

Doomsday 971

Chapter 971: Rules for rewards and punishments

Originally, Han Ming's idea was very simple. It was to find the traces left by the army. As a result, after a heavy rain, they walked all morning and followed the general direction of the army, but they were disappointed. Yes, there was no trace left by the front troops.

It was as if a rain erased everything before.

Moreover, in the wide forest, it is even more difficult to find a trace of a large army that is more than ten meters wide.

At this point, Han Ming really gave up, and he once again rejoiced that his momentary kindness had become a key factor in his mission.

However, fortunately, Liu Changhe finally woke up after everyone had walked for two or three hours. He gave the general direction, led by Lu Fang, and the group began to move towards the base position, and the danger came quietly.

They were cautiously evasive all the way, and in the middle of the night, they were no more than four or five kilometers away from the Jincheng secret base, and they unexpectedly encountered the mutant spider again.

What puzzled everyone was that they had traveled only 20 kilometers away, how could they encounter the mutant white spider they had encountered in the mountain village before.

Han Ming and Lu Fang cooperated and finally eliminated five mutant spiders, but they were shocked by the mutant spider group. A large group of nearly a hundred mutant spiders caught up again.

Three or a few are nothing to Han Ming and Lu Fang, but these nearly a hundred mutant spiders can't be solved by two of them, they can only run away.

He ran all the way again, and after a lot of effort, he finally escaped from the mutant spider again, but this was due to Han Ming's superb archery skills.

Everyone was saved, but Han Ming looked at the twelve arrows remaining in the quiver with distress.

This is the heavy arrow that Di Ping sent him to kill powerful mutant animals. Even a powerful mutant animal such as a leopard cannot withstand a heavy arrow. It can be seen how strong this arrow is, and he is reluctant to use it this time. He had to use it to escape.

When Han Ming and others escaped from the mutant spider, it was already dark. After this chase, they ran away for many miles. Several people had to find a mountain cottage to rest for one night. Day off again.

They studied the map and changed the route again. As a result, when they were away from a valley that must pass through to enter the base, they encountered mutant spiders again. It seemed that this area had become the territory of mutant spiders.

Han Ming was anxious, and led the crowd to break through the blockade of mutant spiders. As a result, he killed more than a dozen mutant spiders and rushed out for a kilometer. However, he was surrounded by a large group of mutant spiders.

But this time, they were not so lucky. All of them were injured. Yu Yuanhua was even trying to save Liu Changhe. His abdomen was smashed by the sharp forefoot of the mutant spider. If it weren't for Han Ming's last desperate effort, After shooting the arrow in his hand, he hunted and killed more than 20 mutant spiders, and Yu Yuanhua explained it this time.

Everyone was chased by the mutant spider for several miles, and finally seemed to be out of the sphere of influence and retreated, otherwise everyone would be in danger.

Han Ming took five people to hide in a deserted small mountain village, feeling very helpless, these mutant spiders guarded their way to the Jincheng secret base, so that he could not rush in at all.

And the arrows in his hand ran out again, without the weapon, his strength dropped by more than half, and Yu Yuanhua was also injured, which made him feel very troublesome, and he suddenly felt irritable in his usual peace of mind!

If they cannot break through the line of defense, they will not be able to reach the Jincheng base.

If he couldn't enter the base, he would not be able to find Han Ming's parents, and he would not be able to complete the task assigned by the city lord.

For a while, Han Ming's heart fluctuated violently, his eyes blurred with his bow, and he didn't know what to do!

Chapter 972: Mysterious and miraculous exercises

Let go of the anxious Han Ming and return to our protagonist Di Ping!

Di Ping felt that his sleep was really comfortable, his mind was clear, his body was light and refreshed, and his body was relaxed and unspeakable.

He suddenly opened his eyes, and a sharp glow shot out in his eyes, like two bolts of lightning, and the whole room was bright.

"call!"

A turbid breath was exhaled, like a giant beast's breath, the breath rushed into a bullfight, the whole room was shaking, and a mist shot straight like an arrow for more than two meters before dissipating.

"How do I sleep on the ground?"

Di Ping found himself sleeping on the ground at this time, and immediately jumped up from the ground cleverly, but instantly he remembered what had happened.

Last night, he swallowed the heaven and earth spirit fruit "Diluoguo" to improve his talent, but the result was too painful, and then he passed out.

"I wonder if the talent has improved?"

