

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1458

What makes an elder with an above-the-top eye go to the cottage?

What makes a lofty elder linger?

What made him lose dignity and abandon worldly prejudice?

It's technology, boys!

Wen Ren Tianqing looked at Wiliam and didn't know what to say for a while.

He didn't even know how Wiliam calculated it!

I don't know at all, this thing can be calculated.

If it is inferred by observing words and expressions, or the smell left on one's own body, it is a bit impossible.

Because Wenren Tianqing's anti-reconnaissance consciousness was too strong, he was completely cleaned up as soon as he came back.

"Wiliam, you're looking for death!" Li Nian shouted violently, as if to defend his master's reputation.

Everyone also spoke out against Wiliam.

Wen Ren Tianqing listened to the voices of the surrounding crusade, and the previously seen tension and anxiety in his heart gradually subsided.

Why did he insist on letting Wiliam divination by himself?

Isn't it just a way of thinking that no matter what Wiliam says, he has to insist that the other party is wrong?

Now it's just that something went wrong in the middle, and the ending is still the same.

For Wiliam, he had no evidence at all.

Thinking of this, Wen Ren Tianqing's expression gradually eased, and he said coldly: "Ho ho, what about the evidence? Are you afraid you have to come up with some evidence?"

But with this, the faces of the people at the scene also became weird.

Since it is said to be divination, where is the evidence?

Imagine that you go outside to tell a fortune under the overpass, and people say you can live to be a hundred years old. Can you let them show evidence?

Divination has always been a phrase to observe the secrets of heaven. Heaven will give you evidence?

Wenren Tianqing, this is what Chi Guoguo is difficult for.

Sure enough, Wiliam smiled and shook his head, and said, "No. Since I said that, I just said it wrong."

Eh?

Wenrenqingqing and Wenrenqingxin were both stunned.

For the first time in their lives, they heard Wiliam admit their mistakes?

This arrogant kid actually admits his mistake?

It was unprecedented.

Wen Ren Tianqing was about to laugh, but suddenly heard Wiliam say: "Just now the elder said he wanted to figure out the unconventional behavior last night, right?"

The people at the scene nodded in place of Elder Wenren Tianqing.

Wiliam said again: "Then I'm wrong. How can the elder go to prostitutes, how can it be considered an unconventional behavior, um, it is very conventional. He is very skilled."

"Puff!" Wen Renqin immediately burst out laughing.

Just now I was wondering how could this kid admit his mistake?

Unexpectedly, waiting here!

Wenren Tianqing did say such things just now.

Wiliam's courage was so great.

It is a very normal behavior for elders to go to prostitutes.

This is too bad!

Everyone at the scene was also suffocating a smile, and they didn't know how to look at Wenren Tianqing.

Wiliam is really tired of life.

Nothing is the most destructive, only more detrimental.

This is deliberately trying to make life difficult with the elders.

Seeing that Ren Tianqing was about to get angry, Wen Ren Tiange immediately stood up and sternly shouted: "Wiliam! No matter how presumptuous you are, I won't even forgive you!"

This is the only way to control the scene.

Wenren Tiange felt like a dog in his heart.
This Wiliam is so uncomfortable.

Have you opened your mouth or ate shit?

Why is it so stinky?

Wenren Tiange was anxious to quickly move this part in.

He immediately said: "Well, this part of the test ends here. I personally think that Wiliam is still more suitable for martial arts, after all, he defeated our outstanding young generation Li Nianyi."

Li Nianyi's face froze again.

Sovereign is inhumane!

Why did you take him out and whip the corpse?

This is for Wiliam Dinglei?

Wen Ren Tiange also glanced at Li Nianyi, his eyes full of sympathy.

He said to his heart, I'm sorry kid, I'll take you to divert his attention.

Others also looked at Li Nianyi one after another, with all kinds of jokes in their eyes.

Li Nianyi felt that in the end, the clown was myself.

As this topic was shifted, the pressure in Wen Ren Tianqing's heart gradually decreased.

Damn, unconventional behavior, this kid is amazing.

Can this be calculated?

I really don't know if he deliberately harmed others, or he has the real ability to figure it out!

Wenren Tianqing is indeed a frequent visitor.

Hey, I can't hold up that girlish technology flow.

Fortunately, this period has passed.

"Do you have any opinions on this?" Wenren Tiange asked everyone.

I didn't even ask Wiliam.

Just afraid of asking, this kid sprayed manure in his mouth again.

The people at the scene nodded hurriedly, with no comments.

Jokes, let this kid learn fortune-telling?

It is estimated that those who want to kill him can line up to the sky.

The mouth is so broken.

Inappropriate.

“Well, if that’s the case, then let’s take a look, is there an elder or senior who is willing to accept him as a disciple? Teach me the painstaking effort.” Wenren Tiange asked again.

At this time, several elders and seniors all looked at each other.

There are ten people in Xianghualixue who are qualified to accept disciples, including the master, two elders, and seven elders.

There are three seniors who are practicing orbs, and there are seven others.

The expressions of these seven people were a little weird, and even Wen Ren Tianyi revealed careful thoughts.

Don’t look at Wiliam’s mouth stinky, but defeating Li Nianyi inexplicably is also a kind of strength in itself.

Besides, these elders are no less than an apprentice.

If Wiliam was accepted, the boy would soar into the sky in the future, and the master would follow with a light on his face.

And if this kid has any abilities, it doesn’t matter anyway, it’s not bad for him.

Although Wen Ren Tianyi had been looking at Wiliam upset, he still had his vision.

He was still thinking about changing to another apprentice training.

As a result, several elders stood up almost at the same time and said, “I’ll come.”

With this sound, everyone at the scene was jealous and crazy.

What’s so special, there are so many people robbing Wiliam.

Falling through everyone’s eyes.

They even saw Wen Ren Tianyi also stand up.

Seeing that these six people have formed a competitive relationship with each other, their faces have gradually stiffened.

At this time, Wenren Tiange also stood up and said with a smile: “I think it is better for me, the suzerain, to teach the karma himself.”

So far, all seven people who are qualified to accept disciples have come forward.

Those eyes that looked at Wiliam suddenly changed.

Good guy, it's such an honor to be so attracted by so many elders!

The Sovereign ended up personally.

Isn't that obvious enough!

Anyone with a discerning eye could see that the Sect Master wanted to cultivate Wiliam vigorously.

Wen Renqin's eyes were also bright, and he couldn't wait to go up and punch Wiliam to get Wiliam to go to her father's side quickly.

With her father taking care of him, who would dare to mock Wiliam in the future?

But at this moment, a loud hiccup suddenly sounded not far behind him.

Then a muddled voice spread all over the scene, "Well, I see this little doll, or let me come, little doll, I'll be with you, would you like it?"
