

Dragon Husband 1576 part 1

Chapter 1576 The Game Has Just Started

Liu Yuntian was still so arrogant when he saw Ren Tiange, pretending to be taken aback, and said, "William wants to see you? No, he doesn't say he wants to see you. Sect Master Wenren, are you unclear about it? Is he going to see you, or do you want to see him?"

"You!" Wenren Tiange was so stupefied that his beard was about to fly!

hateful!

Give yourself a chance as soon as you come over!

William, William, you are really eye-opening!

"Don't talk nonsense! Take me to see him!" Wen Ren Tiange said at last.

"Okay, I'll take you there." Liu Yuntian didn't bother to talk nonsense with him, leading the way directly.

Entering a living room, Wenren Tiange looked up and was shocked.

William was sitting in the most central position of the host in the meeting room.

Opposite him, there were two groups of people.

One wave is Wu Qixiong and the two elders of Canglang Heroes, and the other wave is naturally the two elders with strange swords covering the sky.

The two elders who covered the sky with Qijian now had the word angry on their faces.

Do they think they are the most innocent!

Ideas are made by the people of Canglang Hero.

William was offended by Xianghua's blood.

Their two sects were caught by William and punished, and they deserved it.

But Qijian Zhetian just participated casually.

Now it fell to this end.

The two elders looked at Wu Qixiong and Wenren Tiange and snorted directly.

Especially looking at Wu Qixiong, he must be torn apart!

Make a good team and mix into ten undercover agents!

How did you do it!

Wu Qixiong looked at Wenren Tiange, and then at the elder who covered the sky with a strange sword, and his heart was very angry.

Obviously, there are five sects involved in addition to the hero of Canglang.

How did it become three sects and ten undercover agents in the end?

Who believes the issue of Yushizhiren and Can Jian Jiu Tian?

But Wu Qixiong couldn't find any evidence.

This anger can only be held in my heart.

Since they have all fallen into the pit, there is no need to entangle this again and offend the Yushizhiren and Canjian Jiutian people again.

"Oh, are people here? Are you the three sects?" Wiliamhao smiled leisurely.

The people of the three sects looked at each other.

Are there only three sects, do you have a bit of pressure in your heart!

"Wiliam, how can you let them go, you just put them down! I'm not empty to play games with you." Wu Qixiong said first, very justified.

"If you want to redeem them, it depends on your sincerity." Wiliam didn't worry at all, but Liu Yuntian's helper said.

At this time, Liu Yuntian's value can be reflected.

Old fox vs. old fox.

Liu Yuntian's bargaining chip was tightly held, and the negotiations were naturally not profitable.

"If you want money or treasure, just say it." Wenren Tiange also said gloomily.

"Okay, then I'll be straight to the point. A person with 20,000 Lingjing, pay the money and let others go." Liu Yuntian had passed through Wiliamgou beforehand, so he made the decision directly for Wiliam.

In Wiliam's eyes, money is not a good thing.

But it doesn't work if you don't have money.

Wiliam is not short of Shenbing's words.

Therefore, one person with 20,000 Lingjing can make the people of the three sects spit out a mouthful of blood, and make them have no temper at all.

"You! Don't go too far!" Wu Qixiong roared angrily.

Twenty thousand crystals per person!

That sect will come out with sixty thousand spirit crystals.

This is the savings of a sect for several years!

But to hollow out the sect, it would not be enough.

Anyway, the people from the three sects heard this count, but they felt like a knife cut, but they couldn't die.

I was so uncomfortable that I was vomiting.

It's not as good as this kid is 100,000 yuan per person, and everyone can't afford it, so you don't need to be tangled, just wrangling directly.

This number is disgusting.

"We have put the words here, now it's dawn, you can figure it out by yourself. I will give you an hour to raise money, an hour later, if you don't see the money, we will make the matter public. At that time, you don't have to pay a penny, we will let the people go and talk about loyalty." Liu Yuntian said painlessly.

Make it public.

This word deeply pierced the hearts of several people present.

unacceptable!

This Wiliam is guilty of death!

However, although the person with the strange sword covering the sky is the most innocent, it is also the most straightforward.

The two elders glanced at each other and looked at Wiliam coldly, "I hope you have your word, we will go back to get the money. However, after this time, our Liangzi is completely closed, you'd better find a better one. Zongmen shelter, or from now on, the entire common people's territory will be our hunting ground."

They put down the cruel words and left without looking back.

Wiliam couldn't help applauding them.

A bachelor enough to put hatred on the bright side, but he is also an upright villain.

Unlike the two sects in front of them, people want to kill, face money, but don't want to pay, they are downright hypocrites.

Wenren Tiange at this moment, I regret heartbroken in my heart!

I knew I would not participate in this land chase!

It's fine now, no one is killed, and sixty thousand spirit crystals are still to be given to this kid.

The most important thing was not found, and the grievances with Wiliam for no reason deepened.

Lost to the dust!

However, the matter has become a foregone conclusion, Wenren Tiange knows that there is no way to remedy it.

At the moment, I can only get rid of this kid's trickery!

"Let's go." Wenren Tiange looked at Wiliam with a vicious look, and left without looking back.

Wu Qixiong made the final decision.

He was also very responsive.

Canglang Hero has developed rapidly in the past two years, like a nouveau riche.

But sixty thousand spirit crystals are not a small number.

Enough to empty out the wealth they have accumulated over the years by keeping a low profile.

It is definitely an unforgettable disaster and shame for the hero of Canglang!

This kid, if you don't get rid of it as soon as possible, it will be a scourge sooner or later!

Wu Qixiong thought, he had already made a certain decision in his heart.

After they were all gone, Liu Yuntian looked at Wiliam, "You said, are they really willing to pay such a large ransom? Will they leave it alone when they go back?"

Wiliam smiled and shook his head, "No, they will be back within an hour."

Seeing what Wiliam said so surely, Liu Yuntian was relieved.

However, another doubt came to mind.

Liu Yuntian asked, "Wiliam, you played such a big game just to cheat them for some money?"

In Liu Yuntian's view, this is a little unbelievable.

It's not like Wiliam's temperament at all.

Wiliam is not a person who loves money.

Wiliam suddenly smiled at this time, his eyes became somewhat meaningful, he patted Liu Yuntian on the shoulder and said, "It's not like that."

“In your opinion, this game is almost over.”

“But in my opinion, the game is just about to begin...”
