brother Han, you must find a way to save Changhe, I can't lose my brother anymore!"

Speaking of Lu Fang, the burly man's eyes were red and his face was painful!

Although Yu Yuanhua and Chen Fang did not speak, their eyes were dotted with stars, looking at Han Ming with hope.

"Don't worry, I will do my best. He is only useful if he removes the poison first, otherwise it will get worse. You see, this poisonous muscle simply cannot heal!"

"This... do you get medicine on the ground in this wilderness?"

Lu Fang was a little silly when he heard that he was going to detoxify. Now he is detoxifying Liu Changhe on the wild hills. He doesn't even have a hospital, so he goes there to find medicine.

"Yeah! It's a bit difficult!"

Han Ming also let out a long sigh. No matter how good he is, he can't use it without medicine, but if he is allowed to continue this way, the toxin will move up further and invade the five internal organs, and then people will be out of help.

Chapter 962: Fall into the mountains and into the nest

In fact, Han Ming still has a way, which is to go out to find herbs in the mountains. He has learned some knowledge of using herbs to treat injuries and detoxifications. To survive in the wild, this is the most basic knowledge that must be mastered.

Once he was thrown into the Qinling Mountains by his master. It was full of virgin forests, high mountains, dense forests, poisonous insects rampant, wild beasts, a thousand miles of uninhabited land, which can be described as dangerous. He just lived alone for half a month. Just walked out of the mountain.

This benefited from the survival skills he learned, and the healing and detoxification also saved his life many times in this extreme survival.

At the most dangerous time, he was bitten by a mamba snake. This snake is very venomous. The bitten person will have difficulty breathing, rapid heartbeat, and fainting in severe cases. If no rescue measures are taken within an hour, he will definitely die.

And Han Ming just relied on the ability to identify herbs he had learned, and found the antidote herb to make an antidote within half an hour and survived.

This is also due to the professional anti-drug training done by his former master, otherwise ordinary people would have fainted in half an hour with such toxicity.

Therefore, for Liu Changhe, he has a way to save him, and that is to venture out to find herbs and come back to treat him, but he knows the dangers outside. For a fellow traveler who is not too familiar, should he take this risk? This is him. Place of hesitation.

He risked his death to bring these people out. It was considered as the end of the righteousness of man. He Han Ming was not ashamed and asked him to risk his life to save an ordinary person. He was not so great.

Lu Fang didn't know this. He looked at Liu Changhe, whose face was pale, and stomped his feet anxiously, but there was nothing he could do.

And Chen Fang also sat beside Liu Changhe, looking at him in darkness, tears in his eyes and worry on his face.

Han Ming watched all this silently, his eyes fluctuated, but in the end he sighed helplessly and lowered his head.

"Brother Han, is there really no way at all?"

Yu Yuanhua suddenly looked down at Han Ming, who was silent and asked softly.

Han Ming suddenly raised his head and looked at Yu Yuanhua somewhat unexpectedly. Seeing him looking at himself with scorching eyes, he seemed to see something, he was very surprised!

This young man who is usually silent and not talkative has such eyesight. Seeing his hesitation, he guessed that he must have a way, otherwise he would not ask this sentence.

Han Ming didn't know how to answer for a while, did he answer yes or no?

If the answer is yes, then you have to find the medicine. If the answer is no, Han Ming doesn't lie!

But Yu Yuanhua, who had been paying close attention to Han Ming's expression, raised his brows. He knew his guess was correct. Han Ming really had a way to save Liu Changhe, but this method might be more difficult, so Han Ming hesitated.

Yu Yuanhua's words caught Lu Fang's attention. How clever Lu Fang was, he might say that his eyelashes were empty. He saw the hesitation in Han Ming's expression and immediately realized that Han Ming could save people.

Lu Fang's face was solemn, and he actually took a step towards him. He knelt down on one knee with his right leg, clasping his fists and looking at Han Ming with excitement:

"Brother Han, I know I might make it difficult for you to do this. You have saved us many times, but Changhe is our brother. Now his life and death are hard to know. We can't help but save him. Today Yuanhua will beg Han Geshi. If there is a way, please let me know. On behalf of my brothers, please thank Brother Han for his kindness, and I will do everything in the future!"

"This....."

"Brother Lu?"

Seeing this scene, both Yu Yuanhua and Chen Fang were stunned and exclaimed.

