

Chapter 12

In a trance, the surrounding suddenly quieted down...

Wang Suping's aggressive words suddenly stopped and her expression became weird. Looking at Wang Suping in this way, Su Yan's eyes flashed with a cold light. She pretended not to know the truth and asked, "Mom, what's wrong with you? Is there anything wrong with what I said?"

"I'm so angry too that my sister was insulted by these five men today! Besides, I also stayed in this private room just now. If I hadn't been uncomfortable in the middle of the way and gone to the room on the side to rest. I'm afraid that the victim would have been me!"

"So no matter what, as a daughter of the Su family, I must thoroughly investigate this matter! Everyone present can testify for me. I must find out the culprit behind this and send the person to prison!"

"No, no!" Wang Suping couldn't help but scream and stop her. She said with a pale face, "Never mind. We can't investigate it!"

"But my sister..."

"It was these five shameless men's fault. There is no culprit behind the scenes!" Wang Suping interrupted Su Yan.

To prevent her from saying anything harmful to herself, Wang Suping quickly shouted, "Where are the security guards? Tie these five men up! I want to deal with them myself!"

"Mrs. Su, you can't do this to us a er using us!"

Upon hearing Wang Suping's words, the five men, who had put on their clothes, were not convinced. The yellow-toothed man, who was the leader, said, "You are the one who brought us here today. You want us to insult the third daughter of the Su family, didn't you? Although things are a little different from what we had originally agreed on, how can you vent your anger on us?"

"That's right. If you want to turn against us like this, I have evidence to prove that you have transferred money to us!"

"If it doesn't work, we'll call the police. Anyway, we don't have to worry about anything. We just do these things because you pay us! You and Su Zhile are the masterminds!"

Several men shouted loudly.

Because they were all hooligans, they even took out their mobile phones and were ready to call the police and make a big scene!

Listening to all this, Su Zhile and Wang Suping's faces became pale...

However, Su Yan did not intend to give them any chance to explain.

The next moment, she opened her eyes wide and burst into tears. She asked incredulously, "Is this true? Mom, Su Zhile, you arranged for these five men to insult me... Am I not obedient enough?"

"You want me to attend fewer banquets and stop getting along with friends, I'm always obedient. You told me not to read books and take exams, I followed your orders too. You even took all the things Dad gave me. I have never complained about it and even told Dad that I was willing to do so. But why do you still want to hurt me? And even in such a despicable way!"

"....."

Of course, Wang Suping could not answer.

Upon hearing Su Yan's words, the surrounding guests were also shocked!

A er all, they had never expected that the third daughter of the Su family, who had always been known as the most favored daughter in the outside world, would live such a terrible life!

She was not allowed to attend dinner parties, not allowed to know friends, not allowed to read books, and not allowed to take exams... Could this be the reason why Su Yan had always been alone in school and her grades were not good?

What was even more unbelievable was that the five men in the room were personally found by Wang Suping to ruin Su Yan!
