

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1469

I was caught off guard by my sister's back stabbing, and it was not good for Wen Ren to fall in love with me.

Her eyes were fixed on the colorful stone, and even the red color on the colorful stone seemed to laugh at her self-consciousness.

Didn't it mean that no one knew Wiliam better than her?

Don't you know the truth about him?

Okay.

Eight days passed.

The dead ghost didn't even show any signs.

It's better to die on the seventh floor!

The faces of the people around were flushed, obviously wanting to laugh but not daring to laugh.

After being stabbed back by this sudden sister, everyone was less shocked at Wiliam's eight-day absence.

Not waiting for Wenren's heartfelt reply, the warm and caring sister hurriedly added-"It's time to test my sister's appetite. It's magnificent to eat a pound of shit!"

"You want to be so angry that I can inherit my baby, right?" Wen Renqin's face flushed, and she scolded her sister and Wiliam thousands of times in his heart.

What magic power does Wiliam have!

Can you drive everyone around you astray?

My sister has always been an indifferent and arrogant royal sister, but now she has become so black-bellied.

And it's becoming more and more like Wiliam. What's the situation?

But Wenrenqingqing is just such a joke.

Two days ago, I saw my sister look like she knows Wiliam best in the world. When an elder sister is naturally concerned about her personal life, she can't hook up with a married man.

Who made herself a sister, and broke her heart for her sister.

She just made this joke to remind her sister, implying that her sister actually doesn't know the puppy ratio that much.

The perfect elder sister image model GET!

"But then again, why didn't the puppy come out? Couldn't it be that there was an accident below?" Hearing people's affection and accepting it, otherwise the sister's love will be too heavy, and the sister will be under pressure. Very big.

Hearing this question from the princess, the kind disciple who had reminded Li Nianyi before was ready to move, and wanted to carry forward the good-looking style again.

But immediately thought of something horrible, and his neck shrank, hiding his fame.

"I also feel weird, but I can't go down now." Wen Renqin gave a step and immediately rolled down neatly.

"I can only look at it again." Wen Renqing said helplessly.

From this look, it was another six days.

William stayed here for fourteen days!

The red light on the colorful stone is still on.

At this moment, the entrance is already overcrowded.

Sovereign master, elders, and some elders are all here.

The needle dropped quietly at the scene and can be heard.

Fourteen days, what does it mean?

There is only one thought in everyone's hearts!

The most outstanding elder in the history of Xianghuali, stayed in it for fifteen days, and finally came out sideways.

Now, an ordinary kid has been inside for fourteen days!

One day!

You can catch up with this historical record!

It's terrible!

Beyond everyone's expectations!

If this kid stays for another day, he is destined to be included in the history of fragrant flowers!

Famous forever!

No, even if he comes out today, this kid will stay in history!

Because the elder before, everyone knew that he was talented.

As for Wiliam, his performance has been mediocre all the time, and it has only been a few days since he added Fragrant Flowers!

This kind of direct shock is even more turbulent!

The expressions of Wen Ren Tianqing and Wen Ren Tianyi were ugly.

Everyone at the scene did not dare to say a word, for fear that they would annoy the two elders.

Among this group of people, Li Nianyi appeared even more trembling.

Everyone has forgotten one thing, but he can't forget it.

He set the handicap here before, and the routine is fascinating.

Wen Ren took out one hundred spirit crystals, betting that Wiliam could stay below for more than eleven days.

One hundred times odds!

Now it is 10,000 Lingjing!

Who would have thought that Wen Renqing's disappointing move would really win the bet!

Li Nianyi was shaking slightly.

He couldn't help thinking that Wiliam patted him on the shoulder before entering and said he was too impulsive.

Thinking about it now, it is indeed impulsive, and now it is too late to regret it.

wrong!

That kid said before that he was too impulsive, it's impossible!

He already knew that he could stay down for a long time?

No way!

Thinking of this, Li Nianyi broke down even more.

He sneaked a glance at Wen Ren Qing Xin not far away.

Wen Renqing was obviously the same as everyone else, still immersed in the shock that Wiliam didn't show for 14 days, it seemed that he didn't even think of this bet.

God bless, I hope no one will remember this!

While praying in his heart, Li Nian withdrew his eyes, for fear of attracting Wenren's attention.

"Big brother, what should I do now?" Wen Ren Tianqing finally spoke.

Wen Ren Tianyi had a cold face, his eyes fixed on the colorful stone, and he only uttered four words, "Watch the change."

Wen Ren Tianqing's heart collapsed.

Guan Guan Guan!

Watch a grandma please!

Looking further down, the historical record has been broken!

At this time, someone turned his attention to the suzerain.

At this time, the suzerain needs to come out and get an opinion.

Do you want to go down or continue to wait and see?

Wenren Tiange gritted his teeth and said: "Keep on waiting! Come on! Set the wine!"

Everyone's breathing was stagnant!

It's fine to wait, what's the matter with wine?

wrong!

Sovereign is ready to set the tone for Wiliam!

The master is so bold!

You must know that Wiliam is the least qualified here and his performance is average.

However, the Sovereign is going to reject all the arguments and establish Wiliam as a legendary figure of fragrant flowers and blood!

Otherwise, put some wine!

This is a celebration wine, but also a handed down wine!

Wen Renqing's eyes brightened when she heard it, and she immediately said, "Did you hear? Don't do it soon!"

A group of disciples and subordinates recovered, nodded and said yes, and left to prepare.

Wine, this is the people who are preparing to gather the whole family to witness history.

In a short while, more than a dozen tables and chairs were placed in this small courtyard.

A pile of people carried tank after tank of wine, and they shuttled non-stop.

Wenren Tiange took the lead to sit on a chair and yelled: "Open wine!"

The mood of Wenren Tiange at this moment is also extremely complicated.

He doesn't know if this decision is right or wrong?

He also knew that Wiliam wasn't really integrated here, and there were many people who were not convinced by Wiliam.

And now that he made this decision, if Wiliam had some accident underneath, he would be hitting him as the Sect Master in the face.

Wiliam, Wiliam, you'd better be really capable and come out alive.

Wenren Tiange himself couldn't grasp the ending, and he wasn't embarrassed to ask the right and wrong in front of everyone.

He only feels his mouth is dry and he needs a glass of wine to moisturize his throat and strengthen his courage!

But when the wine had just been opened and had not yet entered the throat, a cry of exclamation suddenly sounded at the scene!

There was a slight tremor on the ground at the scene.

An ancient coercion burst out from the entrance, fleeting!

Looking at the colorful stone again, the red light on it suddenly went out!