They did not expect that Lu Fang would kneel down to Han Ming in order to save Liu Changhe. Even Han Ming did not expect that this Lu Fang could do this for his brother, which shocked him.

Chapter 963: Lu Fang's * battle against Leopard

"Brother Lu doesn't need to be like that, what he said is not repaying his favor!"

Han Ming unexpectedly acted by Lu Fang. This stout man is indeed very loyal. He would kneel to save his brother. It may be common in ancient times. But in today's age when men are admired to have gold under their knees, kneeling is hard to accept. of.

But this guy did it for his brother!

However, this also puts himself on the fire and roasts himself, and there is no way to save him. This is tantamount to changing directions kidnapped him.

However, Han Ming was not angry. He could understand that Lu Fang was willing to beg himself in order to save people. Moreover, when he knelt down and begged, he meant to ask Han Ming to forgive him, and Lu Fang changed his name to Brother Han. , This has already shown that it is very clear. In the future, Han Ming will be the head. This is also a kind of repaying and an exchange. This kind of person is very understanding of human feelings, and Han Ming can't get angry at all.

He lifted up Lu Fang, and watched the two smiled bitterly: "There is no way, but I don't know whether it will work or not, I am afraid you will be disappointed if you say it!"

As soon as Han Ming said this, the trio's eyes lit up and their expressions became a little excited.

Lu Fang looked at Han Ming solemnly and said, "Brother Han made it difficult for you. Please tell me about the method. If there is a little hope, we still want to try it!"

"Okay!" Han Ming nodded helplessly: "I have some knowledge of herbal medicine. If I can gather several kinds of herbal medicine, Liu Changhe's poison may be solved!"

Han Ming didn't say too much. After all, he is not a professional detoxification doctor. He just knows some pharmacological properties. What if the mountain does not have this kind of herbal medicine he knows, he dare not say too much.

Everyone was taken aback as soon as he said something. They understood why Han Ming hadn't said it just now. You must know that herbs are not available everywhere, they usually grow in the mountains.

It would be okay if you put medicine on the mountain forward in the last days, that is, it is difficult to walk, get tired, and climb the mountain more, but you have to know when it is now, is it the end of the world?

The world has changed, plants have evolved and grown, animals have mutated, and the mountains and forests can be said to be dangerous. Don't they know this way?

This is only the periphery of the mountain, but the number of mutated animals in this way is also astonishing. Now it is no doubt that going into the mountain to collect medicine is no doubt about seeking death.

The expressions of the three of them all turned ugly. Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua also struggled for a while. This is equivalent to exchanging their own lives for the lives of others. People are a little hesitant. This is a normal psychological activity.

However, when Lu Fang saw Liu Changhe lying on the ground with a pale face and black calf, he gritted his teeth and suddenly raised his head to look at Han Shi and said:

"I'll pick it!"

As soon as he said this, he seemed to feel relieved, and he became more relaxed. He looked at Han Ming and continued:

"Brother Han, you will need those kinds of herbs, tell me what they look like, I'll get them back!"

Yu Yuanhua also took a step forward and pulled Lu Fangdao:

"Let me go!"

Lu Fang pushed away Yu Yuanhua's hand, and laughed very relaxedly: "What a joke, you rarely climb in the mountains, do you know where the herbs grow? After all, this is my hometown and I know it!"

"But I am fast and safer!"

Yu Yuanhua just didn't let go and blushed and argued.

"But I am stronger than you, and I can fight than you!"

However, Lu Fang did not regress at all. If he hadn't lost his mace during diving, he would have tried to swing it twice, frightening Yu Yuanhua.

Han Ming quietly watched the dispute between the two of them. He suddenly envied the emotions of the two of them. Brothers in life and death, taking care of each other's lives, and he was completely alone except for the dead master. The killer was originally a lonely profession, destined to He is unable to fall in love, get married, and make friends like ordinary people. His natural vigilance makes them wary of everything, so they are more difficult to reach and never reveal their heart, which makes it difficult to make true friends. .

Maybe these people can make friends, he has an urge to make friends.

"Well, you don't have to earn it! I'll go!"

Han Ming suddenly said silently.

Chapter 964: Return safely in the sound of heavy rain

In fact, Han Ming regretted it when he said this!

