

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1496

“Satisfied?” Lady Peach had a weird smile.

William raised his head to look at Lady Peach Blossom, feeling shocked!

William just wanted to see if his body had recovered, and there was no scent of bitterness left behind.

But once he checked, he was stunned!

Not only did the body fully recover to its peak, but there was no residue left in the short walks.

What’s really scary is his current physical resilience!

He felt that his flesh and blood was more than a hundred times stronger than before!

This is totally incredible!

“What’s so surprised, little guy, it’s your luck that exploded. In order to vent all the resentment and hostility, my resentful spirit used your flesh and blood as the fertile soil to open up the peach blossom of resentment thousands of times. If you can’t hold it, you will die if you die. But if you hold on to it, this is a chance for body tempering that is rare in thousands of years. The toughness of your flesh and blood now can be compared to the first state of Nirvana in the Seven Wonders Realm. The cultivators are on the same level. And even the cultivators in the Nirvana realm want to kill your flesh and blood, it takes a lot of effort. As for the warriors below the Nirvana realm, it is estimated that if you stand and let them kill, they will not be killed.” Peach Lady smiled and said, very satisfied with William’s current performance.

William’s mood became excited again!

What a special thing!

It’s really hard to come by!

I had suffered such a terrible peach blossom before, and I thought that it would be me who would benefit in the end!

Think about the effect of tempering the body in Luo Tian’s Mi air for 30 days, the result is not as good as 1% now!

What an unexpected gain!

However, William knew that Lady Peach had something wrong.

William’s current body’s toughness is not just a cultivator comparable to Nirvana!

He was even more surprised to find that under his own flesh and blood, there was a more terrifying force hidden!

The power of the unicorn!

“Old ancestor, what is the power of the unicorn in my body?” Wiliam asked in his mind.

The ancestors didn't have a direct answer, but printed a picture in Wiliam's mind.

Wiliam turned into a unicorn!

This scene made Wiliam dumbfounded!

Thinking that I was at the last moment of the peach blossom of resentment, relying on the supreme will to survive, I just turned into a unicorn!

This unicorn power in one's own body can make one possess the body of a unicorn!

But Wiliam also sensed that he was still too weak now!

It is impossible to maintain the body of a unicorn.

It will probably last for a minute.

And after one minute, he will endure a strong backlash.

But this also gave Wiliam a big surprise!

If this unicorn power is added, he will be almost invincible within a minute!

And the danger of the battle, one minute can change a lot of things!

What a surprise!

“You deserve it, and I'm happy for you. Keep working hard, little guy, maybe one day, you can really beat me.” Azure Qilin said to Wiliam in his mind.

This is in response to Wiliam's earlier conversation with Tianqing Qilin.

“You kid, your talent is amazing. I really want to see what your future holds?” Peach Lady said with a smile, as if she hadn't noticed the blood in Wiliam's body.

She didn't even count Wiliam, otherwise she would definitely be able to discover Wiliam's bloodline.

She couldn't find it, it could only show that the blood of the Four Emperors was higher than the Xuanhuang Peach Blossom.

However, Wiliam immediately thought that their three brothers had crossed the Anaconda Sky Trench before being spotted by Petite Rou.

Petite and Rou responded with the sorrow of the python to the top of the three bloodlines, and sent all the beasts to congratulate Qijing.

It shows that the strength of Petite and Rou is much higher than that of Lady Peach.

It seems that Liu Lang was right at the beginning.

The blue python cried mournfully, asking for them.

Liu Lang said at the time that he owed Cang Python a favor, and he would have a chance to meet in the future.

Now the opportunity really appears.

"Hmm..." A low hum sounded in Wiliam's ear.

Wiliam put away his thoughts and turned around to look.

It was Qingxin that gradually woke up.

"Qingxin, you are awake." Wiliam said gently, sitting beside her.

Wen Renqing opened her confused eyes and looked at the strange environment in front of her.

"Am I dead?" Wen Ren's heart-to-heart memory remained where she had broken her heart for Wiliam.

"I'm not dead, how could I die?" Wiliam said with a smile.

"Then you have nothing to do?" Wen Renqing asked again.

Wiliam shook his head, indicating that he was in trouble.

"No, I'm obviously unable to save my heart. What method did you use to make me come alive again?" Wen Ren Qingxin looked confused.

She was convinced that she should have died completely.

"Ho ho, this kid is for you..." the peach lady on the side said with a smile.

But Wiliam interrupted him in the middle.

"Fortunately, I met your ancestor, Lady Peach Blossom. She missed you sincerely and couldn't bear your death, so she saved you." Wiliam said, giving Lady Peach Blossom a look.

Peach Lady's small mouth opened slightly.

She wanted to say to Wenren that Wiliam had endured extremely terrible resentment and hostility in order to save her, and he almost died.

But seeing Wiliam's look, Lady Peach Blossom seemed to understand and smiled.

A period of evil fate, let it go.

"Lady Peach Blossom? Are you my grandmother?" Wen Ren Qingxin heard this and quickly got up to kneel.

"No, I think you are also a lover of peach blossoms, so I saved your life." Peach Lady said lightly.

"Not only that, Lady Peach also allowed you to inherit the blood of your grandmother. From now on, your position in the family will be supreme!" Wiliam added.

He knew that Wen Renqin always had a lump in his heart.

Sure enough, when Wenren heard this, tears burst into his eyes!

Inheriting the blood of the grandmother, the status is supreme!

A few words completely broke her heart.

Wen Renqin has always felt that he is a man of scent.

Evicted by the family and returned.

It's disgraceful to come back!

Even now, someone in the family will still take the mistakes she made back then.

But now!

She inherited the blood of her ancestors!

Get the approval of the ancestors!

This bloodline is enough to make the whole family turn their heads!

This glory completely obscured the mistakes she accidentally made back then.

And it was the two in front of her that made her the first person in Xianghuali's bloodline!

She looked at Wiliam with an extremely mixed mood.

She is not a fool.

From the words before Lady Peach Blossom, Wiliam did it for her...

You can guess a lot of things.

Wiliam must have spent a lot of thought and even paid a great price.

Only now has his own resurrection from the dead, and inheritance of ancestral blood!

And thinking of the conversation between the two before they died, Wen Renqin felt even more complicated.

That is to say he is showing his heart in disguise.

Shame.

And before his death, Wiliam ordered Manshan peach blossoms, so romantic...

However, after all, evil fate.

Since Wiliam gave himself a step, he should always keep it in his heart.

She smiled and looked out through the window of the small hut.

“The peach blossoms are so beautiful, the peach blossoms in my eyes are all over the country, but the peach blossoms in my heart will be immortal, Wiliam, are you right?”
