

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1443

Wenrenqing's face turned black.

This dog is better!

The resentment is so big and the dark belly is so horrible.

Didn't I just vomit him just now?

It's all back now intact.

That's disgusting.

And Wenren felt that he was shot while lying on the ground.

Seeing Wiliam no longer speak, Wen Renqing said indifferently: "No need, we want to be quiet."

The words have reached this level, and the meaning is obvious.

Just tell this kid not to beep and shut up.

However, Qian Changhu refused to give up and said with a smile: "It's okay, but have you heard a message? There will be five mysterious auction items in this auction?"

Wenren Qingqing coldly snorted, "Oh?"

Seeing the answer from the other party, Qian Changhu instantly opened his eyes and smiled, and said: "It is said that these five things are rare and can match some of the treasures of various sects. Many sects that came today are also for these things.

Wen Renqing smiled in his heart.

Does this need you to say?

These five things were originally handed over by them, and they are the treasures of the sect.

This kid looked like he had seen the world before, showing off his knowledge in front of the Lord.

"Ho ho, are you interested?" Wen Renqing asked rhetorically.

Qian Changhu suddenly became serious, "That's natural! Don't you see me sitting in this top loft? Of course I am determined to win. And I have to win at least two items, I will put my words here."

Show off your wealth.

"Ho ho, then I wish you success in your horse." Wen Ren Qing said indifferently.

Qian Changhu suddenly asked Wiliam, "I don't know Brother Wiliam, how many pieces are you going to get here this time?"

Wiliam said lightly: "Sorry, I'm not interested in these things, I'm just watching the show."

Well, I'm really not interested, otherwise I won't sell it.

Qian Changhu laughed loudly, his voice was also a little bit yin and yang, "I don't know if I am not interested, or if he has the strength to win."

"Well, I'm not interested." Wiliam said honestly.

"Ho ho, then you can take a good look at it today." Qian Changhu didn't ridicule deeply when he saw that the kid forced himself down the steps.

For fear of causing dissatisfaction with the two fairies on the opposite side.

He is ready to speak with strength.

When Wenren looked at Wiliam's weird expression, he felt a little bit in his heart.

What do you mean by watching the show?

She asked if she didn't understand.

But Wiliam smiled and said, "Just look at it and you will know."

Wen Renqing feels a little uneasy, what the hell is this kid doing?

The auction will soon begin.

A tall beauty presided over it.

Wiliam looked at the things in front of him, and he was not interested.

He flipped through a brief introduction to the treasure and listened to the people on the scene raising signs and shouting prices. Time passed unknowingly.

And Li Nianyi, who was far away in the corner of the corner, quietly clenched the bag in his hand, his expression was ugly.

One hundred Tianshan Lingjing, sure enough, is still not enough.

Although the bottom price of the baby in front is no higher than one hundred Tianshan Spirit Crystals, after a round of bidding, some have already exceeded his purchasing power. And some even if they are higher than 100 Tianshan Spirit Crystals, but Li Nian is not interested.

Can you buy it as a toy?

At this time, the beauty on the stage said loudly: "Next, the exciting time has come. This time, we have collected five rare treasures for everyone on the scene to taste. We have never revealed which five things are before. , I just want to surprise everyone at the scene. Now, everyone, please look at the first baby."

The people at the scene lifted their spirits.

Knowing that this is the old routine of Yuntian Auction House.

Because the more mysterious things are, the more they will attract others.

And what the treasure is announced on the spot, for some people in need, it can create an atmosphere that can't be missed from time to time.

In many cases, many people got red eyes and broke their heads during the temporary announcement of the baby.

They don't have more time to think rationally.

Something wrapped in red silk was slowly brought up by a courtesy lady.

The beautiful host didn't talk nonsense, and directly opened the red silk and said in a loud voice: "Everyone is optimistic. This treasure is called Xitian Wrath Lotus. It is a treasure between a magic weapon and a magic weapon. It can shoot ninety-nine nines in an instant. Eighty-one lotus concealed weapons, even half-step congenital warriors, can easily be directly pierced into hedgehogs and sent directly to the west."

"The starting price of Xitian Wrath Lotus is 500 Tianshan Lingjing! Each time the price increase is 50 Lingjing! Now start bidding!"

This Xitian Wrath Lotus gleamed with a faint purple light in everyone's eyes.

In this outer world, weapons and armors are divided into three levels.

One is an ordinary magic weapon.

The higher level is the magic weapon.

The highest level is Xianwu.

Ordinary sect, even if it has a magic weapon, it is great.

Even among the nine sects, Shen Bing is rarely stretched.

As for Xianwu, among the current nine sects of Outer Heaven and Earth, I have never heard of which sect owns it.

It can be seen that Xianwu is precious.

This Xitian Wrath Lotus, once shot, is between the magic weapon and the magic weapon, which is enough to cause everyone to exclaim.

However, some people were confused on the spot.

Because this Xitian Wrath Lotus looks so familiar.

Those people looked at two of them one after another.

These two people are the elders of the middle sect.

At this moment, their faces are ugly to the extreme.

If their eyes are not blind, this Western Heavenly Wrath Lotus is the treasure of their sect!

However, when this treasure was buried a few days ago to fight for fame, didn't it mean that it was swallowed by some treasure swallowing beast?

Why does it appear here now as an auction item!

One of the elders flushed.

What a shame!

The treasure of their sect is now at the mercy of others!

Isn't this hitting them in the face!

He took out a magic weapon, directly transmitted the sound, the voice was loud enough that everyone at the scene could hear, "You tell me clearly! Didn't you say that Xitian Wrath Lotus was swallowed by some treasure swallowing beast in the battle for fame! "

A weak voice came from the sound transmission magic weapon, "Yes, what's the matter?"

"You fart! Now Xitian Wrath Lotus has appeared at the auction! I will kill you when I go back later! Wash my neck clean!" the elder shouted fiercely.

It's not that he doesn't want to continue asking what the mystery is.

Time doesn't allow.

Because there was a sect who had trouble dealing with them at ordinary times had already begun to ridicule, "Oh, it turned out to be the treasure of your sect. Have you all fallen into this? Take out the treasures of the sect? Forget it, look at it. For the sake of you being too poor, I will help you and accept this Western Heavenly Wrath Lotus. 600 Spirit Crystals!"

At this time, a flash of lightning flashed through Wenren's affectionate mind!

She stared at Wiliam closely, "This! Is that the good show you said?"
