

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1519

When Wiliam said these words, Song Hanyu's face was suddenly mixed.

But she nodded very simply, "Then you go back and wait for us where you are. Don't act without authorization, know? It's too dangerous here."

Wiliam smiled slightly, "I have a sense of measure."

The person next to him showed a mocking smile, "Oh, nine kings bring a bronze, now the bronze is going away, what a pity."

"Boy, aren't you crazy? Don't insist anymore? The rules are for whoever gets the treasure. Maybe there is a treasure waiting for you in front."

Wiliam smiled and said, "That's not necessary, I wish you good luck."

"Go, leave him alone." Chen Zhongyan said coldly, and walked forward first.

Song Hanyu gave Wiliam a concerned look, and followed the team forward.

After all, she was selfish when she came down.

It's rare that the suzerain confessed that whoever gets the treasure will go to whoever gets it.

She also wondered if she could get some treasures to take her external strength to the next level.

After everyone disappeared before his eyes, Wiliam said to Tianqing Qilin: "Senior, we can go, you help me guide the direction."

"Okay, go straight to the west." Azure Qilin said simply.

When Wiliam heard the words, his body sprang and walked in the other direction.

Strangely enough, Wiliam walked westward according to the words of the Azure Qilin.

On this route, there is actually a small number of ancient beasts.

Instead, the temperature plummeted as Wiliam deepened!

Halfway through the journey, even Wiliam couldn't help but shiver!

This temperature is much colder than what he experienced just now!

"Don't worry, there are no ancient beasts on this road because of the breath of Xilei ice jade, but the closer to the Xilei ice jade fragment, the lower the temperature. Now you only need to mobilize your body's internal strength to resist the cold, and you can ignore the rest." Azure Qilin's words appeared in Wiliam's mind.

With the words of the Azure Kylin, the last trace of guard in Wiliam's heart was also released, focusing on resisting the cold.

Not long after, Wiliam's face turned blue and his limbs began to stiffen.

"Hold on! There is less than a mile away. If you can't hold on now, you will not be able to take away the shards of Xilai ice jade for a while." Azure Qilin taught Wiliam.

"I know." What Wiliam lacks most is the courage and courage to live toward death.

In his body, there was originally a trace of the spring breeze, but later they all merged.

But after all, he was a little grounded. At this moment, he didn't care about other things, and he brought the Qilin blood aura on his body to its extreme!

Then, his speed also picked up.

The harder the wind and snow, the faster Wiliam's speed!

After a while, his speed dropped sharply, and the Azure Qilin said, "Here!"

At this moment, Wiliam was trembling all over.

If it is an ordinary person, under this kind of freezing, it will not last a few minutes!

Wiliam was confident in his heart, even if Chen Zhongyan came over, he wouldn't be able to hold it for half an hour.

Here, even every breath makes people feel like cold needles are inhaled, which will pierce the heart, liver, spleen and lungs.

Wiliam held his breath and looked forward.

There is a huge iceberg ahead.

The iceberg exudes a suffocating lofty feeling.

Are the shards of Xilai ice jade in the iceberg?

"Break the iceberg and see the ice jade." Said the Azure Qilin.

Wiliam felt bitter.

Isn't this a test of me?

He didn't talk any more, he went up with a fierce punch, first try the hardness of this iceberg.

The fist blew past, and the iceberg trembled slightly, roaring like a beast.

But after the bombardment, Wiliam became even more speechless.

Under his punch, some debris fell from the surface of the iceberg, but the whole was intact.

What is this called an iceberg?

“Go all out. If you can’t even break this iceberg, don’t expect to get tearful ice jade fragments.” The Azure Qilin’s voice was a little weird.

William clearly heard a slight contempt from it.

An anger rose in his heart.

At this moment, William Qilin’s body burst out!

Even with that, the long live demon lotus on her body also rose to the sky!

“boom!”

William’s body was like a hard needle, and he was the first to blast towards the iceberg!

And the Long Live Demon Lotus is full of red light, all of which are rushing towards the iceberg from different angles.

“Boom boom boom!”

A strong roar continues to be heard from the iceberg.

This piece of land, which was already extremely icy, was filled with icy debris.

And the more he attacked this iceberg, the more cold William got into his bones!

On the one hand, William’s physical strength is constantly being consumed.

On the other hand, the more the iceberg is smashed out of the gap, the iceberg seems to contain endless frost, which is constantly gushing out.

William felt a little overwhelmed under the situation.

No, it can’t go on like this.

Haoshengsheng was frozen to death, and would be ridiculed to cry by the old seniors.

William breathed a sigh of relief, while observing the iceberg, thinking of a way.

The iceberg in front of him, under the blow just now, was a little smaller.

But the core place is still as solid as a rock.

It can only be so.

Fight the last resort!

William’s eyes flashed with determination!

He has never used this trick.

Either break or die!

When he thought of this, the scales of a unicorn appeared on his body again.

But this time!

All his scales do not cover his whole body!

Instead, they gathered on his fists!

In the blink of an eye, his fists were wrapped in a thick layer of unicorn scale armor.

This pair of fist armor, like two cones, came to the front, shining with a strong blue light!

And the Long Live Demon Lotus on his body also covered these two cones.

It is equivalent to blessing Wiliam's double fists with two layers of armor.

This is Wiliam's strongest killer move.

He gave a violent shout, and his body was like lightning, smashing into the core of this iceberg fiercely!

"boom!"

A roar that was enough to shock the world rang from the iceberg!

This time, Wiliam's body was not shaken back!

But forcibly urging the internal force, two hands firmly against the iceberg!

The armor of the pair of fists gleamed with a strange light.

And the iceberg seemed to be wise, the thick ice instantly engulfed Wiliam's double fist cones!

"what!"

Wiliam's eyes were red, and a mouthful of blood came out of his mouth!

"Bang!" A crisp sound suddenly sounded.

Wiliam's eyes were cold!

Heart cut!

The long live demon lotus wrapped in his fists broke in an instant!

Then countless demon lotus fragments returned to Wiliam's body with the last weak light!

The long live demon lotus who has been with him to fight all over the world, a long live demon lotus that is invincible like a partner...

Destroyed...

And Wiliam knew in his heart that if it hadn't been forcibly resisted by Long Live Demon Lotus, it would be his fists that were destroyed at this moment!

"Roar!"

Wiliam's throat burst out with a decisive roar, his momentum rose instead of falling!

Only the last unicorn armor is left!

If you can't break the iceberg, your life should be lost here!

Jade broken!

It's impossible!

With an endlessly broken will, Wiliam burst out all his power in an instant!

Life or death, in a thought!

"boom!"

A roar resounding through the world!

The whole battlefield of blood and tears shakes the ground!

"boom!"

The unicorn scales on Wiliam's body also shattered in an instant, turning into cyan dust!

And with the scales falling apart, it was the indestructible iceberg just now!

Wiliam's body bounced back fiercely and fell to the ground.

And when he was about to look up at the iceberg, his eyes were cold!

A figure appeared in the iceberg!
