

Dragon Husband 1595

Chapter 1595

Suddenly, Wiliam's whole body froze when he was so held by Wenren Qingqing.

He frowned and said softly, "Now, it's not the time to cry. If you don't want to die."

Wen Renqingqing suddenly raised his head and looked at Wiliam in surprise, not knowing why he said these words.

"Our current situation is very dangerous." Wiliam whispered.

"Why? Is the poison on our body still unsolvable?" Wenren asked in surprise.

Wiliam shook his head, "You have overestimated the conscience of those people."

"Since they choose to make such a despicable method, they will definitely leave a way behind, not just your trick."

"If you fail to poison, or if the poison is successful and I am not dead, what will they do?" Wiliam asked Wenren Qingqing back.

"They want to be foolproof, so they will choose..." Wen Renqing's eyes widened instantly!

The words were still not finished, and suddenly there was a soft drink from outside: "Who is it!"

"Here." Wiliam frowned and said to Wen Ren with affection.

Wiliam guessed right.

Wenrenqingqing is just the first mover of the group.

Their backstop was to take advantage of the poisoning of the landing leaf and not dead or seriously injured.

Although Wiliam arrived in a hurry, he also observed the surrounding environment.

This time the organizer, Dugu Hongshi, arranged a separate small courtyard for each sect of Jiuzong.

And it happens that Xianghualixue is at the most marginal one.

So such an environment is also very suitable for assassination.

Wiliam turned his eyes to Wen Ren, and whispered, "Show the enemy to be weak."

Wen Renqingqing nodded immediately, indicating that he had received it.

After the two people actually got rid of the toxins, they had recovered some strength after a short rest.

But Wiliam only wanted to show the enemy's weakness, so that he could take the initiative in the face of adversity.

The two of them opened the door, and at a glance they saw three men in black standing opposite Wen Ren Qingxin.

Wen Ren was shocked when he saw Wiliam and the others come out, and said, "You run away! They are here to kill you!"

Wiliam and Wen Renqing's face were still very pale at the moment, and they looked sick.

The three men in black looked at each other, their eyes full of triumph.

Sure enough, this kid was dead.

However, this is the last breath.

"Kill!" one of them shouted.

The three of them held long knives and slashed directly at Wiliam.

Wen Ren was so anxious that he immediately stood in front of Wiliam and the others.

However, the martial arts of one of these three is obviously higher than that of the other two.

Wen Renqin squatted at the moment, and his body was shaved, bleeding out.

And the three of them saw that Wiliam hadn't taken any action in such a dangerous environment, and they were immediately even more sure that Wiliam was now toxic into his body, and it was hard to protect himself!

Thinking of this, the three of them attacked Wiliam even more brazenly, and even gave up on their back.

After all, this is on the site of Dugu Hongshi. Although it is remote, it will still attract attention after a long time.

With such a strong offensive, Wiliam's eyes suddenly burst into cold light!

On the body, red light spurted out in an instant!
"Not good!" When the strongest person saw Red Light's face changed drastically, his pupils shrank!

However, it was too late.

Wiliam's demonstration of the enemy's weakness has achieved the desired effect.

The three paralyzed people didn't even have time to react, and they were already enveloped in red light.

In the red light, blood shoots soaring!

The screams are endless!

Long live the demon lotus, like an incarnation of a piranha, completely enveloped the three of them.

The strongest man deserves some abilities.

In such a murderous intent, he just shattered the long knife in his hand and tore a gap!

Then, he grabbed the two subordinates who had lost their minds in both hands, and went straight away.

However, blood still shot out from that person's body continuously, and fell to the ground from mid-air.

Wiliam's killer move completely stunned Wen Ren's heart.

She didn't know that Wiliam could actually do his best to restore the decline!

It forced the three of them to run away!

Wen Renqing hurried to Wiliam and asked them nervously, "Are you doing nothing?"

She was very afraid that Wiliam would be injured more severely because of force.

Wiliam made a move in midair at this moment.

Countless red awns slowly gathered into a long live demon lotus, slowly spinning.

However, if you look closely, the petal of this long live demon lotus seems to be missing.

William took the Long Live Demon Lotus back into his body, shook his head, and said, "There is nothing wrong with that person in it. If we didn't show the enemy's weakness from the beginning, otherwise they wouldn't take my way lightly."

Wenren's heart only loosened.

What William said was wrong, one of them was too good just now.

When Wenren fell in love with him, he felt like facing the mountains, and felt that he would be overwhelmed in the next second.

Such a powerful person is not just casual.

"Who are they?" Wen Ren asked intently.

When she said this, she looked at Wenren with affection.

Wen Ren groaned for a moment, and said, "I think I am a master of Qijian Zhetian! Although my father is weak in this joint operation, after all, the two daughters are here. Tiger poison does not eat children. He shouldn't know this situation. Happened. And the heroes of Canglang will not have such a master. So it can only be a strange sword to cover the sky."

William also nodded in response to this inference, "Well, I guess it's not far from ten."

With William's affirmation, Wen Ren Qingqing actually felt flattered. He hadn't had an IQ online in front of this guy for a long time.

"Then why do you do the next step?" Wen Renqing asked again.

"What else can I do if I take one step at a time? This time they are careless, but I guess they won't find a better opportunity next." William said.

Wen Renqingqing also hurriedly agreed, "Well, I think so too. This time the great master with a sword that covers the sky has been seriously injured, and he will definitely give them a blow! They probably won't act rashly in a short time."

"Furthermore, I will ask people to spread some rumors in secret that we were assassinated here. In this case, the people of Dugu Hongshi will definitely take it seriously and send more people to patrol around, so that they will have more chances." Wenren added with emotion. road.

William nodded and looked at Wenren Qingqing, "It's worthy of being a person who died once, and his mind has become better and better."

Wen Renqing rolled his eyes and gave it to William, but his heart was complicated.

This kid, gag a few words, lightly downplay the hatred the two had poisoned before and just expose it...

Since William gave this step, Wen Renqingqing would naturally not mention this matter again.

However, she made the most important decision of her life from her heart.

I owe William a life!

From now on, this fate will belong to William!

William asked for something, and he was able to hear people's love!

"Hurry up and rest and restore some strength." William turned and walked outside.

But when he walked to the gate of the yard, he turned his head again, "Tomorrow there should be a big and fun message coming out..."