At this moment, his sensibility has actually done something that is not in his interests. The killer has always killed people for profit, and when did he kill for emotion.

Han Ming suddenly remembered what the master said to himself when he was dying.

"Apprentice, you are very smart and learn everything fast. In the killer business, you will go far and higher than the master. Maybe you have the opportunity to explore the scenery of the top killers. If there is one day, You have to tell the master to make me happy even in the underground!"

"However, disciple, there is a saying that is up to today, I have to tell you! You are not a qualified assassin, your heart is not cold enough, your knife is not profitable, not decisive enough, a true top killer must Keep a heart that is always sensible and always calm, and cannot be fluctuated by a trace of emotion!"

"Once the killer has feelings and his mind is no longer peaceful, then you can no longer be regarded as a killer. If that day, you will retire! Otherwise, you will be as dead and wrong as the master!"

Thinking back to the words of the master still in his ears, Han Ming's mood fluctuated even more, thinking that next year, Han Qingqing will be in the ranks of first-rate killers before he is 25 years old. The ranks.

But the last time I performed the task, there was an accident. The subject was like a businessman. Because of the methods used, an international company fell apart. The boss of this company was ruined and his wife was scattered. His fate, and Han Ming took the sign.

When he found the opportunity to start, he never thought that the businessman's five-year-old daughter suddenly appeared on the scene. The businessman knelt on the ground and begged him not to hurt his daughter, let alone kill himself in front of her.

Han Ming looked at the girl's innocent and bright eyes full of horror, hiding behind his father timidly.

He hesitated when looking at the innocent eyes that did not contain a trace of impurities. He actually felt a deep dislike of his profession every time in his heart. He did not dare to look at these clear eyes!

There is an unwritten rule in the killer world, that is, you can't see people, you will kill your mouth when you see people, even children!

Because their identities cannot be revealed. Once they are remembered, their careers will be over. After all, they also have identities in real life. Killers who die tragically because of such carelessness abound.

In the end, Han Ming couldn't make a move. He really couldn't help killing an innocent child. In the end, he missed.

As soon as the killer missed his hand, he was abandoned. He paid a large amount of compensation, left the killer group, and went to the previous town alone to retire.

He always remembered what the master said, and if his heart was not still, he would leave! The killer is no longer suitable for him.

Today, he was a little impulsive again. He was indeed a bit lonely in his life as a killer. He also wanted to find some fellow travelers. This is the most important reason why he quickly agreed to Di Ping. Of course, weapons also accounted for a considerable portion.

But the most important thing is that he still wants to join a group. He doesn't want to endure the endless loneliness. This end of the world is a disaster for others, but it may be the best opportunity for him to have the opportunity to escape from his shamelessness forever. identity of!

"Brother Han, how can I let you go? You have done enough for us!"

Yu Yuanhua shook his head repeatedly.

"Yes! Brother Han, you can't be allowed to go anyway. Tell me what the medicine looks like and I will go. I am familiar with this area! I know that there are herbs, and there are people in our village who collect them! "

Lu Fang also hurriedly stopped Han Mingdao.

"Okay, don't make any money, I just tell you can you know herbs?"

Han Ming waved his hand to stop the two.

Now that it has been decided, he does not regret it, right?

Can there be no impulse or impulse in life, is it still a perfect life?

Since you have decided to be an ordinary person, it is to learn to adapt to a lonely life like a killer, so what is the meaning of life?

Chapter 965: Good things come to my heart

In the end, Han Ming still didn't make the trip alone. Instead, Lu Fang accompanied him to gather medicine. After all, he was not familiar with this area. It was much more convenient to have Lu Fang as a local.

I don't know if it's because God saw them not working hard enough, but it rained in the sky not long after they left the cave.

There is a lot of rain in this mountainous area to the south, and it is summer, and the rain comes just as it comes.

Although the two were drenched into soup chickens, they were very happy. In this rain, mutant animals generally did not come out for food, which greatly increased their safety.

The vegetation has mutated, and the herbal medicine has also mutated. Han Ming really doesn't know if it can be identified, and whether the medicinal properties have mutated, and whether the previous performance has changed. For example, the detoxification becomes poisonous, which is troublesome.

However, now only a dead horse can be a living horse doctor, let's find the medicine first!

