

Chapter 10

The noble ladies in the circle usually enjoyed gossiping since they were boring and had nothing to do. When they saw such an exciting scene today, they couldn't help but discuss it even though the Su family was still there. Some even took out their mobile phones and began to secretly record Su Zhile's embarrassing situation.

When no one noticed, a door in the corner had quietly opened slightly.

At this moment, Su Yan was standing behind the door and watching everything with great interest.

In her previous life, this incident happened to her, and everyone's malicious words were merciless to her. Later, when she was given up by her father, she went to a new university. Somehow, the video of her being humiliated was also known by everyone in the school.

As a result, they began to bully her in groups. They even locked her up and beat her again and again without fear. They forced her to go to the bar to be a prostitute. She almost broke down and committed suicide.

Later, she found out that the person who was behind everything was her sister.

But now...

It was the same thing. She had to let Su Zhile taste the same as she had before in her last life.

An ice-cold smile appeared on Su Yan's face. Her gaze was dark as she thought to herself.

Outside the room, at this time, when seeing that the person who was insulted was her beloved eldest daughter, Wang Suping's face immediately turned pale. Her pretentious scream turned into a real roar. "What the hell is going on? Zhile, how could it be you in this room?"

What they had planned before was for Su Yan to be with these five men...

How did Su Zhile end up being the one who was defiled?

Looking at the bright red blood stains on the white rug, she knew that her pure daughter's first time was taken away by these five disgusting men!

No...

Wang Suping completely collapsed. The next moment, she couldn't care less about her dignified manner. She hurriedly pulled the table cloth and wrapped it around Su Zhile's body which was full of marks.

Meanwhile, Su Zhile's face was already covered in tears.

She had always been a favored daughter and had been very arrogant since she was a child. However, she did not expect that she would make such a big fool of herself!

And looking at the disdainful eyes of the people around her, she already knew that her reputation was completely ruined!

So she gritted her teeth and clenched her mother's hand. She cried and complained, "Mom, this is all because of Su Yan! It was she who made me become like this!"

"What?"

Everyone was shocked when they heard that.

All in all, it was already very shocking to see the daughter of the Su family and five old men in the same room tonight. Unexpectedly, the story was still going to be reversed!

Was it her sister's fault that Su Zhile ended up in this situation?

Su Yan was only eighteen years old this year. If she was the one who had framed her sister, she was such a hateful person! Su Zhile was too pitiful!

Everyone was thinking in their hearts. They looked at Su Zhile with more sympathy and pity in their eyes.

However, to everyone's surprise...

At this moment, a door was suddenly opened. The next moment, a confused female voice came into everyone's ears. "Why is everyone here? Mom, Dad, are you looking for me just now?"
