

Chapter 3

"Su Yan, you are my most sensible sister. These five gentlemen are all my honored guests. You can't be willful. You have to treat them well, do you understand?" A charming and so voice suddenly sounded at this moment.

As soon as she finished speaking, some disgusting man's laughter soon sounded around her.

Su Yan had a splitting headache as she covered her ears. The next moment, she finally sobered. When she opened her eyes, she saw that she was no longer in the previously burning warehouse. Instead, she was in a luxurious private room!

The surroundings were splendid and the lights were bright.

And beside her, five greasy middle-aged men were looking at her with undisguised eyes. One of them showed a disgusting smile to her, and his teeth were yellow.

The girl, who had just spoken, was holding her hand and looking at her with a smile. There was even some hidden malice in her beautiful eyes.

This scene was not strange, and it was the beginning of her nightmare.

Because this year, she was 18 years old and was insulted by the five old men in front of her. And this day was her father, Su Guoqiang's birthday too.

She had been arranged in a private room by her sister, Su Zhile, to entertain her so-called VIP guests. However, as soon as Su Zhile le , the five old men surrounded her and started to touch her unexpectedly.

She struggled desperately to escape and finally managed to escape from the room. Unexpectedly, a group of guests appeared outside the door and saw the whole scene of her with the five old men.

From that day forth, Su Yan's life had fallen to the bottom.

It was rumored that she was a woman of loose morals and had no sense of propriety. Besides, it was said that she even had an affair with some men on her father's birthday.

Later, this matter was even spread to the Internet, and she became infamous. Even when she made great achievements in her career later, she was always criticized by the public.

As such, it was difficult for Su Yan to forget about this day. However, she did not expect that...

Now, she had returned to this day, back to the time before Su Zhile le the room and wanted her to stay.

In her last life, she stupidly wanted to help her sister share the responsibility of entertaining guests. Therefore, although the five men in front of her did not have good intentions, she still forced herself to stay under the persuasion of Su Zhile. Later, when she was insulted, she never blamed Su Zhile either. She felt that all this had nothing to do with her sister. It was the five men's fault.

But who knew?

In fact, all of this, from the very beginning, had been arranged and planned by her sister, Su Zhile!

Right now, just like in her past life, she put on a gentle mask and persuaded Su Yan to stay behind to entertain the guests. Hearing her words, Su Yan narrowed her eyes and did not immediately reply.

As a result, Su Zhile, who was extremely familiar with Su Yan's character, immediately thought that she had agreed.

Su Zhile couldn't help but smile with satisfaction. She was so happy in her heart!

A er all, this little b*stard, Su Yan who lived in her house, would lose all her reputation tomorrow!

However, it was all Su Yan's own fault! She was too beautiful and accidentally appeared in Su Zhile's live broadcast once and covered up her limelight. She was even favored by a lot of directors who wanted to invite her to film their movies.

She, Su Zhile, the eldest daughter of the family, should be the most popular and beautiful actress in the entertainment circle!

However, Su Yan was too stupid and Su Zhile could fool her with just a few words. A er she was insulted by these five men, her father, who had always doted on her, would definitely treat her as a disgrace and no longer favor her!

Su Zhile thought happily in her heart. The next moment, without batting an eyelid, she prepared to leave the private room and locked the door. "I'll leave first. Gentlemen, please don't bully my precious sister! Su Yan, you have to be obedient. Don't make them angry!"
