

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1492

William saw the real body of Peach Blossom Lady for the first time, and he felt a sense of suffocation.

The beauty of the country is beautiful, the country is full of beauty, and the gentleness of Xiaojiabiyu is also brought with him.

And if you look closely, Lady Peach Blossoms is a bit similar to Sister Wen Ren Qingxin.

However, when William came over carefully, he immediately noticed something wrong.

The peach lady in front of me is not like a person.

Of course not that she is a demon.

But she, standing in front of William, gave William a hazy and dreamlike feeling.

Is there no truth in the mirror flower water moon?

"Lady Peach Blossom?" William bowed cautiously and said hello.

Lady Peach Blossom continued with that crippling smile, and said: "You don't need to look at me this way. It's okay to tell you the truth. What you see now is not Peach Blossom's real body, her real body is still sleeping inside. Well, after doing the math, I have been asleep for more than tens of thousands of years."

"Then you are?" William continued to ask.

"I am the avatar of Lady Peach Blossom. To be precise, I am Lady Peach Blossom's thousand-year resentment." Said Lady Peach Blossom.

Thousands of grievances...

William frowned slightly.

No wonder she always feels panicked looking at this peach blossom lady.

The negative energy in her body has accumulated for thousands of years, and it has reached a very terrifying level.

However, Thousand Years of Resentment...

Why did Lady Peach have accumulated so many years of resentment and gave birth to a thousand-year resentment spirit?

What's the story about her?

"It seems that you are very curious about my story." Lady Peach said to Wiliam with a wicked smile.

Wiliamzhang hesitated and nodded.

"Then tell you my story before you pay the price. After all, it has been a thousand years since I was born. This kind of unspeakable loneliness is a bit uncomfortable." The Peach Blossom Lady showed a melancholy expression. Said with a smile.

She pointed her finger in one direction, "Did you see that sculpture?"

It was the Snake Entangled Peach Blossom that Wiliam had seen before.

Wiliam nodded.

"That's called Flower Love Snake." Peach Lady said, "The flower inside is peach blossom, and it's me."

"What about the snake?" Wiliam asked immediately.

There was a faint suspicion in him.

The three questions I asked him before with Lady Peach, I definitely can't get rid of them.

It is probably a bloody love story.

"Snake, you will know next." Lady Peach Blossom began to say slightly.

From the beginning of the Eight Desolation and the Four Emperors' dominance of the ancient times, to the alliance of the emperor, the Yan Emperor and the Chi You three ancestors, they fought a protracted ancient war with the Four Emperors.

The story lies between the four emperors and three ancestors fighting for hegemony.

In the ruins of a war, a small peach tree that survived by chance absorbed the aura of heaven and earth and gave birth to spiritual wisdom.

In the same way, a little yellow snake also opened up spiritual wisdom at the same time.

Because of the same disease, Hua Snake is dependent on each other and gradually became a pair of lovers.

They don't care about the catastrophe of the world, regardless of the collapse of the world, and make a pair of mandarin ducks in troubled times.

However, the love of Hua Snake crosses races after all.

Not only across races, but also across...

Their love is full of controversy.

However, Lady Peach does not care, she seems to be a little woman in love.

But that snake planted a strange seed in his heart.

The controversy arose after the four emperors and three ancestors struggled for hegemony.

The four emperors fell, and although the three ancestors won, the losses were extremely heavy.

This common people also collapsed because of the four emperors and three ancestors' struggle for hegemony.

Floods, flames, storms, showers.

The sky is disordered and the region is falling apart.

The three ancestors have nothing to do.

Including the great talents who participated in this battle.

Those who practice martial arts and seek immortality still have the power to protect themselves.

But the common people who have suffered without the power to bind the chicken.

At this time, someone divination came up with an exciting message.

There is a snake, capable of saving the world.

Just re-separate this chaotic and shattered world.

By applying the common people's blessing array, the common people can be saved.

As a result, the three ancestors found Lady Peach and the snake.

Move with affection, know with reason.

But Lady Peach refused to live or die.

She is just a little woman, and her life has nothing to do with her.

If she has compassion, she will take part in the battle before.

Moreover, it was the Four Emperors who helped.

After all, she and the snake are both demon.

Now that the three ancestors are asking for help as a human, Lady Peach naturally ignores it even more.

However, the three ancestors found the snake to intercede in private.

Among them is a point of view, talking about the weakness of snakes.

Their love of the flower snake was criticized.

But what about after saving the common people?

The world will only be grateful for their great kindness.

Who would criticize them.

The snake couldn't bear Lady Peach Blossom being spurned, so he made up his mind.

Decided to divide the region with one's own power.

In one night, the snake left a long-term farewell letter.

Then quietly left Lady Peach's side.

Lady Peach didn't even think that the person next to her pillow had vowed to have a white head and stay together.

But will leave suddenly.

By the time she found out, it was too late.

There was a roar of heaven and earth.

A giant snake lies between this world and the earth.

This vast land was completely isolated into two continents.

Hearing this, Wiliam's heart shuddered, and he exclaimed, "This snake you are talking about, is it a python! He is incarnate in the python sky, dividing the earth into the common people's territory and the python continent?"

Peach Lady gave Wiliam a surprised look, and continued to speak without denying it.

The python turned into a moat, dividing the two continents.

The people on the third ancestor side had waited for a long time and moved all the ordinary people to the Anaconda Continent.

And instantly arranged the common people blessing formation, completely separated ordinary people from martial arts seekers.

Cangsheng Blessing Array can not only reshape the climate of the Anaconda Continent, but also make it impossible for some powerful people to shuttle to the Anaconda Continent at will.

However, what is even more frightening is that the python doesn't know at all that he will be restrained by the common people's blessing formation. From then on, he can't turn himself over at all, and can only become a moat that divides the two places forever.

This made the python extremely angry.

However, the three ancestors also have misery.

For the sake of the world, they deceived the python.

This lie is that they are ashamed of the python.

By the time Peach Lady rushed to the edge of Cang Python's moat, it was too late.

Because of guilt and regret, the python was unable to face Lady Peach, and fell into a deep sleep.

But Peach Lady was discouraged and returned to her residence.

After many years, she also fell into a deep sleep after leaving her blood on the body of a clan.

However, as she returned to deep sleep, the resentment in her heart grew deeper and deeper.

Thousands of years ago, these grievances actually gave birth to spiritual wisdom and formed the resentful spirit of Lady Peach.

William really did not think that Lady Peach's lover turned out to be a python!

And he understood in an instant that Lady Peach had asked the cause of the three questions before.

The blue python cried mournfully.

It turns out that the blue python screamed because of repentance and guilt.

"So, what is the price you want me to pay?" William raised his head and asked slowly.

After she finished telling the story, Lady Peach tickled her mouth slightly, and said, "It's very simple and cruel. You bear my grievances for thousands of years in your flesh, and help me vent!"