Lu Fang took Han Ming and walked up the cave. This area is full of small hilly areas. The mountains are not high and the highest is only a few tens of meters. They have to walk four or five kilometers to the southwest and turn over a hill to enter Nanshan, where there are big mountains. It stretches for thousands of miles, and many mountains are thousands of meters high.

Originally, it was best for them to go to the previous small village. There was a mountain beam over there with some herbs. In the past, the people of Lufang Village used to go up that mountain to gather medicine.

Just now they dare to go?

There is already occupied by mutant spiders!

The rain is getting heavier and heavier, unexpectedly a bit of a non-stop posture. The two of them braved the rain to walk through the mountains and forests, paying attention to the surrounding environment from time to time. It is difficult to find the mutant animal the first time, and maybe they will come across it directly, so both of them are very careful.

Han Ming's battle bow has been held tightly in his hand, and a heavy arrow is held in his other hand. Once the situation is not right, he will launch it immediately.

Shattering!

The rain clicked on the leaves, the sound was loud, and the whole world seemed to fall asleep in this rushing sound.

The mountains in the south are already beautiful and there are many vegetation. This variation is even more exaggerated. It takes a lot of energy to identify whether there are herbs on the ground.

"Eh!"

Suddenly Han Ming looked at a clump of weeds, his eyes lit up and hesitated.

Although the rain was heavy, the alert Lu Fang heard it for the first time. He stopped quickly and looked back at Han Ming and said, "Brother Han has found out!"

"This may be!"

Han Ming squatted down, fiddled with a cluster of knee-high leafy plants, carefully inspecting its stems and leaves.

"is not it!"

Lu Fang also knelt down and asked nervously.

"This is also useful. It's called Ma Qiancao. It is used for hemostasis and muscle growth. Changhe uses it!"

Han Ming tasted a little leaf, the medicine did not change, his eyes flashed with surprise.

"Just useful! Why not detoxify?"

Lu Fang nodded happily, but then said a little disappointed.

"Don't worry!"

Han Ming smiled indifferently. He could find one, and he should be able to find another. As long as it proves that there are herbs on the mountain and the properties of the herbs have not changed, there is hope.

Sure enough, Han Ming did not disappoint. After searching for more than an hour again, he harvested more than ten kinds of herbs, some for muscle growth, some for stasis, and some for hemostasis. He put them away one by one. Maybe when it's all useful and prepared.

Moreover, they also found detoxification herbs. There were two kinds of herbs, one called heather and the other called Shuanghuangye, both of which were detoxifying herbs.

After finding the herbs, the two did not dare to neglect, and they began to return. They dared not walk into the mountains. The more they went in, the more dangerous the mountains became, and the more lush vegetation made it difficult to walk in them.

At this time, the two of them had to be five kilometers away from the cave, and it would take two or three hours to rush back, but they were in trouble just after they got down the mountain and entered the ravine.

Chapter 966: Heaven's Path Cycle Cause and Effect

Maybe it was Lu Fang's bad luck. One inadvertently rolled down the hillside with one foot in the air. Fortunately, the hillside was not too high, only thirty or forty meters, but he landed at the entrance of a cave so well.

He just wanted to get up, but suddenly found that the place opposite to him was a dark cave less than five meters away. At this moment, there was a pair of green eyes looking at him in the cave, and he was frightened, and he was lying on the spot. I dare not move, staring at the hole with vigilant eyes.

At this time, 10,000 heads of grass horses were running wild in his heart. How could they fall into the den of beasts? The most important thing is that he doesn't have anyone in his hands now?

The mace fell into the river, and now there was only a machete, but when he looked at the machete that was only a foot long, he really didn't know if he could deal with the beast in the cave.

He kept praying now, this beast is too lazy to not come out or Han Ming can come down faster.

But his prayers didn't work. After the initial surprise, the beast had now reacted. Lu Fang saw that the pair of eyes moved and moved towards the outside of the cave.

Lu Fang's heart mentioned his chest. He half-crawled on the ground and did not dare to move. For fear that a move would cause an attack by the beast in the cave, he tightly held the machete in his hand, and he did not dare to wipe his eyes even when it rained.

Suddenly, a yellow light and shadow shot out from the hole like lightning. The speed seemed to break through the human eye's perception, but it appeared in front of Lu Fang in a flash, and a huge mutant beast rushed towards him, and the blood bowl was big and smelly. , The fangs are fierce and sharp.