Thinking of this, he began to care about whether his talent had even been upgraded to S rank, but he was about to open the system to observe his situation, and suddenly smelled a strong smell in the air.

"What smells so bad?"

Di Ping almost didn't lose his breath with a strong sour smell. He was furious. Who would put the smelly socks in his room simply didn't want to be confused.

But the next second he knew it was impossible, no one dared to do it, not everyone in his own room could come in casually.

He began to look for the source of the smell, but when he lowered his head and saw a thin layer of black dust on his hand, he immediately understood that it was originally the smell on his body.

He immediately understood that this should be the impurity discharged from the body after swallowing the "Diluoguo" this heaven and earth spiritual thing after washing the menstrual and cutting the marrow. Last time he had a lot of such dirt on his body, so he knew it at first glance. He screamed into the bathroom.

After half an hour, after washing five times and using a whole piece of soap, the dirt on his body was finally washed away, and the handsome guy was clean again.

When he walked out of the bathroom again, Di Ping was truly refreshed. He felt that even the air was sweet, as if he had removed the shackles on his body and was extremely relaxed.

I feel pretty good today!

The air in the room was clean, and there was no sour odor from the previous people, and the castle's super exhausting capacity emptied the odor.

Han Ming checked the time, and it was not enough time to get married, so he changed into a practice suit and was ready to exercise.

When he was in the shower just now, he couldn't wait to check his talent!

What excites him is that his talent has risen to the s grade. His luck is good. After swallowing the "Diluo Fruit", his talent has finally improved. Although the process was painful and almost died of pain, the result was gratifying. of.

With this improvement, he clearly felt the change in his body!

The strength has increased again. Although it is not much, it is still two to three kilograms. Compared to his current strength, although it is not much, it has also increased by nearly 10%. Who thinks the strength is too large?

His mind also seemed to be clear and flexible. The knowledge he had learned from the books he had read before was reprinted in his mind, as if he had memorized it thousands of times. Some things that he could not figure out before were also instantly understood!

He knows that this is the increase in mental power, and the whole world has changed. It seems that there is more charm!

Not just these!

The coordination of the body has also been further enhanced, the control of the body has also been strengthened, and everything between his hands and feet is full of spirituality; what surprised him the most, the induction of the elements of heaven and earth has also been strengthened again, and the feeling between heaven and earth is more clearly than before. Energy elements, it seems that there are countless elemental spirits dancing in the air, which can be touched at any time.

These changes made him really feel the importance of talent. This is not simply the difference between A and S, it is simply a difference between heaven and earth.

It seems that the entire world is broad, and the world in his eyes has also changed. The body seems to have been cleansed by the fairy jade liquid to become crystal clear and transparent, and it seems that there is a fairy light lingering.

Chapter 973:

Di Ping is going to practice and test how much this S-rank talent has brought to him. He wants to see if this talent is improved, whether it is different in cultivation, this is what he cares most about.

When he came to the training room, he first practiced the Tiger Spirit Jue. Until now, he has only cultivated the top level of the Tiger Spirit Jue. He has not been able to break through to the second level. It seems that something is stuck on him.

He felt the difference as soon as the Tiger Ling Jue moved. The movements were a little stiff and there seemed to be some inconsistencies. He began to read the contents of the Tiger Ling Jue in his mind. After reading it again, his mind seemed to be shocked. There were many things in him. He didn't get it all right, now looking back, many things he didn't understand too much, but suddenly he became clear.

"So this action is like this?"

"Oh! This breathing should be deepened, this qi and blood guidance should be slowed down, and the power of this idea should be refined?"

and many more.....

After a while, he found out a lot of content that he didn't understand or couldn't fully understand before. He was a little surprised at his amazing understanding and comprehension at this time. It was just a brief moment that he used the first level of the Tiger Spirit Art technique. Eat it thoroughly.

According to the new understanding, he restarted his cultivation, which was a surprise that he could not restrain his dedication to cultivation.

With the cooperation of movements, breathing, thoughts, and guidance, he clearly felt that the speed of the blood movement had more than doubled, and it became more surging and powerful, as if it contained infinite power, as unstoppable as the waves and floods, and walked around in just a while. There is a layer of meridians that need to be passed through, and some of the blocked places are just lightly touched and broken like thin ice, melted, and vanished.

This is just a change in the body. As the movement guidance progresses, the external force of heaven and earth pours into his body like a bird returning to the forest, entering the skin, muscles, meridians, bones, and five internal organs to nourish everything in his body.

Kaka Kaka...

