Chapter 1518 Tears Breathing Ice Jade

"Are you wanting me to find this piece of tear-relieving ice jade?" Wiliam immediately reacted.

"I'm looking for nature. After all, the Xilai ice jade is something I carry with me, and it can frost everything. This is also the last time you saw that a piece of amber contains a trace of my blood? This piece of debris is also certain. It has stored my soul breath well. At that time, after you found the fragment, there was a better use." Azure Qilin laughed.

"What's the use?" Wiliam asked quickly.

"The Long Live Demon Lotus on your body is not a mortal thing. You will realize its horror more and more in the future. If you successfully find the fragments of the Xileai Ice Jade this time, find a skilled craftsman to melt the fragments into the Long Live Demon Lotus, Long Live Demon Lotus. The power of 's will be able to go to the next level, and maybe it's also possible to get the characteristics of the ice jade that breathes tears. And with the long live demon lotus in your body, I can also get the warmth of the soul's breath at all times." Skygreen Qilin said.

Wiliam's heart trembled fiercely.

If you say so, it is indeed a chance!

And it's a great opportunity!

"Where is that piece?" Wiliam asked.

"I can perceive the direction, and when you need it, I will guide you." Azure Qilin said.

Wiliam nodded, now it is impossible for him to look for debris under the gaze of outsiders.

However, after Wiliam learned this shocking message, he immediately contacted another matter.

Seven stars ferry people's favor.

Is it possible that the Seven Star Ferryman has long known that there is such a treasure here!

So at the expense of a favor, want to find this fragment?

If so, it would be more than enough to exchange one piece for one favor.

Had it not been for Wiliam's body to have a azure unicorn, he might not have been able to find the fragments, let alone understand the magical functions of the fragments.

This makes sense.

"Can you perceive other fragments when you are outside?" Wiliam asked suddenly.

"It didn't work before, but if you find this fragment, with the soul of this fragment, I can detect the connection of other fragments, and maybe I can guide you to find other fragments in the future." Azure Qilin said with a smile.

"Okay, let's focus on the moment first." Wiliam is not a lofty person, so he immediately decided.

"Well, call me again if you need it." After Azure Qilin finished speaking, she fell into silence.

Wiliam slowly opened his eyes, and immediately met Song Hanyu's eyes.

Song Hanyu looked at Wiliam with a puzzled look.

She was right next to Wiliam, watching Wiliam close her eyes, but her expression changed for a while, as if she had experienced something.

Weird little guy.

"Can you still hold it up?" Song Hanyu asked concerned.

Wiliam smiled, "What's wrong for the time being."

"Don't force it, tell your Aunt Song if you have something to do." Song Hanyu smiled warmly.

"Well, thank Aunt Song." Wiliam smiled knowingly.

"Hmph, just hold on to it." Chen Zhongyan sneered, who was meditating not far away.

But both Wiliam didn't make any sense.

After more than half an hour, seven people came back one after another.

The messages they brought back were different.

There were people in several directions, they walked to the head, and in front of them was an unattainable frost wall.

Some people say that the colder you go inside, the feeling of being cold into your bones is a little bit too much for them to bear.

Moreover, they also heard the roar of the ancient beast, which became stronger as they went inside.

Upon hearing this, Chen Zhongyan probably understood the direction to go.

He pointed to the front and said, "It's probably in that direction. The deeper you go, the more dangerous you are. Everyone must pay attention to safety and go."

Wiliam also followed at the end, and it seemed a bit fake to separate at the beginning.

It doesn't mean that the colder the inside, the more you can separate it when you can't hold it.

A few people moved forward, and within a short while, they reached the first batch of ancient beasts.

However, the realm is relatively low and talented.

They were naturally quite relaxed when they beheaded.

So, they talked and laughed along the way, but they were very happy.

“Cut, what is the battlefield of blood and tears, it’s so crippled, but few people know it. Now that we come in, it is not easy to pass through the generals and take what I need?”

“Yeah, but it is still the wise leader of the Sect Master Chen. Without the Sect Master Chen’s seat, we will have great confidence, and we will not be so relaxed.”

“Isn’t you ashamed of someone who came over with the back door and came to gilt? Don’t you say a word of thanks?”

Everyone ridiculed while beheading the ancient beast.

Wiliam and Song Hanyu’s expressions were as usual, and they didn’t feel provoked at all.

“Cut, not only walk through the back door, but also have a thick skin.” Someone was uneasy.

Song Hanyu didn’t feel anything, she just looked at Wiliam with more amazement.

She originally thought that Wiliam was an arrogant person, and she absolutely couldn’t bear this kind of humiliation.

So she was mentally prepared to defend Wiliam steadily.

However, along the way, Song Hanyu couldn’t help being cold-faced several times in the face of the cynicism of those people.

Only Wiliam was as calm as ever.

There are generally only two possibilities for this kind of peace.

Either they said that the cheeks were too thick, or Wiliam didn’t even put their words in his heart, or even put these people in his eyes.

However, Song Hanyu thought it impossible.

Wiliam is not a thick-skinned person, but with low strength, it is naturally impossible to ignore these people.

Then there is only one possibility, that is, Wiliamcheng Mansion is extremely deep and extremely forbearing.

It’s someone who has made great things.

Song Hanyu couldn’t help sighing.

After a long time, the realm at which they encountered the ancient beast gradually increased.

Climbed to the half-step mid-innate.

And sure enough, the chill here is getting deeper and deeper.

William gradually became frosty.

In a short while, a faint layer of frost formed on his eyebrows and hair.

And his face turned pale.

Seeing this scene, Song Hanyu immediately sent internal force to William to help William drive away the chill.

The others saw it and laughed directly.

"I can't stand this anymore? Can we still count on you, a great doctor?"

"Yo yo yo, it's a swollen face to fill a fat man if I can make it to this point. Now my face is swollen and I can't hold on to it. Hahahaha."

"Okay, stop talking, pay attention to the danger in front of you, and those who don't matter, don't distract your attention." Chen Zhongyan said, not looking at William at all.

Song Hanyu sighed and stopped talking to William.

How could William not know what Song Hanyu meant.

Song Hanyu wanted to stop him from advancing aggressively, but he didn't want to be straightforward, for fear of hurting William's self-esteem.

William smiled, looking helpless, and said very much to Song Hanyu's heart: "Aunt Song, I feel that I can't hold on any longer. If you go on, you can't take care of yourself, and you probably won't be able to keep me. I think I'll still return. Wait for you where you are."