Lu Fang has also gone through many battles. With a little experience, he knew that he was too late to move the knife, so he instinctively turned his body to the side and wanted to avoid the bite that caused it, but he avoided it. The key part of the throat, but the shoulders did not hide.

With only a soft sound, his shoulders were marked with two deep scars, flesh and blood turned out, deep to the bone, the painful Lu Fang's tooth cracked, and he let out a muffled grunt.

Regardless of the pain, he hurriedly rolled over two meters away, and then turned to look.

This is a leopard with a yellow pattern and black spots. It is more than 1.5 meters tall and about three meters long. A pair of long fangs gleams with Huang Sensen's cold light.

His eyes were cold and cruel, as if he was looking at a dead thing, and looked at Lu Fang fiercely, only to feel a tremor all over his body, and there was a chill in his heart, and the courage that had risen in his heart was quickly fading.

In the leopard's deadly gaze, he was actually scared, and Lu Fang was very ashamed and ashamed, but he couldn't help shaking.

He had heard people say that someone had found a leopard in this Nanshan, and he had always thought it was impossible, but today he really met, and the other party wanted his own life.

The leopard is the most ruthless killer in the forest. It is extremely fast, out of sight, and always attacks inadvertently. It is not very defensive. In the mountains and forests, even tigers are unwilling to provoke them. Cheetahs are silent and quiet. Staying still for a long time without moving, just for a surprise blow, it is very difficult for a miss to hit the horse.

It had been observing Lu Fang calmly. When it saw the timidity in Lu Fang's eyes, it suddenly moved again, from extremely quiet to extremely fast, as if only in a moment, a surprise attack came to Lu Fang.

"what!"

Lu Fang yelled in shame, and the machete in his hand slashed towards the cheetah's head. Inexperienced and flustered, he was confused for a while and moved his knife at the cheetah's head that was least likely to be injured.

With a fragile sound, the machete in Lu Fang's hand was knocked off by the leopard claw and fell into the grass.

"what!"

Lu Fang let out a painful cry, his chest was once again scratched by the leopard's claws, his clothes shattered, his flesh and blood turned out, and blood spurted out like a spring.

Lu Fang was in a terrible state at this time, blood was flowing from the wound, and the rain rushed down his clothes. There was blood on the ground on his body.

His face turned pale, and a lot of blood poured out. He felt that his body functions were fading quickly. Although he didn't cut the mutant leopard's head with a single knife, it also worked. The leopard was not biting his neck, but Knock his knife into the air, otherwise his neck has been bitten off now.

However, he still didn't escape the claws of the leopard. In a short time, he even had a chance to catch himself. With this, three deep marks were made on the half of his chest, and a little deeper, it hit the heart.

As soon as Han Ming saw Lu Fang rolling down the hillside, he was anxious. The grass was luxuriant. He couldn't see the situation at the bottom of the valley. He had to look for the direction of the valley. He didn't dare to shout, for fear that the loud voice would attract mutant animals.

Since the surface of the  is extremely slippery when it is raining, he has to wading his feet carefully and not daring to touch it too fast. If he rolls down, it will be troublesome.

Down the  for more than ten meters, Han Ming suddenly heard a roar from Lu Fang. He was shocked on the spot, and he quickly climbed the tree downhill to hurriedly rushing downhill regardless of other things.

As soon as the leopard landed, he turned over and rushed towards Lu Fang again, unable to imagine its huge body so flexible.

"Die me!"

Lu Fang, who was continuously injured, was suddenly aroused by fierceness. He roared and kicked the leopard's jaw with his foot up.

However, the leopard was flexibly sideways in the air, and a pair of hind legs kicked towards Lu Fang.

Lu Fang kicked in the air. Seeing the leopard kicked on but he didn't even have a chance to get out, he felt a huge force hit his chest, like being hit by a heavy hammer, the whole person kept flying out. .

As soon as the leopard fell to the ground, it pushed its limbs on the ground again, and rushed towards Lu Fang who had fallen into the grass like a bolt of lightning.

Lu Fang spouted blood and his face was as pale as paper. At this moment, his body seemed to fall apart, and he couldn't help it with any strength. He struggled to stand up, but his arms were weak and his chest pained, and he fell again.