As soon as his body was trembling slightly, it seemed that something was broken, and there was a clicking sound. The bones were ringing, the muscles were cheering, and the blood was murmuring, and the whole person was in a state of extreme joy.

The first action, the second action...he didn't click a bit until the ninth action, it seemed that all obstacles were not there.

Boom boom boom...

After finishing the ninth movement, his body shook suddenly, seeming to roar with thunder.

If someone is in the room at this time, it must be very shocked, Di Ping's body will make waves of tiger and leopard thunder, this is the legendary thunder sound.

His body is rapidly becoming stronger and evolving.

There was surprise on Di Ping's face, he finally broke through, and he was able to make the first move of the second level smoothly.

He broke through. The majestic blood was like a roaring dragon. In an instant, the obstacles in the meridians were shaken. The blood penetrated, and a powerful aura suddenly rose from him, and the room seemed to be blown up. A whirlwind.

This level of nine forces has stuck him for nearly a week, and suddenly disappeared at this moment!

He felt his strength increased again, the whole body became more integrated, the bones and muscles blended like water and milk, the control was more subtle, and the strength was accessible from the heart.

However, he did not stop, he began to practice the second level of Tiger Spirit Art.

The second movement is not much difficult to complete. Breathing is smooth, qi and blood flow through, and heaven and earth vitality penetrates into his body. His musculoskeletal and internal organs are all in the greedy heaven and earth energy to strengthen his body.

Boom boom boom

He only felt that his body was trembling again and again, as if the earth was pulsating, and his body was sensibly increasing in the pulsation!

It is unimaginable that Tiger Ling Jue is so domineering, pushing his body one step after another in a short time.

His body buzzed and radiated light in the room, exuding a shining treasure like a piece of beautiful jade.

Chapter 974: Meeting canceled meeting

Di Ping's city main tower training room constantly shook and roared, as if the earth was pulsating, except that no one was around. The nearest house was 40 or 50 meters away. The city main tower was on its own, and who was this point? Will not be near here.

The truth is that there is no sun or moon in practice. Di Ping doesn't know how long he has been practicing. He has been in the joy of rushing through the barriers. This taste is like drinking jelly, delicious and intoxicating.

In a row, he broke through three levels and rushed to the fourth position on the second floor. Only then did he feel that his body was a little overwhelmed, and his physical strength was too much. The body actually felt a little faintly overwhelmed, just like eating too much.

He had to stop his cultivation, and after looking at the time, he found that he had practiced for three full hours, and it was already six o'clock.

He secretly smacked his tongue. He was so crazy when he practiced that he had forgotten the time. If it wasn't for his body to eat, he might have to go through the barrier again.

Feeling the pain and extreme exhaustion coming from his body, he knew he was too crazy and couldn't do this again next time.

Such crazy rushing may hurt the roots. If it weren't for his strong mental power and abruptly stopped the impulse in his heart, he might really explode and die by practicing.

He may sadly become the first person on the earth who has cultivated to burst.

Because the practice was too crazy this time, the collapse of the fist and Di Ping did not practice any more. First, the body did not allow it, and second, the time did not allow it.

Today, I have to negotiate with Liu Zhenya. The negotiation was not successful yesterday, and I will definitely continue today.

"Di...The protection period for system novices is over, please pay attention to the safety of the base!"

"The mission is released. The system protection period is over. The base will be exposed to the world, and mutant beasts will be attracted to attack the city. The siege time will be twenty-four hours later. Please prepare the host for battle. Mission rewards are distributed according to the mission completion rate; mission failure will be punished, and a system building will be confiscated at random!"

As soon as Di Ping finished his work and prepared to go back to the room to clean it, suddenly the cold voice of the system sounded in his mind.

When he heard the content released by the system, Di Ping was stunned on the spot. Why was there a monster attack? Could this be a game? The thing that made him the most unbearable was that there was a penalty for failure, which was not there before?

"The system, why is it still punishing for failure?"

Di Ping asked angrily in the forehead lawsuit.

"If there is a reward, there will be a penalty. The system is based on the host's recent poor performance. The reward and punishment mechanism is added to make the host work hard to complete the task!"

The cold voice of the system sounded in Di Ping's mind.

"The system didn't exist before. I will definitely work hard in the future. Can I stop this punishment?"

Di Ping's face was a little red, and he hadn't been fighting before. Although he was very angry, he actually knew that he was still slack, so he could only talk about the conditions with the system.

"Once the system is formulated, it will not be changed!"

