Chapter 1449 Yuntian Bazaar

A blast of thunder smashed Qian Changhu's head severely!

He was dumbfounded.

A lot of hard work!

Exhausted family wealth!

Not a dime left by this kid!

His last comfort is two things.

One is to get the favor of Wenren.

But it has been shattered.

Another thing is to humiliate Xia Wiliam!

Now it seems that I have been humiliated to perfection!

This kid!

Deliberately pretend to be irritated, arguing with yourself.

Give up the bid when the price is the highest, and you will make you cry and scold your mother!

What's more sorrowful is that this nether silk veil came from him!

All his money went into his pocket!

Then I am still proud of a woolen thread in front of him!

And this perfectly explained why Wiliam could get along with big guys like Liu Yuntian.

It turned out to be mutual cooperation.

Qian Changhu instantly felt his anger rise!

Today, if you don't kill this kid, God will not tolerate it!

So, he was about to swing his fist towards Wiliam.

But at this time, there was a cold snort from behind him, "Ho ho, dare you still auction your action hand in my Yuntian? Could it be that our rules can't restrain you?"

Qian Changhu's back was cold, and his fist suddenly dispersed.

He hurriedly nodded his head and bowed his waist and said, "President Liu, how dare you? Give me a hundred courage and I don't dare to do it on your site. Isn't this a joke with Brother Lu?"

Liu Yuntian walked out slowly and looked at Qian Changhu coldly, "Come here."

Qian Changhu flinched a little for a while, not daring to step forward.

Liu Yuntian took the initiative to step forward, leaned in his ear, and whispered: "William is the seller's business. It was originally the secret of our Yuntian auction house. Now that you know, you can't keep you."

Qian Changhu was so frightened that his whole body became soft, and Dou Da's cold sweat burst out, "I, I, I..."

"Ho ho, young man, don't be afraid. I can give you a choice. You don't know anything, and naturally I will not pursue you for the crime of my Yuntian auction house today. But William is my good friend. , If in the future I know something from others that I shouldn't know, or if something happens to William, ho ho ho ho, I will personally go up to you the hero of the waves and use your head as a stool. "Liu Yuntian finished speaking slowly, and then patted Qian Changhu on the shoulder.

Qian Changhu dropped his heart into the ice cellar and nodded and said yes!

Up to now, given him a hundred courage, he did not dare to reveal the identity of William's seller, let alone do anything to William at will.

However, he finally started to look at William squarely in his heart!

He even took out the treasure of Netherworld silk casually.

It can also get Liu Yuntian's attention.

It seems that this kid is not as soft as he seems...

In the future, we have to keep an eye on it, so that we can no longer offend this plague god.

Thinking of this, Qian Changhu immediately left Yuntian Auction House, not daring to stay anymore.

William looked at Liu Yuntian and arched his hand at him: "Thank you."

"Do you need me to accompany you around again?" Liu Yuntian said with a smile.

William waved his hand, and said, "Chairman Liu has everything to do with everything, how dare you to bother me anymore. We just wandered around at the Yuntian Bazaar. With this pair of sisters by my side, nothing will happen."

Liu Yuntian smiled, "Okay, I don't force it, I'll prepare tea and wait for you to come again."

William nodded, "Farewell."

The three bid farewell to Liu Yuntian. Liu Yuntian looked at William's figure, his expression gradually turning cold, thoughtful.

After a while, he called someone and whispered: "Report this kid's message."

When the three of them walked away, Wen Renxin had a chance to speak, "Wiliam, Liu Yuntian values you very much. It's weird, he is a man with weird eyes above the top, how can he value you?"

Wen Renqing said indifferently: "It's not those few things that have been brought together."

She was envious in her heart.

Being able to build a good relationship with people like Liu Yuntian will benefit more in the future.

Unfortunately, she also knew that Liu Yuntian valued Wiliam's own potential more.

Otherwise, she wants to take a few things out of her relationship.

Wen Renqin had already begun to scratch his head, crying enviously.

"Let's go, just walk around and go back. It's not that I have to return to the sect later to test my potential." Wiliam said lightly.

"Okay." The two sisters agreed. "But the things at the Yuntian Bazaar will not be too good, otherwise they won't set up a stall, just go shopping."

Wiliam also had this idea.

The three walked through the market at will, and because of the end of the auction, there were more people here.

The things in the market are eye-opening.

There are really all kinds of monsters, ghosts, and snakes.

You can buy and sell with money, and there are also those who need to buy and sell with Tianshan Lingjing.

At this time, Wiliam's footsteps suddenly stopped.

A voice suddenly sounded in his heart.

It is the ancestor Tianqing Qilin who has been sleeping these days.

"Well, I smelled a familiar smell, it's been a long time."

When Wiliam thought, something that could be familiar to this ancestor must be extraordinary.

Is it true that I can pick up the leaks here?

Wiliam asked in his heart, "What did the senior smell?"

Tianqing Qilin said: "A thread of blood, it should be of my descent, not human blood, but the purity of the blood is okay, not far from my age."

William was shocked, the closer he was to the age of the predecessor of the Azure Qilin, the purer his blood was.

There is a baby here!

"Little guy, do you want to buy? Or want to take it?" Azure Qilin asked lightly.

"Yeah." Williamzhen had to lie to his ancestors.

"Ho ho, then I'm going to tell you the truth. This thread of bloodshot, after you take it, will not benefit your body at all, but it will help me a little bit in supplementing my consciousness. If you don't help me, I will live in you. Within the body, I am one with you. But if you help me, my consciousness will grow in the future, and it is completely possible to break away from Nirvana and rebirth. At that time, you and I are one body, and I forcefully escape from the body, and you will undoubtedly die. You Do you still want to help me?" Tianqing Qilin seemed to take this life and death very lightly, and even this kind of secret was revealed to Williamhe.

If it were other ancient beasts, William would inevitably regard William as its host.

When William heard this, he was taken aback.

As smart as him, he also thought of the meaning in the words of the azure unicorn.

If he didn't help his ancestors, William was safe, but if he helped, he might really die.

But in the end, William took a deep breath and said softly in his heart: "Senior has the chance of his own, and so do I. I met here today, and it is the chance. Moreover, the senior is kind to me like a mountain, and he puts his heart in his heart. , I can't stand on the sidelines and sit on the sidelines. Who knows what will happen in the future? Maybe in the future I have grown to a point where even the predecessors can't easily get rid of it?"

"Tell me, where is this thing?"