But at this moment, the mutant leopard leaped and rushed over with the fishy wind, and the mouth of the blood basin had been opened before it was facing his neck!

Lu Fang looked at the mutant leopard that leaped towards him, his heart was sad, and he was finally dying! I still couldn't avoid it, so I can go down to accompany my relatives.

At this moment, Lu Fang suddenly lost his fear, and his heart was extremely calm. Everything around him seemed to slow down. He could even see the excitement in the cold eyes of the leopard!

Lu Fang closed his eyes lightly. He didn't want to see the mutant leopard eating his own flesh and blood, so he just closed his eyes and waited to die!

"Boom!"

Suddenly a bowstring rang, followed by a "puff!" A sound of nirvana, and then the whole world became quiet.

"boom!"

Lu Fang only felt his body sank when a heavy object suddenly fell on him.

"puff!"

Lu Fang spouted a mouthful of blood again. At this time, his body was all wounded, and he could bear it when he was pressed by this heavy object.

He only came and opened his eyes to see that the mutant leopard was pressing on him, and then he fainted in front of him.

Chapter 968: Talent enhancement

Han Ming rushed down from the hillside in a panic expression, still holding the bow in his hand, and holding a heavy arrow in his other hand, seemingly ready to shoot another arrow at any time.

He just rushed down halfway down from above, just in time to see the mutant leopard hit Lu Fang out, and then flew straight up. He didn't dare to neglect and just shot an arrow. After shooting the arrow, he rushed down quickly without stopping, hoping to save Gero Fang.

The leopard had an arrow in the middle of his forehead, and the arrow had already been shot right. The blood rushed out of the blood trough of the arrow shaft, and the ground was stained red with rain.

When he rushed down to see the panther's horror, he finally let out a long breath, but then he got worried again.

He only saw one leg of Lu Fang protruding from the mutant leopard, motionless, without knowing his life or death, he hurriedly stepped forward and pulled the mutant leopard away, revealing a * Lu Fang under it.

Lu Fang's condition was terrible. Not only was his body covered with blood, but the shocking wounds on his left shoulder and right chest turned inward and outward, making the scalp numb when looking like a child's mouth.

Han Ming hurriedly stepped forward and checked it. Fortunately, Lu Fang was not fatally injured. He hurriedly picked up Lu Fang and brought it into the cave to treat the wound. Fortunately, he collected enough herbs this time, so he simply gave Lu Fang a medicine pack. After Lu Fang tossed about the wound, his qi finally passed and he woke up.

Only then did I know that he was not dead, and Han Ming rescued himself at the most critical moment. For a while, Lu Fang looked at Han Ming gratefully and he didn't need to mention it. People have saved himself many times, and no amount of language can be thankful.

Originally, Han Ming asked Lu Fang to recuperate here. After the rain stopped, he would go back, but Lu Fang was worried about Liu Changhe. The two of them only took a break and set off again.

I don't know if Lu Fang's resilience is strong, or the mutated medicinal herb looks more attractive. For more than two hours, not only did Lu Fang's wounds stop bleeding, but the wounds showed signs of closure. The recovery speed like this is a day or two. The injury can be as good as eight or nine.

To say that this Lu Fang was indeed ruthless, he insisted on walking back, but fortunately the two did not run into mutant beasts on their way back, and the heavy rain did help them a lot.

As soon as he got there, Lu Fang couldn't hold it anymore and fell asleep on the haystack!

This scene shocked everyone, and only breathed a sigh of relief when Han Ming learned of the situation.

It was good this time, six people fell three, Yu Yuanhua looked at the three lying side by side, a headache for a while.

Han Ming crushed the herbs, cleaned up the minced meat on Liu Changhe's legs, then applied herbs and wrapped them, and then crushed some herbs into a green liquid, poured it on him, and also poured it on Zhang Zheng. Some herbs for internal injuries.

After doing this, Han Ming finally breathed a sigh of relief. He has already done what should be done, and the rest is up to Liu Changhe's own luck.

Han Ming was fortunate that Lu Fang insisted on coming back. He didn't expect that the poison on Liu Changhe's legs was speeding up. When the two came back, the black air had already spread over the knees and moved to the upper thighs.

And once he passed the thigh and entered the five internal organs, he couldn't save him no matter how great he was.