The system responded coldly.

"It didn't happen before. Should you make such a decision to discuss with me, and just add rewards and punishments casually? Is it irregular? And how much should you take care of the emotions of old friends?"

Di Ping saw the system's attitude resolutely and knew that he was not so easy to change, so he changed his strategy and started playing emotional cards.

"Di...Host, the system does not stipulate that no penalty mechanism can be added?"

Suddenly he heard the cold voice of the system again in his mind, and Di Ping was stunned on the spot, unable to answer for a while.

Chapter 975: If you want to promote, you have a strategy

"alright, you win!"

Di Ping reluctantly raised his hand and surrendered. He knew that once the system was decided, he would not change it. To be able to say so much to himself today is already gracious to his old man.

"Then Master System, you should always tell me how big this siege is?"

Di Ping could not change the decision of the system, so he could only try to get the next best thing, to see if he could get some useful information, so as to prepare in advance.

"Di...The secret of the secret cannot be revealed!"

Di Ping was waiting for a long time, but the system did not respond. Just when he thought the system was about to recover from the previous high coldness and did not answer him, suddenly the cold voice of the system sounded in his mind.

"My day!"

Di Ping almost squirted out a mouthful of old blood, his face flushed red, and his mouth made a few greetings in the form of an old lady in the system, and finally he could only silently accept it.

He can't do anything with this  system, isn't there a saying?

What is life like? Since you can't resist, then lie down and enjoy it?

As far as Di Ping is concerned, he can only comfort himself in this way. Facing the system, he always feels that he is unable to make it strong, and everything is taken to death by him. This feeling makes him very unhappy, but it is also no way.

Now he can't do without the system, everything has to rely on the system to help, so he can only accept passively.

However, from the perspective of what the previous system did, most of what was done was for his own good. Although he worked very hard during this period, only he knew that he was really slack off. Without the initial fierceness, he has no momentum.

People are always like this, fighting harder than anyone in the face of life and death, and once the environment is less dangerous, laziness will easily breed without the pressure of life and death before, and Di Ping is no exception.

Only since the last time he failed to find his parents, he lost his previous motivation and started to have some fun and enjoyment.

During this period of time, he is still doing what he should do, but the practice is not as active as before. He would get up at five o'clock before and start a day of practice. He will try his best to practice every exercise and martial arts, but recently he does not want to get up and practice. .

Thinking of this, I turned a little blush, and sweat came out all over!

If it weren't for the systematic mention, he hadn't really realized this, but now he thought about it, but he was sweating all over.

If this mentality has always existed in the base and the future is worrying, he will really feel the horror and horror of the outside world this time.

There are so many powerful mutant beasts in a small Middle Continent. He was a bit complacent before, and his strength was good, but this time he threw his self-esteem and arrogance on the ground mercilessly.

The punishment of the system is to sound the alarm for him at a critical moment, allowing him to truly begin to understand himself and the role of the system. With such a powerful golden finger, but living so aggrieved in the last days, this is itself a system for the system. Blasphemy, the system should give him some punishment itself.

After thinking about this, Di Ping's heart began to calm down, and he secretly made a decision that he should maintain a forgiving attitude at any time, so that he can be right from the sky.

"People's livelihood, is this what you said to increase the chance of awakening?"

Early in the morning, Liu Zhenya and Liu Minsheng were standing on the head of the castle, watching the hot city guards on the square practice violent warfare. After watching for nearly half an hour, he asked in a deep voice.

"Yes, grandpa, this is the technique, all the city guards must practice!"

Liu Minsheng stared eagerly at the city guards below, sweating, wishing to rush down and follow the practice.

"This is so amazing?"

Liu Zhenya has some doubts.

"It's really amazing!"

Liu Minsheng stared down at the bottom and solemnly said: "Grandpa, look carefully at the strength of these people, are they stronger than the most elite troops in our army?"

Chapter 976: Exciting and fighting spirit

"Oh!"

Liu Zhenya's brows furrowed tightly, his eyes gleaming, and his heart was not as calm as the surface. Just now he just watched for a while, his heart beating wildly, and he kept yelling in his heart: "This... How come these people are so strong, this is not right... this is not right, this is not scientific?"

Looking at the grandfather who always looks like a Taishan collapse and the former, he can no longer restrain the shocked expression on his face. Liu Minsheng secretly smiled bitterly. Why didn't he look at his half-white grandpa before? He emphasized his tone:

"Grandpa, do you believe what I said now? These people used to be ordinary people, and they only cultivated for a month, but in this way they can be compared with the top soldiers in the army!"

