

Chapter 33

Xiao Die was not in the Su family before because her parents were sick and she took a leave. Now, she came back in a hurry. Without thinking about it, Su Yan knew that it should be Wang Suping who needed someone to spy for her in the Su family after she was driven out, so she hurriedly asked Xiao Die to come back.

However, Su Yan did not expose all of this.

After all, Su Yan did not intend to instantly kill her "best friend" who had harmed her so much in her previous life. On the contrary, she was prepared to make good use of Xiao Die to accomplish something that she had wanted to do a long time ago.

Thus, Su Yan and Mr. Su ate breakfast together peacefully. In the afternoon, just as Su Yan was sitting in the study and reading a book, outside the corridor, a rush of footsteps had already sounded!

Then, with a dull thud, a slightly fat figure directly pushed open the door and appeared in her room.

The girl had an ordinary face and a short figure. She must have been worn out on the way back, so she looked a little haggard, but her imposing manner was not weak!

As soon as she saw Su Yan, she immediately raised her eyebrows and scolded her rudely, "Su Yan, what's wrong with you? I heard that you made Mrs. Su driven out of the Su family and Miss Su Zhile is even locked up in the basement now! Didn't I tell you before? Mrs. Su and Miss Su Zhile are the true masters of our family. How can you do whatever you want by relying on Mr. Su's favor?"

More importantly, Wang Suping was the one who would regularly give her a bonus every month.

Now that Wang Suping was no longer in the Su family, how could she get her tens and thousands of bonus per month?

The girl thought angrily in her heart. Since there was no one in the study at this time, she did not hide her anger. She was so fierce as if she wanted to eat Su Yan up!

She was the servant who grew up with Su Yan, Xiao Die.

In her last life, Su Yan had a soft and weak temper, and Xiao Die had Wang Suping's support, so she never took Su Yan seriously. She often told Su Yan that Wang Suping was the real master of the family, which made Su Yan even more humble.

Now, after so many years, of hearing such words, Su Yan even missed it a little.

So she slowly put down her book and looked at the big face in front of her with a faint smile. "Xiao Die, you haven't come back for so long. I thought you would miss me very much."

"Are you kidding me? Why should I miss you?"

Xiao Die asked with a sneer. For some reason, when she saw Su Yan again this time, she only felt that Su Yan in front of her seemed to be more beautiful and dazzling. However, she suppressed the strangeness in her heart. Thinking of Wang Suping's order on the phone, she proudly said to Su Yan, "I don't want to talk nonsense with you anymore. Now, go to Mrs. Su, admit that it's all your fault, and say that you want Mrs. Su to come home! More importantly, go to the basement and let Miss Su Zhile out now!"

"Otherwise, you will suffer!"

In the past, Su Yan was timid and easy to bully. Although Xiao Die was only a servant, she often bullied Su Yan when she was unhappy.

Su Yan was truly stupid to treat her as a good friend before. Even if she was bullied by Xiao Die, she would not tell her father. As a result, Xiao Die gradually became even more vicious and she even had a faint sense of superiority.

At this moment, it was the same too. Xiao Die laughed coldly and threatened her. She was waiting to see Su Yan's panicked expression at the next moment.

However, unexpectedly...

What she wanted to see indeed appeared, but at the same time, a cold male voice sounded too, "I don't know since when can a servant even give orders to Miss Su Yan now!"

Chapter Comments

 Watch Ads to Get 8 Vouchers