The rain is still falling outside, and there is no point in stopping it. The cave is quieter in the cave with the sound of rain, and a pile of firewood is burning.

A large piece of meat is being grilled on the fire. This is the leopard meat brought back by Han Ming. The piece of meat is already golden and oily under the flame, with a fragrance permeating the hole.

Yu Yuanhua, Chen Fang, and Han Ming sat around the fire, staring at the meat in a daze, as if thinking about something. The red light reflected their figures on the mountain wall, as silent as a thousand-year mural.

"Ahem!"

Suddenly two coughs broke the peace in the cave. The three of them looked back and saw Lu Fang, who had been asleep for more than four hours, sat up on the ground, looked at the three of them with a smile and said:

"You don't want to wake me up from the barbecue. It's too interesting. If I wake up after smelling the aroma, would you not let me eat it?"

Chapter 969: Horror talent surprise company

Lu Fang's wake up made the atmosphere in the cave a lot better.

The nervous and anxious attitudes of Yu Yuanhua and Chen Fang finally eased a little. As the original leader of the group, his severely injured and coma made the team that had suffered serious deaths and injuries, and the morale of the team was in danger. Kind of the feeling that the sky is falling.

Now that he woke up peacefully, everyone was finally relieved, even Han Ming felt a lot less pressure.

Han Ming checked Gero's injury and was surprised. Lu Fang recovered too quickly, the wound has initially healed, and his actions are no longer a serious problem. As long as he doesn't exercise too vigorously, there should be no problem. At this rate, the injury will be completely healed after another night's rest.

Lu Fang seemed to be very hungry, and he didn't care about it being hot, and gobbled up the leopard meat that had been caught by the golden greasy!

Seeing his hungry ghost appearance, everyone smiled knowingly!

As Lu Fang woke up, Yu Yuanhua and Chen Fangxin were relieved of their anxiety, and their mood improved a lot. They began to speak, and everyone surrounded the flames and chatted quietly.

It was dark, but the rain outside kept falling. Han Ming came to the entrance of the cave and looked at the dense rain curtain outside, feeling anxious.

"I said, Brother Han, what scenery are you looking at?"

"I don't know when this rain will fall. I'm afraid that this delay will not catch up to the front team?"

Han Ming didn't look back, but said softly.

Although his voice was soft, there was a hint of anxiety in it, which was obviously not as indifferent as he showed.

"What's there to worry about? We won't be too late to chase after the rain stops. I believe they won't go far after such a heavy rain!"

Lu Fang said casually.

He was very puzzled by Han Ming's concerns. What problems would there be to catch up this morning, day after day, is this not worth worrying about?

Han Ming is different from what he thinks. He wants to catch up with the big army earlier and find Di Ping's parents to take home. Then his task will be completed. If it is a step late, what happens to this is not him. Want to see.

"I hope so!"

Han Ming looked at the rain curtain with helpless eyes, finally turned into a sigh, and turned back to the cave.

In the evening, good things continued to happen. Zhang Zheng woke up and was given the medicine. The injury healed quickly. Although he did not have Lu Fang's physical fitness, he obviously accelerated a lot, and his complexion became ruddy.

Although the person looks a little weak, there is no major problem anymore and they can move normally!

And Liu Changhe also showed a good change, the black gas on his calf began to fade, and the body temperature that had been continuously low and low fever gradually subsided.

This series of good things seemed to inject a booster into several people, and the atmosphere became cheerful again.

In fact, Han Ming had already prepared that if these people didn't wake up tomorrow, he would have to set off on his own. He had already lost too much time for these people.

However, in this way, the life and death relationship that had just been formed may be ruined, but for the task of the city lord, he had to do this.

Fortunately, Zhang Zheng woke up and Liu Changhe was out of danger, so he could set off tomorrow.

Moreover, the rain gradually stopped in the middle of the night, which made Han Ming's tense heart finally relaxed, and then he fell asleep with confidence.

There was no word for a night, and everyone woke up early the next morning.

Sure enough, Lu Fang's injury was almost healed. The wound had basically healed, and only a few reddish marks could be seen. In addition to pressing, there was a slight pain, but it did not affect his movements.

The injury to Zhang Zheng's abdomen is not too serious. Although his ribs are broken, the problem is not big as long as he pays attention to it. Moreover, he ate herbs and mutant leopard meat last night. It hurts.