Liu Zhenya took a long breath before calming the turmoil in his heart, and he said with a heavy face:

"People's livelihood, do you mean that they become stronger only after practicing this exercise? Isn't it just increasing the chance of awakening? How can ordinary people change so much?"

Liu Minsheng shook his head and said: "I don't know too well. I didn't find out the information that was too short and too important. The combat crews at the time were all controlled and were not allowed to disclose the content of the exercises casually, so I still don't know the specifics. , But it has been heard from ordinary city residents that practicing this technique will make ordinary people stronger!" Liu Minsheng pointed to a group of men, women and children on the other side of the moat outside the square who were learning to swing their hands on the square and said: "Grandpa , You see, those people are learning the exercises secretly!"

There are always one or two hundred people in this sparse group. There are men and women, old and young, all of them carefully watching the actions of the city guards.

"Isn't it said that the exercises are not allowed to be spread? Isn't Di Ping afraid that the exercises will be learned by these people?"

Liu Zhenya frowned.

Liu Minsheng looked at the group of thieves, shook his head and said with pity:

"Grandpa, what you think is too simple. If you can learn it while watching it, then this technique will be bad. We don't need to use such a large force to seek this technique?"

Liu Zhenya raised her eyebrows and looked at Liu Minsheng and said, "What's the secret in this?"

"of course!"

Liu Minsheng nodded solemnly:

"The core of this exercise is the secret method, and this secret method is not passed on by the city guards, and it is said that it is passed on stage by stage. If you do not reach a certain stage, you will not be exposed to high-level secret techniques at all!"

"Have you been in contact with these city guards?"

Liu Zhenya suddenly lowered his voice and asked.

Liu Minsheng's body was shocked, he looked around vigilantly, and saw that there was no one around, and the nearest city guard was also thirty or forty meters away. Only then did he approach Liu Zhenya and whispered:

"I have tried, but these city guards are difficult to contact one by one. They have reached the level of admiration for Di Ping, and they dare not disclose any information!" Liu Minsheng paused and looked ugly, showing a trace of indignation: "These city guards are all diehards, and I promised a lot of benefits that I did not impress them. These people are afraid that they will be kicked out of the city guards once they are discovered, so they will not have a chance to become stronger!"

After listening to Liu Minsheng's words, Liu Zhenya looked at the square without speaking for a while, and after a while, he sighed solemnly:

"This Di Ping is really not easy! With his hand, it is basically difficult for the city guards to get in. In these last days, who doesn't want to become strong, who doesn't want to survive, even we are no exception!"

As he said, he turned his head and looked at Liu Minsheng with a solemn expression: "Minsheng, you must seize the opportunity, and hold this technique in your hands no matter what, this may really be an opportunity for the rise of our Liu family. All this depends on you!"

"Grandpa rest assured, I will not let you down!"

Liu Minsheng also nodded solemnly.

Chapter 977: Assigning tasks to prepare

If Wang Dequan was still alive, how would he feel when he heard the conversation between his grandfather and grandson?

As expected, Liu Minsheng was not an ordinary second-generation army. Wang Dequan had never expected his overall view and deep thoughts. He thought he could really control Liu Minsheng.

Wang Dequan took a fancy to the base's magical buildings and the safety of the castle, and wanted to take this place as a back road, but Liu Minsheng was silent and had already discovered the core secret of the base.

It is also possible that civil and military are different. Wang Dequan followed the literature, while Liu Minsheng followed the martial arts. He discovered the difference when he first watched the combat team training at that time.

Wang Dequan only saw the power of a few awakened people in Phuket, and although Liu Minsheng was shocked by this, he was even more shocked by the terrifying power he saw from those hundreds of people.

Although those people were very jerky, but they were all very powerful. He saw a sandbag of more than 300 kilograms kicked out by these people two or three meters away. What kind of power is this? In addition to the means of killing people, there is not much difference in the direction of power and speed than the rare soldiers in the army.

What shocked him most was that this was not like a soldier king. There were only one or two people in each army, but these people were like this. This could be the best soldier king of four or five hundred.

Seeing this, he became heartened, Wang Dequan hooked around, but he was not idle, exploring this secret with all his strength, and only then did he know how important the secret he was listening to was.

For the first time, he learned the secret of the exercise. Why there are so many awakened people in the base is all because of this exercise, but no matter what he can do, he has very little information about the exercise. Only some fragmented information was heard from the general public.

