

Chapter 21

Wang Suping put on a humble look. Her words were implying that Su Yan was not a sensible and kind girl if she didn't help her.

This was moral kidnapping, but the servants at home were all on the same side as Wang Suping. As soon as she spoke, a lot of servants quickly stood up and echoed, "Yes, Miss Su Yan, you're so kind. Besides, Mrs. Su usually treats you so well and dotes on you all the time. How can you bear to let Mrs. Su be driven away like this?"

"That's right! Miss Su Yan, you used to respect Miss Su Zhile the most. After what Miss Su Zhile had experienced last night, she is weak now. You won't care about it, will you?"

"That's right. Mr. Su, what Miss Su Zhile said just now was unintentional. Please don't take it to your heart!"

All of them were trying to persuade Mr. Su, and not all of their mediation words were useless.

Mr. Su's fierce expression softened a little as if he had been persuaded.

But... if they wanted to rely on Su Yan to turn over, it would depend on whether Su Yan was willing or not.

Su Yan thought coldly in her heart. The next moment, she let Wang Suping hold her hand, but she suddenly cried. "Mom, I really don't know which sentence of yours I should listen to."

"At first, you said I was sensible, so you took away the things my father gave me so many times, so I didn't say anything to anyone else. Not only that, you said I was obedient, so in the school exam, I always listened to you and never took my exams well. As a result, I was always at the bottom of my class. Now, you say that I'm kind."

"But shouldn't a kind person have a bottom line?"

"You sold the company's shares as compensation to the Wang family, found five men to humiliate me, and my sister said that I was an illegitimate child... Can't I be angry about these things? Can't I be disappointed?"

"What did you say?" Mr. Su's eyes suddenly widened and he said in disbelief, "It is true that it was your mother's order that you didn't have good grades in school?"

Su Yan cried and nodded. "Yes, Dad. Because Mom said that if my grades were too good, Zhige would be unhappy. At that time, our family would not be peaceful. That's why she told me to be more sensible and not take proper classes and exams. That's why my grades were so horrible every time. However, do you still remember that my grades were not like this in the past..."

In fact, she had always been very smart, and the questions on the test paper were easy for her.

In the past, when she was in junior high school, there was once that she took an exam normally and surpassed her second sister, Su Zhige. She even got first place in the school and went home happily with her test paper. She thought that she would be praised. Unexpectedly, Su Zhige directly tore up her test paper angrily. Later, Wang Suping came out to scold and order her not to study hard.

At that time, Su Yan was so silly that she only wanted her sister and mother to be happy, so she agreed. Therefore, Su Zhige, a genius student, was born.

But in this life...

Su Yan's eyes were filled with tears as she coldly smiled secretly. The servants did not know about this matter so even though they were shocked, they did not dare to say anything even if they were bribed by Wang Suping.

At this time, Wang Suping's eyes were almost full of malicious!

She angrily pointed at Su Yan and retorted, "Nonsense! I raised you since you were young and I didn't ask you to repay me, but I didn't expect you to be so vicious and frame me like this! You were the one who was stupid and didn't study hard, so how could you..."

"Bang..." A loud sound cut off Wang Suping's next words.

In an instant, the whole room was in dead silence. Even Su Zhile, who had been crying, did not dare to make a sound.

In such an atmosphere, Mr. Su, who had smashed the teacup, finally stood up. He looked at Wang Suping and said word by word, "Are you still lying now? You have done such a thing, and do you still want to ask for my forgiveness? Wang Suping, how can you be so shameless?"
