

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1556

William took a deep look at Su Emei, wondering if she could know her own thoughts.

But this should be what the second brother told her.

William did plan to take Fengxue over during this time.

As a result, he was already able to stand firm among the nine cases.

His own strength is the half-step innate pinnacle, and he can step into the innate secret realm at any time. It can be said that in the nine sects, unless some old evildoers take action, or at the same time provoke the nine sects to encircle and suppress them, there will be few opponents.

Secondly, one of the major tasks here is to find clues to Grandpa, and it's almost the same now.

As for the remaining tasks, finding your own father, and unwinding Li Chunfeng's happy knot, these are all things that go with the flow. It's time for Fengxue to reunite with her.

It is estimated that the second brother understands all this, he also plans to take Gu Xinyu over.

I just don't know if the eldest brother will bring his grand harem over, if so, it would be fun.

William nodded slightly to Su Emei, then looked at the others.

William, the fourth-ranked sect, knows Can Sword for nine days.

Can Jian Jiutian is famous for his kendo and forging tools,

The person who came to Can Jian for nine days was surprisingly one of the three elders in Sanqing Jian.

He looked at William with mixed feelings.

He knew best that the Long Live Demon Lotus in William's hand was an extraordinary soldier.

But I also never thought that extraordinary magical soldiers can exert such terrifying power in William's hands!

This is no longer a regular supernatural soldier.

At that time, the long live demon lotus reappeared in the world and the magical soldier Limang appeared, which meant that the long live demon lotus was at least an extraordinary soldier.

Now think about it, is it more courage to guess?

That old Jian was also bitter, because they had invited Wiliam to join Can Jian Jiu Tian, but Wiliam refused.

At that time, I only thought that Wiliam was guilty of his crimes and wanted Wiliam to be protected by Can Sword for nine days.

Thinking about it now, it's ridiculously ridiculous.

Does Wiliam need Can Jian's shelter for nine days!

It was Can Jian Nine Heavens, and he needed Wiliam's help.

I just don't know what Xu Tongyin would think about seeing today's scene?

Wiliam smiled at Old Jian, and didn't speak any more.

The fifth place in the Nine Sects is the Fragrant Flower, but it is a pity that Elder Wenren Tianyi has escaped, and there is no such a magnificent scene.

Wiliam, who is ranked sixth, is also very familiar with it.

When Wiliam was in Fanchen, he had already been in contact with the stranger who covered the sky.

Because of its geographical advantage, Qi Jian Zhetian is in charge of the life and death power of Anaconda Continent. Whether it is the original Evil Fist Centennial Ceremony, or in the later stage of the battle between Wiliam and Grandpa, the people of Qi Jian Zhetian have appeared.

The strange sword covered the sky in a vain attempt to solicit Wiliam. If the solicitation fails, they want to kill him. It can be said that there is also an enmity with Wiliam.

However, the original Wiliam respected Qi Jian covering the sky, but now it is different.

At the Centennial Fist Ceremony of the Evil Fist, a single Huang Lingqing was able to shoot away the illusion of the holy beast he formed with Lin Jiang. Now even if Huang Lingqing stood in front of Wiliam, Wiliam could easily squeeze to death.

This time, Qi Jian Zhetian sent out a very old man, but he didn't seem to know the grudge between Wiliam and Qi Jian Zhetian, watching Wiliam's eyes were full of longing and expectation.

1556 Part 2

Wiliam defeated the fragrant and bloody elders. With such a mighty power, if he could recruit a strange sword to cover the sky, his name would definitely go down in history!

At that time, I will be the introductory teacher of a generation of geniuses!

This elder was already thinking about the price he would pay to make this genius heart-moving.

The seventh-ranked sect of nine sects is very interesting.

It is called a red thin tall building.

The most interesting part of this sect is the all-girl sect.

This made Wiliam couldn't help but think of his own Qilin Gate before.

In the Kylin Gate, there is the Eastern Kylin Gate, and Mulan is the master of the gate.

The Eastern Qilin Gate is also the sect of all women.

Unexpectedly, I could run into another all-girl sect here.

What's more interesting is that compared to the elders or elders sent by other sects, the red and thin tall building sent a very aggressive imperial sister.

And Wiliam also remembered this woman's name, Su Hongxiu.

The name is very gentle and the appearance is very beautiful.

But it's totally incompatible with temperament and words and deeds.

This woman named Su Hongxiu, first of all dressed very S*xy.

She is about the same height as Wiliam, more than 1.8 meters tall, with a cut hair princess, and wearing a goose-yellow cardigan shirt. She is about to reach her belly button. In short, the key points are quite prominent.

Especially her pair of eyebrows are very different from ordinary women.

Ordinary women usually have willow eyebrows or something, but she has sword eyebrows and star eyes, full of heroic spirit.

And even more terrifying is her identity.

Su Hongxiu is actually the lord of the red and thin tall building!

Among the nine sects, the only lord came to the scene!

Su Hongxiu looked at Wiliam's eyes, how should I put it, she was a bit colder than everyone's hotness.

But there was a kind of lofty banter in it, as if Wiliam was her prey.

When Liu Yuntian introduced Su Hongxiu just now, he also whispered in Wiliam's ear, probably because he should be careful of this woman, stay away from her, she is a poison.

Wiliamzhen continued to struggle with this woman, he just glanced at it and didn't look away.

The eighth-ranked sect is called Liangmu Gongzui.

This is a sect of craftsmanship, and the ancestor is a public loser, a unique craftsman who has won the world.

This reminded Wiliam of the little cute girl next to Lin Jiang.

Whether she was a Transformers or an armor warrior for a while at the Centenary Fist of Evil Fist, or her magical performance when she crossed the Anaconda Sky Gap, Wiliam left a very deep impression.

If she joins this good wood public loser, it should be very interesting too.

Liangmu Gonglu sent a middle-aged man with a dull look and a messy beard. At first glance, he was the kind of dead-hearted eye focused on craftsmanship.

Even the eyes he looked at Wiliam didn't make anyone else hot.

The bottom of the nine cases is called Yi Nian Immortal Prison.

This is a sect that Wiliam didn't know his sect after hearing its name.

Both Liu Yuntian and Song Hanyu mentioned this sect before.

Yi Nian Immortal Prison is a pure medical sect.

But it is different from ordinary medicine. The doctors in it are both righteous and evil. A good heart will rejuvenate the world, and a bad heart will poison the souls and the people.

It is a weird sect that uses medicine to save people and kills people with poison.

The meaning of one thought of immortal prison is also very clear, one thought is immortal, and one thought is prison.

The person they sent was a person wrapped in a black robe, with only two eyes exposed, which turned out to be dark green.

Except for the nine sects, the other sects are small and medium-sized sects, such as Canglang's ambitious sect, and Wiliam feels determined to win.

Wiliam didn't bother to remember these sects.

After Liu Yuntian finished the introduction, he also knew Wiliam's character, and said straightforwardly: "I know the purpose of your coming here, and everyone has seen Wiliam's strength. If you want to recruit Wiliam, you must first see your sincerity?"

Everyone's eyes shrank!

The great show of the nine sons winning the beads is now on!