In the end he couldn't help but wanted to get this secret very much. He felt that if he mastered this secret, it would definitely be a good thing at the level of nuclear weapons in the last days, and it would be an absolute support for Liu Minsheng and even the Liu family to gain a foothold in the last days. .

Therefore, in the end, he agreed with Wang Dequan's opinion to take action on the base, and he didn't care about the ownership of the base, but his real purpose was this practice technique.

It's just a pity that he eventually failed and became a prisoner. So far he didn't know that he only learned a little bit of the secrets of the base.

However, as a soldier, Liu Minsheng is very resilient, and he is not desperate. The dialogue with Di Ping made him feel that Di Ping should not attack him, because of the existence of the Bianzhou base, he is still useful.

So while in prison, he is always searching for useful information. When he hears how many people at the base are awakening, his heart becomes even more enthusiastic. If he was still skeptical before, can this exercise increase the chance of awakening?

Now he completely believed it, so he began to plan this exercise in his heart.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for Di Ping to come to him for a discussion, and the two reached an agreement with one click.

However, what he didn't know was that Di Ping deliberately let him know. If you want to fish, you must have bait. This awakening method is the poison bait that Di Ping put on Liu Minsheng. Anyone who knows the importance of this bait No one can hold back.

As long as Liu Min is lively, he will have the bargaining chip to negotiate terms with the Liu family!

Di Ping didn't have the idea of using these soldiers to change it, but in the chat with Liu Minsheng, he could feel that doing what he did was of no avail. On the contrary, he might have pushed the Bianzhou base to the opposite of his own.

That is definitely not a good thing for Sanctuary City. Although he is not afraid of the Bianzhou base, he does not want to put the newly-run base in a dangerous situation.

Once the two sides really start a war, it will not be easy for both sides. If the powerful armed forces of the Bianzhou base really smashed with him, the missiles and artillery were on the same base, his base was really crippled, and he would have nowhere to look for it.

Therefore, when he learned that Liu Minsheng had been actively investigating the exercises before, his heart was moved, so he used some methods to give Liu Minsheng a trick.

But this is also Zhou Yu's fight against Huang Gai, one willing to fight and one willing to suffer, even if Liu Minsheng knows that he is not afraid, this is a dignified plot.

Chapter 978: Emphasis on love and justice

Di Ping took a good rest and asked Patton to send a large amount of mutant meat. He ate nearly ten catties of mutant meat at one time. Only then did he feel a lot of emptiness in his body.

The whole body was warm, it was a large amount of mutated flesh energy that was nourishing his body. After sitting and adjusting his breath for half an hour, he felt that he had regained his peak state and walked out of the room refreshedly.

Liu Bingyu had been pacing anxiously outside, and there was still talks with Liu Zhenya today. Liu's grandfather and grandfather and Lu Guoliang had arrived in the conference room and waited.

"Town Lord, Liu Zhenya, they are already waiting in the conference room for today's negotiation!"

Liu Bingyu hurriedly greeted Di Ping as soon as he saw Di Ping.

"Today's talks are cancelled. After you communicate with Liu Zhenya, the base has important matters to be handled and the talks will be changed to tomorrow's talks!"

"Do you want to air them?"

Liu Bingyu looked at Di Ping a little puzzled, and then she smiled and said softly: "Actually, I don't think it is necessary. I think their expressions today seem to have moved!"

Di Ping shook his head slightly and said, "I don't have the mind to play with these!"

Liu Bingyu looked sternly and said, "That's it?"

"Let's make arrangements first!" Di Ping interrupted Liu Bingyu's question, and said with a somewhat serious expression: "Let's talk about it when I arrive at the venue later!"

After speaking, he raised his leg and walked into the city, leaving Liu Bingyu alone in the wind. She felt a different atmosphere from Di Ping's words. Even the cancellation of the meeting with Liu Zhenya must be a major event. Otherwise, Di Ping would not do it like this. Thinking of this, her heart suddenly felt tight?

Half an hour later, all the high-rise buildings of the sanctuary in the small conference room were all present, and even the major administrative tasks of the system building were rare.

Everyone was a little surprised watching the big stewards enter, and they all talked in whispers. Usually these big stewards rarely appear in meetings.

When everyone was in doubt and discussing, Di Ping walked in, followed by the city lord's secret Liu Bingyu, the meeting room suddenly became silent, and they looked at Di Ping.

