

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1461

The people at the scene look at me and I look at you, but they don't know how to describe this scene.

The Sect Master has always been a person of joy and anger.

It's like this now, it's like being stepped on by a cat's tail.

Even the dirty words came out.

It can be seen how annoying this kid Wiliam is.

And this kind of irritating is a full-screen attack on the enemy and us.

I don't see that Wenrenqingqing is now constipated.

Everyone looked at Wiliam jokingly, with only one thought in their minds.

This kid was so bold that he was about to enter the lowermost floor of the library.

Does he know what's on the bottom layer!

Just now I was still humble and needed to lay a good foundation, now I want to make it to the sky?

Sure enough, he all pretended to be.

Wiliam turned around, looked at Wenren Tiange with an embarrassed look, and said, "Didn't the Sect Master agree just now?"

"I don't! Don't put a big hat on me! Nothing! You didn't say you are going to the bottom floor!" Wenren Tiange wanted to beat this kid but couldn't fight it. He wanted to scold but couldn't speak out.

"Oh? Isn't this the bottom layer still exquisite?" Wiliam asked rhetorically.

At this time, Wenren Tianqing stood up and said in a weird manner: "There is nothing to be particular about, but there are rules. It's not that any cat or dog can get in. Isn't that a mess?"

Wiliam knew that this elder was going to make things difficult for himself again.

He was not afraid.

Wiliam asked, "Then I will ask the elders carefully. What are the rules?"

Wen Ren Tianqing glanced at Wiliam contemptuously, and said, "The rules are very simple. Since you have asked sincerely, I will tell you something compassionately. Our fragrant bookstore is a place in this world. The famous Langhuan blessed land, how many people want to go in and find out."

"Cangshu Pavilion is divided into seven layers in total. The first few layers are some basic mental and exercise secrets. As long as disciples can refer to these books, they can refer to them at will. Starting from the fifth layer, we hide some of our important thoughts. Dharma, including martial arts and divination tips. The sixth layer contains some of the cultivation experience of the masters of the past dynasties. And the bottom layer that you said is the seventh layer. The seventh layer hides our fragrance flowers. Some of the cultivation secrets of the blood, or in other words, this seventh level is a cultivation secret in itself."

"Oh? Elder, please tell me more." Wiliam asked shamelessly.

Elder Wen Ren Tianqing is obviously very useful, and continued: "The first four floors can be referred to by ordinary disciples. On the fifth floor, middle-level disciples can enter. On the sixth floor, our elders or permitted elders can enter. As for the seventh floor. Floor, ho ho ho, do you want to go in?"

Wiliam nodded naturally.

The seventh layer hides the secrets of the cultivation of fragrant flowers and blood, which should involve the mystery of their forbidden area.

Wiliam could be sure that his grandfather left something in the forbidden ground.

So this seventh level, he is imperative.

Wen Ren Tianqing looked at Wiliam with a cold eye, "If you want to go in, you have to see if you are qualified. The reason why I said just now that the seventh level itself is a practice secret, because the seventh level is completely different from the previous six levels. Different.

The seventh floor is the treasure of cultivation that the ancestor of the Fragrant Flower Lixue Chuangzong occasionally got a piece of Pokémon, which took a lifetime of energy!

"As long as you step into the seventh level, you will be under terrible coercion! But if this coercion is properly transformed, it can be a great help for one's own cultivation."

"So it's not just our fragrant children who yearn for this seventh level, and want to cultivate on the seventh level, even people outside want to go in for cultivation. Now, do you think you are qualified?"

Wiliam asked amusedly: "What qualifications do you still say? How do I know?"

Wen Ren Tianqing said coldly: "Because there are too many people wanting to go, and the ancestors are not good at killing everyone with a stick to offend other sects, so I have set the rules! If people outside want to enter this sect. For the seventh floor, one hundred thousand Tianshan Spirit Crystals need to be paid."

Wiliam frowned slightly when he heard this.

He sold several treasures today, only to exchange 10,000 Lingjing, and now it costs 100,000 to enter, which is too terrible.

But he also understood that the ancestors of Xianghualixue used this method to persuade other sects to leave.

Either give money or don't come.

Not only didn't hesitate to say something, but also gave a good explanation to other sects.

"Then our people inside?" Wiliam seized a loophole in Wen Ren Tianqing's words.

"Ho ho, you are clever. Our children go in, naturally it is not so expensive. Elders and above can only go in once a year, once is the limit. Middle-level disciples and above, go in and pay five thousand spirit crystals, once a year. And if ordinary disciples want to go in, they have to pay 10,000 Tianshan Spirit Crystals." Wen Ren Tianqing finished speaking and looked at Wiliam mockingly.

It seems to be saying, you are so poor, don't even think about it.

Wiliam had a look of lovelessness.

Good guys, you are worthy of calculation.

How much money I have on him has been calculated by you?

But this look fell in everyone's eyes, and it automatically interpreted as helpless and desperate.

Ten thousand Tianshan Lingjing!

This is money that so many people can't even think of in this life!

Li Nianyi has worked so hard for several years to accumulate a hundred spirit crystals, and he feels that the world is invincible.

Now it is a hundred times!

Not to mention that Wiliam, who just came to the outer world, didn't have any money at all, even if all ordinary disciples added up, it was impossible to reach this number.

This was also the biggest reason Wen Ren Tianqing stood up and mocked Wiliam directly.

Wiliam calmed his mind and asked, "I'll ask another question, what's the matter with this seventh-level coercion? Can you be more specific?"

Wen Ren Tianqing thought he was trying to find himself and changed the subject.

So Wenren Tianqing was not in a hurry, and was happy to see this kid looking for a face for himself.

He said with a sneer: "We don't understand the coercion inside. But let me tell you that. Our elder, the strong man of the Innate Secret Realm, can stay in it for no more than ten days."

"If you stay forcibly, your body will be squeezed out by coercion. I think about it, the longest person in the history of Xianghua has been an elder a hundred years ago, and he stayed in it for fifteen days. But when I came out, I was covered in blood, leaving only a trace of breath."

"However, by cultivating for such a long time inside, he broke through to a higher level in one fell swoop."

Wiliam completely understood why Xianghua's ancestors were willing to let people spend money in.

The reason is that the stay time is uncontrollable.

After spending a hundred thousand spirit crystals, in case you can't hold it in less than a day.

Didn't it come to send money to Xianghua Lixue?

Tsk tusk tusk, the ancestors of Xianghualixue are also very gloomy.

"So, do you still want to go in now? Pay the money and I will let you in." Wen Ren Tianqing said with a smile.

The mockery in his eyes has been maximized.

He didn't want to pretend at all.

Li Nianyi smiled below, not to mention how happy he was.

He consciously became a tool man again, yin and yang cried out strangely: "Master, don't bury this genius! Look at him completely clean, let alone 10,000 Tianshan spirit crystals, a piece of Tianshan spirit crystals. Are there any?"

"Besides, in front of so many people, he can't be embarrassed to hold a woman's thigh anymore, right? Give him some face, Master!"
