

Chapter 46

In a trance, Su Yan suddenly felt a chill down her body. She felt as if a great disaster was about to occur. Goosebumps appeared on her arm.

Fortunately, Wang Yuyan had already hurriedly cleaned up her table and moved it back to the classroom with her few followers.

Thus, Su Yan let go of the strangeness in her heart. She also walked into the classroom and sat down. She took her things out of her bag and placed them on the table.

However, all of the students in the classroom still couldn't help but glance in Su Yan's direction.

After all...

In just half an hour, everyone's impression of Su Yan had been completely overturned!

Compared to the previous timid Su Yan, who always shrank back and didn't even dare to raise her head, the current Su Yan was full of self-confidence. She was even more dazzling than the sunlight outside, making it hard for one to look away.

Although it seemed a little ridiculous...

Su Yan was simply too beautiful and charming at this moment!

Even Su Zhile, who had been regarded as the most beautiful star in the entertainment circle before, could not compare with her!

Su Yan could feel everyone's gazes too. She simply took out her textbook and started to study. She did not even bother to respond to everyone's attention. However, there was a sudden sound of footsteps outside the door at this moment.

All the girls in the class couldn't help but start to be in an uproar.

A few girls who were just gossiping about Su Zhile before couldn't help but hold their faces and exclaim!

"Oh my god, it's Chu Lun! I haven't seen him for the whole vacation, yet he's still so handsome and cool!"

"That's right, it's a pity we couldn't come to school for classes during the summer vacation. I'm so sad for not being able to meet my prince charming!"

"That's right. No matter how much time has passed, Chu Lun is still the most handsome boy in school! Even if he's late, he's still handsome!"

The group of girls chattered non-stop, and their faces were red as if they were about to faint.

Su Yan was speechless.

This should be the differences between people.

Previously, she was scolded hard by everyone because she was late every day. As for Chu Lun, he could avoid being criticized for being late, and even be praised just because he was handsome...

These girls were full of affection for him.

Luckily, Su Yan had already experienced this kind of situation many times in her past life. Moreover, she had already long given up on Chu Lun. Thus, Su Yan did not show any reaction at all.

Su Yan just indifferently glanced over the tall and straight figure that had appeared at the door of the classroom. She then withdrew her gaze and focused on her book. She felt that it was better to read the chemistry questions!

However, what she did not notice was that Chu Lun, who had walked in from outside the door, frowned slightly at her fleeting gaze.

Dissatisfaction and disgust appeared on his handsome face.

But before he could lose his temper, Mr. Liu, the class teacher, came in with a pile of test papers.

Thus, Chu Lun endured the unhappiness in his heart. With a cold face, Chu Lun sat in his seat under the gaze of his fans.

Mr. Liu looked at the whole class and soon showed a kind smile. "Boys and girls, long time no see! You will be having an important test this semester. Are you prepared?"

"Mr. Liu, are you saying this because you're going to give us a test today?" After a moment of silence, a student could not help but ask boldly.

After all, they had been taught by Mr. Liu for three years. Everyone knew his temper more or less.

They would be facing an exam every time Mr. Liu said such words. This time, it was obvious because Mr. Liu entered the class with the test papers.

Everyone could not help shivering at the thought of having an exam on the first day of school.

As expected.

Mr. Liu smiled and said, "That's right. This year is your last year of high school. You will be having more exams than before, and the questions will be more difficult too. A lot of teachers in our school work together to develop these test questions during the holidays. It's absolutely a difficult paper!"

"But..."

Mr. Liu said with a smile, "Before the exam, I want you to clarify your goals. Now, starting from the first row of students, take turns and tell us which university you want to apply to!"

Hearing the teacher's order, the first student hurriedly stood up and answered his ideal university with some embarrassment.

After him, the students also answered one by one.

For a time, all kinds of famous universities were mentioned...

Five minutes later, after most of the students in the class had already answered, it was finally Su Yan's turn.

The next moment, Su Yan stood up and said with an indifferent expression: "I want to apply to Liss University in Colenia."

.....

The lively classroom suddenly quieted down.

They didn't expect to hear the name of this school. After Su Yan sat down, all the students in the class were stunned and looked in her direction again.

The student behind Su Yan couldn't even stand up.

Liss University was not just an ordinary university. It was the most famous high-level university in the world. The students studying there were the top students in the country. The rules of that school were very strict too, and the students' results were the most important thing. No matter how rich one was, one couldn't enter this school with money at all.

On the other hand, Su Yan, who had always been the worst student in the entire school, shamelessly said that she wanted to enter this university!

No matter how rich the Su family was, they couldn't let such a good-for-nothing enter Liss University!

Everyone thought in unison. Mr. Liu, who had always been kind, couldn't help scratching his bald head. "Haha, Su Yan, you have a big ambition! Well, no matter what, it's a good thing to be ambitious."

"Heh, I'm afraid this isn't about ambition, she's just stupid." A mocking male voice sounded, "Su Zhige, the second daughter of the Su family, is currently studying at Liss University. Even if you want to copy her, you should have that ability first."

After all, Su Zhige was known as a genius student in the whole country. She had excellent grades since she was a child. This time, she even represent her country in a competition and won a good result in third place.

Although they were all from the Su family, Su Yan was not qualified to be compared with the genius, Su Zhige, or Su Zhile, who was the most popular star in the entertainment industry!