Di Ping walked to the main seat and did not sit down, his eyes swept across everyone's faces, looking at the familiar faces eagerly looking at him, he suddenly felt an illusion that he already has so many people. .

Suddenly he has a soaring pride. What is terrible about the monster attacking the city? With so many manpowers, he can definitely keep the base safe, and he must be able to overcome this difficulty, and he has a feeling that this monster attack is too great. After going through fantasy, like in a game, he thinks this may be related to the system. Should the system not destroy the base?

It's just this kind of thought, he didn't dare to finish talking, for fear that there would be another demon's child out of the anger system.

Everyone looked at Di Ping and didn't speak, but just looked at them. They cast their eyes on Liu Bingyu, wanting to ask Liu Bingyu what the content will be this time, but Liu Bingyu shrugged innocently. She didn't know what Di Ping wanted to meet.

"Well, you don't need to ask Bingyu with your eyes! I will tell you!"

Of course Di Ping saw this scene, he said slowly after sitting down.

Everyone's faces were red, with some embarrassing smiles, but the small movements made the city lord look straight.

"This is a pre-war mobilization meeting!"

Di Ping said with a serious expression.

"what?"

When he said this, the room was silent. Everyone looked at Di Ping in a daze, not knowing what his words meant. For a while, the whole air seemed to be stagnant.

After a long while, Han Zhongguo looked at Di Ping with some uncertainty and asked, "City Lord, do you mean we are going to fight?"

"Not bad!"

Di Ping nodded calmly.

"Really going to fight?"

Han Zhongguo was taken aback for a moment, and then said in shock: "City Lord, who are you going to fight? Is it the Bianzhou base?" There was an incredible expression in his eyes, the staring boss stared at Di Ping closely.

Chapter 979: Lingzhi mature and busy harvesting

"Old Han, you fainted early in the morning? We are negotiating at the Bianzhou base. What battle will we fight?"

Lu Guoliang gave Han Zhongguo an angry look. Before he could fight back, he had already looked at Di Ping and asked, "City Lord, are you planning to attack a nearby gathering place?"

"No!"

Di Ping shook his head.

Now everyone is even more confused. Since it's not fighting the Bianzhou base or the nearby gatherings, does this city master prepare for the war?

"City Lord, don't your old man stop selling officials? It's really anxious to die!"

Han Zhongguo slapped his forehead with some speechless words.

This is actually not just his thoughts, this is the consensus of everyone. Di Ping will talk about temporary cancellation. This is a very rude thing. But Di Ping still does this. There must be a major matter. Then they will all really want to know.

"Ok!"

Di Ping also thought about what to say at this time. The monster siege is a bit weird after all. He has to think of a good reason. Just now, he deliberately paused because of his luck in his mind.

Hearing what he was about to say, everyone immediately fell silent, looking at him with full attention, waiting for his answer.

Di Ping's eyes swept across the crowd and calmly said:

"Just yesterday, our Sanctuary City was built as a miraculous city. I believe many people have seen this scene?"

Everyone nodded one after another.

Everyone witnessed the magical scene yesterday, and now Di Ping said, thinking of the scenes one by one, he still couldn't help being horrified.

"Can the tall and towering city walls absolutely guarantee our safety? Can we sit back and relax? Can we drink and eat meat with peace of mind and enjoy peace?"

Di Ping glanced sharply across everyone's faces and said with a serious tone.

After three questions in a row, everyone who asked was shocked and their faces changed wildly!

The days of the recent base are indeed so good, so many people think it is the time of peace in the past! Life is nourishing and moisturizing, and life should not be too good! Now Di Ping kept asking questions, but it really made many people awakened that he was still in a crisis-ridden apocalypse.

Seeing the awakening on everyone's faces, Dippin paused for a moment, and then said: "Obviously it is not. The tall city wall gives us a layer of protection, but we must be vigilant. We must not relax for a moment. The outside world is growing. The more dangerous it is, the city wall is not unbreakable. Our base is still in danger. It is not a place where everything is safe and secure!"

Everyone was watching Di Ping quietly, and did not answer, but the shocked expressions on their faces revealed that their hearts were also agitated.

The reason why Di Ping said this today is because he also clearly felt that after the huge city wall, the city was filled with a kind of comfort that was almost peaceful. Many people were a little overjoyed, thinking that they would sit back and relax and the world would be peaceful.

Therefore, he only mentioned this point at the meeting today, just to give everyone a warning.

