

Chapter 15

As soon as Su Yan finished speaking, the whole surrounding fell quiet.

Wang Suping's wailing voice stopped, and she looked at the charming little girl beside her in disbelief.

No, this was impossible!

How did Su Yan know?

She thought that she had dealt with this matter very well. Even Su Guoqiang did not know that she had done something like this in private! However, Su Yan directly said it out now!

As a result, Wang Suping's eyes widened. She was stunned and even forgot to cry.

Su Yan merely smiled gently. She was enjoying Wang Suping's expression as if she had seen a ghost.

Although Wang Suping was also from a famous family, in recent years, the Wang family was not as strong as it seemed on the outside, which was all caused by her brother.

In the past few years, Wang Suping had been secretly supporting her parents without Mr. Su knowing.

At first, she sold the jewelry given by Mr. Su to Su Yan and then gave it to her parents. Later, the Wang family became weaker and weaker, so Wang Suping had no choice but to sell her 5% of the Su Group's shares secretly to her younger brother.

In her past life, Su Yan only found out about this after Mr. Su's death.

At that time, because of the Wang family, the Su Group was already on the verge of collapse in Wang Suping's hands.

Originally, Su Yan did not want to reveal this truth so early. However,

Wang Suping insisted on arguing with her, so she had no choice.

She cried and said to her father, "Uncle Wang came to our house to ask my mother for money more than once behind your back. At first, my mother gave him hundreds and thousands of yuan, but later, she started to give him millions. I felt that there was something wrong with it, so I eavesdropped. I didn't expect..."

"No, you're talking nonsense!"

Wang Suping was so anxious that her face was covered with cold sweat. She said, "When I gave him the money, you were clearly in your room. How could it be possible..."

His words had come to an abrupt end.

D*mn it! She was too anxious until she confessed herself!

Wang Suping immediately fell to the ground and looked at her husband subconsciously. However, at this time, Su Guoqiang was already angry!

"What a good thing you had done!"

He angrily kicked Wang Suping's hand away. The next moment, Su Guoqiang walked down the stairs without looking back. He was in a hurry to deal with the issue of shares. Obviously, he did not intend to help Su Zhile solve the problem of the video.

As a result, seeing her father give up on her, Su Zhile, who had been hiding in the corner and wearing a tablecloth, immediately burst into tears. She almost wanted to jump off the building in a desperate manner!

Wang Suping could only bear the pain in her body and quickly stepped forward to stop her.

Looking at all of this, Su Yan slowly wiped away the tears on her face from her acting just now and was about to leave with satisfaction.

However, as soon as she turned around, Su Zhile's shrill voice came from behind her. "Su Yan! Stop!"

"Sister, is there anything else you want to tell me?" Su Yan calmly stopped in her tracks, turned around, and slowly said.

Looking at her indifferent look, Su Zhile didn't want to jump off the building anymore.

She gnashed her teeth and said, "It's your fault. You let those five men ruin me and make me a laughing stock in the eyes of all the people in the city. I swear that I will never let you go!"

"Sure, I'll wait for you to take revenge on me, but..."

"Before that, you should first worry about what you and your mother should do next." Su Yan smiled and reminded: "Be careful not to be driven out of our house!"

"You! I'm going to beat you to death!" Su Zhile screamed crazily. As soon as she finished her words, with a crazy face, she rushed toward Su Yan.

However, this time, Su Yan did not intend to dodge.

After all, if she was injured at this time, it would be more convenient for her to pretend to be a pitiful person in front of her father in the future.

However, unexpectedly...

Just as Su Zhile's hand was already raised high into the air and Su Yan was about to be hit, a tall and straight figure already stood in front of her without any warning!
