

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1498

There was a fiery pain in Wenren Tianqing's eyes!

However, the shock in his heart is far less than this!

He felt it carefully and suddenly discovered a terrifying fact!

The ground trembled, and the place of origin was!

Back mountain!

Forbidden!

Something happened to Taohua Wanzhangyuan!

In the forbidden place, Wenren Tianqing's expression suddenly became serious!

His body flashed, and there was already his figure in the room!

And Xianghualixue almost everyone felt the fact that this continued tremor.

A group of people rushed towards the back mountain like crazy!

Taohua Wanzhangyuan is their forbidden place, and also the place where the grandmother inhabits!

If something disturbs the grandmother, the fragrant flowers will shed their blood, and the death will be hard to blame!

Wenrenqingqing's heart is about to jump out while running wildly!

She scolded William as a dog in her heart!

The catastrophe of Taohua Wanzhangyuan must have something to do with that puppy!

After all, wherever the puppy goes, he writes the arrogance!

Isn't there not enough lessons from the past?

He went to the place where the bones were buried, and the place where the bones were buried collapsed, and it hasn't been repaired so far.

He took out the bones and blood crystals in the discussion hall, the hall collapsed, and it has not been repaired so far.

Is this guy from the demolition brigade!

Where do I go? Where do I go!

It's over now!

That's forbidden!

Puppy sneaked in and made such a big move, he must be discovered by his family!

It is estimated that this time I want to keep him, but I can't keep it!

And that silly sister!

Follow up and dry the wool!

It's good now, I guess there is no lamb to eat, which caused a lot of trouble!

She herself is a body of sin!

This time it is estimated to be inevitable!

Thinking of this, Wen Renqingqing was a little bit lucky to be a little secretive.

Fortunately, I am clever and witty, and I don't even have to be fooled by a puppy, and I don't even go in with him!

Otherwise, this iron pan will have to carry half of it on its own!

When Wen Renqing reached the back mountain, hundreds of people were already there.

Almost all the Xianghualixue children have arrived.

Wenren Tiange and the two elders took the lead and headed for the small hut!

In the small hut, Wenren Wuming walked out slowly.

Looks like a headache.

"Uncle, what is going on here!" Wenren Tiange asked sternly, regardless of the dignity and inferiority of the young and old.

It's about grandmother after all.

Wen Ren Wuming shook his head, "I don't know either."

"Where's Wiliam!" Wenren Tianqing asked suddenly, scanning the surrounding area.

Wiliam should have been here!

Now that people are not there, there must be fraud!

Wenren Tiange's heart shuddered and thought of a terrible fact!

In this situation, someone must have trespassed into the forbidden area!

And Wiliam is not there, it's obvious!

That brave kid!

Wenren Tiange originally had a bit of cherishment for Wiliam.

But when he touched the forbidden ground, he was furious!

"That kid must have trespassed into the forbidden land! What a kid! We actually led a wolf into the room! Today we can't even kill him here!" Wen Ren Tianqing shouted angrily.

For those who trespass on the forbidden land, it is not a pity to die a hundred times!

Wenren Wuming's eyes flashed with a sharp sigh, "I don't know where he is, after all, I can't watch him all the time.

Wiliam, Wiliam, I just acquiesced that you entered the forbidden area.

But you coax such a big noise inside, I can't keep you.

You ask for your blessings.

"Hurry up and look inside, our grandmother's roots!" Wen Ren Tianyi said with a cold face.

At this time, Wenren Tiange also woke up!

Correct!

Grandma's roots!

The root of the grandmother is the foundation of the fragrant flower and blood to open the veins!

If the ancestors were ruined at the end, it would be equivalent to ruining the veins of the fragrant flower and blood that passed down the generations!

"Several elders and Qingqing will follow me in, and the others will stay where they are!" Wenren Tiange immediately gave the order, flashing his body, and entered the forbidden area!

Wenren Qingqing reacted, and quickly followed in.

The grandmother's roots are not far from the entrance.

And when they entered, their eyes were cracked!

Where is the grandmother's roots in front of me!

The whole mountain splits into terrible hills!

In the place where the grandmother's roots were before, the small porcelain bowl used to hold the grandmother's blood also fell to the ground, and all the grandmother's blood was spilled into the soil!

Seeing this scene, Wen Ren Tianqing's body was arrogant, "William! I killed you! Get out of me!"

Wenrenqing's heart also fell to the bottom!

That's it!

Completely finished!

The catastrophe caused by the puppy is far greater than this time!

Before, his grandfather was just trespassing on the forbidden area, and he has already been forcefully sanctioned!

Now Puppy has not only broken into the forbidden ground, but also got the grandmother out of her roots!

Seeing the mess at the scene, thinking about it, I know that something that angered my grandmother happened here!

No one can save the puppy now!

"I'm going to find him! I want to smash his body into thousands of pieces!" Wen Ren Tianqing said, going down to find someone.

But he was stopped by Wenren Tiange.

Wen Ren Tiange said with a cold face, "Presumptuous! There is already a forbidden trespasser. As an elder, do you want to violate your ancestral precepts! Your grandmother is already furious, and you still want to go down and make trouble! Wait outside!"

With that, Wenren Tiange took the lead to go out.

Wenren Tianqing couldn't be mad, but there was no way, so I had no choice but to leave.

When he got outside, Wen Ren Tianqing said angrily that his grandmother had been ruined.

Everyone was angry!

William is not dead!

Heaven can't tolerate it!

"We are all waiting here! That kid had better die in the forbidden ground! Otherwise, if there is still life to come out, I will frustrate him!" Wen Ren Tianqing said angrily.

Wenren Qingqing's heart raised his throat.

She hoped that William and her sister would come out safely, but also hoped that they would not come out.

No one can withstand the anger of the whole clan!

However, things have failed to meet people's wishes.

At this time, everyone saw that the door of the forbidden area slowly opened.

Two people walked out slowly.

It was Wiliam and Wenren who fell in love with him.

Wiliam had a headache when he saw so many people outside.

It's not going to be messed up again.

But the fragrant people first saw Wiliam, and Qi Qi was furious.

But seeing Wen Renqin Xin was also inside, one by one was stunned.

Wenren Tiange looked at Wenrenqingxin in disbelief, and yelled: "Chuxin! Are you crazy! You dare to enter the forbidden area!"

Wenren looked at so many people in love, and was still in astonishment.

But at this time, Wenrenqingqing seemed to have made a cruel decision.

She walked towards Wiliam and Wenren Qingxin.

Then he glared at Wiliam secretly, and cast an apologetic look at Wiliam.

Sorry, puppies.

If you want both people to die, it's better to—

You work harder!

You brought your sister in, and you should bear the blame!

Wen Renqingqing grabbed his sister's hand and shouted angrily: "Love! How could you do such a thing! It's not like your style at all! Tell me, did this kid kidnap you and let you follow? He enters the forbidden area together!"