"City Lord, strengthen the training intensity of the city guards and ensure to maintain the strongest combat effectiveness at all times!"

Cheng Chao suddenly stood up and saluted Di Ping with a solemn expression.

Di Ping pressed his hand and let Cheng Chao sit down. He looked at the crowd and said, "As a group of high-level bases, we must maintain a vigilant attitude. We must not indulge in extravagance. We must have a mentality of walking on thin ice to stay here. Only if you survive in the last days will you be qualified to survive! And you can't learn from Feng Ziming and his ilk, that is a lesson from the past, you can't do it again!"

"It's the city owner!"

Everyone in the conference room stood up and responded.

Di Ping's eyes swept across solemn faces, and his heart was slightly satisfied. This aura is available, but shouldn't it be scared for the monster to attack the city?

This set of rhetoric he has ulterior motives, does not arouse everyone's passion, does not make everyone excited, if he talks about monster attacks, he will immediately make everyone frightened, and once they have a feeling of fear. It's hard to pull it over.

A smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and he nodded with satisfaction, "Human heart is available!"

Chapter 980: Tanaka wanted peace

"it is good!"

Di Ping became angry with Dantian, yelled hello, and then looked at the crowd and said in a deep voice: "According to reliable information, in the past two days, the changes in the world and the earth have intensified, and a large number of mutant animals have poured out. This will be the first crisis that our base has ushered in. We must prepare in advance. Whether we can hold the city at that time will affect our survival. So I hope everyone will actively prepare for the coming of the war. !"

"This....."

Everyone in the venue was stunned. There were mutant beasts attacking the city. Could it be possible that there would be mutant siege when building a city. How could this resemble many games?

"City Lord, is this true?"

Han Zhongguo asked hesitantly.

"of course!"

Di Ping nodded.

"City Lord, do you know what time it is?"

Cheng Chao suddenly stood up and looked at Di Ping anxiously.

"If the information is good! It should be within these two days, so there is not much time left for us!"

Di Ping looked at Cheng Chao with a serious expression.

He didn't dare to say the specific time, how he explained the source of his disappearance, it was too accurate, could it be said that God told him, his Di Ping is not a magic stick, his city is given by God, this is again God is guiding him. He really wants to go on like that, so that his own base will become a kingdom of God, and he will come out with a belief, and he will come out with a sect like "the sky is dead, and the yellow sky should stand"?

He doesn't like it and doesn't want the base to become like this. He never denies the religious beliefs of others, but he is really afraid of those crazy fanatics. Once the religion deteriorates, people will become crazy, annihilate themselves and annihilate themselves. For everything except faith, he is extremely exclusive and aggressive. He doesn't want a group of such lunatics in his base.

Fortunately, now the end of the world is here. Although his magical buildings are shocking and horrifying, they are not unacceptable. That's why he built a God City from Heaven, just to encourage everyone and increase These courage to live in the future, but it does not mean that he really wants to use this to engage in belief.

Therefore, with regard to the monster's siege, he decided to say what he said today after several thoughts, which can be said to be painstaking!

"City Lord, please give your order! Believe that our refuge city will be able to withstand the monster attacking the city, and withstand these crises, the children of our city guard will never take a step back and vowed to live and die with the base!"

Cheng Chao suddenly looked at Di Ping and said solemnly.

"Yes! City Lord, please give orders! No one wants to destroy our sanctuary city!"

Han Zhongguo also stood up suddenly and shouted.

"Yes, let them come, it just happens that the mouth is very faint recently, what about the shortcomings of game? They came just to chop the wine!"

The fat man put the uncle in his hand on the table and let out a creak, and then shouted domineeringly.

"it is good!"

His actions caused cheers from a group of guards of the city lord, and the fat man raised his head triumphantly, seeming to be a big rooster in the fight, and his fighting spirit was boiling.

Di Ping looked at these people and shook his head helplessly. They were all militants. They had just been hit before, and one by one seemed to have forgotten their scars, and became alive again.

Everyone in the conference room yelled enthusiastically, each with a high fighting spirit, as if they were ready to rush out to fight the mutant animals.

Even the women Yu Shujie and Liu Bingyu didn't have any scared expressions on their faces at this time. Their eyes flashed with rosy faces, and they seemed to be excited, as if they had defeated the mutant animals.

Di Ping looked for a while, raised his hand and pressed it down. The meeting room quieted down. Everyone stopped their movements and conversations, and looked at Di Ping, waiting for his words!
