

Chapter 6

President Su's birthday party was held in the most luxurious Mingdu Hotel in Yoshen.

In her past life, Su Zhile had brought Su Yan to this private room on the second floor, isolating her from the guests downstairs. Even if she called for help, no one would know.

And in this life, she returned the same pain to Su Zhile!

However, to avoid suspicion and being caught, she locked the room and turned around as soon as possible. She used the hair clip on her head as a key, opened the door to a nearby hotel room, and pushed the door open.

Coincidentally, this room was empty and there was no one in sight.

Thus, after letting out a long sigh of relief, Su Yan put the hair clip back on her thick hair. With a cold expression, she walked to the room's window and looked down at the brightly lit hall.

Over there, President Su's birthday party was still in full swing.

All kinds of rich delicacies and beautiful drinks were neatly placed on the table for people to choose and taste. In the middle of the hall, the three-story-high cakes had been pushed up. When the time was up, it would be cut by the host of this party.

As the hostess of the Su family...

Today, Wang Suping was dressed in a decent light green gown and was surrounded by a group of gorgeous noble ladies of the same age.

From Su Yan's point of view, her mother was dignified, elegant, and graceful. She had received strict etiquette training since she was a child, so everything she did was gentle and pleasing to the eye.

But in this new life, Su Yan clearly knew that everything Wang Suping showed was fake!

Wang Suping had always been showing her love for Su Yan in front of outsiders, but she was just pretending.

Because only in this way could she not let her father, who doted on her, have any complaints about her. But in private, she hated Su Yan so much!

Su Yan would never forget that in her previous life after Wang Suping had made full use of herself, she had looked at her with disdain. In the end, she even confessed that Su Yan was not her daughter at all and she was just an illegitimate child.

The reason why she was good to Su Yan was that she wanted to coax Su Yan and obtain all of the inheritance her mother had left her. It was also because of this that Su Yan knew for the first time that her mother, who had already passed away, had left her with an extremely large fortune but she could only inherit it when she was eighteen.

However, all of Su Yan's money in her past life had become Wang Suping's under her deception. Later on, that money even added a lot of help to her two daughters to marry into a rich and powerful family!

But in this life, she would never let such a thing happen again!

She wanted Wang Suping to pay her back a hundred times over for what she had done to her!

Later, Su Zhile's miserable situation would be Su Yan's first gift to Wang Suping!

A cold smile appeared on Su Yan's face. Under the cold moonlight, her exquisite and beautiful face revealed an indescribable charm.

On another side of the room, there was a completely different scene behind the huge screen.

A man said respectfully in a low voice, "Master, this young lady suddenly broke in. Do you need me..."

"No need."

A man's deep male voice slowly sounded. The man narrowed his beautiful eyes and looked at all this with interest. He said in an unfathomable tone, "The little girl seems to be interesting, isn't she?"
