

Dragon Husband 1570 Part 1

Chapter 1570

Seeing Wiliam appear, everyone was refreshed, but at the same time they held their breath together.

No one wants to be discovered while still having no hands.

Wiliam climbed to the top of the mountain, only tens of meters away from them.

Everyone looked at Wiliam in this way, and their spirits were very tight.

As soon as Wiliam reached the top of the mountain, he began to punch.

After hitting, the monster red lotus flew out of his body, and the red lotus gleamed with a red light in the air.

Even in the eyes of everyone, the moonlight turned blood red.

Tonight is destined to be a killing, as evidenced by the blood moon.

And everyone was very nervous at the moment.

This monster red lotus is Wiliam's unique symbol.

It is also his greatest support.

It is said that this demon red lotus is much more powerful than ordinary magic soldiers.

And it can turn into countless needles, which is very headache.

Be careful of this red lotus later.

Wiliam fisted, and the faster he fought, it was obvious that he had reached the key point.

Hold everyone's breath directly!

The time is coming!

As Wiliam's breath reaches its peak, it will flourish and decline next!

And at this moment of prosperity and decline, Wiliam's qi will definitely be released.

This was the moment when his spirit and breath were at its most relaxed.

This moment is an opportunity for everyone to do it!

Sure enough, the red lotus in the air suddenly burst into a strong light.

The rays of light illuminate the world, so strong that people can hardly open their eyes!

“Do it!” With a violent roar, the murderous intent hidden in the dark spewed out directly.

For a time, the sky of murderous intent went towards Wiliam!

And at this moment, Wiliam is really as everyone said, the spirit and breath are the most relaxing moment.

At the moment when this murderous intent appeared, he even showed a trace of panic and consternation.

Fortunately, the long live demon lotus in mid-air was so red that it turned into a large red lotus several meters long and stood in front of Wiliam.

“Bang!” Countless vigor hit the big red lotus directly!

No matter how great Da Honglian was, she couldn't stand the energy of nineteen people.

In just two seconds, the red lotus shattered and turned into streamers.

And Wiliam, who was behind the red lotus, suffered a backlash. He flew out and fell to the ground, vomiting a mouthful of blood.

Had it not been for the Long Live Demon Lotus Protector to fight for it, it is estimated that Wiliam would not have only suffered this injury.

When everyone saw this scene, they couldn't help feeling extremely sorry!

What a pity, there is no one that can kill!

This kid's fate is really hard!

Thanks to this red lotus automatic protector!

Otherwise he would have died long ago.

Some people also looked at the red lotus that had turned into a small streamer.

It was not far from Wiliam's side, but its light was much weaker than before.

This is a very good message!

It seemed that this blow could kill Wiliam, but it compromised the spirit of this magical soldier.

Next, he wants to use the magic weapon again, it will be very difficult.

Sure enough, Wiliam summoned Long Live Demon Lotus the first time he fell to the ground.

Although Long Live Demon Lotus returned to his hands, her flying posture was extremely slow, and she obviously couldn't use her full strength in the next time.

"Come on!" the leader elder brother yelled.

He didn't plan to give Wiliam time to recover.

After hearing this, everyone attacked Wiliam one after another.

Wiliam's eyes flashed with determination, and all his vigor rose up, obviously intending to flee desperately!

All of a sudden, the scene was chaotic to the extreme.

After fighting against Wiliam, everyone discovered a shocking fact!

I only thought that the demon red lotus was Wiliam's greatest support!

But I didn't expect that Wiliam's own strength was so strong!

Isn't it just a half-step innate pinnacle warrior?

The strength he showed now has already surpassed the half-step innate and entered the innate secret realm!

The message is wrong!

This kid has been hiding his strength!

What a terrible character!

If this kid had reached the nine qualifying matches, with his current strength and age, he would be against the sky!

Everyone has different thoughts, but they have a common idea. This kid definitely can't stay!

And with the fight, everyone began to feel depressed again!

What the hell!

Everyone at the scene was extremely united, but on this point, they were united.

Because they don't want to reveal their true identity, everyone is not doing their best, especially the unique skills.

So that a strange situation appeared on the scene.

Wiliam is doing his best.

Everyone at the scene is paddling on horseback!

Under the circumstances, the nineteen congenital secret realm warriors on the scene could not kill Wiliam for a while!

And the longer the time, the greater the scene!

Everyone can clearly see that some of the houses under the hill are starting to light up.

Obviously, I heard the popping sound from the hill side.

Can't drag on like this!

The anger in the heart of the leader!

He was naturally the person sent by the Hero of Canglang.

He did his best, but what about other sects!

It's just here to add blockage!

Just forget it without doing your best!

It's too obvious for individual comrades to paddle!

Wandering directly around the battlefield, it seems that there is no room to intervene.

What's more, it was obvious that someone found an angle to kill Wiliam, but he was hit by mistake, and he missed this little space and opportunity.

Worry!

"Everyone use all their strength!" the leader screamed loudly.

However, there is no use at all.

The three elders who fragrant flowers and blood are the three most free.

They sneered at the call of the leader.

There are so many people, three more people are not many, and three people less are not many.

Exposing one's identity and making people laugh is the big fool.

Fragrant flowers make a lot of face, okay!

As a result, the situation has been at a stalemate.

Until the leading brother shouted again: "Do you all want to die! The people under the mountain will come up soon! If we don't kill him at that time, we will be intercepted and the risk of identity exposure will be even greater! Also, kill him! Who knows who we are! Don't you even think about this!"

The words awakened the dreamer!

People at the scene woke up one after another, it makes sense!

As long as you kill Wiliam, the ghost knows who they are!

But it is also a big trouble between each other!

do not care!

Just as everyone was trying to make a desperate move, someone shouted, "Come on! This kid can't hold it anymore!"

Everyone heard the words and saw it, as expected!

Wiliam's body was crumbling, and his aura was chaotic to the extreme!

At this time, a black shadow suddenly shot out from behind Wiliam.

It was a tiny gap, and Wiliam just retreated into that space!

The black shadow held a sword, and directly inserted a sword into Wiliam's body!

Wiliam's eyes widened, as if he couldn't believe this sudden killer move!

This blow went straight to Wiliam's heart!

His eyes gradually dimmed, and his body fell to the ground with a plop.

His Long Live Demon Lotus also lost control and landed not far from his side.

Wiliam, dead.