Now there is only Liu Changhe. Although the person is not awake, the black energy on his legs has all disappeared, and the large torn muscles have a tendency to heal, which makes everyone happy!

Originally, Lu Fang wanted to recuperate for a while, and waited until he woke up and his injury improved a little before setting off, but he saw that Han Ming was determined to catch up with Jincheng's retreating troops, so he couldn't speak out.

And the most important thing here is to stay here soon. The mountains are too dangerous. Yesterday it was raining and it was safe in the cave. But this morning the roar of giant beasts came from time to time in the mountains.

As soon as the group discussed, everyone agreed to chase after the large group, so Lu Fang had to listen to everyone's opinions.

Chapter 970: Initial release of system tasks

Han Ming has used his powerful strength and super command and response ability to gain the approval of everyone in the team, that is, Lu Fang has also started to call Han Ge, which is a recognition of Han Ming's leading position.

Bringing these few people is nothing to Han Ming. The division of labor was arranged in a few sentences. Lu Fang led the way, Yu Yuanhua carried Liu Changhe and Chen Fang, Zhang Zheng was in the middle, and Han Ming was protecting at the end. .

This is a reasonable arrangement. Han Ming can fight in close combat and attack from a distance. In the rear, he can ensure the safety of the rear team, and he can give Lu Fang fire support in the front in a hurry.

As soon as everyone was on the road, Han Ming was fortunate that he was walking with Lu Fang and his party. He had lost his way. He didn't know how far he was washed by the river. Or Lu Fang said that he only rushed five or six kilometers, and they had deviated from such a long distance The route is far away.

Without Lu Fang who is familiar with this area, he doesn't know how to walk. It's easy to get lost in this mountain. The trees grow so fast that they can't be used as a basis for judging directions. He can only use the sun to judge the direction, but he doesn't. Know where the Jincheng base is!

Liu Changhe's uncle is a camp-level officer who is the chief of the logistics department in the Jincheng base, and is considered a high-ranking official in the local armed forces where there are only three garrisons.

The army was not withdrawn at the last moment. How could such a terrifying Komodo army around the base not be discovered?

When the military search and rescue team was searching for survivors, they ran into this giant beast. As a result, the 30-man team was almost wiped out. Fortunately, one person survived and reported the situation to the base.

After urgent consultations, the senior management decided to move the base to a secret base in the mountains!

This base is a secret base set up by the country to deal with possible future wars. It has a large amount of materials, various kinds of food and meat are enough for 10,000 people to live for two or three years, and it has a lot of weapons and equipment.

Moreover, the most important base was built in the belly of the mountain. It went deep underground and was super-strengthened to block even a nuclear bomb attack. As long as it hides, the mutant beast can't attack it.

In the base, there is also a culvert generator set in the Meishan River. The Meishan River has dried up from the end for thousands of years. The abundant rain in the mountains has kept the water volume of the Meishan River at a large flow, even in drought years. When the water level is below the warning level, the generator set provides uninterrupted power supply throughout the year to ensure that the electronic equipment in the base works normally.

The Jincheng base is the actual controller of this base. Every year, a large amount of materials are transported to it to ensure that the food inside is up to date. The weapons that are replaced each year are obviously destroyed. In fact, all of them have entered these bases. The food reserves and weapons and equipment of the Jincheng Military Division are the clearest.

In the face of increasing pressure from outside, the high-level base of the base had to activate this secret base. In the early stage, a battalion had already arrived first, opened the base, and cleared the surrounding mutant animals to prepare for the arrival of the large forces.

Although this secret mission is secret, many people still know it. Of course, Liu Changhe's uncle Jiang Wenbin was one of the people who knew about it, and he was one of the people who set out first. Family members, there was no way, he risked being punished and told Liu Changhe the location of the secret base.

In case the army is too late to withdraw, he can take his family to this secret base.

The base is in the mountains. If you don't know the road and want to find the base, it's harder than climbing to the sky. The Nanda Mountain stretches for thousands of miles, so go and find an already hidden base!

Therefore, he was somewhat fortunate to go into the mountain to collect medicine at this time, and only then did he rescue Liu Changhe who was dying on the edge. If he did not take risks and gave up treating Liu Changhe as before, then he should be caught blind now.

This world is really a natural cycle, cause and effect are connected, one condition and one peck, there is providence.
